15 And the LORD took me [1]as I followed the flock, and the LORD said unto me, Go, prophesy unto my people Israel.

16 [c]Now therefore hear thou the word of the LORD: Thou sayest, Prophesy not against Israel, and [d]drop not thy word against the house of Isaac.

17 [e]Therefore thus saith the LORD; [f]Thy wife shall be an harlot in the city, and thy sons and thy daughters shall fall by the sword, and thy land shall be divided by line; and thou shalt die in a polluted land: and Israel shall surely go into captivity forth of his land.

CHAPTER 8.

1 Israel's end. 11 A famine of the word.

THUS hath the Lord GOD shewed unto me: and behold a basket of summer fruit.

2 And he said, Amos, what seest thou? And I said, A basket of summer fruit. Then said the LORD unto me, [a]The end is come upon my people of Israel; [b]I will not again pass by them any more.

3 And [c]the songs of the temple [4]shall be howlings in that day, saith the Lord GOD: there shall be many dead bodies in every place; [d]they shall cast them forth [5]with silence.

4 ¶ Hear this, O ye that [e]swallow up the needy, even to make the poor of the land to fail,

5 Saying, When will the [6]new moon be gone, that we may sell corn? and [f]the sabbath, that we may [7]set forth wheat, [g]making the ephah small, and the shekel great, and [8]falsifying the balances by deceit?

6 That we may buy the poor for [h]silver, and the needy for a pair of shoes; yea, and sell the refuse of the wheat?

7 The LORD hath sworn by [i]the excellency of Jacob, Surely [j]I will never forget any of their works.

8 [k]Shall not the land tremble for this, and every one mourn that dwelleth therein? and it shall rise up wholly as a flood; and it shall be cast out and drowned, [l]as by the flood of Egypt.

9 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord GOD, [m]that I will cause the sun to go down at noon, and I will darken the earth in the clear day:

10 And I will turn your feasts into mourning, and all your songs into lamentation; [n]and I will bring up sackcloth upon all loins, and baldness upon every head; [o]and I will make it as the mourning of an only son, and the end thereof as a bitter day.

11 ¶ Behold, the days come, saith the Lord GOD, that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but [b]of hearing the words of the LORD.

12 And they shall wander from sea to sea, and from the north even to the east, they shall run to and fro to seek the word of the LORD, and shall not find it.

13 In that day shall the fair virgins and young men faint for thirst.

14 They that [g]swear by [h]the sin of Samaria, and say, Thy god, O Dan, liveth; and, The [2]manner [k]of Beersheba liveth; even they shall fall, and never rise up again.

CHAPTER 9.

1 The certainty of the desolation 11 The restoring of the tabernacle of David

I SAW the Lord standing upon the altar: and he said, Smite the [4]lintel of the door, that the posts may shake: and [m]cut[6] them in the head, all of them; and I will slay the last of them with the sword: [n]he that fleeth of them shall not flee away, and he that escapeth of them shall not be delivered.

2 [o]Though they dig into hell, thence shall mine hand take them; [p]though they climb up to heaven, thence will I bring them down:

3 And though they hide themselves in the top of Carmel, I will search and take them out thence; and though they be hid from my sight in the bottom of the sea, thence will I command the serpent, and he shall bite them:

4 And though they go into captivity before their enemies, [q]thence will I command the sword, and it shall slay them: and [r]I will set mine eyes upon them for evil, and not for good.

5 And the Lord GOD of hosts is he that toucheth the land, and it shall [s]melt, [t]and all that dwell therein shall mourn: and it shall rise up wholly like a flood; and shall be drowned, as by the flood of Egypt.

6 It is he that buildeth his [7]stories[23] in the heaven, and hath founded his

JONAH.

CHAPTER 1

Jonah fleeing to Tarshish is cast into the sea.

NOW the word of the LORD came unto [1]Jonah the son of Amittai, saying,

2 Arise, go to Nineveh, that [c]great city, and cry against it; for [d]their wickedness is come up before me.

3 But Jonah rose up to flee unto Tarshish from the presence of the LORD, and went down to [e]Joppa; and he found a ship going to Tarshish:

so he paid the fare thereof, and went down into it, to go with them unto Tarshish [a]from the presence of the LORD.

4 ¶ But [b]the LORD [2]sent out a great wind into the sea, and there was a mighty tempest in the sea, so that the ship was [2]like to be broken.

5 Then the mariners were afraid, and cried every man unto his god, and cast forth the wares that were in the ship into the sea, to lighten it of them. But Jonah was gone down [b] into the sides of the ship; and he lay, and was fast asleep.

6 So the shipmaster came to him, and said unto him, What meanest thou, O sleeper? arise, [c] call upon thy God, [d] if so be that God will think upon us, that we perish not.

7 And they said every one to his fellow, Come, and let us [e] cast lots, that we may know for whose cause this evil is upon us. So they cast lots, and the lot fell upon Jonah.

8 Then said they unto him, [f] Tell us, we pray thee for whose cause this evil is upon us; What is thine occupation? and whence comest thou? what is thy country? and of what people art thou?

9 And he said unto them, I am an Hebrew; and I fear [g] the LORD, the God of heaven, [h] which hath made the sea and the dry land.

10 Then were the men [i] exceedingly afraid, and said unto him, Why hast thou done this? For the men knew that he fled from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them.

11 ¶ Then said they unto him, What shall we do unto thee, that the sea [k] may be calm unto us? for the sea [7 8] wrought, and was tempestuous.

12 And he said unto them, [l] Take me up, and cast me forth into the sea; so shall the sea be calm unto you: for I know that for my sake this great tempest is upon you.

13 Nevertheless the men [9] rowed hard to bring it to the land; [m] but they could not: for the sea wrought, and was tempestuous against them.

14 Wherefore they cried unto the LORD, and said, We beseech thee, O LORD, we beseech thee, let us not perish for this man's life, and [n] lay not upon us innocent blood: for thou, O LORD, [o] hast done as it pleased thee.

15 So they took up Jonah, and cast him forth into the sea: [p] and the sea [2] ceased from her raging.

16 Then the men [q] feared the LORD exceedingly, and [3] offered a sacrifice unto the LORD, and made vows.

17 ¶ Now the LORD had prepared a great fish to swallow up Jonah. And [r] Jonah was in the [4] belly of the fish three days and three nights.

CHAPTER 2.

1 Prayer of Jonah. 10 He is delivered from the fish

THEN Jonah prayed unto the LORD his God out of the fish's belly,

2 And said, I [s] cried [7] by reason of mine affliction unto the LORD, [t] and he heard me; out of the belly of [8] hell cried I, and thou heardest my voice.

5 The [h] waters compassed me about, even to the soul: the depth closed me round about, the weeds were wrapped about my head.

6 I went down to the [2] bottoms of the mountains; the earth with her bars was about me for ever: yet hast thou brought up my life [f] from [3] corruption, O LORD my God.

CHAPTER 3.

1 Jonah, sent again, preacheth to the Ninevites. 5 Upon their repentance, 10 God repenteth

AND the word of the LORD came unto Jonah the second time, saying,

2 Arise, go unto Nineveh, that great city, and preach unto it the preaching that I bid thee.

3 So Jonah arose, and went unto Nineveh, according to the word of the LORD. Now Nineveh was an [1] exceeding great city of three days' journey.

4 And Jonah began to enter into the city a day's journey, and [u] he cried, and said, Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown.

5 ¶ So the people of Nineveh [y] believed God, and proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them.

6 For word came unto the king of Nineveh, and he arose from his throne, and he laid his robe from him, and covered him with sackcloth, [b] and sat in ashes.

7 [d] And he caused it to be proclaimed and [5] published through Nineveh by the decree of the king and his [b] nobles, saying, Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock, taste any thing: let them not feed, nor drink water:

8 But let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and cry mightily unto God: yea, [g] let them turn every one from his evil way, and from [a] the violence that is in their hands.

9 [b] Who can tell [y] God will turn and repent, and turn away from his fierce anger, that we perish not?

10 ¶ [c] And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not.

CHAPTER 4.

1 Jonah, repining at God's mercy, is reproved by the type of a gourd

BUT it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he was very angry.

2 And he prayed unto the LORD, and said, I pray thee, O LORD, was not this my saying, when I was yet in my country? Therefore I [c] fled before unto Tarshish: for I knew that thou art a [f] gracious God, and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repentest thee of the evil.

3 [g] Therefore now, O LORD, take, I beseech thee, my life from me; for [h] it is better for me to die than to live.

4 ¶ Then said the LORD, [g] Doest thou well to be angry?

5 So Jonah went out of the city, and sat on the east side of the city, and there made him a booth, and sat under it in the shadow, till he might see what would become of the city.

6 And the LORD God prepared a [i] gourd, and made it to come up over Jonah, that it might be a shadow over his head, to deliver him from his grief. So Jonah [j] was exceeding glad of the gourd.

7 But God prepared a worm when the morning rose the next day, and it smote the gourd that it withered.

8 And it came to pass, when the sun did arise, that God prepared a [k] vehement east wind; and the sun beat upon the head of Jonah, that he fainted, and wished in himself to die, and said, [d] It is better for me to die than to live.

9 And God said to Jonah, [g] Doest thou well to be angry for the gourd? And he said, [g] I do well to be angry, even unto death.

10 Then said the LORD, Thou hast [l] had pity on the gourd, for the which thou hast not laboured, neither madest it grow; which [m] came up in a night, and perished in a night.

11 And should not I spare Nineveh, [n] that great city, wherein are more than sixscore thousand persons [o] that cannot discern between their right hand and their left hand; and also much [p] cattle?

MICAH.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Micah sheweth the wrath of God against Jacob for idolatry. 10 He exhorteth to mourning.

THE word of the LORD that came to [b] Micah the Morasthite in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, which he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.

2 [1] Hear, all ye people; hearken, O earth, and all that therein is: and let the Lord GOD be witness against you, the Lord from [c] his holy temple.

3 For, behold, the LORD cometh forth out of his place, and will come down, and tread upon the high places of the earth.

4 And [f] the mountains shall be molten under him, and the valleys shall be cleft, as wax before the fire, and as the waters that are poured down [4] a steep place.

5 For the transgression of Jacob is all this, and for the sins of the house of Israel. What is the transgression of Jacob? is it not Samaria? and what are the high places of Judah? are they not Jerusalem?

6 Therefore I will make Samaria [f] as an heap of the field, and as plantings of a vineyard: and I will pour down the stones thereof into the valley, and I will [a] discover the foundations thereof.

7 And all the graven images thereof shall be beaten to pieces, and all the [c] hires thereof shall be burned with the fire, and all the idols thereof will I lay desolate: for she gathered it of the hire of an harlot, and they shall return to the hire of an harlot.

8 Therefore I will wail and howl, I will go stripped and naked: [e] I will make a wailing like the dragons, and mourning as the [2] owls.

9 For [3] her wound is incurable; for [g] it is come unto Judah; he is come unto the gate of my people, even to Jerusalem.

10 ¶ [h] Declare ye it not at Gath, weep ye not at all: in the house of [5] Aphrah roll thyself in the dust.

11 Pass ye away, [6] thou [7] inhabitant of Saphir, having thy shame naked: the inhabitant of [8] Zaanan came not forth in the mourning of [9] Beth-ezel; he shall receive of you his standing.

CHAPTER 2.

1 Against oppression. 12 A promise of restoration.

WOE to them [q]that devise iniquity, and work evil upon their beds! when the morning is light, they practise it, because it is in the power of their hand

2 And they covet fields, and take them by violence; and houses, and take them away: so they [b]oppress a man and his house, even a man and his heritage.

3 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, against this family do I devise an evil, from which ye shall not remove your necks; neither shall ye go haughtily: for this time is evil

4 ¶ In that day shall one take up a parable against you, and [z]lament [7]with a doleful lamentation, and say, We be utterly spoiled: he hath changed the portion of my people: how hath he removed it from me! [8]turning away he hath divided our fields

5 Therefore thou shalt have none that shall cast a cord by lot in the congregation of the LORD

6 [9][t]Prophesy ye not, say they to them that prophesy, they shall not prophesy to them, that they shall not take shame.

7 ¶ O thou that art named the house of Jacob, is the spirit of the LORD [4]straitened? are these his doings? do not my words do good to him that walketh [5]uprightly?

8 Even [7]of late my people is risen up as an enemy: ye pull off the robe [8]with the garment from them that pass by securely as men averse from war.

9 The [9]women of my people have ye cast out from their pleasant houses; from their children have ye taken away my glory for ever.

10 Arise ye, and depart; for this is not your [u]rest: because it is [h]polluted, it shall destroy you, even with a sore destruction.

11 If a man [2]walking in the spirit and falsehood do lie, saying, I will prophesy unto thee of wine and of strong drink; he shall even be the prophet of this people.

12 ¶ [i]I will surely assemble, O Jacob, all of thee; I will surely gather the remnant of Israel; I will put them together [x]as the sheep of Bozrah, as the flock in the midst of their fold: [y]they shall make great noise by reason of the multitude of men.

13 The breaker is come up before them: they have broken up, and have passed through the gate, and are gone out by it: and [c]their king shall pass before them, [p]and the LORD on the head of them.

CHAPTER 3.

1 Cruelty of the princes 5 Of the false prophets

AND I said, Hear, I pray you, O heads of Jacob, and ye princes of the house of Israel; [r]Is it not for you to know judgment?

2 Who hate the good, and love the evil; who pluck off their skin from off them, and their flesh from off their bones;

3 Who also [s]eat the flesh of my people, and flay their skin from off them; and they break their bones, and chop them in pieces, as for the pot, and [c]as flesh within the caldron.

4 Then [u]shall they cry unto the LORD, but he will not hear them: he will even hide his face from them at that time, as they have behaved themselves ill in their doings.

5 ¶ Thus saith the LORD [v]concerning the prophets that make my people err, that [t]bite with their teeth, and cry, Peace; and [a]he that putteth not into their mouths, they even prepare war against him.

6 [b][9]Therefore night shall be unto you, [2]that ye shall not have a vision; and it shall be dark unto you, [3]that ye shall not divine; [c]and the sun shall go down over the prophets, and the day shall be dark over them.

7 Then shall the seers be ashamed, and the divincrs confounded: yea, they shall all cover their [8]lips; [d]for there is no answer of God.

8 ¶ But truly I am full of power by the spirit of the LORD, and of judgment, and of might, [e]to declare unto Jacob his transgression, and to Israel his sin.

9 Hear this, I pray you, ye heads of the house of Jacob, and princes of the house of Israel, that abhor judgment, and pervert all equity.

The glory peace and victory of the church.

BUT [l]in the last days it shall come to pass, that the mountain of the house of the LORD shall be established in the top of the mountains, and it shall be exalted above the hills, and people shall flow unto it

2 And many nations shall come, and say, Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, and to the house of the God of Jacob, and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths for the law shall go forth of Zion and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem

3 ¶ And he shall judge among many people and rebuke strong nations afar off and they shall beat their swords into [x]plowshares and their spears into [3]pruninghooks nation shall not lift up a sword against nation [y]neither shall they learn war any more

4 [z]But they shall sit every man under his vine and under his fig tree, and none shall make them afraid for the mouth of the LORD of hosts hath spoken it

5 For [a]all people will walk every one in the name of his god and [b]we will walk in the name of the LORD our God for ever and ever

6 In that day, saith the LORD, [c]will I assemble her that halteth, [d]and I will gather her that is driven out, and her that I have afflicted,

7 And I will make her that halted [e]a remnant and her that was cast far off a strong nation and the LORD [f]shall reign over them in mount Zion from henceforth even for ever

8 ¶ And thou O tower of [7]the flock, the strong hold of the daughter of Zion, unto thee shall it come even the first dominion, the kingdom shall come to the daughter of Jerusalem

9 Now why dost thou cry out aloud? [g]is there no king in thee? is thy counsellor perished? for [h]pangs have taken thee as a woman in travail

10 Be in pain, and labour to bring forth, O daughter of Zion, like a woman in travail for now shalt thou go forth out of the city, and thou shalt dwell in the field, and thou shalt go even to Babylon, there shalt thou be delivered, there the LORD shall redeem thee from the hand of thine enemies

11 ¶ [i]Now also many nations are gathered against thee, that say Let her be defiled, and let our eye [k]look upon Zion

12 But they know not [l]the thoughts of the LORD neither understand they his counsel for he shall gather them [m]as the sheaves into the floor

13 [n]Arise and thresh O daughter of Zion for I will make thine horn iron, and I will make thy hoofs brass and thou shalt [o]beat in pieces many people [p]and I will consecrate their gain unto the LORD, and their substance unto [q]the Lord of the whole earth.

CHAPTER 5

3 Therefore will he give them up until the time that [d]she which travaileth hath brought forth then [e]the remnant of his brethren shall return unto the children of Israel

4 ¶ And he shall stand and [h]feed[5] in the strength of the LORD, in the majesty of the name of the LORD his God, and they shall abide for now [i]shall he be great unto the ends of the earth

5 And this man [m]shall be the peace when the Assyrian shall come into our land and when he shall tread in our palaces, then shall we raise against him seven shepherds, and eight [6]principal men

6 And they shall [8]waste the land of Assyria with the sword and the land of [p]Nimrod [9]in the entrances thereof thus shall he [q]deliver us from the Assyrian when he cometh into our land, and when he treadeth within our borders

CHAPTER 6.

1 God's controversy for unkindness, 6 for ignorance, 10 for injustice, 16 and for idolatry

HEAR ye now what the LORD saith; Arise, contend thou [1]before the mountains, and let the hills hear thy voice.

2 [p]Hear ye, O mountains, [q]the LORD's controversy, and ye strong foundations of the earth: for [r]the LORD hath a controversy with his people, and he will plead with Israel.

3 O my people, [t]what have I done unto thee? and wherein have I wearied thee? testify against me.

4 [u]For I brought thee up out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed thee out of the house of servants; and I sent before thee Moses, Aaron, and Miriam.

5 O my people, remember now what [x]Balak king of Moab consulted, and what Balaam the son of Beor answered him from [y]Shittim unto Gilgal; that ye may know [t]the righteousness of the LORD.

6 ¶ Wherewith shall I come before the LORD, and bow myself before the high God? shall I come before him with burnt offerings, with calves [b]of a year old?

7 [z]Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams, or with ten thousands of [a]rivers of oil? [b]shall I give my firstborn for my transgression, the fruit of my [1]body for the sin of my soul?

8 He hath [c]shewed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the LORD require of thee, but [d]to do justly, and to love mercy, and to [2]walk humbly with thy God?

9 The LORD's voice crieth unto the city, and [4]the man of wisdom shall see thy name: hear ye the rod, and who hath appointed it.

10 ¶ [5]Are there yet the treasures of wickedness in the house of the wicked, and the [6]scant measure that is abominable?

11 [7]Shall I count them pure with [d]the wicked balances, and with the bag of deceitful weights?

12 For the rich men thereof are full of violence, and the inhabitants thereof have spoken lies, and [e]their tongue is deceitful in their mouth.

13 Therefore also will I [h]make thee sick in smiting thee, in making thee desolate because of thy sins.

14 [k]Thou shalt eat, but not be satisfied; and thy casting down shall be in the midst of thee; and thou shalt take hold, but shalt not deliver; and that which thou deliverest will I give up to the sword.

15 Thou shalt [m]sow, but thou shalt not reap; thou shalt tread the olives, but thou shalt not anoint thee with oil; and sweet wine, but shalt not drink wine.

16 ¶ For [2]the statutes of [n]Omri are [o]kept, and all the works of the house of Ahab, and ye walk in their counsels; that I should make thee a [3]desolation, and the inhabitants thereof an hissing: therefore ye shall bear the [t]reproach of my people.

CHAPTER 1.

The majesty of God in goodness to his people, and severity against his enemies.

THE burden [a]of Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite.

2 [2]God is [c]jealous, and the LORD revengeth; the LORD revengeth, and [d]is furious; the LORD will take vengeance on his adversaries, and he reserveth wrath for his enemies.

3 The LORD is [e]slow to anger, and [f]great in power, and will not at all acquit the wicked: [g]the LORD hath his way in the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of his feet.

4 [k]He rebuketh the sea, and maketh it dry, and drieth up all the rivers: [l]Bashan languisheth, and Carmel, and the flower of Lebanon languisheth.

5 The mountains quake at him, and the hills melt, and the earth is burned at his presence, yea, the world, and all that dwell therein.

6 Who can stand before his indignation? and [b]who can [1]abide in the fierceness of his anger? his fury is poured out like fire, and the rocks are thrown down by him.

7 [d]The LORD is good, a [3]strong hold in the day of trouble; and he knoweth them that trust in him.

8 But with an overrunning flood he will make an utter end of the place thereof, and darkness shall pursue his enemies.

9 [h]What do ye imagine against the LORD? [i]he will make an utter end: affliction shall not rise up the second time.

10 For while they be folden together [m]as thorns, [m]and while they are drunken as drunkards, [o]they shall be devoured as stubble fully dry.

that imagineth evil against the LORD, [2]a wicked counsellor.

12 Thus saith the LORD; [3]Though they be quiet, and likewise many, yet thus shall they be [4]cut down, when he shall pass through. Though I have afflicted thee, I will afflict thee no more.

13 For now will I break his yoke from off thee, and will burst thy bonds in sunder.

14 And the LORD hath given a commandment concerning thee, that no more of thy name be sown: out of the house of thy gods will I cut off the graven image and the molten image: I will make thy grave; for thou art vile.

15 Behold upon the mountains the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace! O Judah, [5]keep thy solemn feasts, perform thy vows: for [7]the wicked shall no more pass through thee; he is utterly cut off.

CHAPTER 2

The fearful and victorious armies of God against Nineveh

HE [9]that dasheth in pieces is come up before thy face: keep the munition, watch the way, make thy loins strong, fortify thy power mightily.

2 For the LORD hath turned away [1]the excellency of Jacob, as the excellency of Israel: for the emptiers have emptied them out, and marred their vine branches.

3 The shield of his mighty men is made red, the valiant men are [3]in scarlet: the chariots shall be with [4]flaming torches in the day of his preparation, and the fir trees shall be terribly shaken.

4 The chariots shall rage in the streets, they shall justle one against another in the broad ways: [5]they shall seem like torches, they shall run like the lightnings.

5 He shall recount his [6]worthies: they shall stumble in their walk; they shall make haste to the wall thereof, and the [7]defence shall be prepared.

6 The gates of the rivers shall be opened, and the palace shall be [8]dissolved.

7 And [9]Huzzab shall be [1]led away captive, she shall be brought up, and her maids shall lead her as with the voice of doves, tabering upon their breasts.

8 But Nineveh is [4]of old like a pool of water: yet they shall flee away. Stand, stand, shall they cry, but none shall [5]look back.

9 Take ye the spoil of silver, take the spoil of gold: [1]for there is none end of the store and glory out of all the [4]pleasant furniture.

10 She is empty, and void, and waste: and the heart melteth, and the knees smite together, and much pain is in all loins, and the faces of them all gather blackness.

11 Where is the dwelling of the lions, and the feedingplace of the young lions, where the lion, even the old lion, walked, and the lion's whelp, and none made them afraid?

12 The lion did tear in pieces enough for his whelps, and strangled for his lionesses, and filled his holes with prey, and his dens with ravin.

13 Behold, I am against thee, saith the LORD of hosts, and I will burn her chariots in the smoke, and the sword shall devour thy young lions: and I will cut off thy prey from the earth, and the voice of thy messengers shall no more be heard.

CHAPTER 3.

The miserable ruin of Nineveh

WOE to the [8]bloody city! it is all full of lies and robbery; the prey departeth not;

2 The noise of a whip, and the noise of the rattling of the wheels, and of the prancing horses, and of the jumping chariots.

3 The horseman lifteth up both [2]the bright sword and the glittering spear: and there is a multitude of slain, and a great number of carcases; and there is none end of their corpses; they stumble upon their corpses:

4 Because of the multitude of the whoredoms of the wellfavoured harlot, [a]the mistress of witchcrafts, that selleth nations through her whoredoms, and families through her witchcrafts.

5 [b]Behold, I am against thee, saith the LORD of hosts; and [c]I will discover thy skirts upon thy face, and I will shew the nations thy nakedness, and the kingdoms thy shame.

6 And I will cast abominable filth upon thee, and make thee vile, and will set thee as [d]a gazingstock.

7 And it shall come to pass, that all they that look upon thee [e]shall flee from thee, and say, Nineveh is laid waste: [f]who will bemoan her? whence shall I seek comforters for thee?

8 [g]Art thou better than [2]populous [h]No, that was situate among the rivers, that had the waters round about it, whose rampart was the sea, and her wall was from the sea?

9 Ethiopia and Egypt were her strength, and it was infinite; Put and Lubim were [6]thy helpers.

HABAKKUK.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Habakkuk complaining of the iniquity of the land 5 is shewed the fearful vengeance by the Chaldeans 12 He complaineth to God

THE burden which Habakkuk the prophet did see

2 O LORD, how long shall I cry, [a]and thou wilt not hear! even cry out unto thee of violence, and thou wilt not save!

3 Why dost thou shew me iniquity and cause me to behold grievance? for spoiling and violence are before me and there are that raise up strife and contention

4 Therefore the law is slacked, and judgment doth never go forth for the [c]wicked doth compass about the righteous; therefore [3]wrong judgment proceedeth

5 ¶ [e]Behold ye among the heathen, and regard, and wonder marvellously for I will work a work in your days, which ye will not believe, though it be told you

6 For, lo, [7]I raise up the Chaldeans that bitter and hasty nation, which shall march through the [9]breadth of the land, to possess the dwelling-places that are not their's

7 They are terrible and dreadful [8]their judgment and their dignity shall proceed of themselves

8 Their horses also are swifter than the leopards, and are more [4]fierce than the evening wolves and their horsemen shall spread themselves, and their horsemen shall come from far, they shall fly as the eagle that hasteth to eat

9 They shall come all for violence: [1]their faces shall sup up as the east wind, and they shall gather the captivity as the sand

10 And they shall scoff at the kings, and the princes shall be a scorn unto them they shall deride every strong hold, for they shall heap dust, and take it

11 Then shall his mind change, and he shall pass over, and offend, [b]imputing this his power unto his god.

12 ¶ [f]Art thou not from everlasting, O LORD my God, mine Holy One? we shall not die O LORD, [d]thou hast ordained them for judgment, and, O [4]mighty God, thou hast [5]established them for correction 13 Thou art of purer eyes than to behold evil, and canst not look on [6]iniquity wherefore lookest thou upon them that deal treacherously, and holdest thy tongue when the wicked devoureth the man that is more righteous than he?

14 And makest men as the fishes of the sea, as the [1]creeping things, that have no ruler over them?

15 They take up all of them with the angle, they catch them in their net, and gather them in their [1]drag: therefore they rejoice and are glad.

16 Therefore [a]they sacrifice unto their net, and burn incense unto their drag; because by them their portion is fat, and their meat [3]plenteous.

17 Shall they therefore empty their net, and not spare continually to slay the nations?

CHAPTER 2.

1 Unto Habakkuk is shewed that he must wait by faith. 5 The judgment upon the Chaldean for unsatiableness 9 for covetousness, 12 for cruelty, 15 for drunkenness, 18 and for idolatry

I WILL [c]stand upon my watch, and set me upon the [3]tower, and will watch to see what he will say [2]unto me, and what I shall answer [12]when I am reproved.

2 And the LORD answered me, and said, [d]Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it.

3 For [e]the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will [f]surely come, it will not tarry.

4 Behold, his soul which is lifted up is not upright in him: but the [g]just shall live by his faith.

5 ¶ [4]Yea also, because he transgresseth by wine, he is a proud man, neither keepeth at home, who enlargeth his desire as hell, and is as death, and cannot be satisfied, but gathereth unto him all nations, and heapeth unto him all people:

6 Shall not all these take up a parable against him, and a taunting proverb against him, and say, [5]Woe to him that increaseth that which is not his! how long? and to him that ladeth himself with thick clay!

7 Shall they not rise up suddenly that shall bite thee, and awake that shall vex thee, and thou shalt be for booties unto them?

8 [h]Because thou hast spoiled many nations, all the remnant of the people shall spoil thee; because of men's [1]blood, and for the violence of the land, of the city, and of all that dwell therein.

9 ¶ Woe to him that [3]coveteth an evil covetousness to his house, that he may [4]set his nest on high, that he may be delivered from the [5]power of evil!

10 Thou hast consulted shame to thy house by cutting off many people, and hast sinned against thy soul.

11 For the stone shall cry out of the wall, and the [7]beam out of the timber shall [8]answer it.

12 ¶ Woe to him that buildeth a town with [2]blood, and stablisheth a city by iniquity!

13 Behold, is it not of the LORD of hosts that the people shall labour in the very fire, and the people shall weary themselves [5]for very vanity?

14 For the earth shall be filled [6]with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.

15 ¶ Woe unto him that giveth his neighbour drink, that puttest thy [b]bottle to him, and makest him drunken also, that thou mayest look on their nakedness!

16 Thou art filled [7]with shame for glory: drink thou also, and let thy foreskin be uncovered: the cup of the LORD's right hand shall be turned unto thee, and shameful spewing shall be on thy glory.

17 For the violence of Lebanon shall cover thee, and the spoil of beasts, which made them afraid, because of men's blood, and for the violence of the land, of the city, and of all that dwell therein.

18 ¶ What profiteth the graven image that the maker thereof hath graven it; the molten image, and a teacher of lies, that [3]the maker of his work trusteth therein, to make dumb idols?

19 Woe unto him that saith to the wood, Awake; to the dumb stone, Arise, it shall teach! Behold, it is laid over with gold and silver, and there is no breath at all in the midst of it.

20 But the LORD is in his holy temple: [9]let all the earth keep silence before him.

CHAPTER 3.

1 Habakkuk in his prayer trembleth at God's majesty. 17 The confidence of his faith

A PRAYER of Habakkuk the prophet [7]upon Shigionoth.

2 O LORD, I have heard [8]thy speech, and was afraid: O LORD, [9]revive thy work in the midst of the years, in the midst of the years make known; in wrath remember mercy.

3 God came from [2]Teman, and the Holy One from mount Paran. Selah. His glory covered the heavens, and the earth was full of his praise.

4 And his brightness was as the light; he had [4]horns coming out of his hand: and there was the hiding of his power.

5 Before him went the pestilence, and [6]burning coals went forth at his feet.

6 He stood, and measured the earth: he beheld, and drove asunder the nations; [k]and the everlasting mountains were scattered, the perpetual hills did bow: his ways are everlasting

CHAPTER 1.

God's judgment against Judah for divers sins

THE word of the LORD which came unto Zephaniah the son of Cushi, the son of Gedaliah, the son of Amariah, the son of Hizkiah, in the days of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah.

2 [a]I will utterly consume all things from off [4]the land, saith the LORD.

3 [a]I will consume man and beast; I will consume the fowls of the heaven, and the fishes of the sea, and the [5]stumblingblocks with the wicked; and I will cut off man from off the land, saith the LORD.

4 I will also stretch out mine hand upon Judah, and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and I will cut off the remnant of Baal from this place, and the name of [b]the Chemarims with the priests;

5 And them [c]that worship the host of heaven upon the housetops; and them that worship and that swear [6]by the LORD, and that swear [k]by Malcham;

6 And [c]them that are turned back from the LORD; and those that [o]have not sought the LORD, nor enquired for him.

7 [a]Hold thy peace at the presence of the Lord GOD: [b]for the day of the LORD is at hand: for [c]the LORD hath prepared a sacrifice, he hath [1]bid his guests.

8 And it shall come to pass in the day of the LORD's sacrifice, that I will [2]punish [d]the princes, and the king's children, and all such as are clothed with strange apparel.

9 In the same day also will I punish all those that leap on the threshold, which fill their masters' houses with violence and deceit.

10 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD, that there shall be the noise of a cry from [f]the fish gate, and an howling from the second, and a great crashing from the hills.

11 [g]Howl, ye inhabitants of Maktesh, for all the merchant people are cut down; all they that bear silver are cut off.

12 And it shall come to pass at that time that I will search Jerusalem with candles, and punish the men that are [m]settled[7] on their lees: [n]that say in their heart, The LORD will not do good, neither will he do evil.

13 Therefore their goods shall become

16 A day of [m] the trumpet and alarm against the fenced cities, and against the high towers.

17 And I will bring distress upon men, that they shall [n] walk like blind men, because they have sinned against the LORD: and [o] their blood shall be poured out as dust, and their flesh [p] as the dung.

18 [q] Neither their silver nor their gold shall be able to deliver them in the day of the LORD'S wrath; but the whole land shall be [r] devoured by the fire of his jealousy: for [s] he shall make even a speedy riddance of all them that dwell in the land.

[i] Heb morning by morning

8 ¶ [a] I have heard the reproach of Moab, and [c] the revilings of the children of Ammon, whereby they have reproached my people, and [c] magnified themselves against their border.

9 Therefore as I live, saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Surely [n] Moab shall be as Sodom, and [n] the children of Ammon as Gomorrah, [k] even the breeding of nettles, and saltpits, and a perpetual desolation: [t] the residue of my people shall spoil them, and the remnant of my people shall possess them.

10 This shall they have [n] for their pride, because they have reproached and magnified themselves against the people of the LORD of hosts

11 The LORD will be terrible unto them: for he will [1] famish all the gods of the earth; [q] and men shall worship him, every one from his place, even all [t] the isles of the heathen.

12 ¶ [u] Ye Ethiopians also, ye shall be slain by [x] my sword.

13 And he will stretch out his hand against the north, and [z] destroy Assyria; and will make Nineveh a desolation, and dry like a wilderness.

14 And [b] flocks shall lie down in the midst of her, all [c] the beasts of the nations: both the [d] cormorant [2] and the bittern shall lodge in the [3] upper lintels of it; their voice shall sing in the windows; desolation shall be in the thresholds: [5] for he shall uncover the [g] cedar work.

15 This is the rejoicing city [i] that dwelt carelessly, [k] that said in her heart, I am, and there is none beside me: how is she become a desolation, a place for beasts to lie down in! every one that passeth by her [n] shall hiss, and [p] wag his hand.

CHAPTER 3.

1 A sharp reproof of Jerusalem for divers sins 8 An exhortation to wait for the restoration of Israel. 14 and to rejoice for their salvation

WOE to [b7] her that is filthy and polluted, to the oppressing city!

2 She [c] obeyed not the voice; she [n] received not [8] correction; she trusted not in the LORD; she drew not near to her God.

3 [y] Her princes within her are roaring lions; her judges are [z] evening wolves; they gnaw not the bones till the morrow.

4 Her [c] prophets are light and treacherous persons: her priests have polluted the sanctuary, they have done [d] violence to the law

5 [e] The just LORD [f] is in the midst thereof: he will not do iniquity: [1] every morning doth he bring his judgment to light, he faileth not; but [a]the unjust knoweth no shame

6 I have cut off the nations: their [1]towers are desolate; I made their streets waste, that none passeth by: their cities are destroyed, so that there is no man, that there is none inhabitant.

7 [f]I said, Surely thou wilt fear me, thou wilt receive instruction, so their dwelling should not be cut off, howsoever I punished them: but they rose early, and [h]corrupted all their doings.

8 ¶ Therefore [k]wait ye upon me, saith the LORD, until the day that I rise up to the prey: for my determination is to [n]gather the nations, that I may assemble the kingdoms, to pour upon them mine indignation, even all my fierce anger: for all the earth [r]shall be devoured with the fire of my jealousy.

9 For then will I turn to the people [s]a pure [t]language, that they may all call upon the name of the LORD, to serve him with one [u]consent.

10 [w]From beyond the rivers of Ethiopia my suppliants, even the daughter of my dispersed, shall bring mine offering.

11 In that day shalt thou not be ashamed for all thy doings, wherein thou hast transgressed against me: for then I will take away out of the midst of thee them that [z]rejoice in thy pride, and thou shalt no more be haughty [9]because of my holy mountain.

12 I will also leave in the midst of thee [a]an afflicted and poor people, and they shall trust in the name of the LORD.

13 [b]The remnant of Israel [c]shall not do iniquity, [d]nor speak lies; neither shall a deceitful tongue be found in their mouth: for [e]they shall feed and lie down, and none shall make them afraid.

14 ¶ [f]Sing, O daughter of Zion; shout, O Israel; be glad and rejoice with all the heart, O daughter of Jerusalem.

15 The LORD hath taken away thy judgments, he hath cast out thine enemy: [g]the king of Israel, even the LORD, [h]is in the midst of thee: thou shalt not see evil any more.

16 In that day [m]it shall be said to Jerusalem, Fear thou not: and to Zion, [o]Let not thine hands be [2]slack.

17 The LORD thy God [p]in the midst of thee is mighty; he will save, [q]he will rejoice over thee with joy, [r]he will rest in his love, he will joy over thee with singing.

18 I will gather them that [t]are sorrowful for the solemn assembly, who are of thee, to whom [v]the reproach of it was a burden.

19 Behold, at that time I will undo all that afflict thee: and I will save her that [x]halteth, and gather her that was driven out; and [7]I will get them praise and fame in every land [8]where they have been put to shame.

20 At that time [y]will I bring you again, even in the time that I gather you: for I will make you a name and a praise among all people of the earth, when I turn back your captivity before your eyes, saith the LORD.

HAGGAI.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Haggai reproveth the people for neglecting the building of the house 7 He inciteth them to the building 12 He promiseth God's assistance

IN [b]the second year of Darius the king, in the sixth month, in the first day of the month, came the word of the LORD by Haggai the prophet unto [d]Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, [3]governor of Judah, and to [e]Joshua the son of [g]Josedech, the high priest, saying,

2 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, This people say, The time is not come, the time that the LORD'S house should be built.

3 Then came the word of the LORD [h]by Haggai the prophet, saying,

4 [k]Is it time for you, O ye, to dwell in your ceiled houses, and this house lie waste?

5 Now therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts; [a]Consider [1]your ways.

6 Ye have [c]sown much, and bring in little; ye eat, but ye have not enough; ye drink, but ye are not filled with drink; ye clothe you, but there is none warm; and [f]he that earneth wages earneth wages to put it into a bag [4]with holes.

7 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Consider your ways.

8 Go up to the mountain, and bring wood, and build the house; and I will take pleasure in it, and I will be glorified, saith the LORD.

9 [k]Ye looked for much, and, lo, it came to little; and when ye brought it home, "I did [1]blow upon it. Why? saith the LORD of hosts Because of mine house that is waste, and ye run every man unto his own house 10 Therefore [a]the heaven over you is stayed from dew, and the earth is stayed from her fruit.

11 And I [b]called for a drought upon the land, and upon the mountains, and upon the corn, and upon the new wine, and upon the oil, and upon that which the ground bringeth forth, and upon men, and upon cattle, and [c]upon all the labour of the hands.

12 ¶ [d]Then Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest, with all the remnant of the people, obeyed the voice of the LORD their God, and the words of Haggai the prophet, as the LORD their God had sent him, and the people did fear before the LORD.

13 Then spake Haggai the LORD'S messenger in the LORD'S message unto the people, saying, "[e]I am with you, saith the LORD.

14 And [f]the LORD stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, [g]governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people; [h]and they came and did work in the house of the LORD of hosts, their God, 15 In the four and twentieth day of the sixth month, in the second year of Darius the king.

CHAPTER 2.

1 Of greater glory to the second temple 20 God's promise to Zerubbabel

IN the seventh month, in the one and twentieth day of the month, came the word of the LORD [2]by the prophet Haggai, saying,

2 Speak now to Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest, and to the residue of the people, saying,

3 [a]Who is left among you that saw this house in her first glory? and how do ye see it now? "is it not in your eyes in comparison of it as nothing?

4 Yet now [b]be strong, O Zerubbabel, saith the LORD; and be strong, O Joshua, son of Josedech, the high priest; and be strong, all ye people of the land, saith the LORD, and work for I am with you, saith the LORD of hosts:

5 [c]According to the word that I covenanted with you when ye came out of Egypt, so [d]my spirit remaineth among you: fear ye not.

9 [e]The glory of this latter house shall be greater than of the former, saith the LORD of hosts: and in this place will I give [f]peace, saith the LORD of hosts

10 ¶ In the four and twentieth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD by Haggai the prophet, saying,

11 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; [g]Ask now the priests concerning the law, saying, 12 If one bear holy flesh in the skirt of his garment, and with his skirt do touch bread, or pottage, or wine, or oil, or any meat, shall it be holy? And the priests answered and said, No.

13 Then said Haggai, If one that is [h]unclean by a dead body touch any of these, shall it be unclean? And the priests answered and said, It shall be unclean.

14 Then answered Haggai, and said, [i]So is this people, and so is this nation before me, saith the LORD; and so is every work of their hands; and that which they offer there is unclean.

15 And now, I pray you, [k]consider from this day and upward, from before a stone was laid upon a stone in the temple of the LORD:

16 Since those days were, [l]when one came to an heap of twenty measures, there were but ten: when one came to the pressfat for to draw out fifty vessels out of the press, there were but twenty.

17 "I smote you with blasting and with mildew and with hail [x]in all the labours of your hands; [y]yet ye turned not to me, saith the LORD

18 Consider now from this day and upward, from the four and twentieth day of the ninth month, even from [z]the day that the foundation of the LORD'S temple was laid, consider it.

19 "Is the seed yet in the barn? yea, as yet the vine, and the fig tree, and the pomegranate, and the olive tree, hath not brought forth: from this day will I bless you

20 ¶ And again the word of the LORD came unto Haggai in the four and twentieth day of the month, saying,

21 Speak to Zerubbabel [g]governor of Judah, saying, [a] I will shake the heavens and the earth;

22 And [b] I will overthrow the throne of kingdoms, and I will destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the heathen; and [c] I will overthrow the chariots, and those that ride in them; and the horses and their riders shall come down, every one by the sword of his brother.

ZECHARIAH.

CHAPTER 1

1 Zechariah exhorteth to repentance. 7 Vision of the horses. 12 Comfort and promises to Jerusalem. 18 Vision of the four horns and the four carpenters.

IN the eighth month, [c] in the second year of Darius came the word of the LORD [d] unto Zechariah the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo the prophet, saying,

2 The LORD hath been [1] sore displeased with your fathers.

3 Therefore say thou unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Turn [f] ye unto me, saith the LORD of hosts, and I will turn unto you, saith the LORD of hosts.

4 Be ye not as your fathers, [h] unto whom the former prophets have cried, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, [g] Turn ye now from your evil ways, and from your evil doings: but they did not hear, nor hearken unto me, saith the LORD.

5 Your fathers, where are they? and the prophets, do they live for ever?

6 But [m] my words and my statutes, which I commanded my servants the prophets, did they not [2] take hold of your fathers? and they returned and said, [n] Like as the LORD of hosts thought to do unto us, according to our ways, and according to our doings, so hath he dealt with us.

7 ¶ Upon the four and twentieth day of the eleventh month, which is the month Sebat, in the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD unto Zechariah, the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo the prophet, saying,

8 I saw by night, and behold [o] a man riding upon a red horse, and he stood among the myrtle trees that were in the bottom, and behind him were there [p] red horses, [q] speckled, and white.

9 Then said I, O my lord, what are these? And the angel that talked with me said unto me, I will shew thee what these be.

10 And the man that stood among the myrtle trees answered and said, [a] These are they whom the LORD hath sent to walk to and fro through the earth.

11 [b] And they answered the angel of the LORD that stood among the myrtle trees, and said, We have walked to and fro through the earth, and, behold, all the earth sitteth still, and is at rest.

12 ¶ Then the angel of the LORD answered and said, [c] O LORD of hosts, how long wilt thou not have mercy on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah, against which thou hast had indignation [g] these threescore and ten years?

13 And the LORD answered the angel that talked with me with [4] good words and comfortable words.

14 So the angel that communed with me said unto me, Cry thou, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; I am [i] jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion with a great jealousy.

15 And I am very sore displeased with the heathen that are at ease: for [n] I was but a little displeased, and they helped forward the affliction.

16 Therefore thus saith the LORD; [o] I am returned to Jerusalem with mercies: my house shall be built in it, saith the LORD of hosts, and [q] a line shall be stretched forth upon Jerusalem.

17 Cry yet, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; My cities through [4] prosperity shall yet be spread abroad; [r] and the LORD shall yet comfort Zion, and [s] shall yet choose Jerusalem.

18 ¶ Then lifted I up mine eyes, and saw, and behold four horns.

19 And I said unto the angel that talked with me, What be these? And he answered me, [u] These are the horns which have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem.

20 And the LORD shewed me four carpenters.

21 Then said I, What come these to do? And he spake, saying, These are the horns which have scattered Judah, so that no man did lift up his head:

I LIFTED up mine eyes again, and looked, and behold [c]a man with a measuring line in his hand.

2 Then said I, Whither goest thou? And he said unto me, [d]To measure Jerusalem, to see what is the breadth thereof, and what is the length thereof.

3 And, behold, the angel that talked with me went forth, and another angel went out to meet him,

4 And said unto him, Run, speak to this young man, saying, [e]Jerusalem shall be inhabited as towns without walls for the multitude of men and cattle therein:

5 For I, saith the LORD, will be unto her [m]a wall of fire round about, [n]and will be the glory in the midst of her.

6 ¶ Ho, ho, come forth, and flee [p]from the land of the north, saith the LORD. for I have [r]spread you abroad as the four winds of the heaven, saith the LORD.

7 [t]Deliver thyself, O Zion, that dwellest with the daughter of Babylon.

8 For thus saith the LORD of hosts; After the glory hath he sent me unto the nations which spoiled you: for he that [a]toucheth you toucheth the apple of his eye.

9 For, behold, I will [c]shake mine hand upon them, and they shall be a spoil to their servants: and [e]ye shall know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me.

10 ¶ [g]Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Zion: for, lo, I come, and I [h]will dwell in the midst of thee, saith the LORD.

11 [i]And many nations shall be joined to the LORD [k]in that day, and shall be [l]my people: and I will dwell in the midst of thee, and [n]thou shalt know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto thee

12 And the LORD shall [p]inherit Judah his portion in the holy land, and [q]shall choose Jerusalem again.

CHAPTER 4

1 By the golden candlestick is foreshewed the good success of Zerubbabel's foundation. 11 By the two olive trees the two anointed ones.

AND [m]the angel that talked with me came again, and waked me, [o]as a man that is wakened out of his sleep,

2 And said unto me, What seest thou? And I said, I have looked, and behold [r]a candlestick all of gold, [4]with a bowl upon the top of it, [r]and his seven lamps thereon, and [5]seven pipes to the seven lamps, which are upon the top thereof.

3 [s]And two olive trees by it, one upon the right side of the bowl, and the other upon the left side thereof.

4 So I answered and spake to the angel that talked with me, saying, What are these, my lord?

5 Then the angel that talked with me answered and said unto me, Knowest thou not what these be? And I said, No, my lord.

6 Then he answered and spake unto me, saying, This is the word of the LORD unto Zerubbabel, saying, [c]Not by [1]might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the LORD of hosts.

7 Who art thou, [d]O great mountain? before Zerubbabel thou shalt become a plain: and he shall bring forth [e]the headstone thereof [f]with shoutings, crying, Grace, grace unto it.

8 Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

9 The hands of Zerubbabel [g]have laid the foundation of this house; his hands [h]shall also finish it; and [i]thou shalt know that the [k]LORD of hosts hath sent me unto you.

10 For who hath despised the day of [l]small things? [3]for they shall rejoice, and shall see the [4]plummet in the hand of Zerubbabel with those seven; [m]they are the eyes of the LORD, which run to and fro through the whole earth.

11 ¶ Then answered I, and said unto him, What are these [n]two olive trees upon the right side of the candlestick and upon the left side thereof?

12 And I answered again, and said unto him, What be these two olive branches which [5]through the two golden pipes [6]empty [7]the golden oil out of themselves?

13 And he answered me and said, Knowest thou not what these be? And I said, No, my lord.

14 Then said he, [q]These are the two [8]anointed ones, [r]that stand by [s]the Lord of the whole earth.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Vision of the flying roll, 5 and of a woman pressed in an ephah.

THEN I turned, and lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and behold a flying [y]roll.

2 And he said unto me, What seest thou? And I answered, I see a flying roll; the length thereof is twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof ten cubits.

3 Then said he unto me, This is the [c]curse that goeth forth over the face of the whole earth: for [2]every one that stealeth shall be cut off as on this side according to it; and every one that sweareth shall be cut off as on that side according to it.

4 I will bring it forth, saith the LORD of hosts, and it shall enter into the house of [t]the thief, and into the house of [a]him that sweareth falsely by my name: and it shall remain in the midst of his house, and [b]shall consume it with the timber thereof and the stones thereof.

5 ¶ Then the angel that talked with me went forth, and said unto me, Lift up now thine eyes, and see what is this that goeth forth.

6 And I said, What is it? And he said, This is an ephah that goeth forth. He said moreover, This is their resemblance through all the earth.

7 And, behold, there was lifted up a [2]talent of lead: and this is a woman that sitteth in the midst of the ephah.

8 And he said, This is wickedness. And he cast it into the midst of the ephah; and he cast the weight of lead upon the mouth thereof.

9 Then lifted I up mine eyes, and looked, and, behold, there came out two women, and the wind was in their wings; for they had wings like the wings of a stork: and they lifted up the ephah between the earth and the heaven.

10 Then said I to the angel that talked with me, Whither do these bear the ephah?

11 And he said unto me, To [c]build it an house in [p]the land of Shinar: and it shall be established, and set there upon her own base.

CHAPTER 6.

1 The vision of the four chariots 9 The temple and kingdom of Christ the Branch.

AND I turned, and lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and, behold, there came four chariots out from between two mountains; and the mountains were mountains of brass.

2 In the first chariot were [u]red horses; and in the second chariot [x]black horses;

3 And in the third chariot [2]white horses; and in the fourth chariot grisled and [9]bay horses.

4 Then I answered [z]and said unto the angel that talked with me, What are these, my lord?

5 And the angel answered and said unto me, [a]These are the four [1]spirits of the heavens, which go forth from [b]standing before the Lord of all the earth.

6 The black horses which are therein go forth into [d]the north country; and the white go forth after them; and the grisled go forth toward the south country.

7 And the bay went forth, and sought to go that they might [e]walk to and fro through the earth: and he said, Get you hence, walk to and fro through the earth. So they walked to and fro through the earth.

8 Then cried he upon me, and spake unto me, saying, Behold, these that go toward the north country have quieted my [a]spirit in the north country.

9 ¶ And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

10 Take of them of the captivity, even of Heldai, of Tobijah, and of Jedaiah, which are come from Babylon, and come thou the same day, and go into the house of Josiah the son of Zephaniah;

11 Then take silver and gold, and make [f]crowns, and set them upon the head of Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest;

12 And speak unto him, saying, Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, Behold [t]the man whose name is The [i]BRANCH; and he shall [5]grow up out of his place, [m]and he shall build the temple of the LORD:

13 Even he shall build the temple of the LORD; and he [p]shall bear the glory, and shall sit and rule upon his throne; and [r]he shall be a priest upon his throne: and the counsel of peace shall be between them both.

14 And the crowns shall be to Helem, and to Tobijah, and to Jedaiah, and to Hen the son of Zephaniah, [u]for a memorial in the temple of the LORD.

15 And [x]they that are far off shall come and build in the temple of the LORD, and ye shall know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto you. And this shall come to pass, if ye will diligently obey the voice of the LORD your God.

CHAPTER 7.

1 Captives enquire of fasting 4 Zechariah reproveth their fasting 8 Sin the cause of captivity

AND it came to pass in the fourth year of king Darius, that the word of the LORD came unto Zechariah in the fourth day of the ninth month, even in Chisleu;

2 When they had sent unto the house of God Sherezer and Regem-melech, and their men, [1]to pray before the LORD,

3 And to [b]speak unto the priests which were in the house of the LORD of hosts, and to the prophets, saying, Should I weep in [c]the fifth month, separating myself, as I have done these so many years?

4 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD of hosts unto me, saying,

5 Speak unto all the people of the land, and to the priests, saying, When ye [h]fasted and mourned in the fifth [a]and seventh month, [b]even those seventy years, did ye at all fast [c]unto me, even to me?

6 And when ye did eat, and when ye did drink, [1]did not ye eat for yourselves, and drink for yourselves?

7 [2]Should ye not hear the words which the LORD hath cried [3]by the former prophets, when Jerusalem was inhabited and in prosperity, and the cities thereof round about her, when men inhabited [e]the south and the plain?

8 ¶ And the word of the LORD came unto Zechariah, saying,

9 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, [g]Execute[4] true judgment, and shew mercy and compassions every man to his brother:

10 And [h]oppress not the widow, nor the fatherless, the stranger, nor the poor; [i]and let none of you imagine evil against his brother in your heart.

11 But they refused to hearken, and [n]pulled[6] away the shoulder, and [o]stopped[7] their ears, that they should not hear.

12 Yea, they made their [q]hearts as an adamant stone, [s]lest they should hear the law, and the words which the LORD of hosts hath sent in his spirit [8]by the former prophets: [t]therefore came a great wrath from the LORD of hosts.

13 Therefore it is come to pass, that as he cried, and they would not hear; so [v]they cried, and I would not hear, saith the LORD of hosts:

14 But [z]I scattered them with a whirlwind among all the nations whom they knew not. Thus the land was desolate after them, that no man passed through nor returned: for they laid the [9]pleasant land desolate.

CHAPTER 8.

1 The restoration of Jerusalem. 9 They are encouraged to build by God's favour 16 Good works enjoined 18 Joy and enlargement are promised.

AGAIN the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; [a]I was jealous for Zion with great jealousy, and I was jealous for her with great fury.

3 Thus saith the LORD; I am returned unto Zion, and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem: and Jerusalem [d]shall be called a city of truth; and [e]the mountain of the LORD of hosts [f]the holy mountain.

4 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; [g]There shall yet old men and old women dwell in the streets of Jerusalem, and every man with his staff in his hand [2]for very age.

7 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Behold, [h]I will save my people from the east country, and from [i]the west country;

8 And I will bring them, and they shall dwell in the midst of Jerusalem: [k]and they shall be my people, and I will be their God, [l]in truth and in righteousness

9 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts; [m]Let your hands be strong, ye that hear in these days these words by the mouth of [o]the prophets, which were in [p]the day that the foundation of the house of the LORD of hosts was laid, that the temple might be built

10 For before these days [7]there was no [r]hire for man, nor any hire for beast, neither was there any peace to him that went out or came in because of the affliction: for I set all men every one against his neighbour.

11 But now I will not be unto the residue of this people as in the former days, saith the LORD of hosts

12 [t]For the seed shall be [8]prosperous, the vine shall give her fruit, and [v]the ground shall give her increase, and [w]the heavens shall give their dew; and I will cause the remnant of this people to possess all these things.

13 And it shall come to pass, that as ye were [x]a curse among the heathen, O house of Judah, and house of Israel; so will I save you, and [y]ye shall be a blessing: fear not, but let your hands be strong.

14 For thus saith the LORD of hosts; [z]As I thought to punish you, when your fathers provoked me to wrath, saith the LORD of hosts, [a]and I repented not:

15 So again have I thought in these days to do well unto Jerusalem and to the house of Judah: fear ye not.

16 ¶ These are the things that ye shall do; [b]Speak ye every man the truth with his neighbour; [c]execute the judgment of truth and peace in your gates:

17 [d]And let none of you imagine evil in your hearts against his neighbour; and love no false oath: for all these are things that I hate, saith the LORD.

18 ¶ And the word of the LORD of hosts came unto me, saying,

20 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; It shall yet come to pass, that there shall come people, and the inhabitants of many cities:

21 And the inhabitants of one city shall go to another, saying, [n]Let us go [45]speedily [6]to pray before the LORD, and to seek the LORD of hosts: I will go also.

22 Yea, [o]many people and strong nations shall come to seek the LORD of hosts in Jerusalem, and to pray before the LORD.

23 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; In those days [q]it shall come to pass, that ten men shall [9]take hold out of all languages of the nations, even shall take hold of the skirt of him that is a Jew, saying, We will go with you: for we have heard [s]that God is with you.

4 Thus saith the LORD my God, Feed the flock of the slaughter;

5 Whose possessors slay them, and [a]hold themselves not guilty: and they that sell them [b]say, Blessed be the LORD; for I am rich: and their own shepherds pity them not.

6 For I will no more pity the inhabitants of the land, saith the LORD: but, lo, I will [1]deliver the men every one into his neighbour's hand, and into the hand of his king: and they shall smite the land, and out of their hand I will not deliver them.

7 And I will feed the flock of slaughter, [4]even you, [f]O poor of the flock. And I took unto me two staves; the one I called Beauty, and the other I called [5]Bands; and I fed the flock.

8 Three shepherds also I cut off [2]in one month; and my soul [6]lothed them, and their soul also abhorred me.

9 Then said I, I will not feed you: [3]that that dieth, let it die; and that that is to be cut off, let it be cut off; and let the rest eat every one the flesh [7]of another.

10 ¶ And I took my staff, even Beauty, and cut it asunder, that I might break my covenant which I had made with all the people.

11 And it was broken in that day: and [g]so [h]the poor of the flock that waited upon me knew that it was the word of the LORD.

12 And I said unto them, [i]If ye think good, give me my price; and if not, forbear. So they [8]weighed for my price thirty pieces of silver.

13 And the LORD said unto me, Cast it unto the [j]potter: a goodly price that I was prised at of them. And I took the thirty pieces of silver, and cast them to the potter in the house of the LORD.

14 Then I cut asunder mine other staff, even [4]Bands, that I might break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

15 ¶ And the LORD said unto me, [9]Take unto thee yet the instruments of a foolish shepherd.

16 For, lo, I will raise up a shepherd in the land, which shall not visit those that be [c]cut off, neither shall seek the young one, nor heal that that is broken, nor [b]feed that that standeth still: but he shall eat the flesh of the fat, and tear their claws in pieces.

17 [z]Woe to the idol shepherd that leaveth the flock! the sword shall be upon his arm, and upon his right eye: his arm shall be clean dried up, and his right eye shall be utterly darkened.

CHAPTER 12.

1 Jerusalem a cup of trembling to herself 3 and a burdensome stone to her adversaries 6 victorious restoring of Judah 9 Repentance of Jerusalem

THE burden of the word of the LORD for Israel, saith the LORD, [c]which stretcheth forth the heavens, and layeth the foundation of the earth, and [d]formeth the spirit of man within him.

2 Behold, I will make Jerusalem [e]a cup of [2]trembling unto all the people round about, [3]when they shall be in the siege both against Judah and against Jerusalem.

3 ¶ [g]And in that day will I make Jerusalem [h]a burdensome stone for all people: all that burden themselves with it shall be cut in pieces, though all the people of the earth be gathered together against it.

4 In that day, saith the LORD, [k]I will smite every horse with astonishment, and his rider with madness: and I will open mine eyes upon the house of Judah, and will smite every horse of the people with blindness.

5 And the governors of Judah shall say in their heart, [8]The inhabitants of Jerusalem shall be my strength in the LORD of hosts their God.

6 ¶ In that day will I make the governors of Judah [m]like an hearth of fire among the wood, and like a torch of fire in a sheaf; and they shall devour all the people round about, on the right hand and on the left: and Jerusalem shall be inhabited again in her own place, even in Jerusalem.

7 The LORD also shall save the tents of Judah first, that the glory of the house of David and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem do not magnify themselves against Judah.

8 In that day shall the LORD defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and he that is [2]3]feeble among them at that day shall be as David; and the house of David shall be as God, as the angel of the LORD before them.

9 ¶ And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will seek to [r]destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.

10 [t]And I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplications: and they shall [t]look upon me whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for him, [u]as one mourneth for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for him, as one that is in bitterness for his firstborn.

11 In that day shall there be a great [b]mourning in Jerusalem, [c]as the mourning of Hadadrimmon in the valley of Megiddon.

12 [d]And the land shall mourn, [1]every family apart; the family of the house of David apart, and their wives apart; the family of the house of [e]Nathan apart, and their wives apart;

13 The family of the house of Levi apart, and their wives apart; the family [2]of Shimei apart, and their wives apart;

14 All the families that remain, every family apart, and their wives apart.

CHAPTER 13.

1 The fountain of purgation for Jerusalem. 2 from idolatry, and false prophecy 7 The death of Christ, and the trial of a third part

IN that day there shall be [h]a fountain opened to the house of David and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem for sin and for [3]uncleanness.

2 ¶ And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD of hosts, that I will [k]cut off the names of the idols out of the land, and they shall no more be remembered: and also I will cause [m]the prophets and the unclean spirit to pass out of the land.

3 And it shall come to pass, that when any shall yet prophesy, then his father and his mother that begat him shall say unto him, Thou shalt not live; for thou speakest lies in the name of the LORD: and his father and his mother that begat him [o]shall thrust him through when he prophesieth.

4 And it shall come to pass in that day, that [r]the prophets shall be ashamed every one of his vision, when he hath prophesied; neither shall they wear [s]a[t] rough garment [1]to deceive:

5 [u]But he shall say, I am no prophet, I am an husbandman; for man taught me to keep cattle from my youth.

6 And one shall say unto him, What are these wounds in thine hands? Then he shall answer, Those with which I was wounded in the house of my friends

7 ¶ Awake, O sword, against [x]my shepherd, and against the man [a]that is my fellow, saith the LORD of hosts: [c]smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered: and I will turn mine hand upon [e]the little ones.

8 And it shall come to pass, that in all the land, saith the LORD, two parts therein shall be cut off and die; [g]but the third shall be left therein.

9 And I will bring the third part [i]through the fire, and will [k]refine them as silver is refined, and will try them as gold is tried: [l]they shall call

1 The destroyers of Jerusalem destroyed. 4 The coming of Christ, and the graces of his kingdom. 12 The plague of Jerusalem's enemies 16 The remnant shall turn to the Lord, 20 and their spoils shall be holy BEHOLD, [f]the day of the LORD cometh, and thy spoil shall be divided in the midst of thee.

2 For [g]I will gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle; and the city shall be taken, and the houses rifled, and the women ravished; and half of the city shall go forth into captivity, and the residue of the people shall not be cut off from the city.

3 Then shall the LORD go forth, and fight against those nations, as when he fought in the day of battle.

4 ¶ And his feet shall stand in that day [i]upon the mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem on the east, and the mount of Olives shall cleave in the midst thereof toward the east and toward the west, [t]and there shall be a very great valley; and half of the mountain shall remove toward the north, and half of it toward the south.

5 And ye shall flee to the valley of [4]the mountains; [5]for the valley of the mountains shall reach unto Azal: yea, ye shall flee, like as ye fled from before the [n]earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah. [p]And the LORD my God shall come, and [q]all the saints with thee.

6 And it shall come to pass in that day, [6]that the light shall not be [7]clear, nor [8]dark:

7 But [2]it shall be one day [t]which shall be known to the LORD, not day, nor night: but it shall come to pass, that at [x]evening time it shall be light.

8 And it shall be in that day, that living [y]waters shall go out from Jerusalem; half of them toward the [3]former sea, and half of them toward the hinder sea: in summer and in winter shall it be.

9 And the LORD shall be [b]king over all the earth: in that day shall there be [d]one LORD, and his name one.

10 All the land shall be [4]turned as a plain from Geba to Rimmon south of Jerusalem: and it shall be lifted up, and [f]inhabited [5]in her place, from Benjamin's gate unto the place of the first gate, unto the corner gate, [h]and from the tower of Hananeel unto the king's winepresses.

11 And men shall dwell in it, and there shall be [m]no more utter destruction; [a]but Jerusalem [1]shall be safely inhabited.

12 ¶ And this shall be the plague wherewith the LORD will smite all the people that have fought against Jerusalem; Their flesh shall consume away while they stand upon their feet, and their eyes shall consume away in their holes, and their tongue shall consume away in their mouth.

13 And it shall come to pass in that day, that [a]a great tumult from the LORD shall be among them; and they shall lay hold every one on the hand of his neighbour, and [d]his hand shall rise up against the hand of his neighbour.

14 And [4]Judah also shall fight [5]at Jerusalem; [h]and the wealth of all the heathen round about shall be gathered together, gold, and silver, and apparel, in great abundance.

15 And [k]so shall be the plague of the horse, of the mule, of the camel, and of the ass, and of all the beasts that shall be in these tents, as this plague.

16 ¶ And it shall come to pass, that every one that is left of all the nations which came against Jerusalem shall 19 This shall be the [3]punishment of Egypt, and the punishment of all nations that come not up to keep the feast of tabernacles.

20 ¶ In that day shall there be upon the [6]bells of the horses, [f]HOLINESS UNTO THE LORD; and the pots in the LORD'S house shall be like the bowls before the altar.

21 Yea, every pot in Jerusalem and in Judah shall be holiness unto the LORD of hosts: and all they that sacrifice shall come and take of them, and seethe therein: and in that day there shall be no more the [i]Canaanite in [m]the house of the LORD of hosts.

MALACHI.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Malachi complaineth of Israel's unkindness 6 Of their irreligiousness 12 and profaneness

THE burden of the word of the LORD to Israel [1]by Malachi.

2 [a]I have loved you, saith the LORD. Yet ye say, Wherein hast thou loved us? Was not Esau Jacob's brother? saith the LORD: yet [b]I loved Jacob,

3 And I hated Esau, and [c]laid his mountains and his heritage waste for the dragons of the wilderness.

4 Whereas Edom saith, We are impoverished, but we will return and build the desolate places; thus saith the LORD of hosts, They shall build, but I will throw down; and they shall call them, The border of wickedness, and, The people against whom the LORD hath indignation for ever.

5 And your eyes shall see, and ye shall say, [m]The LORD will be magnified [67]from the border of Israel.

6 ¶ A son [o]honoureth his father, and a servant his master: [p]if then I be a father, where is mine honour? and if I be a master, where is my fear? saith the LORD of hosts unto you, O priests, that despise my name. [q]And ye say, Wherein have we despised thy name?

7 [1]Ye offer [5]polluted bread upon mine altar; and ye say, Wherein have we polluted thee? In that ye say, [t]The table of the LORD is contemptible.

8 And [s]if ye offer the blind [3]for sacrifice, is it not evil? and if ye offer the lame and sick, is it not evil? offer it now unto thy governor; will he be pleased with thee, or [h]accept thy person? saith the LORD of hosts.

9 And now, I pray you, beseech [4]God that he will be gracious unto us: [5]this hath been [5]by your means: will he regard your persons? saith the LORD of hosts.

10 Who is there even among you that would shut the doors for nought? [k]neither do ye kindle fire on mine altar for nought. I have no pleasure in you, saith the LORD of hosts, [l]neither will I accept an offering at your hand.

11 For [n]from the rising of the sun even unto the going down of the same my name shall be great [g]among the Gentiles; [7]and in every place [s]incense shall be offered unto my name, and a pure offering: [t]for my name shall be great among the heathen, saith the LORD of hosts.

12 ¶ But ye have profaned it, in that ye say, [a]The table of the LORD is polluted; and the fruit thereof, even his meat, is contemptible.

13 Ye said also, Behold, what a weariness is it! [2]and ye have snuffed at it, saith the LORD of hosts; and ye brought that which was torn, and the lame, and the sick; thus ye brought an offering: [c]should I accept this of your hand? saith the LORD.

14 But cursed be [e]the deceiver, [4]which hath in his flock a male, and voweth, and sacrificeth unto the Lord a corrupt thing: for [f]I am a great King, saith the LORD of hosts, and my name is dreadful among the heathen.

CHAPTER 2.

1 He sharply reproveth the priests for neglecting their covenant. 11 and the people for idolatry, 14 for adultery, 17 and for infidelity

AND now, O ye priests, this commandment is for you.

2 [1]If ye will not hear, and if ye will not lay it to heart, to give glory unto my name, saith the LORD of hosts, I will even send a curse upon you, and I will curse your blessings: yea, I have cursed them already, because ye do not lay it to heart.

3 Behold, I will [3]corrupt your seed, and [u]spread dung upon your faces, even the dung of your solemn feasts; and [3]one shall [w]take you away with it.

4 And ye shall know that I have sent this commandment unto you, that my covenant might be with Levi, saith the LORD of hosts.

5 [p]My covenant was with him of life and peace; and I gave them to him [q]for the fear wherewith he feared me, and was afraid before my name.

6 [r]The law of truth was in his mouth, and iniquity was not found in his lips: he walked with me in peace and equity, and did [4]turn many away from iniquity.

7 [t]For the priest's lips should keep knowledge, and they should seek the law at his mouth: [u]for he is the messenger of the LORD of hosts.

8 But ye are departed out of the way; ye [2]have caused many to [4]stumble at the law; [b]ye have corrupted the covenant of Levi, saith the LORD of hosts.

9 Therefore [d]have I also made you contemptible and base before all the people, according as ye have not kept my ways, but [56]have been partial in the law.

10 [h]Have we not all one father? [h]hath not one God created us? why do we deal treacherously every man against his brother, by profaning the covenant of our fathers?

11 ¶ Judah hath dealt treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Israel and in Jerusalem; for Judah hath profaned the holiness of the LORD which he [1]loved, [b]and hath married the daughter of a strange god

12 The LORD will cut off the man that doeth this, [4]the master and the scholar, out of the tabernacles of Jacob, [d]and him that offereth an offering unto the LORD of hosts.

13 And this have ye done again, covering the altar of the LORD with tears, with weeping, and with crying out, insomuch that he regardeth not the offering any more, or receiveth it with good will at your hand.

14 ¶ Yet ye say, Wherefore? Because the LORD hath been witness between thee and [g]the wife of thy youth, against whom thou hast dealt treacherously: [h]yet is she thy companion, and the wife of thy covenant.

15 And [h]did not he make one? Yet had he the [5]residue of the spirit. And wherefore one? That he might seek [i]a godly seed. Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let none deal [7]treacherously against the wife of his youth.

16 For [m]the LORD, the God of Israel, saith [1]that he hateth [2]putting away: for one covereth violence with his garment, saith the LORD of hosts: therefore take heed to your spirit, that ye deal not treacherously

17 ¶ [c]Ye have wearied the LORD with your words. Yet ye say, Wherein have we wearied him? When ye say, Every one that doeth evil is good in the sight of the LORD, and he delighteth in them; or, Where is the God of judgment?

CHAPTER 3

1 Of the messenger, majesty, and grace of Christ. 7 Of the rebellion, sacrilege, 13 and infidelity of the people 16 The promise of blessing to them that fear God

BEHOLD, [x]I will send my messenger, and he shall [y]prepare the way before me: and the Lord, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple, [z]even the messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in: behold, [a]he shall come, saith the LORD of hosts.

2 But who may abide [b]the day of his coming? and [c]who shall stand when he appeareth? for [y]he is like a refiner's fire, and like fullers' sope:

14 [g]Ye have said, It is vain to serve God: and what profit is it that we have kept [8]his ordinance, and that we have walked [i]mournfully before the LORD of hosts?

15 And now [k]we call the proud happy; yea, they that work wickedness [l]are set up; yea, they that [d]tempt God are even delivered.

16 ¶ Then they [e]that feared the LORD [f]spake often one to another: and the LORD hearkened, and heard it, and [g]a book of remembrance was written before him for them that feared the LORD, and that thought upon his name.

17 And [t]they shall be mine, saith the LORD of hosts, in that day when I make up my [k]jewels; [5] and [t]I will spare them, as a man spareth his own son that serveth him.

18 [o]Then shall ye return, and discern between the righteous and the wicked, between him that serveth God and him that serveth him not.

CHAPTER 4.

1 God's judgment on the wicked. 2 and his blessing on the good. 4 He exhorteth to the study of the law, 5 and telleth of Eliyah's coming and office.

FOR, behold, [u]the day cometh, that shall burn as an oven; and all [w]the proud, yea, and all that do wickedly, shall be [x]stubble. and the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the LORD of hosts, that it shall [a]leave them neither root nor branch.

2 ¶ But unto you that [b]fear my name shall the [c]Sun of righteousness arise with healing in his wings; and ye shall go forth, and grow up as calves of the stall.

3 [f]And ye shall tread down the wicked; for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day that I shall do this, saith the LORD of hosts.

4 ¶ Remember ye the [h]law of Moses my servant, which I commanded unto him [i]in Horeb for all Israel, with [k]the statutes and judgments.

5 ¶ Behold, I will send you [m]Eliyah the prophet [n]before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD:

6 And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and [q]smite the earth with [r]a curse.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Genealogy of Christ 18 He was conceived by the Holy Ghost and born of the Virgin Mary

THE book of the [b]generation of Jesus Christ, [c]the son of David, [c]the son of Abraham

2 Abraham begat Isaac; and [g]Isaac begat Jacob, and [h]Jacob begat Judas and his brethren;

3 And [i]Judas begat Phares and Zara of Thamar; and [k]Phares begat Esrom; and Esrom begat Aram;

4 And Aram begat Aminadab, and Aminadab begat Naasson; and Naasson begat Salmon;

5 And Salmon begat Booz of Rachab, and Booz begat Obed of Ruth, and Obed begat Jesse;

6 And [o]Jesse begat David the king; and [p]David the king begat Solomon of her that had been the wife of Urias;

7 And [r]Solomon begat Roboam; and Roboam begat Abia; and Abia begat Asa;

8 And Asa begat Josaphat; and Josaphat begat Joram, and Joram begat Ozias;

9 And Ozias begat Joatham; and Joatham begat Achaz; and Achaz begat Ezekias;

10 And [t]Ezekias begat Manasses; and Manasses begat Amon, and Amon begat Josias;

11 And [u]Josias[4] begat Jechonias and his brethren, about the time they were [x]carried away to Babylon:

12 And after they were brought to Babylon, [y]Jechonias begat Salathiel; and Salathiel begat [a]Zorobabel,

13 And Zorobabel begat Abiud; and Abiud begat Eliakim; and Eliakim begat Azor;

14 And Azor begat Sadoc; and Sadoc begat Achim, and Achim begat Eliud, 15 And Eliud begat Eleazar, and Eleazar begat Matthan; and Matthan begat Jacob;

16 And Jacob begat Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ

17 So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations; and from David until the carrying away into Babylon are fourteen generations; and from the carrying away into Babylon unto Christ are fourteen generations

18 ¶ Now the [k]birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise: When as his mother

Mary was espoused to Joseph, before they came together, she was found with child [c]of the Holy Ghost.

19 Then Joseph her husband, being a just man, and not willing [d]to make her a publick example, was minded to put her away privily.

20 But while he thought on these things, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife. [l]for that which is [l]conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost.

21 [m]And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name [n]JESUS for [m]he shall save his people from their sins

22 Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying,

23 Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and [3]they shall call his name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us

24 Then Joseph being raised from sleep did as the angel of the Lord had bidden him, and took unto him his wife.

25 And knew her not till she had brought forth [t]her firstborn son. and he called his name JESUS.

CHAPTER 2.

1 The wise men are directed to Christ by a star 14 Joseph flieth 16 Herod slayeth the children

NOW when [y]Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judæa in the days of Herod the king, behold, there came wise men [b]from the east to Jerusalem,

2 Saying, [c]Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we have seen [d]his star in the east, and are come to worship him

3 When Herod the king had heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

4 And when he had gathered all [e]the chief priests and [f]scribes of the people together, [g]he demanded of them where Christ should be born.

5 And they said unto him, In Bethlehem of Judæa. for thus it is written by the prophet,

6 [h]And thou Bethlehem, in the land of Juda, art not the least among the princes of Juda: for out of thee shall come a Governor, [i]that shall [5]rule my people Israel

7 Then Herod, when he had privily called the wise men, enquired of them diligently what time the star appeared

8 And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go and search diligently for the young child; and when ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship him also.

9 When they had heard the king, they departed; and, lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was.

10 When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy.

11 ¶ And when they were come into the house, they saw the young child with Mary his mother, and fell down, and worshipped him: and when they had opened their treasures, [f] they [1] presented unto him gifts; gold, and frankincense, and myrrh

12 And being warned of God [h] in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed into their own country another way.

13 And when they were departed, behold, the angel of the Lord appeareth to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there until I bring thee word: for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him

14 When he arose, he took the young child and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt:

15 And was there until the death of Herod: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying, [t] Out of Egypt have I called my son.

16 ¶ Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked of the wise men, was exceeding wroth, and sent forth, and slew all the children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the coasts thereof, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had diligently enquired of the wise men.

17 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by [v] Jeremy the prophet, saying, 18 In Rama was there a voice heard, lamentation, and weeping, and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children, and would not be comforted, because they are not.

19 ¶ But when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appeareth in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, 20 Saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel: for they are dead which sought the young child's life.

21 And he arose, and took the young child and his mother, and came into the land of Israel.

22 But when he heard that Archelaus did reign in Judæa in the room of his father Herod, he was afraid to go thither: notwithstanding, being warned of God in a dream, he turned aside [w] into the parts of Galilee:

23 And he came and dwelt in a city called [x] Nazareth: that it might be fulfilled [c] which was spoken by the prophets, He shall be called a Nazarene.

CHAPTER 3.

1 John preacheth his office, life, and baptism. 13 He baptizeth Christ in Jordan

IN those days came [a] John the Baptist, preaching [c] in the wilderness of Judæa,

2 And saying, Repent ye: for [g] the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

3 For this is he that was spoken of by the prophet Esaias, saying, [i] The voice of one crying in the wilderness, [k] Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

4 And [l] the same John [m] had his raiment of camel's hair, and a leathern girdle about his loins; and his meat was [n] locusts and [o] wild honey.

5 [p] Then went out to him Jerusalem, and all Judæa, and all the region round about Jordan, 6 [r] And were baptized of him in Jordan, confessing their sins.

7 ¶ But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees come to his baptism, he said unto them, [s] O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from [t] the wrath to come?

8 Bring forth therefore fruits [2] meet for repentance:

9 And think not to say within yourselves, [u] We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham.

10 And now also the axe is laid unto the root of the trees: [z] therefore every tree which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

11 [z] I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance: but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: [a] he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost, and with fire:

12 [b] Whose fan is in his hand, and he will throughly purge his floor, and gather his wheat into the garner; but he will [c] burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.

13 ¶ [d] Then cometh Jesus [e] from Galilee to Jordan unto John, to be baptized of him.

14 But John forbad him, saying, I

15 And Jesus answering said unto him, Suffer it to be so now: for thus it becometh us to fulfil all righteousness. Then he suffered him.

16 [b]And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up straightway out of the water: and, lo, the heavens were opened unto him, and he saw [d]the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon him:

17 [e]And lo a voice from heaven, saying, [g]This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

CHAPTER 4.

1 Christ fasteth, and is tempted 17 He beginneth to preach, 18 calleth Peter and Andrew, 21 James and John, 23 and healeth all the diseased.

THEN was [l]Jesus led up of [m]the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted of the devil.

2 And when he had fasted forty days and forty nights, he was afterward an hungred.

3 And when the tempter came to him, he said, If thou be the Son of God, command that these stones be made bread.

4 But he answered and said, It is written, [q]Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.

5 Then the devil taketh him up [r]into the holy city, and setteth him on a pinnacle of the temple,

6 And saith unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down: for it is written, [s]He shall give his angels charge concerning thee: and in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.

7 Jesus said unto him, It is written again, [u]Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

8 Again, the devil taketh him up into an exceeding high mountain, and sheweth him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them;

9 And saith unto him, All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me.

10 Then saith Jesus unto him, Get thee hence, Satan: for it is written, [w]Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.

11 Then the devil leaveth him, and, behold, [z]angels came and ministered unto him.

12 ¶ [a]Now when Jesus had heard that John was [1]cast into prison, he departed into Galilee;

13 And leaving Nazareth, he came and dwelt in Capernaum, which is upon the sea coast, in the borders of Zabulon and Nephthalim.

14 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying,

15 [c]The land of Zabulon, and the land of Nephthalim, by the way of the sea, beyond Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles;

16 [c]The people which sat in darkness saw great light; and to them which sat in the region and shadow of death light is sprung up.

17 ¶ From that time Jesus began to preach, and to say, [h]Repent: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

18 ¶ [i]And Jesus, walking by the sea of Galilee, saw two brethren, Simon [k]called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea: for they were fishers.

19 And he saith unto them, Follow me, and [n]I will make you fishers of men.

20 [o]And they straightway left their nets, and followed him.

21 [p]And going on from thence, he saw other two brethren, James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in a ship with Zebedee their father, mending their nets; and he called them.

22 And they immediately left the ship and their father, and followed him.

23 ¶ And Jesus went about all Galilee, [t]teaching in their synagogues, and preaching [t]the gospel of the kingdom, [x]and healing all manner of sickness and all manner of disease among the people.

24 And his fame went throughout all Syria: and they brought unto him all sick people that were taken with divers diseases and torments, and those which were possessed with devils, and those which were lunatick, and those that had the palsy; and he healed them.

25 [z]And there followed him great multitudes of people from Galilee, and from Decapolis, and from Jerusalem, and from Judæa, and from beyond Jordan.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Christ beginneth his sermon in the mount 3 declaring who are blessed, 13 who are the salt of the earth, 14 the light of the world, the city on an hill. 15 the candle 17 that he came to fulfil the law. 21 What it is to kill, 27 to commit adultery, 33 to swear 38 exhorteth to suffer wrong, 44 to love even our enemies, 48 and to labour after perfectness.

AND seeing the multitudes, [b]he went up into a mountain: and when he was set, his disciples came unto him:

2 And he opened his mouth, and taught them, saying,

3 [c]Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

4 [f]Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.

5 [a]Blessed are the meek: for [b]they shall inherit the earth.
6 Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: [c]for they shall be filled.
7 Blessed are the merciful: [d]for they shall obtain mercy.
8 [e]Blessed are the pure in heart: for [f]they shall see God.
9 Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God.
10 [g]Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
11 [h]Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of [i]evil against you [k]falsely, for my sake.
12 [l]Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for [m]so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.
13 ¶ Ye are the salt of the earth: [n]but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men.
14 [o]Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid.
15 Neither do men [p]light a candle, and put it under [q]a bushel, but on a candlestick, and it giveth light unto all that are in the house.
16 Let your light so shine before men, [r]that they may see your good works, and [s]glorify your Father which is in heaven.
17 ¶ [t]Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil.
18 For verily I say unto you, [u]Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled.
19 [v]Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.
20 For I say unto you, That except your righteousness shall exceed [w]the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven.
21 ¶ Ye have heard that it was said [x]by them of old time, [y]Thou shalt not kill; and whosoever shall kill shall be in danger of the judgment:
22 But I say unto you, That [z]whosoever is angry with his brother without a cause shall be in danger of the judgment: and whosoever shall say to his brother, [a]Raca,[1] shall be in danger of the council: but whosoever shall say, Thou fool, shall be in danger of hell fire.
23 Therefore [b]if thou bring thy gift to the altar, and there rememberest that thy brother hath ought against thee;
24 [c]Leave there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way; first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift.
25 [d]Agree with thine adversary quickly, [e]whiles thou art in the way with him; lest at any time the adversary deliver thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and thou be cast into prison.
26 Verily I say unto thee, Thou shalt by no means come out thence, till thou hast paid the uttermost farthing.
27 ¶ Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, [f]Thou shalt not commit adultery:
28 But I say unto you, That whosoever [g]looketh on a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his heart.
29 [h]And if thy right eye [i]offend thee, [j]pluck it out, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell.
30 And if thy right hand offend thee, cut it off, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell.
31 It hath been said, [k]Whosoever shall put away his wife, let him give her a writing of divorcement:
32 But I say unto you, That [l]whosoever shall put away his wife, saving for the cause of fornication, causeth her to commit adultery: and whosoever shall marry her that is divorced committeth adultery.
33 ¶ Again, ye have heard that [m]it hath been said by them of old time, [n]Thou shalt not forswear thyself, but [o]shalt perform unto the Lord thine oaths:
34 But I say unto you, [p]Swear not at all; neither by heaven; for it is [q]God's throne:
35 Nor by the earth; for it is his footstool: neither by Jerusalem; for it is [r]the city of the great King.
36 Neither shalt thou swear by thy head, because thou canst not make one hair white or black.
37 [s]But let your communication be, Yea, yea, Nay, nay: for whatsoever is more than these cometh of evil.

38 ¶ Ye have heard that it hath been said, [b]An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth:

39 But I say unto you, [c]That ye resist not evil: [d]but whosoever shall smite thee on thy right cheek, turn to him the other also.

40 And if any man will sue thee at the law, and take away thy coat, let him have thy cloke also.

41 And whosoever [e]shall compel thee to go a mile, go with him twain.

42 Give to him that asketh thee, and [h]from him that would borrow of thee turn not thou away.

43 ¶ Ye have heard that it hath been said, [k]Thou shalt love thy neighbour, [l]and hate thine enemy.

44 But I say unto you, [m]Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray [n]for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you;

45 That ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven: for [o]he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust.

46 [p]For if ye love them which love you, what reward have ye? do not even the publicans the same?

47 And if ye salute your brethren only, what do ye more than others? do not even the publicans so?

48 [q]Be ye therefore perfect, even [r]as your Father which is in heaven is perfect.

CHAPTER 6.

1 Christ continueth his sermon in the mount, speaking of alms, 5 prayer, 14 forgiving our brethren, 16 fasting, 19 where our treasure is to be laid up 24 of serving God, and mammon 25 exhorteth not to be careful for worldly things.

TAKE heed that ye do not your [1]alms before men, to be seen of them: otherwise ye have no reward [2]of your Father which is in heaven.

2 Therefore [a]when thou doest thine alms, [3]do not sound a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

3 But when thou doest alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth:

4 That thine alms may be in secret and thy Father which seeth in secret himself [z]shall reward thee openly.

5 ¶ And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are, for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

6 But thou, when thou prayest, [a]enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly.

7 But when ye pray, [c]use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: [f]for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking.

8 Be not ye therefore like unto them: for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him.

9 After this manner therefore pray ye: [i]Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name.

10 Thy kingdom come. [m]Thy will be done in earth, [o]as it is in heaven.

11 Give us this day our [r]daily bread.

12 And [s]forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

13 [t]And lead us not into temptation, but [t]deliver us from evil. [u]For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

14 [y]For if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you:

15 But [a]if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

16 ¶ Moreover [b]when ye fast, be not, as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces, that they may appear unto men to fast. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

17 But thou, when thou fastest, [c]anoint thine head, and wash thy face;

18 That thou appear not unto men to fast, but unto thy Father which is in secret: and thy Father, which seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly.

19 ¶ [f]Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal:

20 [h]But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal:

21 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

22 [i]The light of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light.

23 But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness!

24 ¶ [k]No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. [a]Ye cannot serve God and mammon

25 Therefore I say unto you, [b]Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink, nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment?

26 [c]Behold the fowls of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they?

27 Which of you by taking thought can add one cubit unto his stature?

28 And why take ye thought for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin:

29 And yet I say unto you, That even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

30 Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which to day is, and to morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith?

31 Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed?

32 (For after all these things do the Gentiles seek:) for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things.

33 But [m]seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you 34 Take therefore no thought for the morrow: for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.

CHAPTER 7

JUDGE [n]not, that ye be not judged. 2 For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again.

3 [o]And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye?

4 Or how wilt thou say to thy brother, Let me pull out the mote out of thine eye; and, behold, a beam is in thine own eye?

5 Thou hypocrite, first cast out the beam out of thine own eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye.

6 ¶ [p]Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you.

7 ¶ [q]Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you:

8 For [r]every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.

9 [s]Or what man is there of you, whom if his son ask bread, will he give him a stone?

10 Or if he ask a fish, will he give him a serpent?

11 If ye then, [t]being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father which is in heaven give good things to them that ask him?

12 Therefore all things [u]whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for [x]this is the law and the prophets.

13 ¶ [l]Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat:

14 [l]Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it.

15 ¶ [n]Beware of false prophets, [o]which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are [p]ravening wolves.

16 [q]Ye shall know them by their fruits. [r]Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles?

17 Even so [r]every good tree bringeth forth good fruit, but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit.

18 A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.

19 [r]Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

20 Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them.

21 ¶ Not every one that saith unto me, [x]Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

22 Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we [a]not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works?

23 And [b]then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: [a]depart from me, ye that work iniquity.

24 ¶ Therefore [b]whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock:

25 And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell not: for it was founded upon a rock.

26 And every one that heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man, which built his house upon the sand:

27 And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell: and great was the fall of it.

28 And it came to pass, when Jesus had ended these sayings, [h]the people were astonished at his doctrine:

29 [i]For he taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes.

CHAPTER 8.

Christ cleanseth the leper, 5 healeth the centurion's servant, 14 Peter's mother in law, 16 and many other diseased. 18 Sheweth how he is to be followed. 23 stilleth the tempest on the sea, 28 driveth the devils out of two men possessed, 31 and suffereth them to go into the swine.

WHEN he was come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed him.

2 [m]And, behold, there came a leper and worshipped him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

3 And Jesus put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will; be thou clean. And immediately his leprosy was cleansed.

4 And Jesus saith unto him, [o]See thou tell no man; but go thy way, shew thyself to the priest, and offer the gift that [p]Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them.

5 ¶ [r]And when Jesus was entered into Capernaum, there came unto him a centurion, beseeching him,

6 And saying, Lord, my servant lieth at home sick of the palsy, grievously tormented.

7 And Jesus saith unto him, I will come and heal him.

8 The centurion answered and said, Lord, [u]I am not worthy that thou shouldest come under my roof: but [x]speak the word only, and my servant shall be healed.

9 For I am a man under authority, having soldiers under me: and I say to this man, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it.

10 When Jesus heard it, he marvelled, and said to them that followed, Verily I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel.

11 And I say unto you, That [c]many shall come from the east and west, and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven.

12 But [d]the children of the kingdom [e]shall be cast out into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

13 And Jesus said unto the centurion, Go thy way; and as thou hast believed, so be it done unto thee. And his servant was healed in the selfsame hour.

14 ¶ [f]And when Jesus was come into Peter's house, he saw [g]his wife's mother laid, and sick of a fever.

15 And he touched her hand, and the fever left her: and she arose, and ministered unto them.

16 ¶ [k]When the even was come, they brought unto him many that were possessed with devils: and he cast out the spirits with his word, and healed all that were sick:

17 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying, [t]Himself took our infirmities, and bare our sicknesses.

18 ¶ Now when Jesus saw great multitudes about him, he gave commandment to depart unto the other side.

19 [w]And a certain scribe came, and said unto him, Master, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.

20 And Jesus saith unto him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head.

21 [y]And another of his disciples said unto him, Lord, [z]suffer me first to go and bury my father.

22 But Jesus said unto him, Follow me; and let the dead bury their dead.

23 ¶ And when he was entered into a ship, his disciples followed him.

24 [a]And, behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea, insomuch that the ship was covered with the waves: but he was asleep.

25 And his disciples came to him, and awoke him, saying, Lord, save us: we perish.

26 And he saith unto them, Why are ye fearful, O ye of little faith? Then [b]he arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a great calm.

27 But the men marvelled, saying, What manner of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him!

29 And, behold, they cried out, saying, What have we to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of God? art thou come hither to torment us before the time?

30 And there was a good way off from them an herd of many swine feeding.

31 So the devils besought him, saying, If thou cast us out, suffer us to go away into the herd of swine.

32 And he said unto them, Go. And when they were come out, they went into the herd of swine: and, behold, the whole herd of swine ran violently down a steep place into the sea, and perished in the waters.

33 And they that kept them fled, and went their ways into the city, and told every thing, and what was befallen to the possessed of the devils.

34 And, behold, the whole city came out to meet Jesus: and when they saw him, [b]they besought him that he would depart out of their coasts.

CHAPTER 9

2 Christ cureth one sick of the palsy. 9 calleth Mat thew. 10 eateth with publicans. 11 answereth his disciples for not fasting. 20 cureth the bloody issue. 23 raiseth Jairus daughter. 27 giveth sight to two blind men, &c.

AND he entered into a ship, and passed over, [m]and came into his own city.

2 [n]And, behold, they brought to him a man sick of the palsy, lying on a bed: [o]and Jesus seeing their faith said unto the sick of the palsy; Son, be of good cheer; thy sins be forgiven thee.

3 And, behold, certain of the scribes said within themselves, This man blasphemeth.

4 And Jesus [q]knowing their thoughts said, Wherefore think ye evil in your hearts?

5 For whether is easier, to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Arise, and walk?

6 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (then saith he to the sick of the palsy,) Arise, take up thy bed, and go unto thine house.

7 And he arose, and departed to his house.

8 But when the multitudes saw it, they marvelled, and glorified God which had given such power unto men.

9 ¶ [h]And as Jesus passed forth from thence, he saw a man, named Matthew, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he saith unto him, Follow me. And he arose, and followed him.

10 ¶ [i]And it came to pass, as Jesus sat at meat in the house, behold, many publicans and sinners came and sat down with him and his disciples.

11 And when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto his disciples, Why eateth your Master with [d]publicans and [e]sinners?

12 But when Jesus heard that, he said unto them, They that be whole need not a physician, but they that are sick.

13 But go ye and learn what that meaneth, [f]I will have mercy, and not sacrifice: for I am not come to call the righteous, [g]but sinners to repentance.

14 ¶ Then came to him the disciples of John, saying, [h]Why do we and the Pharisees fast oft, but thy disciples fast not?

15 And Jesus said unto them, Can [i]the children of the bridechamber mourn, as long as the bridegroom is with them? but the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken from them, and [k]then shall they fast.

16 No man putteth a piece of [l]new cloth unto an old garment, for that which is put in to fill it up taketh from the garment, and the rent is made worse.

17 Neither do men put new wine into old bottles: else the bottles break, and the wine runneth out, and the bottles perish: but they put new wine into new bottles, and both are preserved.

18 ¶ [j]While he spake these things unto them, behold, there came a certain ruler, and worshipped him, saying, My daughter is even now dead: but come and lay thy hand upon her, and she shall live.

19 And Jesus arose, and followed him, and so did his disciples.

20 ¶ [r]And, behold, a woman, which was diseased with an issue of blood twelve years, came behind him, and touched the hem of his garment:

21 For she said within herself, If I may but touch his garment, I shall be whole.

22 But Jesus turned him about, and when he saw her, he said, Daughter, be of good comfort; [s]thy faith hath made thee whole. And the woman was made whole from that hour.

23 [t]And when Jesus came into the ruler's house, and saw [a]the minstrels and the people making a noise, 24 He said unto them, [b]Give place: for the maid is not dead, but sleepeth. And they laughed him to scorn.

25 But when the people were put forth, he went in, and took her by the hand, and the maid arose.

26 And [1]the fame hereof went abroad into all that land.

27 ¶ And when Jesus departed thence, two blind men followed him, crying, and saying, [g]Thou son of David, have mercy on us.

28 And when he was come into the house, the blind men came to him: and Jesus saith unto them, Believe ye that I am able to do this? They said unto him, Yea, Lord.

29 Then touched he their eyes, saying, According to your faith be it unto you.

30 And their eyes were opened; and Jesus straitly charged them, saying, [h]See that no man know it.

31 [r]But they, when they were departed, spread abroad his fame in all that country.

32 ¶ [t]As they went out, behold, they brought to him a dumb man possessed with a devil

33 And when the devil was cast out, the dumb spake: and the multitudes marvelled, saying, It was never so seen in Israel

34 But the Pharisees said, [y]He casteth out devils through the prince of the devils.

35 [a]And Jesus went about all the cities and villages, [b]teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every sickness and every disease among the people.

36 ¶ [c]But when he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion on them, because they [4]fainted, and were scattered abroad, [d]as sheep having no shepherd

37 Then saith he unto his disciples, [e]The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few;

38 [f]Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth labourers into his harvest.

CHAPTER 10

1 Christ sendeth out his twelve apostles with power to work miracles 16 comforteth them also and promiseth a blessing to those that receive them

AND [r]when he had called unto him his twelve disciples, he gave them power [6]against unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all manner of sickness and all manner of disease.

2 Now the names of the twelve apostles are these; The first, Simon, [b]who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother; James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother;

3 Philip, and Bartholomew; Thomas, and Matthew the publican; James the son of Alphæus, and Lebbæus, whose surname was Thaddæus, 4 [a]Simon the Canaanite, and Judas [c]Iscariot, who also betrayed him.

5 These twelve Jesus sent forth, and commanded them, saying, [f]Go not into the way of the Gentiles, and into any city of [h]the Samaritans enter ye not:

6 [k]But go rather to the [k]lost sheep of the house of Israel

7 [l]And as ye go, preach, saying, [m]The kingdom of heaven is at hand.

8 Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out devils: [n]freely ye have received, freely give.

9 [o]Provide[2] neither gold, nor silver, nor [p]brass in your purses,

10 Nor scrip for your journey, neither two coats, neither shoes, nor yet [3]staves: [q]for the workman is worthy of his meat

11 [s]And into whatsoever city or town ye shall enter, enquire who in it is worthy; and there abide till ye go thence.

12 And when ye come into an house, salute it.

13 [t]And if the house be worthy, let your peace come upon it: [u]but if it be not worthy, let your peace return to you.

14 [b]And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear your words, when ye depart out of that house or city, [w]shake off the dust of your feet.

15 Verily I say unto you, [x]It shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrha in the day of judgment, than for that city.

16 ¶ [y]Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves: [z]be ye therefore wise as serpents, and [z]harmless[5] as doves

17 But beware of men: for [m]they will deliver you up to the councils, and [o]they will scourge you in their synagogues;

18 And [p]ye shall be brought before governors and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them and the Gentiles.

19 [q]But when they deliver you up, take no thought how or what ye shall speak: for [r]it shall be given you in that same hour what ye shall speak.

20 [s]For it is not ye that speak, but the Spirit of your Father which speaketh in you.

CHAPTER 11

John sendeth his disciples to Christ 7 Christ's testimony concerning John. 18 The opinion of the people. 20 Christ upbraideth the unthankfulness and impenitence of Chorazin, Bethsaida, and Capernaum. 25 and praising his Father's wisdom in revealing the gospel to the simple 28 he calleth to him all such as feel the burden of their sin

AND it came to pass, when Jesus had made an end of commanding his twelve disciples, he departed thence to teach and to preach in their cities

2 [a]Now when John had heard [o]in the prison the works of Christ, he sent two of his disciples,

3 And said unto him, Art thou [l]he that should come, or do we look for another?

4 Jesus answered and said unto them, Go and shew John again those things which ye do hear and see

5 [b]The blind receive their sight and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and [c]the poor have the gospel preached to them

6 And blessed is he, whosoever shall not [g]be offended in me

7 ¶ [d]And as they departed Jesus began to say unto the multitudes concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness to see? [e]A reed shaken with the wind?

8 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment behold, they that wear soft clothing are in kings' houses

9 But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? yea, I say unto you, [e]and more than a prophet

10 For this is he, of whom it is written, [k]Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee

11 Verily I say unto you, Among them that are born of women there hath not risen a greater than John the Baptist notwithstanding he that is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he.

12 [a] And from the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven [1] suffereth violence, and the violent take it by force.

13 [c] For all the prophets and the law prophesied until John.

14 And if ye will receive it, this is [g] Elias, which was for to come 15 [h] He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

16 ¶ [i] But whereunto shall I liken this generation? It is like unto children sitting in the markets, and calling unto their fellows, 17 And saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned unto you, and ye have not lamented.

18 For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, He hath a devil.

19 The Son of man came eating and drinking, and they say, Behold a man gluttonous, and a winebibber, [m] a friend of publicans and sinners. [n] But wisdom is justified of her children.

20 ¶ [p] Then began he to upbraid the cities wherein most of his mighty works were done, because they repented not:

21 Woe unto thee, Chorazin! woe unto thee, Bethsaida! for if the mighty works, which were done in you, had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago [s] in sackcloth and ashes.

22 But I say unto you, [u] It shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgment, than for you.

23 And thou, Capernaum, [y] which art exalted unto heaven, shalt be brought down to hell: for if the mighty works, which have been done in thee, had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day.

24 But I say unto you, [a] That it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom in the day of judgment, than for thee.

25 ¶ [c] At that time Jesus answered and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because [d] thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, [f] and hast revealed them unto babes.

26 Even so, Father: for so it seemed good in thy sight.

27 [g] All things are delivered unto me of my Father: and no man knoweth the Son, but the Father; [h] neither knoweth any man the Father, save the Son, and he to whomsoever the Son will reveal him.

28 ¶ Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

29 Take my yoke upon you, [b] and learn of me; for I am meek and [c] lowly in heart: [d] and ye shall find rest unto your souls.

30 [f] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

CHAPTER 12.

1 Christ reproveth the blindness of the Pharisees concerning the sabbath 22 He healeth the man possessed that was blind and dumb 31 Of blasphemy against the Holy Ghost, 36 and of idle words 38 He rebuketh the unfaithful, &c

AT that time [k] Jesus went on the sabbath day through the corn; and his disciples were an hungred, and began to pluck the ears of corn, and to eat.

2 But when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto him, Behold, thy disciples do that which is not lawful to do upon the sabbath day.

3 But he said unto them, Have ye not read [l] what David did, when he was an hungred, and they that were with him;

4 How he entered into the house of God, and did eat [o] the shewbread, which was not lawful for him to eat, neither for them which were with him, [q] but only for the priests?

5 Or have ye not read in the [r] law, how that on the sabbath days the priests in the temple profane the sabbath, and are blameless?

6 But I say unto you, That in this place is [t] one greater than the temple.

7 But if ye had known what this meaneth, [x] I will have mercy, and not sacrifice, ye would not have condemned the guiltless.

8 For the Son of man is Lord even of the sabbath day.

9 [z] And when he was departed thence, he went into their synagogue:

10 ¶ And, behold, there was a man which had his hand withered. And they asked him, saying, [b] Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath days? that they might accuse him.

11 And he said unto them, What man shall there be among you, that shall have one sheep, and [e] if it fall into a pit on the sabbath day, will he not lay hold on it, and lift it out?

12 How much then is a man better than a sheep? Wherefore it is lawful to do well on the sabbath days.

13 Then saith he to the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it forth; and it was restored whole, like as the other.

14 ¶ Then [i] the Pharisees went out, and [2] held a council against him, how they might destroy him.

[2] or, took counsel.

15 But when Jesus knew it, [a]he withdrew himself from thence: [b]and great multitudes followed him, and he healed them all,

16 And [c]charged them that they should not make him known:

17 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying,

18 [d]Behold my servant, whom I have chosen; my beloved [e]in whom my soul is well pleased: I will put my spirit upon him, and he shall shew judgment to the Gentiles.

19 He shall not strive, nor cry; neither shall any man hear his voice in the streets.

20 A bruised reed shall he not break, and smoking flax shall he not quench, till he send forth judgment unto victory.

21 And in his name shall the Gentiles trust.

22 ¶ [f]Then was brought unto him one possessed with a devil, blind, and dumb: and he healed him, insomuch that the blind and dumb both spake and saw.

23 And all the people were amazed, and said, Is not this the son of David?

24 [m]But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, This fellow doth not cast out devils, but by [l]Beelzebub the prince of the devils.

25 And Jesus [o]knew their thoughts, and said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand:

26 And if Satan cast out Satan, he is divided against himself; how shall then his kingdom stand?

27 And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do your children cast them out? therefore they shall be your judges.

28 But if I cast out devils by the Spirit of God, then [r]the kingdom of God is come unto you.

29 [s]Or else how can one enter into a strong man's house, and spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong man? and then he will spoil his house.

30 He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth abroad.

31 ¶ Wherefore I say unto you, [z]All manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men: [a]but the blasphemy against the Holy Ghost shall not be forgiven unto men.

32 And whosoever [c]speaketh a word against the Son of man, [d]it shall be forgiven him: but whosoever speaketh against the Holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world, neither in the world to come.

33 Either make the tree good, and [e]his fruit good; or else make the tree corrupt, and his fruit corrupt: for the tree is known by his fruit.

34 O [g]generation of vipers, how can ye, being evil, speak good things? for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh.

35 A good man out of the good treasure of the heart bringeth forth good things: and an evil man out of the evil treasure bringeth forth evil things.

36 But I say unto you, That every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment.

37 For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned.

38 ¶ [t]Then certain of the scribes and of the Pharisees answered, saying, Master, we would see a sign from thee.

39 But he answered and said unto them, An evil and [t]adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given to it, but the sign of the prophet Jonas:

40 [u]For as Jonas was three days and three nights in the whale's belly; so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.

41 [p]The men of Nineveh shall rise in judgment with this generation, and [t]shall condemn it: [r]because they repented at the preaching of Jonas; and, behold, a greater than Jonas is here.

42 [t]The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for she came from the uttermost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and, behold, a greater than Solomon is here.

43 [v]When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, [y]he walketh through dry places, seeking rest, and findeth none.

44 Then he saith, I will return into my house from whence I came out; and when he is come, he findeth it empty, swept, and garnished.

45 Then goeth he, and taketh with himself seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter in and dwell there: [b]and the last state of that man is worse than the first. Even so shall it be also unto this wicked generation.

CHAPTER 13.

1 The parable of the sower and the seed. 18 The exposition. 24 The parable of the tares. 31 of the mustard seed, 33 of the leaven, 44 of the hidden treasure, 45 of the pearl, 47 of the dragnet. 53 Christ is contemned of his own countrymen.

THE same day went Jesus out of the house, [d]and sat by the sea side.

2 [e]And great multitudes were gathered together unto him, so that [f]he went into a ship, and sat; and the whole multitude stood on the shore.

3 And he spake many things unto them in parables, saying, [g]Behold, a sower went forth to sow;

4 And when he sowed, some seeds fell by the way side, and the fowls came and devoured them up:

5 Some fell upon stony places, where they had not much earth: and forthwith they sprung up, because they had no deepness of earth:

6 And when the sun was up, they were scorched; and because they had no root, they withered away.

7 And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprung up, and choked them:

8 But other fell into good ground, and brought forth fruit, some [h]an hundredfold, some sixtyfold, some thirtyfold.

9 [i]Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

10 And the disciples came, and said unto him, Why speakest thou unto them in parables?

11 He answered and said unto them, Because [k]it is given unto you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given.

12 [l]For whosoever hath, to him shall be given, and he shall have more abundance: but whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken away even that he hath.

13 Therefore speak I to them in parables: because they seeing see not; and hearing they hear not, neither do they understand.

14 And in them is fulfilled the prophecy of Esaias, which saith, [a]By hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and shall not perceive.

15 For this people's heart is waxed gross, and their ears [b]are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed; lest at any time they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and should understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them.

16 But [d]blessed are your eyes, for they see: and your ears, for they hear.

17 For verily I say unto you, [e]That many prophets and righteous men have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them, and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them.

18 ¶ [f]Hear ye therefore the parable of the sower.

19 When any one heareth the word [k]of the kingdom, and understandeth it not, then cometh the wicked one, and catcheth away that which was sown in his heart. This is he which received seed by the way side.

20 But he that received the seed into stony places, the same is he that heareth the word, and anon [m]with joy receiveth it;

21 Yet hath he not root in himself, but dureth for a while: for when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, by and by [n]he is offended.

22 [o]He also that received seed [p]among the thorns is he that heareth the word, and the care of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, choke the word, and he becometh unfruitful.

23 But he that received seed into the good ground is he that heareth the word, and understandeth it, which also beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some an hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty.

24 ¶ Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man which sowed good seed in his field:

25 But while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way.

26 But when the blade was sprung up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also.

27 So the servants of the householder came and said unto him, Sir, didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? from whence then hath it tares?

28 He said unto them, An enemy hath done this. The servants said unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up?

29 But he said, Nay; lest while ye gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them.

30 Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but [a]gather the wheat into my barn.

31 ¶ Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, [b]The kingdom of heaven is like to a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and sowed in his field:

32 Which indeed is the least of all seeds: but when it is grown, it is the greatest among herbs, and becometh a tree, so that the birds of the air come and lodge in the branches thereof.

33 ¶ [h]Another parable spake he unto them; The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took, and hid in three [1]measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

34 [k]All these things spake Jesus unto the multitude in parables; and without a parable spake he not unto them:

35 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying, [l]I will open my mouth in parables; [m]I will utter things which have been kept secret from the foundation of the world.

36 Then Jesus sent the multitude away, and went into the house: and his disciples came unto him, saying, Declare unto us the parable of the tares of the field.

37 He answered and said unto them, He that soweth the good seed is the Son of man;

38 [p]The field is the world; the good seed are the children of the kingdom; but the tares are the children of the wicked one;

39 The enemy that sowed them is the devil; [r]the harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are the angels.

40 As therefore the tares are gathered and burned in the fire; so shall it be in the end of this world.

41 The Son of man shall send forth his angels, [s]and they shall gather out of his kingdom all [2]things that offend, and them which do iniquity;

42 [b]And shall cast them into a furnace of fire: [c]there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

43 [d]Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. [e]Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

44 ¶ Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto treasure hid in a field; the which when a man hath found, he hideth, and for joy thereof goeth and [t]selleth all that he hath, and [b]buyeth that field.

45 ¶ Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a merchant man, seeking goodly pearls:

46 Who, when he had found [c]one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had, and bought it.

47 ¶ Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a net, that was cast into the sea, and [f]gathered of every kind:

48 Which, when it was full, they drew to shore, and sat down, and gathered the good into vessels, but cast the bad away.

49 So shall it be at the end of the world: the angels shall come forth, and [g]sever the wicked from among the just,

50 [i]And shall cast them into the furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

51 Jesus saith unto them, Have ye understood all these things? They say unto him, Yea, Lord.

52 Then said he unto them, Therefore every scribe which is instructed unto the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an householder, which bringeth forth out of his treasure [n]things new and old.

53 ¶ And it came to pass, that when Jesus had finished these parables, he departed thence.

54 [o]And when he was come into his own country, he taught them in their synagogue, insomuch that they were astonished, and said, Whence hath this man this wisdom, and these mighty works?

55 [q]Is not this the carpenter's son? is not his mother called Mary? and [s]his brethren, [t]James, and Joses, and Simon, and Judas?

56 And his sisters, are they not all with us? Whence then hath this man all these things?

57 And they [z]were offended in him. But Jesus said unto them, [y]A prophet is not without honour, save in his own country, and in his own house.

58 And [a]he did not many mighty works there because of their unbelief.

3 ¶ [a]For Herod had laid hold on John, and bound him, and put him in prison for Herodias' sake, his brother Philip's wife.

4 For John said unto him, [b]It is not lawful for thee to have her.

5 And when he would have put him to death, he feared the multitude, [c]because they counted him as a prophet.

6 But when Herod's birthday was kept, the daughter of Herodias danced [1]before them, and pleased Herod.

7 Whereupon he promised with an oath to give her whatsoever she would ask.

8 And she, being before instructed of her mother, said, Give me here John Baptist's head in a charger.

9 And the king was sorry: nevertheless for the oath's sake, and them which sat with him at meat, he commanded it to be given her.

10 And he sent, and beheaded John in the prison.

11 And his head was brought in a charger, and given to the damsel: and she brought it to her mother.

12 And his disciples came, and took up the body, and buried it, and went and told Jesus.

13 ¶ [g]When Jesus heard of it, he departed thence by ship into a desert place apart: and when the people had heard thereof, they followed him on foot out of the cities.

14 And Jesus went forth, and saw a great multitude, and [h]was moved with compassion toward them, and he healed their sick.

15 ¶ [i]And when it was evening, his disciples came to him, saying, This is a desert place, and the time is now past; send the multitude away, that they may go into the villages, and buy themselves victuals.

16 But Jesus said unto them, They need not depart; give ye them to eat.

17 And they say unto him, We have here but five loaves, and two fishes.

18 He said, Bring them hither to me.

19 And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the grass, and took the five loaves, and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, [n]he blessed, and brake, and gave the loaves to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.

20 And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up of the fragments that remained twelve baskets full.

21 And they that had eaten were about five thousand men, beside women and children.

23 [c]And when he had sent the multitudes away, he went up into a mountain apart to pray: [d]and when the evening was come, he was there alone.

24 But the ship was now in the midst of the sea, tossed with waves: for the wind was contrary.

25 And in the fourth watch of the night Jesus went unto them, walking on the sea.

26 And when the disciples saw him [f]walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, It is a spirit; and they cried out for fear.

27 But straightway Jesus spake unto them, saying, Be of good cheer; it is I; be not afraid.

28 And Peter answered him and said, Lord, if it be thou, bid me come unto thee on the water.

29 And he said, Come. And when Peter was come down out of the ship, he walked on the water, to go to Jesus.

30 But when he saw the wind [2]boisterous, he was afraid; and beginning to sink, he cried, saying, Lord, save me.

31 And immediately Jesus stretched forth his hand, and caught him, and said unto him, O thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou doubt?

32 And when they were come into the ship, the wind ceased.

33 Then they that were in the ship came and worshipped him, saying, Of a truth [k]thou art the Son of God.

34 ¶ [l]And when they were gone over, they came into the land of Gennesaret.

35 And when the men of that place had knowledge of him, they sent out into all that country round about, and brought unto him all that were diseased;

36 And besought him that they might only touch the hem of his garment: and [m]as many as touched were made perfectly whole.

CHAPTER 15.

3 Christ reproveth the scribes and Pharisees 11 teacheth how that which goeth into the mouth doth not defile a man 21 He healeth the daughter of the woman of Canaan, 30 and other great multitudes: 32 feedeth four thousand men, beside women and children

THEN [o]came to Jesus scribes and Pharisees, which were of Jerusalem, saying,

2 [p]Why do thy disciples transgress [q]the tradition of the elders? for they wash not their hands when they eat bread

3 But he answered and said unto them, Why do ye also transgress the commandment of God by your tradition?

4 For God commanded, saying, [a]Honour thy father and mother: and, [b]He that curseth father or mother, let him die the death.

5 But ye say, Whosoever shall say to his father or his mother, It is a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me;

6 And honour not his father or his mother, he shall be free. Thus have ye made the commandment of God of none effect by your tradition.

7 Ye [c]hypocrites, well did Esaias prophesy of you, saying,

8 [d]This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me.

9 But in vain they do worship me, [e]teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.

10 ¶ [f]And he called the multitude, and said unto them, Hear, and understand:

11 [g]Not that which goeth into the mouth defileth a man; but that which cometh out of the mouth, this defileth a man.

12 Then came his disciples, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the Pharisees were offended, after they heard this saying?

13 But he answered and said, [h]Every plant, which my heavenly Father hath not planted, shall be rooted up.

14 Let them alone: [i]they be blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch.

15 [j]Then answered Peter and said unto him, Declare unto us this parable.

16 And Jesus said, [k]Are ye also yet without understanding?

17 Do not ye yet understand, that [l]whatsoever entereth in at the mouth goeth into the belly, and is cast out into the draught?

18 But [m]those things which proceed out of the mouth come forth from the heart; and they defile the man.

19 [n]For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies:

20 These are the things which defile a man: but to eat with unwashen hands defileth not a man.

21 ¶ [o]Then Jesus went thence, and departed into the coasts of Tyre and Sidon.

23 But he answered her not a word. And his disciples came and besought him, saying, Send her away; for she crieth after us.

24 But he answered and said, [p]I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel.

25 Then came she and worshipped him, saying, Lord, help me.

26 But he answered and said, It is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it to [q]dogs.

27 And she said, Truth, Lord: yet the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their masters' table.

28 Then Jesus answered and said unto her, O woman, great is thy faith: be it unto thee even as thou wilt. And her daughter was made whole from that very hour.

29 [r]And Jesus departed from thence, and came nigh [s]unto the sea of Galilee; and went up into a mountain, and sat down there.

30 [t]And great multitudes came unto him, having with them those that were lame, blind, dumb, maimed, and many others, and cast them down at Jesus' feet; and he healed them:

31 Insomuch that the multitude wondered, when they saw the dumb to speak, the maimed to be whole, the lame to walk, and the blind to see: and they glorified the God of Israel.

32 ¶ [u]Then Jesus called his disciples unto him, and said, I have compassion on the multitude, because they continue with me now three days, and have nothing to eat: and I will not send them away fasting, lest they faint in the way.

33 [v]And his disciples say unto him, Whence should we have so much bread in the wilderness, as to fill so great a multitude?

34 And Jesus saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven, and a few little fishes.

35 And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground.

36 And [w]he took the seven loaves and the fishes, and [x]gave thanks, and brake them, and gave to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.

37 And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up of the broken meat that was left seven baskets full.

38 And they that did eat were four thousand men, beside women and children

39 [a]And he sent away the multitude, and took ship, and came into the coasts of Magdala.

CHAPTER 16

1 The Pharisees require a sign 6 Jesus warneth his disciples of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees 13 The people's opinion of Christ 16 and Peter's confession of him 21 Jesus foreshewith his death 23 reproveth Peter 24 and admonisheth those that will follow him.

THE [a]Pharisees also with the Sadducees came, and tempting desired him that he would shew them a sign from heaven.

2 He answered and said unto them, When it is evening, ye say, It will be fair weather: for the sky is red.

3 And in the morning, It will be foul weather to day for the sky is red and lowring. O ye hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the sky; but can ye not discern the signs of the times?

4 [b]A wicked and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given unto it, but the sign of the prophet Jonas. And he left them, and departed.

5 And [c]when his disciples were come to the other side, they had forgotten to take bread.

6 ¶ Then Jesus said unto them, [d]Take heed and beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees.

7 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have taken no bread.

8 Which when Jesus perceived, he said unto them, O ye of little faith, why reason ye among yourselves, because ye have brought no bread?

9 [e]Do ye not yet understand, neither remember the five loaves of the five thousand, and how many baskets ye took up?

10 [f]Neither the seven loaves of the four thousand, and how many baskets ye took up?

11 How is it that ye do not understand that I spake it not to you concerning bread, that ye should beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees?

12 Then understood they how that he bade them not beware of the leaven of bread, but of the doctrine of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees.

13 ¶ When Jesus came into the coasts of Cæsarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, [g]Whom do men say that I the Son of man am?

14 And they said, [h]Some say that thou art John the Baptist: some, Elias; and others, Jeremias, or one of the prophets.

15 He saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am?

16 And Simon Peter answered and said, [i]Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God.

17 And Jesus answered and said unto him, Blessed art thou, Simon Barjona: [k]for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but [l]my Father which is in heaven.

18 And I say also unto thee, That [m]thou art Peter, and [n]upon this rock I will build my church; and [o]the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.

19 [p]And I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

20 [q]Then charged he his disciples that they should tell no man that he was Jesus the Christ.

21 ¶ From that time forth began Jesus [r]to shew unto his disciples, how that he must go unto Jerusalem, and suffer many things of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised again the third day.

22 Then Peter took him, and began to rebuke him, saying, [s]Be it far from thee, Lord: this shall not be unto thee.

23 But he turned, and said unto Peter, Get thee behind me, [t]Satan: [u]thou art an offence unto me: for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but those that be of men.

24 ¶ [v]Then said Jesus unto his disciples, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.

25 For [w]whosoever will save his life shall lose it: and whosoever will lose his life for my sake shall find it.

26 For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? or [x]what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

27 For [y]the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father [z]with his angels; [a]and then he shall reward every man according to his works.

28 Verily I say unto you, [b]There be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they see the Son of man coming in his kingdom.

and his face did shine as the sun, and his raiment was white as the light.

3 And, behold, there appeared unto them Moses and Elias talking with him

4 Then answered Peter, and said unto Jesus, Lord, it is good for us to be here if thou wilt, let us make here three tabernacles, one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias

5 [c]While he yet spake, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them and behold a voice out of the cloud, which said, [d]This is my beloved Son, [e]in whom I am well pleased, [f]hear ye him

6 [g]And when the disciples heard it, they fell on their face, and were sore afraid

7 And Jesus came and [1]touched them, and said, Arise, and be not afraid

8 And when they had lifted up their eyes, they saw no man, save Jesus only

9 And as they came down from the mountain, [h]Jesus charged them, saying, Tell the vision to no man, until the Son of man be risen again from the dead

10 And his disciples asked him, saying, [i]Why then say the scribes that Elias must first come?

11 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Elias truly shall first come, and [k]restore all things

12 [l]But I say unto you, That Elias is come already, and they knew him not, but [m]have done unto him whatsoever they listed Likewise [n]shall also the Son of man suffer of them

13 [o]Then the disciples understood that he spake unto them of John the Baptist

14 ¶ [p]And when they were come to the multitude, there came to him a certain man, kneeling down to him, and saying,

15 Lord, have mercy on my son for he is lunatick and sore vexed for ofttimes he falleth into the fire, and oft into the water

16 And I brought him to thy disciples and they could not cure him

17 Then Jesus answered and said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him hither to me

18 And Jesus rebuked the devil, and he departed out of him and the child was cured from that very hour

19 Then came the disciples to Jesus apart, and said, Why could not we cast him out?

20 And Jesus said unto them, Because of your unbelief for verily I say unto you, [q]If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place, and it shall remove, and nothing shall be impossible unto you

21 Howbeit this kind goeth not out but by prayer and fasting

22 ¶ [r]And while they abode in Galilee, Jesus said unto them, The Son of man shall be betrayed into the hands of men

23 And they shall kill him, and the third day he shall be raised again And they were exceeding sorry

24 ¶ And [s]when they were come to Capernaum, they that received [1]tribute money came to Peter, and said, Doth not your master pay tribute

25 He saith, Yes And when he was come into the house, Jesus prevented him, saying, What thinkest thou Simon? of whom do the kings of the earth take custom or tribute? of their own children, or of strangers?

26 Peter saith unto him, Of strangers Jesus saith unto him, Then are the children free

27 Notwithstanding, lest we should offend them, go thou to the sea and cast an hook, and take up the fish that first cometh up; and when thou hast opened his mouth thou shalt find [2]a piece of money that take, and give unto them for me and thee

CHAPTER 18

1 Christ warneth his disciples to be humble and harmless 7 to avoid offences and not to despise the little ones 15 teacheth how we are to deal with our brethren 21 and how oft to forgive them 23 Parable of the unmerciful servant

AT [r]the same time came the disciples unto Jesus, saying, Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?

2 And Jesus called a little child unto him, and set him in the midst of them,

3 And said, Verily I say unto you [t]Except ye be converted and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven

4 [u]Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven

5 And [x]whoso shall receive one such little child in my name receiveth me

6 [y]But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in me it were better for him that a mill stone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea

7 ¶ Woe unto the world because of offences! for [a] it must needs be that offences come; but [b] woe to that man by whom the offence cometh!

8 [c] Wherefore if thy hand or thy foot offend thee, cut them off, and cast them from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life halt or maimed, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into everlasting fire.

9 And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire.

10 Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you, That in heaven [f] their angels do always [g] behold the face of my Father which is in heaven.

11 [h] For the Son of man is come to save that which was lost.

12 [i] How think ye? if a man have an hundred sheep, and one of them be gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine, and goeth into the mountains, and seeketh that which is gone astray?

13 And if so be that he find it, verily I say unto you, he rejoiceth more of that sheep, than of the ninety and nine which went not astray.

14 Even so it is not the will of your Father which is in heaven, that one of these little ones should perish.

15 ¶ Moreover [k] if thy brother shall trespass against thee, go and tell him his fault between thee and him alone: if he shall hear thee, [l] thou hast gained thy brother.

16 But if he will not hear thee, then take with thee one or two more, that in [m] the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established.

17 And if he shall neglect to hear them, tell it unto the church: but if he neglect to hear the church, let him be unto thee as an [n] heathen man and a publican.

18 Verily I say unto you, [p] Whatsoever ye shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever ye shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

19 [q] Again I say unto you, That if two of you shall agree on earth as touching any thing that they shall ask, [r] it shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven.

20 For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them.

21 ¶ Then came Peter to him, and said, Lord, how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? [s] till seven times?

22 Jesus saith unto him, I say not unto thee, Until seven times: [t] but, Until seventy times seven.

23 ¶ Therefore is the kingdom of heaven likened unto a certain king, which would take account of his servants.

24 And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought unto him, which owed him ten thousand [1] talents.

25 But forasmuch as he had not to pay, his lord commanded him [e] to be sold, and his wife, and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made.

26 The servant therefore fell down, and [2] worshipped him, saying, Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

27 Then the lord of that servant was moved with compassion, and loosed him, and forgave him the debt.

28 But the same servant went out, and found one of his fellowservants, which owed him an hundred [3] pence: and he laid hands on him, and took him by the throat, saying, Pay me that thou owest.

29 And his fellowservant fell down at his feet, and besought him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

30 And he would not: but went and cast him into prison, till he should pay the debt.

31 So when his fellowservants saw what was done, they were very sorry, and came and told unto their lord all that was done.

32 Then his lord, after that he had called him, said unto him, O thou wicked servant, I forgave thee all that debt, because thou desiredst me:

33 Shouldest not thou also have had compassion on thy fellowservant, even as I had pity on thee?

34 And his lord was wroth, and delivered him to the tormentors, till he should pay all that was due unto him.

35 [o] So likewise shall my heavenly Father do also unto you, if ye from your hearts forgive not every one his brother their trespasses

CHAPTER 19.

2 Christ healeth the sick 3 answereth the Pharisees 10 sheweth when marriage is necessary: 13 receiveth little children 16 instructeth how to attain eternal life, 20 and how to be perfect, &c.

AND it came to pass, [1] that when Jesus had finished these sayings, he departed from Galilee, and came into the coasts of Judæa beyond Jordan;

2 [a] And great multitudes followed him; and he healed them there.

3 ¶ The Pharisees also came unto him, tempting him, and saying unto him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for every cause?

4 And he answered and said unto them, Have ye not read, [c] that he which made them at the beginning made them male and female,

5 And said, [d] For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife and [e] they twain shall be one flesh?

6 Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.

7 They say unto him, [g] Why did Moses then command to give a writing of divorcement, and to put her away?

8 He saith unto them, Moses because of the hardness of your hearts suffered you to put away your wives: but from the beginning it was not so.

9 [h] And I say unto you, Whosoever shall put away his wife, except it be for fornication, and shall marry another, committeth adultery: and whoso marrieth her which is put away doth commit adultery.

10 ¶ His disciples say unto him, [k] If the case of the man be so with his wife, it is not good to marry.

11 But he said unto them, [l] All men cannot receive this saying, save they to whom it is given.

12 For there are some eunuchs, which were so born from their mother's womb: and there are some eunuchs, which were made eunuchs of men: and [m] there be eunuchs, which have made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heaven's sake. He that is able to receive it, let him receive it.

13 ¶ [n] Then were there brought unto him little children, that he should put his hands on them, and pray: and the disciples rebuked them.

14 But Jesus said, Suffer little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me: for [o] of such is the kingdom of heaven.

15 And he laid his hands on them, and departed thence.

16 ¶ [p] And, behold, one came and said unto him, [q] Good Master, what good thing shall I do, that I may have eternal life?

17 And he said unto him, Why callest thou me good? there is none good but one, that is, God: but if thou wilt enter into life, keep the commandments.

18 He saith unto him, Which? Jesus said, [r] Thou shalt do no murder, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, 22 But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful: for he had great possessions.

23 ¶ Then said Jesus unto his disciples, Verily I say unto you, That [d] a rich man shall hardly enter into the kingdom of heaven.

24 And again I say unto you, It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

25 When his disciples heard it, they were exceedingly amazed, saying, Who then can be saved?

26 But Jesus beheld them, and said unto them, With men this is impossible; but [e] with God all things are possible.

27 ¶ [m] Then answered Peter and said unto him, Behold, [n] we have forsaken all, and followed thee; what shall we have therefore?

28 And Jesus said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That ye which have followed me, in the regeneration when the Son of man shall sit in the throne of his glory, [g] ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

29 [r] And every one that hath forsaken houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my name's sake, shall receive an hundredfold, and shall inherit everlasting life.

1 Christ sheweth that God is debtor unto no man 17 foretelleth his passion 20 teacheth his disciples to be lowly 30 and giveth two blind men their sight

FOR the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an householder, which went out early in the morning to hire labourers into his vineyard.

2 And when he had agreed with the labourers for a [1] penny a day, he sent them into his vineyard.

3 And he went out about the third hour, and saw others standing idle in the marketplace, their way

5 Again he went out about the sixth and ninth hour, and did likewise 6 And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing idle, and saith unto them, Why stand ye here all the day idle?
7 They say unto him, Because no man hath hired us He saith unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatso ever is right, that shall ye receive 8 So when even was come, the lord of the vineyard saith unto his stew ard, Call the labourers, and give last unto the first.

9 And when they came that were hired about the eleventh hour, they received every man a penny.
10 But when the first came, they supposed that they should have re ceived more, and they likewise re ceived every man a penny 11 And when they had received it, they murmured against the goodman of the house,
12 Saying, These last [1] have wrought but one hour, and thou hast made them equal unto us, which have borne the burden and heat of the day 13 But he answered one of them, didst not thou agree with me for a

CHAPTER 21

1 Christ sendeth into Jerusalem 12 He driveth the buyers and sellers out of the ten pit.

AND [z] when they drew nigh unto Jerusalem, and were come to Bethphage, unto [c] the mount of Olives, then sent Jesus two disciples,
2 Saying unto them, Go into the village over against you, and straightway ye shall find an ass tied and a colt with her loose them, and bring them unto me
3 And if any man say ought unto you, ye shall say, The Lord hath need of them, and straightway he will send them.

4 All this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying,

5 [c]Tell ye the daughter of Sion, Behold, thy King cometh unto thee, meek, and sitting upon an ass, and a colt the foal of an ass.

6 [d]And the disciples went, and did as Jesus commanded them,

7 And brought the ass, and the colt, and [e]put on them their clothes, and they set him thereon.

8 And a very great multitude spread their garments in the way; [f]others cut down branches from the trees, and strawed them in the way.

9 And the multitudes that went before, and that followed, cried, saying, [m]Hosanna to the son of David: [n]Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord; Hosanna in the highest.

10 [o]And when he was come into Jerusalem all the city was moved, saying, Who is this?

11 And the multitude said, This is Jesus [p]the prophet of Nazareth of Galilee.

12 ¶ [r]And Jesus went into the temple of God and cast out all them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the [s]money changers and the seats of them that sold doves, 13 And said unto them, It is written, [t]My house shall be called the house of prayer; [u]but ye have made it a den of thieves.

14 And the blind and the lame came to him in the temple, and he healed them.

15 And when the chief priests and scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children crying in the temple, and saying, Hosanna to the son of David; they were sore displeased, 16 And said unto him, Hearest thou what these say? And Jesus saith unto them, Yea; have ye never read, [y]Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings thou hast perfected praise?

17 ¶ And he left them, and went out of the city into [z]Bethany; and he lodged there.

18 [a]Now in the morning as he returned into the city, he hungered.

19 [b]And when he saw [1]a fig tree in the way, he came to it, and found nothing thereon, but leaves only, and said unto it, Let no fruit grow on thee henceforward for ever. And presently the fig tree withered away.

20 [c]And when the disciples saw it, they marvelled, saying, How soon is the fig tree withered away!

21 Jesus answered and said unto them, Verily I say unto you, [d]If ye have faith, and [e]doubt not, ye shall not only do this which is done to the fig tree, [f]but also if ye shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea, it shall be done.

22 And [g]all things, whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive.

23 ¶ [h]And when he was come into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came unto him as he was teaching, and [i]said, By what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority?

24 And Jesus answered and said unto them, I also will ask you one thing, which if ye tell me, I in like wise will tell you by what authority I do these things.

25 The baptism of John, whence was it? from heaven, or of men? And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven, he will say unto us, Why did ye not then believe him?

26 But if we shall say, Of men, we fear the people; [k]for all hold John as a prophet.

27 And they answered Jesus, and said, We cannot tell. And he said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.

28 ¶ But what think ye? A certain man had two sons, and he came to the first, and said, Son, go work to day in my vineyard.

29 He answered and said, I will not: but afterward he repented, and went.

30 And he came to the second, and said likewise. And he answered and said, I go, sir: and went not.

33 ¶ Hear another parable: There was a certain householder, [c]which planted a vineyard, and hedged it round about, and digged a winepress in it, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and [a] went into a far country:

34 And when the time of the fruit drew near, he sent his servants to the husbandmen, [b] that they might receive the fruits of it.

35 [c] And the husbandmen took his servants, and beat one, and killed another, and stoned another 36 Again, he sent other servants more than the first: and they did unto them likewise.

37 But last of all he sent unto them his son, saying, They will reverence my son.

38 But when the husbandmen saw the son, they said among themselves, [f] This is the heir; [g] come, let us kill him, and let us seize on his inheritance

39 [h] And they caught him, and cast him out of the vineyard, and slew him.

40 When the lord therefore of the vineyard cometh, what will he do unto those husbandmen?

41 [i] They say unto him, [m] He will miserably destroy those wicked men, [n] and will let out his vineyard unto other husbandmen, which shall render him the fruits in their seasons.

42 Jesus saith unto them, [p] Did ye never read in the scriptures, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner: this is the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes?

43 Therefore say I unto you, [r] The kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof.

44 And whosoever [t] shall fall on this stone shall be broken: but on whomsoever it shall fall, [x] it will grind him to powder.

45 And when the chief priests and Pharisees had heard his parables, they perceived that he spake of them.

46 But when they sought to lay hands on him, they feared the multitude, because [y] they took him for a prophet.

AND Jesus answered [z] and spake unto them again by parables, and said,

2 The kingdom of heaven is like unto a certain king, which made a marriage for his son,

3 And sent forth his servants to call them that were bidden to the wedding: and they would not come.

4 Again, he sent forth other servants, saying, Tell them which are bidden, Behold, I have prepared my dinner: [b] my oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: come unto the marriage.

5 But they made light of it, and went their ways, one to his farm, another to his merchandise:

6 And the remnant took his servants, and entreated them spitefully, and slew them.

7 But when the king heard thereof, he was wroth: and he sent forth [d] his armies, and destroyed those murderers, and burned up their city.

8 Then saith he to his servants, The wedding is ready, but they which were bidden were not [k] worthy 9 Go ye therefore into the highways, and as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage.

10 So those servants went out into the highways, and [l] gathered together all as many as they found, both bad and good: and the wedding was furnished with guests.

11 ¶ And when the king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man [o] which had not on a wedding garment:

12 And he saith unto him, Friend, how camest thou in hither not having a wedding garment? And he was speechless.

13 Then said the king to the servants, Bind him hand and foot, and take him away, and cast him [s] into outer darkness; there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

14 [t] For many are called, but few are chosen

15 ¶ [u] Then went the Pharisees, and took counsel how they might entangle him in his talk.

16 And they sent out unto him their disciples with the Herodians, saying, Master, we know that thou art true, and teachest the way of God in truth, neither carest thou for any man: for thou regardest not the person of men.

17 Tell us therefore, What thinkest thou? Is it lawful to give tribute unto Cæsar, or not?

18 But Jesus perceived their wickedness, and said, Why tempt ye me, ye hypocrites?

19 Shew me the tribute money. And they brought unto him a [1] penny.

20 And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and [2] superscription?

21 They say unto him, Cæsar's. Then saith he unto them, [a] Render therefore unto Cæsar the things which are Cæsar's; and unto God the things that are God's.

22 When they had heard these words, they marvelled, and left him, and went their way.

23 ¶ [a]The same day came to him the Sadducees, [b]which say that there is no resurrection, and asked him, 24 Saying, Master, [d]Moses said, If a man die, having no children, his brother shall marry his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

25 Now there were with us seven brethren: and the first, when he had married a wife, deceased, and, having no issue, left his wife unto his brother:

26 Likewise the second also, and the third, unto the [1]seventh.

27 And last of all the woman died also.

28 Therefore in the resurrection whose wife shall she be of the seven? for they all had her.

29 Jesus answered and said unto them, Ye do err, [i]not knowing the scriptures, nor the power of God.

30 For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but [j]are as the angels of God in heaven.

31 But as touching the resurrection of the dead, have ye not read that which was spoken unto you by God, saying, 32 [k]I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living.

33 And when the multitude heard this, [l]they were astonished at his doctrine.

34 ¶ [m]But when the Pharisees had heard that he had put the Sadducees to silence, they were gathered together.

35 Then one of them, which was [n]a lawyer, asked him a question, tempting him, and saying, 36 Master, which is the great commandment in the law?

37 Jesus said unto him, [o]Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind.

38 This is the first and great commandment.

39 And the second is like unto it, [p]Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

40 [q]On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

41 ¶ [r]While the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them, 42 Saying, What think ye of Christ? whose son is he? They say unto him, The son of David.

CHAPTER 23.

1 Christ admonisheth the people and his disciples. 13 He denounceth hypocrisy and blindness. 34 and foretelleth the destruction of Jerusalem.

THEN spake Jesus to the multitude, and to his disciples,

2 Saying, [g]The scribes and the Pharisees sit in Moses' seat:

3 All therefore whatsoever they bid you observe, that observe and do; but do not ye after their works: for [h]they say, and do not.

4 [k]For they bind heavy burdens and grievous to be borne, and lay them on men's shoulders; but they themselves will not move them with one of their fingers.

5 But [m]all their works they do for to be seen of men. [n]they make broad their phylacteries, and enlarge the borders of their garments,

6 [p]And love the uppermost rooms at feasts, and the chief seats in the synagogues,

7 And greetings in the markets, and to be called of men, Rabbi, Rabbi.

8 [r]But be not ye called Rabbi: for one is your Master, even Christ; and all ye are brethren.

9 And call no man your father upon the earth: [t]for one is your Father, which is in heaven.

10 Neither be ye called masters: for one is your Master, even Christ.

11 But [x]he that is greatest among you shall be your servant.

12 [y]And whosoever shall exalt himself shall be abased; and he that shall humble himself shall be exalted.

13 ¶ But [e]woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye shut up the kingdom of heaven against men: for ye neither go in yourselves, neither suffer ye them that are entering to go in.

14 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! [d]for ye devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayer: therefore ye shall receive the greater damnation.

15 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte, and when he is made, ye make him twofold more the child of hell than yourselves.

16 Woe unto you, [c]ye blind guides, which say, [d]Whosoever shall swear by the temple, it is nothing; but whosoever shall swear by the gold of the temple, he is a debtor!

17 Ye fools and blind: for whether is greater, the gold, [h]or the temple that sanctifieth the gold?

18 And, Whosoever shall swear by the altar, it is nothing; but whosoever sweareth by the gift that is upon it, he is [1]guilty.

19 Ye fools and blind: for whether is greater, the gift, or [m]the altar that sanctifieth the gift?

20 Whoso therefore shall swear by the altar, sweareth by it, and by all things thereon.

21 And whoso shall swear by the temple, sweareth by it, and by [p]him that dwelleth therein.

22 And he that shall swear by heaven, sweareth by [r]the throne of God, and by him that sitteth thereon.

23 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! [t]for ye pay tithe of mint and [2]anise and cummin, and [u]have omitted the weightier matters of the law, judgment, mercy, and faith: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone.

24 Ye blind guides, which strain at a gnat, and swallow a camel.

25 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! [y]for ye make clean the outside of the cup and of the platter, but within they are full of extortion and excess.

26 Thou blind Pharisee, cleanse first that which is within the cup and platter, that the outside of them may be clean also.

27 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! [b]for ye are like unto whited sepulchres, which indeed appear beautiful outward, but are within full of dead men's bones, and of all uncleanness.

28 Even so ye also outwardly appear righteous unto men, but within ye are full of hypocrisy and iniquity.

29 [e]Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! because ye build the tombs of the prophets, and garnish the sepulchres of the righteous, 30 And say, If we had been in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets.

31 Wherefore ye be witnesses unto yourselves, that [f]ye are the children of them which killed the prophets,

CHAPTER 24.

1 Christ foretelleth the destruction of the temple 3 what and how great calamities shall be before it 29 the signs of his coming to judgment. 42 We ought to watch like good servants

AND [z]Jesus went out, and departed from the temple: and his disciples came to him for to shew him the buildings of the temple.

2 And Jesus said unto them, See ye not all these things? verily I say unto you, [a]There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

3 ¶ And as he sat upon the mount of Olives, [c]the disciples came unto him privately, saying, [d]Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world?

4 And Jesus answered and said unto them, [f]Take heed that no man deceive you.

5 For [g]many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; [h]and shall deceive many.

6 And ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet.

7 For [k]nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against king-tion: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places

8 All these are the beginning of sorrows.

9 [a]Then shall they deliver you up to be afflicted, and shall kill you: and ye shall be hated of all nations for my name's sake.

10 And then shall many [c]be offended, and shall betray one another, and shall hate one another.

11 And [h]many false prophets shall rise, and [h]shall deceive many.

12 And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold.

13 [m]But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.

14 And this [n]gospel of the kingdom [o]shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations, and then shall the end come.

15 [t]When ye therefore shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by [u]Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place ([x]whoso readeth, let him understand)

16 Then let them which be in Judæa flee into the mountains:

17 Let him which is on the housetop not come down to take any thing out of his house:

18 Neither let him which is in the field return back to take his clothes.

19 And [z]woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those days!

20 But pray ye that your flight be not in the winter, neither on the sabbath day:

21 For [c]then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be.

22 And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: [d]but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened.

23 [f]Then if any man shall say unto you, Lo, here is Christ, or there; believe it not.

24 For [g]there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall show great signs and wonders; insomuch that, [k]if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect.

25 Behold, I have told you before.

26 Wherefore if they shall say unto you, Behold, he is in the desert; go not forth: behold, he is in the secret chambers; believe it not.

27 [m]For as the lightning cometh out of the east, and shineth even unto the west; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

28 [a]For wheresoever the carcase is, there will the eagles be gathered together.

29 ¶ [b]Immediately after the tribulation of those days [c]shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken:

30 [f]And then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven: [g]and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, [i]and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory.

31 [k]And he shall send his angels [l]with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

32 Now learn [z] a parable of the fig tree: When his branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is nigh:

33 So likewise ye, when ye shall see all these things, know [z]that [z]it is near, even at the doors.

34 Verily I say unto you, [n]This generation shall not pass, till all these things be fulfilled.

35 [x]Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away.

36 ¶ [a]But of that day and hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels of heaven, [n]but my Father only.

37 But as the days of Noe were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

38 [b]For as in the days that were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark, 39 And knew not until the flood came, and took them all away; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

40 [e]Then shall two be in the field: the one shall be taken, and the other left.

41 Two women shall be grinding at the mill; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

42 ¶ [h]Watch therefore: for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come.

43 [i]But know this, that if the good man of the house had known in what watch the thief would come, he would have watched, and would not have suffered his house to be broken up.

44 [l]Therefore be ye also ready: for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh.

45 [n]Who then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his lord hath made ruler over his household, to give them meat in due season?

46 "Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing.

47 Verily I say unto you, That [b]he shall make him ruler over all his goods.

48 But and if that evil servant shall say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming;

49 And shall begin to smite his fellowservants, and to eat and drink with the drunken;

50 The lord of that servant shall come in a day when he looketh not for him, and in an hour that he is not aware of,

51 And shall [1]cut him asunder, and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites: [c]there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

CHAPTER 25.

1 The parable of the ten virgins. 14 and of the talents. 31 Also the description of the last judgment.

THEN shall the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins, which took their lamps, and went forth to meet [f]the bridegroom.

2 [g]And five of them were wise, and five were foolish.

3 They that were foolish took their lamps, and took no oil with them:

4 But the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps.

5 While the bridegroom tarried, [i]they all slumbered and slept.

6 And at midnight [k]there was a cry made, Behold, the bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him.

7 Then all those virgins arose, and [l]trimmed their lamps.

8 And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oil; for our lamps are [2]gone out.

9 But the wise answered, saying, Not so, lest there be not enough for us and you: but go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves.

10 And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage: and [m]the door was shut.

11 Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, [n]Lord, Lord, open to us.

12 But he answered and said, Verily I say unto you, [o]I know you not.

13 [p]Watch therefore, for ye know neither the day nor the hour wherein the Son of man cometh.

14 ¶ [r]For the kingdom of heaven is [s]as a man travelling into a far country, who called his own servants, and delivered unto them his goods.

15 And unto one he gave five [3]talents, to another two, and to another one; [t]to every man according to his several ability; and straightway took his journey.

16 Then he that had received the five talents went and traded with the same, and made them other five talents.

17 And likewise he that had received two, he also gained other two.

18 But he that had received one went and digged in the earth, and hid his lord's money.

19 After a long time the lord of those servants cometh, and reckoneth with them.

20 And so he that had received five talents came and brought other five talents, saying, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me five talents: behold, I have gained beside them five talents more.

21 His lord said unto him, Well done, thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, [d]I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into [e]the joy of thy lord.

22 He also that had received two talents came and said, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me two talents: behold, I have gained two other talents beside them.

23 His lord said unto him, [h]Well done, good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

24 Then he which had received the one talent came and said, Lord, I knew thee that thou art an hard man, reaping where thou hast not sown, and gathering where thou hast not strawed:

25 And I was afraid, and went and hid thy talent in the earth: lo, there thou hast that is thine.

26 His lord answered and said unto him, Thou wicked and slothful servant, thou knewest that I reap where I sowed not, and gather where I have not strawed:

27 Thou oughtest therefore to have put my money to the exchangers, and then at my coming I should have received mine own with usury.

28 Take therefore the talent from him, and give it unto him which hath ten talents.

29 [x]For unto every one that hath shall be given, and he shall have abundance: but from him that hath not shall be taken away even that which he hath.

30 And cast ye the unprofitable servant [4]into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

31 ¶ [u]When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory.

32 And [a] before him shall be gathered all nations: and [b] he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats

33 And he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left

34 Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, [c] inherit the kingdom [d] prepared for you from the foundation of the world

35 [e] For I was an hungred, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: [f] I was a stranger, and ye took me in

36 [g] Naked, and ye clothed me: I was sick, and ye visited me: [h] I was in prison, and ye came unto me

37 Then shall the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungred, and fed thee? or thirsty, and gave thee drink?

38 When saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in? or naked, and clothed thee?

39 Or when saw we thee sick, or in prison, and came unto thee?

40 And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, [p] Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me

41 Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, [q] Depart from me, ye cursed, [r] into everlasting fire, prepared for [s] the devil and his angels

42 For I was an hungred, and ye gave me no meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me no drink:

43 I was a stranger, and ye took me not in: naked, and ye clothed me not: sick, and in prison, and ye visited me not 44 Then shall they also answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungred or athirst, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister unto thee?

45 Then shall he answer them, saying, Verily I say unto you, [t] Inasmuch as ye did it not to one of the least of these, ye did it not to me

46 And [u] these shall go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternal

CHAPTER 26

1 The rulers conspire against Christ 14 Judas selleth him 17 Christ eateth the passover 26 Instituteth his holy supper 68 prayeth in the garden 57 is carried to Caiaphas 69 and denied of Peter

AND it came to pass, when Jesus had finished all these sayings, he said unto his disciples,

2 [a] Ye know that after two days is the feast of the passover, and the Son of man is betrayed to be crucified

3 [b] Then assembled together the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders of the people, unto the palace of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas,

4 And consulted that they might take Jesus by subtilty, and kill him

5 But they said, Not on the feast day, lest there be an uproar among the people

6 ¶ [c] Now when Jesus was in [d] Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper,

7 There came unto him a woman having an alabaster box of very precious ointment, and poured it on his head, as he sat at meat

8 [e] But when his disciples saw it, they had indignation, saying, To what purpose is this waste?

9 For this ointment might have been sold for much, and given to the poor

10 When Jesus understood it, he said unto them, Why trouble ye the woman? for she hath wrought a good work upon me

11 [f] For ye have the poor always with you, but [g] me ye have not always

12 For in that she hath poured this ointment on my body, she did it for my burial

13 Verily I say unto you, Wheresoever this gospel shall be preached in the whole world, there shall also this, that this woman hath done, be told for a memorial of her

14 ¶ [h] Then one of the twelve, called [i] Judas Iscariot, went unto the chief priests,

15 And said unto them, [k] What will ye give me, and I will deliver him unto you? And they covenanted with him for thirty pieces of silver

16 And from that time he sought opportunity to betray him

17 ¶ [l] Now the first day of the feast of unleavened bread the disciples came to Jesus, saying unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare for thee to eat the passover?

18 And he said, Go into the city to such a man, and say unto him, The Master saith, My time is at hand; I will keep the passover at thy house with my disciples

19 And the disciples did as Jesus had appointed them, and they made ready the passover

20 [m] Now when the even was come, he sat down with the twelve.

21 And as they did eat, he said, Verily I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me.

22 And they were exceeding sorrowful, and began every one of them to say unto him, Lord, is it I?

23 And he answered and said, [b]He that dippeth his hand with me in the dish, the same shall betray me.

24 The Son of man goeth [c]as it is written of him: but [d]woe unto that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! it had been good for that man if he had not been born.

25 Then Judas, which betrayed him, answered and said, Master, is it I? He said unto him, Thou hast said.

26 ¶ [f]And as they were eating, [g]Jesus took bread, and [1]blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; [h]this is my body.

27 And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, [i]Drink ye all of it;

28 For [k]this is my blood [l]of the new testament, which is shed [m]for many for the remission of sins.

29 But [n]I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, [o]until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom.

30 [q]And when they had sung an [2]hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives.

31 Then saith Jesus unto them, [r]All ye shall [s]be offended because of me this night: for it is written, [t]I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be scattered abroad.

32 But after I am risen again, [x]I will go before you into Galilee.

33 Peter answered and said unto him, Though all men shall be offended because of thee, yet will I never be offended.

34 Jesus said unto him, [a]Verily I say unto thee, That this night, before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice.

35 Peter said unto him, Though I should die with thee, yet will I not deny thee. Likewise also said all the disciples.

36 ¶ [c]Then cometh Jesus with them unto a place called Gethsemane, and saith unto the disciples, Sit ye here, while I go and pray yonder.

37 And he took with him Peter and [e]the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be sorrowful and very heavy.

38 Then saith he unto them, [g]My soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death: tarry ye here, and watch with me.

39 And he went a little farther, and fell on his face, and [k]prayed, saying, [i]O my Father, if it be possible, [k]let this cup pass from me: nevertheless [a]not as I will, but as thou wilt.

40 And he cometh unto the disciples, and findeth them asleep, and saith unto Peter, What, could ye not watch with me one hour?

41 [d]Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.

42 He went away again the second time, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if this cup may not pass away from me, except I drink it, thy will be done.

43 And he came and found them asleep again: for their eyes were heavy.

44 And he left them, and went away again, and prayed the third time, saying the same words.

45 Then cometh he to his disciples, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: behold, the hour is at hand, and the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

46 Rise, let us be going: behold, he is at hand that doth betray me.

47 ¶ And [p]while he yet spake, lo, Judas, one of the twelve, came, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and elders of the people.

48 Now he that betrayed him gave them a sign, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he: hold him fast.

49 And forthwith he came to Jesus, and said, Hail, master; [u]and kissed him.

50 And Jesus said unto him, [v]Friend, wherefore art thou come? Then came they, and laid hands on Jesus, and took him.

51 And, behold, [z]one of them which were with Jesus stretched out his hand, and drew his sword, and struck a servant of the high priest's, and smote off his ear.

52 Then said Jesus unto him, Put up again thy sword into his place: [b]for all they that take the sword shall perish with the sword.

53 Thinkest thou that I cannot now pray to my Father, and he shall presently give me [d]more than twelve legions of angels?

54 But how then shall the scriptures be fulfilled, [f]that thus it must be?

55 In that same hour said Jesus to the multitudes, Are ye come out as against a thief with swords and staves for to take me? I sat daily with you teaching in the temple, and ye laid no hold on me.

56 But all this was done, that the

[a] scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled. Then [b] all the disciples forsook him, and fled.

57 ¶ [c] And they that had laid hold on Jesus led him away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were assembled.

58 But Peter followed him afar off unto the high priest's palace, and went in, and sat with the servants, to see the end.

59 Now the chief priests, and elders, and all the council, sought false witness against Jesus, to put him to death;

60 But found none: yea, though [f] many false witnesses came, yet found they none. At the last came [g] two false witnesses, 61 And said, This fellow said, [h] I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to build it in three days.

62 [i] And the high priest arose, and said unto him, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witness against thee?

63 But [m] Jesus held his peace. And the high priest answered and said unto him, [n] I adjure thee by the living God, that thou tell us whether thou be the Christ, the Son of God.

64 Jesus saith unto him, Thou hast said: nevertheless I say unto you, [p] Hereafter shall ye see the Son of man [q] sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven.

65 [r] Then the high priest rent his clothes, saying, He hath spoken blasphemy; what further need have we of witnesses? behold, now ye have heard his blasphemy.

66 What think ye? They answered and said, [t] He is guilty of death.

67 [z] Then did they spit in his face, and buffeted him; and [a] others smote him with [2] the palms of their hands, 68 Saying, [2] Prophesy unto us, thou Christ, Who is he that smote thee?

69 ¶ [b] Now Peter sat without in the palace: and a damsel came unto him, saying, Thou also wast with Jesus of Galilee.

70 But he denied before them all, saying, I know not what thou sayest.

71 And when he was gone out into the porch, another maid saw him, and said unto them that were there, This fellow was also with Jesus of Nazareth.

72 And again he denied with an oath, I do not know the man.

73 And after a while came unto him they that stood by, and said to Peter, Surely thou also art one of them; for thy [g] speech bewrayeth thee.

74 Then [h] began he to curse and to swear, saying, I know not the man. And immediately the cock crew.

75 And Peter remembered the word of Jesus, which said unto him, [d] Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice. And he went out, and wept bitterly.

CHAPTER 27.

1 Christ is delivered to Pilate. 3 Judas hangeth himself. 19 Pilate admonished of his wife. 24 washeth his hands. 26 and looseth Barabbas. 29 Christ is crowned with thorns. 34 crucified. 40 reviled. 50 dieth. 66 his sepulchre is sealed and watched.

WHEN the morning was come, [e] all the chief priests and elders of the people took counsel against Jesus to put him to death:

2 And when they had bound him, they led him away, and [k] delivered him to Pontius Pilate the governor.

3 ¶ [k] Then Judas, which had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders,

4 Saying, I have sinned in that I have betrayed the innocent blood. And they said, What is that to us? see thou to that.

5 And he cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, [o] and departed, and went and hanged himself.

6 And the chief priests took the silver pieces, and said, It is not lawful for to put them into the treasury, because it is the price of blood.

7 And they took counsel, and bought with them the potter's field, to bury strangers in.

8 Wherefore that field was called, [p] The field of blood, unto this day.

9 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremy the prophet, saying, [q] And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him that was valued, [1] whom they of the children of Israel did value;

10 And gave them for the potter's field, as the Lord appointed me.

11 And Jesus stood before the governor. [b] and the governor asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And Jesus said unto him, [c] Thou sayest.

12 And when he was accused of the chief priests and elders, [d] he answered nothing.

13 Then said Pilate unto him, [e] Hearest thou not how many things they witness against thee?

14 And he answered him to never a word, insomuch that the governor marvelled greatly.

15 [f] Now at that feast the governor was wont to release unto the people a prisoner, whom they would.

16 And they had then a notable prisoner, called Barabbas.
17 Therefore when they were gathered together, Pilate said unto them, Whom will ye that I release unto you? Barabbas, or Jesus which is called Christ?
18 For he knew that for envy they had delivered him.
19 ¶ When he was set down on the judgment seat, his wife sent unto him, saying, Have thou nothing to do with that just man: for I have suffered many things this day in a dream because of him.
20 [f] But the chief priests and elders persuaded the multitude that they should ask Barabbas, and destroy Jesus.
21 The governor answered and said unto them, Whether of the twain will ye that I release unto you? They said, Barabbas.
22 Pilate saith unto them, What shall I do then with Jesus which is called Christ? They all say unto him, Let him be crucified.
23 And the governor said, Why, what evil hath he done? But they cried out the more, saying, Let him be crucified.
24 ¶ When Pilate saw that he could prevail nothing, but that rather a tumult was made, he [m] took water, and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this just person: see ye to it.
25 Then answered all the people, and said, [o] His blood be on us, and on our children.
26 ¶ Then released he Barabbas unto them: and when [q] he had scourged Jesus, he delivered him to be crucified.
27 [r] Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the [1] common hall, and gathered unto him the whole band of soldiers.
28 And they stripped him, and [z] put on him a scarlet robe.

name: him they compelled to bear his cross.
33 "And when they were come unto a place called Golgotha, that is to say, a place of a skull, 34 ¶ [b] They gave him vinegar to drink mingled with gall: and when he had tasted thereof, he would not drink.
35 [c] And they crucified him, and parted his garments, casting lots: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, "They parted my garments among them, and upon my vesture did they cast lots.
36 [e] And sitting down they watched him there;
37 And [g] set up over his head his accusation written, THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS
38 [h] Then were there two thieves crucified with him, one on the right hand, and another on the left 39 ¶ And [i] they that passed by reviled him, wagging their heads, 40 And saying, [k] Thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, save thyself. [l] If thou be the Son of God, come down from the cross.
41 Likewise also the chief priests mocking him, with the scribes and elders, said, 42 He saved others; himself he cannot save. If he be the King of Israel, let him now come down from the cross, and we will believe him.
43 "He trusted in God; let him deliver him now, if he will have him: for he said, I am the Son of God.
44 [p] The thieves also, which were crucified with him, cast the same in his teeth
45 [r] Now from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land unto the ninth hour
46 And about the ninth hour [t] Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani? that is to say, "My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?
47 Some of them that stood there, when they heard that, said, This man calleth for Elias.
48 And straightway one of them ran, and took a spunge, [z] and filled it with vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink.
49 The rest said, Let be, let us see whether Elias will come to save him.
50 ¶ [b] Jesus, when he had cried again with a loud voice, yielded up the ghost.
51 And, behold, [c] the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom; and the earth did quake, and the rocks rent;

52 And the graves were opened; and many bodies of the saints which slept arose, 53 And came out of the graves after his resurrection, and went into the holy city, and appeared unto many.

54 [b]Now when the centurion, and they that were with him, watching Jesus, saw the earthquake, and those things that were done, they feared greatly, saying, Truly this was the Son of God

55 And many women were there beholding afar off, [d]which followed Jesus from Galilee, ministering unto him.

56 [e]Among which was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joses, and the mother of Zebedee's children

57 [f]When the even was come there came a rich man of Arimathæa, named Joseph who also himself was Jesus' disciple

58 He went to Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus Then Pilate commanded the body to be delivered

59 And when Joseph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth,

60 And [g]laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn out in the rock and he rolled a great stone to the door of the sepulchre, and departed

61 And there was Mary Magdalene and the other Mary, sitting over against the sepulchre

62 ¶ Now the next day, that followed the day of the preparation, the chief priests and Pharisees came together unto Pilate,

63 Saying, Sir, we remember that [h]that deceiver said, while he was yet alive [i]After three days I will rise again

64 Command therefore that the sepulchre be made sure until the third day lest his disciples come by night, and steal him away, and say unto the people, He is risen from the dead so the last error shall be worse than the first

65 Pilate said unto them, Ye have a watch go your way, make it as sure as ye can 66 So they went, and made the sepulchre sure [n]sealing the stone, and setting a watch.

CHAPTER 28

1 Christ's resurrection declared 9 He appeareth to the women. 11 And to his disciples 19 and sendeth them to baptize and teach all nations.

IN the [r]end of the sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene [s]and the other Mary to see the sepulchre.

2 And, behold, there [t]was a great earthquake. for [u]the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it.

3 [v]His countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow:

4 And for fear of him the keepers did shake, and became as dead men.

5 And the angel answered and said unto the women, Fear not ye for I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified.

6 He is not here for he is risen, [w]as he said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay.

7 And go quickly, and tell his disciples that he is risen from the dead, and, behold, [x]he goeth before you into Galilee, there shall ye see him lo, I have told you

8 And they departed quickly from the sepulchre with fear and great joy, and did run to bring his disciples word

9 ¶ And as they went to tell his disciples, behold, [y]Jesus met them, saying, All hail. And they came and held him by the feet, and worshipped him

10 Then said Jesus unto them, Be not afraid go tell [z]my brethren that they go into Galilee, and there shall they see me

11 ¶ Now when they were going, behold, some of the watch came into the city, and shewed unto the chief priests all the things that were done

12 And when they were assembled with the elders, and had taken counsel, they gave large money unto the soldiers,

13 Saying, Say ye, His disciples came by night, and stole him away while we slept

14 And if this come to the governor's ears, we will persuade him, and secure you 15 So they took the money, and did as they were taught and this saying is commonly reported among the Jews until this day.

16 ¶ Then the eleven disciples went away into Galilee into a mountain [a]where Jesus had appointed them.

17 And when they saw him, they worshipped him but some doubted.

18 And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, [b]All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth.

19 ¶ [c]Go ye therefore, and [d]teach[1] all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost

20 [e]Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Amen.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ST. MARK.

CHAPTER 1.

1 The office of John the Baptist. 9 Jesus is baptized, 12 tempted, 14 he preacheth 16 calleth Peter, Andrew, James and John 23 healeth many persons.

THE beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, [b]the Son of God;

2 As it is written in the prophets, [c]Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee

3 [d]The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

4 [f]John did baptize in the wilderness, and preach the baptism of repentance [1]for the remission of sins.

5 [h]And there went out unto him all the land of Judæa, and they of Jerusalem, and were all baptized of him in the river of Jordan, confessing their sins.

6 And John was [k]clothed with camel's hair, and with a girdle of a skin about [l]his loins, and he did eat [m]locusts and wild honey,

7 And preached, saying, "There cometh one mightier than I after me, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to stoop down and unloose.

8 [p]I indeed have baptized you with water: but he shall baptize you [q]with the Holy Ghost.

9 [r]And it came to pass in those days, that Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee, and was baptized of John in Jordan.

10 [s]And straightway coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens [2]opened, and the Spirit like a dove descending upon him

11 And there came a voice from heaven, saying, [t]Thou art my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

12 [u]And immediately the Spirit driveth him into the wilderness.

13 And he was there in the wilderness forty days, tempted of Satan, and was with the wild beasts; [x]and the angels ministered unto him.

14 [b]Now after that John was put in prison, Jesus came into Galilee, [y]preaching the gospel of the kingdom of God, 15 And saying, [z]The time is fulfilled, and [a]the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel.

16 [f]Now as he walked by the sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and Andrew his brother casting a net into the sea: for they were fishers.

17 And Jesus said unto them, Come ye after me, and I will make you to become fishers of men.

18 And straightway [c]they forsook their nets, and followed him.

19 [c]And when he had gone a little farther thence, he saw James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, who also were in the ship mending their nets.

20 And straightway he called them: and they left their father Zebedee in the ship with the hired servants, and went after him.

21 [g]And they went into Capernaum; and straightway on the sabbath day he entered into the synagogue, and taught.

22 [i]And they were astonished at his doctrine: for he taught them as one that had authority, and not as the scribes.

23 [l]And there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit;

24 Saying, Let us alone; [o]what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art, the Holy One of God.

25 And Jesus [r]rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him.

26 And when the unclean spirit [r]had torn him, and cried with a loud voice, he came out of him.

27 And they were all amazed, insomuch that they questioned among themselves, saying, What thing is this? what new doctrine is this? for with authority commandeth he even the unclean spirits, and they do obey him.

28 And immediately his fame spread abroad throughout all the region round about Galilee.

29 [z]And forthwith, when they were come out of the synagogue, they entered into the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John.

30 But Simon's wife's mother lay sick of a fever, and anon they tell him of her.

31 And he came and took her by the hand, and lifted her up; and immediately the fever left her, and she ministered unto them.

32 [g]And at even, when the sun did set, they brought unto him all that were diseased, and them that were possessed with devils.

33 And all the city was gathered together at the door

34 And he healed many that were sick of divers diseases, and cast out many devils; and [a]suffered not the devils [1]to speak, because they knew him.

35 And [b]in the morning, rising up a great while before day, he went out, and departed into a solitary place, and there prayed

36 And Simon and they that were with him followed after him

37 And when they had found him, they said unto him, All men seek for thee

38 And he said unto them, [c]Let us go into the next towns, that I may preach there also. for [d]therefore came I forth

39 [e]And he preached in their synagogues throughout all Galilee, and cast out devils

40 [f]And there came a leper to him, beseeching him, and kneeling down to him, and saying unto him, If thou wilt, thou canst make me clean

41 And Jesus, moved with compassion, put forth his hand and touched him, and saith unto him, I will; be thou clean

42 And as soon as he had spoken immediately the leprosy departed from him, and he was cleansed

43 And he straitly charged him, and forthwith sent him away;

44 And saith unto him, See thou say nothing to any man but go thy way, shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing those things [g]which Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them

45 [h]But he went out, and began to publish it much, and to blaze abroad the matter, insomuch that Jesus could no more openly enter into the city, but was without in desert places [i]and they came to him from every quarter

1 Christ healeth one sick of the palsy 14 calleth Matthew 16 eateth with publicans and sinners 18 excuseth his disciples for not fasting, &c

AND again [k]he entered into Capernaum after some days, and it was noised that he was in the house

2 And straightway many were gathered together, insomuch that there was no room to receive them, no, not so much as about the door and he preached the word unto them

3 And they come unto him bringing one sick of the palsy, which was borne of four

4 And when they could not come nigh unto him for the press, they uncovered the roof where he was and when they had broken it up, they let down the bed wherein the sick of the palsy lay.

5 When Jesus saw their faith, he said unto the sick of the palsy, Son, thy sins be forgiven thee.

6 But there were certain of the scribes sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts,

7 Why doth this man thus speak blasphemies? [l]who can forgive sins but God only?

8 And immediately [m]when Jesus perceived in his spirit that they so reasoned within themselves, he said unto them, Why reason ye these things in your hearts?

9 [n]Whether is it easier to say to the sick of the palsy, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Arise, and take up thy bed, and walk?

10 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (he saith to the sick of the palsy,)

11 I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy bed, and go thy way into thine house

12 And immediately he arose, took up the bed, and went forth before them all, insomuch that they were all amazed, and glorified God, saying, We never saw it on this fashion

13 [o]And he went forth again by the sea side; and all the multitude resorted unto him, and he taught them

14 [p]And as he passed by, he saw Levi the son of Alphæus sitting [2]at the receipt of custom, and said unto him, Follow me. And he arose and followed him

15 [q]And it came to pass, that, as Jesus sat at meat in his house many publicans and sinners sat also together with Jesus and his disciples for there were many, and they followed him

16 And when the scribes and Pharisees saw him eat with publicans and sinners, they said unto his disciples, How is it that he eateth and drinketh with publicans and sinners?

17 When Jesus heard it, he saith unto them, [r]They that are whole have no need of the physician, but they that are sick I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

18 [s]And the disciples of John and of the Pharisees used to fast and they come and say unto him, Why do the disciples of John and of the Pharisees fast, but thy disciples fast not?

19 And Jesus said unto them, Can the children of the bridechamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them? as long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast.

20 But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they fast in those days.

21 No man also seweth a piece of [1]new cloth on an old garment: else the new piece that filled it up taketh away from the old, and the rent is made worse.

22 And no man putteth new wine into old bottles: else the new wine doth burst the bottles, and the wine is spilled, and the bottles will be marred: but new wine must be put into new bottles.

23 [d]And it came to pass, that he went through the corn fields on the sabbath day; and his disciples began, as they went, [e]to pluck the ears of corn.

24 And the Pharisees said unto him, Behold, why do they on the sabbath day that which is not lawful?

25 And he said unto them, Have ye never read [h]what David did, when he had need, and was an hungred, he, and they that were with him?

26 How he went into the house of God in the days of Abiathar the high priest, and did eat the shewbread, [i]which is not lawful to eat but for the priests, and gave also to them which were with him?

27 And he said unto them, The sabbath was made for man, and not man for the sabbath:

28 Therefore [n]the Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath

CHAPTER 3.

1 Christ healeth the withered hand, 10 and many other infirmities 11 rebuketh the unclean spirits 13 chooseth his twelve apostles 22 convinceth the blasphemy of casting out devils by Beelzebub 31 and sheweth who are his brother, sister, and mother

AND [o]he entered again into the synagogue; and there was a man there which had a withered hand

2 And they watched him, whether he would heal him on the sabbath day; that they might accuse him.

3 And he saith unto the man which had the withered hand, [4]Stand forth.

4 And he saith unto them, Is it lawful to do good on the sabbath days, or to do evil? to save life, or to kill? But they held their peace

5 And when he had looked round about on them with anger, being grieved for the [6]hardness of their hearts, he saith unto the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it out: and his hand was restored whole as the other.

6 [a]And the Pharisees went forth, and straightway took counsel with [b]the Herodians against him, how they might destroy him.

7 But Jesus withdrew himself with his disciples to the sea: and a great multitude from Galilee followed him, [c]and from Judæa,

8 And from Jerusalem, and from Idumæa, and from beyond Jordan; and they about Tyre and Sidon, a great multitude, when they had heard what great things he did, came unto him.

9 And he spake to his disciples, that a small ship should wait on him because of the multitude, lest they should throng him.

10 For he had healed many; insomuch that they [2]pressed upon him for to touch him, as many as had plagues.

11 [f]And unclean spirits, when they saw him, fell down before him, and cried, saying, [g]Thou art the Son of God.

12 And [i]he straitly charged them that they should not make him known.

13 [k]And he goeth up into a mountain, and calleth unto him whom he would: and they came unto him.

14 And he ordained twelve, that they should be with him, and that he might send them forth to preach,

15 And to have power to heal sicknesses, and to cast out devils:

16 And Simon [m]he surnamed Peter;

17 And James the son of Zebedee, and John the brother of James; and he surnamed them Boanerges, which is, The sons of thunder:

18 And Andrew, and Philip, and Bartholomew, and Matthew, and Thomas, and James the son of Alphæus, and Thaddæus, and Simon the Canaanite, 19 And Judas Iscariot, which also betrayed him: and they went [3]into an house.

20 And the multitude cometh together again, [p]so that they could not so much as eat bread.

21 And when his [5]friends heard of it, they went out to lay hold on him: [q]for they said, He is beside himself.

22 ¶ And the scribes which came down from Jerusalem said, [r]He hath Beelzebub, and by the prince of the devils casteth he out devils.

23 [s]And he called them unto him, and said unto them in parables, How can Satan cast out Satan?

24 And if a kingdom be divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand.

26 And if Satan rise up against himself, and be divided, he cannot stand, but hath an end.

CHAPTER 4.

1 The parable of the sower, 14 and the meaning thereof 21 We must communicate the light of our knowledge to others 26 The parable of the seed growing secretly, 30 and of the mustard seed 35 Christ stilleth the tempest on the sea

AND [e] he began again to teach by the sea side: and there was gathered unto him a great multitude, so that he entered into a ship, and sat in the sea; and the whole multitude was by the sea on the land.

2 And he taught them many things by parables, [f] and said unto them in his doctrine,

3 Hearken; Behold, there went out a sower to sow

4 And it came to pass, as he sowed, some fell by the way side, and the fowls of the air came and devoured it up.

5 And some fell on stony ground, where it had not much earth; and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of earth:

6 But when the sun was up, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered away.

7 And some fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up, and choked it, and it yielded no fruit.

8 And other fell on good ground, [g] and did yield fruit that sprang up and increased; and brought forth, some thirty, and some sixty, and some an hundred.

9 And he said unto them, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

10 [h] And when he was alone, they that were about him with the twelve asked of him the parable.

11 And he said unto them, Unto you it is given to know the mystery of the kingdom of God: but unto [i] them that are without, all these things are done in parables:

12 [j] That seeing they may see, and not perceive; and hearing they may hear, and not understand; lest at any time they should be converted, and their sins should be forgiven them.

13 And he said unto them, Know ye not this parable? and how then will ye know all parables?

14 ¶ [k] The sower soweth the word

15 And these are they by the way side, where the word is sown; but when they have heard, Satan cometh immediately, and taketh away the word that was sown in their hearts.

16 And these are they likewise which are sown on stony ground; who when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with gladness;

17 And have no root in themselves, and so endure but for a time: afterward, when affliction or persecution ariseth for the word's sake, immediately they are offended.

18 And these are they which are sown among thorns; such as hear the word,

19 And the cares of this world, [l] and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful

20 And these are they which are sown on good ground; such as hear the word, and receive it, and bring forth fruit, some thirtyfold, some sixty, and some an hundred

21 ¶ [m] And he said unto them, Is a candle brought to be put under a [1] bushel, or under a bed? and not to be set on a candlestick?

22 [n] For there is nothing hid, which shall not be manifested; neither was any thing kept secret, but that it should come abroad.

23 [o] If any man have ears to hear, let him hear.

24 And he said unto them, Take

25 [c] For he that hath, to him shall be given, and he that hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he hath.

26 ¶ And he said, [d] So is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed into the ground;

27 And should sleep, and rise night and day, and the seed should spring and grow up, he knoweth not how.

28 For the earth bringeth forth fruit of herself; first the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear.

29 But when the fruit is [1] brought forth, immediately [e] he putteth in the sickle, because the harvest is come

30 ¶ And he said, [f] Whereunto shall we liken the kingdom of God? or with what comparison shall we compare it?

31 It is like a grain of mustard seed, which, when it is sown in the earth, is less than all the seeds that be in the earth:

32 But when it is sown, it groweth up, and becometh greater than all herbs, and shooteth out great branches; so that the fowls of the air may lodge under the shadow of it.

33 [g] And with many such parables spake he the word unto them, as they were able to hear it.

34 But without a parable spake he not unto them: and when they were alone, he expounded all things to his disciples.

35 [h] And the same day, when the even was come, he saith unto them, Let us pass over unto the other side.

36 And when they had sent away the multitude, they took him even as he was in the ship. And there were also with him other little ships.

37 And there arose a great storm of wind, and the waves beat into the ship, so that it was now full.

38 And he was in the hinder part of the ship, asleep on a pillow: and they awake him, and say unto him, Master, carest thou not that we perish?

39 And he arose, and rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, Peace, be still. And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm.

40 And he said unto them, Why are ye so fearful? how is it that ye have no faith?

41 And they feared exceedingly, and said one to another, What manner of man is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?

CHAPTER 5.

1 Christ casteth out the legion of devils 25 He healeth the bloody issue, 35 and raiseth Jairus daughter.

AND [b] they came over unto the other side of the sea, into the country of the Gadarenes.

2 And when he was come out of the ship, immediately there met him out of the tombs a man with an unclean spirit,

3 Who had his dwelling among the tombs; and no man could bind him, no, not with chains:

4 Because that he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been plucked asunder by him, and the fetters broken in pieces: neither could any man tame him.

5 And always, night and day, he was in the mountains, and in the tombs, crying, and cutting himself with stones.

6 But when he saw Jesus afar off, he ran and worshipped him,

7 And cried with a loud voice, and said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of the most high God? I adjure thee by God, that thou torment me not.

8 For he said unto him, Come out of the man, thou unclean spirit.

9 And he asked him, What is thy name? And he answered, saying, My name is Legion: for we are many.

10 And he besought him much that he would not send them away out of the country.

11 Now there was there nigh unto the mountains a great herd of swine feeding.

12 And all the devils besought him, saying, Send us into the swine, that we may enter into them.

13 And forthwith Jesus gave them leave. And the unclean spirits went out, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the sea, (they were about two thousand;) and were choked in the sea.

14 And they that fed the swine fled, and told it in the city, and in the country. And they went out to see what it was that was done.

15 And they come to Jesus, and see him that was possessed with the devil, and had the legion, sitting, and clothed, and in his right mind: and they were afraid.

16 And they that saw it told them how it befell to him that was possessed with the devil, and also concerning the swine.

17 And [i] they began to pray him to depart out of their coasts.

18 And when he was come into the ship, [a]he that had been possessed with the devil prayed him that he might be with him

19 Howbeit Jesus suffered him not, but saith unto him, Go home to thy friends, and tell them how great things the Lord hath done for thee, and hath had compassion on thee

20 And he departed, and began to publish in Decapolis how great things Jesus had done for him: and all men did marvel

21 [b] And when Jesus was passed over again by ship unto the other side, much people gathered unto him: and he was nigh unto the sea

22 [d]And, behold, there cometh one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jairus by name, and when he saw him, he fell at his feet,

23 And besought him greatly, saying, My little daughter lieth at the point of death: I pray thee, come and lay thy hands on her, that she may be healed; and she shall live

24 And Jesus went with him; and much people followed him, and thronged him

25 And a certain woman, [f]which had an issue of blood twelve years,

26 And had suffered many things of many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was nothing bettered, but rather grew worse,

27 When she had heard of Jesus, came in the press behind, and touched his garment

28 For she said, If I may touch but his clothes, I shall be whole

29 And straightway the fountain of her blood was dried up; and she felt in her body that she was healed of that plague

30 And Jesus immediately knowing in himself that [i]virtue had gone out of him, turned him about in the press, and said, Who touched my clothes?

31 And his disciples said unto him, Thou seest the multitude thronging thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me?

32 And he looked round about to see her that had done this thing

33 But the woman fearing and trembling, knowing what was done in her, came and fell down before him, and told him all the truth

34 And he said unto her, Daughter, [o]thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace, and be whole of thy plague

35 [p]While he yet spake, there came from the ruler of the synagogue's house certain which said, Thy daughter is dead: why troublest thou the Master any further?

36 As soon as Jesus heard the word that was spoken, he saith unto the ruler of the synagogue, Be not afraid, only believe

37 And he suffered no man to follow him, save Peter, and James, and John the brother of James

38 And he cometh to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, and seeth the tumult, and them that wept and wailed greatly

39 And when he was come in, he saith unto them, Why make ye this ado, and weep? the damsel is not dead, but [e]sleepeth

40 And they laughed him to scorn. [e]But when he had put them all out, he taketh the father and the mother of the damsel, and them that were with him, and entereth in where the damsel was lying.

41 And he took the damsel by the hand, and said unto her, Talitha cumi; which is, being interpreted, Damsel, I say unto thee, arise

42 And straightway the damsel arose, and walked; for she was of the age of twelve years. And they were astonished with a great astonishment

43 And [t]he charged them straitly that no man should know it; and commanded that something should be given her to eat

CHAPTER 6

1 Christ is contemned of his countrymen 7 He giveth the twelve power over unclean spirits 14 Divers opinions of Christ 27 John Baptist is beheaded 30 The apostles return from preaching 34 The miracle of five loaves and two fishes 48 Christ walketh on the sea 55 and healeth all that touch him

AND [h]he went out from thence, and came into his own country; and his disciples follow him

2 And when the sabbath day was come, he began to teach in the synagogue: and many hearing him were astonished, saying, [k]From whence hath this man these things? and what wisdom is this which is given unto him, that even such mighty works are wrought by his hands?

3 Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary, [l]the brother of James, and Joses, and of Juda, and Simon? and are not his sisters here with us? And they [m]were offended at him

4 But Jesus said unto them, [n]A prophet is not without honour, but in his own country, and among his own kin, and in his own house

5 [n]And he could there do no mighty work, save that he laid his hands upon a few sick folk, and healed them

6 And [r]he marvelled because of their unbelief [a]And he went round about the villages, teaching

7 ¶ [b]And he called unto him the twelve, and began to send them forth by two and two, and gave them power over unclean spirits;

8 And commanded them that they should take nothing for their journey, save a staff only; no scrip, no bread, no [1]money in their purse

9 But [d]be shod with sandals, and not put on two coats

10 [e]And he said unto them, In what place soever ye enter into an house, there abide till ye depart from that place

11 [f]And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear you, when ye depart thence, [h]shake off the dust under your feet for a testimony against them Verily I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Sodom [i]and Gomorrha in the day of judgment, than for that city.

12 And they went out, and preached that men should repent

13 And they cast out many devils, [k]and anointed with oil many that were sick, and healed them

14 [l]And king Herod heard of him, (for his name was spread abroad) and he said, That John the Baptist was risen from the dead, and therefore mighty works do shew forth themselves in him.

15 [o]Others said, That it is Elias And others said, That it is a prophet, or as one of the prophets

16 [q]But when Herod heard thereof, he said, It is John, whom I beheaded he is risen from the dead

17 For Herod himself had sent forth and laid hold upon John and bound him in prison for Herodias' sake, his brother Philip's wife. for he had married her

18 For John had said unto Herod, [s]It is not lawful for thee to have thy brother's wife

19 Therefore Herodias had [t]a quarrel against him, and would have killed him, but she could not

20 For Herod [x]feared John, knowing that he was a just man and an holy, and [5]observed him, and when he heard him, he did many things, and heard him gladly.

21 [y]And when a convenient day was come, that Herod [z]on his birthday made a supper to his lords, high captains, and chief estates of Galilee;

22 And when the daughter of the said Herodias came in, and danced, and pleased Herod and them that sat with him, the king said unto the damsel, Ask of me whatsoever thou wilt, and I will give it thee

23 And he sware unto her, [c]Whatsoever thou shalt ask of me, I will give it thee, unto the half of my kingdom.

24 And she went forth, and said unto her mother, What shall I ask? And she said, The head of John the Baptist

25 And she came in straightway with haste unto the king, and asked, saying, I will that thou give me by and by in a charger the head of John the Baptist

26 [f]And the king was exceeding sorry; yet for his oath's sake, and for their sakes which sat with him, he would not reject her

27 And immediately the king sent [2]an executioner, and commanded his head to be brought and he went and beheaded him in the prison, 28 And brought his head in a charger, and gave it to the damsel and the damsel gave it to her mother.

29 And when his disciples heard of it, they came and took up his corpse, and laid it in a tomb

30 [k]And the apostles gathered themselves together unto Jesus, and told him all things, both what they had done, and what they had taught.

31 [m]And he said unto them, Come ye yourselves apart into a desert place, and rest a while for [n]there were many coming and going, and they had no leisure so much as to eat

32 [p]And they departed into a desert place by ship privately

33 And the people saw them departing and many knew him, and ran afoot thither out of all cities, and outwent them, and came together unto him.

34 [r]And Jesus, when he came out, saw much people, and was moved with compassion toward them, because they were as sheep not having a shepherd: and [s]he began to teach them many things

35 [u]And when the day was now far spent, his disciples came unto him, and said, This is a desert place, and now the time is far passed

36 Send them away, that they may go into the country round about, and into the villages, and buy themselves bread for they have nothing to eat.

37 He answered and said unto them, Give ye them to eat And they say unto him, [v]Shall we go and buy two hundred [6]pennyworth of bread, and give them to eat?

38 He saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? go and see. And when they knew, they say, [b]Five, and two fishes.

39 And he commanded them to make all sit down by companies upon the green grass

40 And they sat down in ranks, by hundreds, and by fifties

41 And when he had taken the five loaves and the two fishes, he looked up to heaven, [a] and blessed, and brake the loaves, and gave them to his disciples to set before them: and the two fishes divided he among them all

47 [e] And when even was come, the ship was in the midst of the sea, and he alone on the land.

48 And he saw them toiling in rowing; for the wind was contrary unto them: and about the fourth watch of the night he cometh unto them, walking upon the sea, and [g] would have passed by them

49 But when they saw him walking upon the sea, they supposed it had been a spirit, and cried out:

50 For they all saw him, and were troubled. And immediately he talked with them, and saith unto them, Be of good cheer: it is I; be not afraid 51 And he went up unto them into the ship; and the wind ceased: and they were sore amazed in themselves beyond measure and wondered.

52 For [i] they considered not the miracle of the loaves: for their [j] heart was hardened.

53 [k] And when they had passed over, they came into the land of Gennesaret, and drew to the shore.

54 And when they were come out of the ship, straightway they knew him, 55 And ran through that whole region round about, and began to carry about in beds those that were sick, where they heard he was.

56 And whithersoever he entered, into villages, or cities, or country, they laid the sick in the streets, and besought him that [l] they might touch if it were but the border of his garment: and as many as touched [m] him were made whole.

CHAPTER 7.

1 The Pharisees find fault at the disciples for eating with unwashen hands. 14 Meat defileth not the man. 24 Christ healeth the Syrophenician woman's daughter, 31 and one that was deaf, and a stammerer in his speech

THEN [a] came together unto him the Pharisees, and certain of the scribes, which came from Jerusalem

2 And when they saw some of his disciples eat bread with [1] defiled, that is to say, with unwashen, hands, they found fault.

3 For the Pharisees, and all the Jews, except they wash their hands [2] oft, eat not, holding the tradition of the elders.

4 And when they come from the market, except they wash, they eat not. And many other things there be, which they have received to hold, as the washing of cups, and [4] pots, brasen vessels, and of [5] tables

5 [d] Then the Pharisees and scribes asked him, Why walk not thy disciples according to the tradition of the elders, but eat bread with unwashen hands?

6 He answered and said unto them, Well hath Esaias prophesied of you hypocrites, as it is written, [f] This people honoureth me with their lips, but their heart is far from me.

7 Howbeit in vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.

8 For laying aside the commandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men, as the washing of pots and cups: and many other such like things ye do.

9 And he said unto them, Full well ye [6] reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition.

10 For Moses said, [h] Honour thy father and thy mother; and, [i] Whoso curseth father or mother, let him die the death:

11 But ye say, If a man shall say to his father or mother, It is [m] Corban, that is to say, a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me, he shall be free.

12 And ye suffer him no more to do ought for his father or his mother;

13 Making the word of God of none effect through your tradition, which ye have delivered: and many such like things do ye.

14 ¶ [o] And when he had called all the people unto him, he said unto them, Hearken unto me every one of you, and understand:

15 There is nothing from without a man, that entering into him can defile him: but the things which come out of him, those are they that defile the man.

16 [a]If any man have ears to hear, let him hear.

17 [c]And when he was entered into the house from the people, his disciples asked him concerning the parable.

18 And he saith unto them, Are ye so without understanding also? Do ye not perceive, that whatsoever thing from without entereth into the man, it cannot defile him;

19 Because it entereth not into his heart, but into the belly, and goeth out into the draught, purging all meats?

20 And he said, That which cometh out of the man, that defileth the man.

21 [c]For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders,

22 Thefts, [1]covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness:

23 All these evil things come from within, and defile the man.

24 ¶ [d]And from thence he arose, and went into the borders of Tyre and Sidon, and entered into an house, and would have no man know it: but he could not be hid.

25 For a certain woman, whose young daughter had an unclean spirit, heard of him, and came and fell at his feet:

26 The woman was a [2]Greek, a Syrophenician by nation; and she besought him that he would cast forth the devil out of her daughter.

27 But Jesus said unto her, Let the children first be filled: for it is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it unto the dogs.

28 And she answered and said unto him, Yes, Lord: yet the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs.

29 And he said unto her, For this saying go thy way; the devil is gone out of thy daughter.

30 And when she was come to her house, she found the devil gone out, and her daughter laid upon the bed.

31 ¶ [k]And again, departing from the coasts of Tyre and Sidon, he came unto the sea of Galilee, through the midst of the coasts of Decapolis.

32 And [m]they bring unto him one that was deaf, and had an impediment in his speech; and they beseech him to put his hand upon him.

33 And he took him aside from the multitude, and put his fingers into his ears, and [n]he spit, and touched his tongue;

34 And [o]looking up to heaven, [p]he sighed, and saith unto him, Ephphatha, that is, Be opened.

35 [q]And straightway his ears were opened, and the string of his tongue was loosed, and he spake plain.

36 And [r]he charged them that they should tell no man: but the more he charged them, so much the more a great deal they published it;

37 And were beyond measure astonished, saying, He hath done all things well: he maketh both the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak.

CHAPTER 8.

1 Christ feedeth the people miraculously 10 refuseth a sign 14 admonisheth his disciples to beware of the leaven of the Pharisees 22 giveth a blind man his sight 27 acknowledgeth that he is the Christ, who should suffer and rise again 34 and exhorteth to patience in persecution.

IN those days [f]the multitude being very great, and having nothing to eat, Jesus called his disciples unto him, and saith unto them,

2 I have compassion on the multitude, because they have now been with me three days, and have nothing to eat:

3 And if I send them away fasting to their own houses, they will faint by the way: for divers of them came from far.

4 And his disciples answered him, From whence can a man satisfy these men with bread here in the wilderness?

5 [h]And he asked them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven.

6 And he commanded the people to sit down on the ground: and he took the seven loaves, and gave thanks, and brake, and gave to his disciples to set before them, and they did set them before the people.

7 And they had a few small fishes: and [i]he blessed, and commanded to set them also before them.

8 So they did eat, and were filled: and they took up of the broken meat that was left seven baskets.

9 And they that had eaten were about four thousand: and he sent them away.

10 ¶ And [t]straightway he entered into a ship with his disciples, and came into the parts of Dalmanutha.

11 [u]And the Pharisees came forth, and began to question with him, seeking of him a sign from heaven, tempting him.

12 And he sighed deeply in his spirit, and saith, Why doth this generation seek after a sign? verily I say unto you, There shall no sign be given unto this generation.

15 [b]And he charged them, saying, Take heed, beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, and of the leaven of Herod.

16 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is [c]because we have no bread.

17 And when Jesus knew it, he saith unto them, Why reason ye, because ye have no bread? [d]perceive ye not yet, neither understand? have ye your heart yet hardened?

18 Having eyes, see ye not? and having ears, hear ye not? and do ye not remember?

19 [e]When I brake the five loaves among five thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? They say unto him, Twelve.

20 And [f]when the seven among four thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? And they said, Seven.

21 And he said unto them, How is it that [g]ye do not understand?

22 ¶ And he cometh to Bethsaida; and they bring a blind man unto him, and besought him to touch him.

23 And he took the blind man by the hand, and led him out of the town; and when [m]he had spit on his eyes, and put his hands upon him, he asked him if he saw ought.

24 And he looked up, and said, I see men as trees, walking.

25 After that he put his hands again upon his eyes, and made him look up: and he was restored, and saw every man clearly.

26 And he sent him away to his house, saying, Neither go into the town, [n]nor tell it to any in the town.

27 ¶ [o]And Jesus went out, and his disciples, into the towns of Cæsarea Philippi: and by the way he asked his disciples, saying unto them, Whom do men say that I am?

28 And they answered, [p]John the Baptist: but some say, Elias; and others, One of the prophets.

29 And he saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am? And Peter answereth and saith unto him, [q]Thou art the Christ.

30 [r]And he charged them that they should tell no man of him.

31 And [s]he began to teach them, that the Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders, and of the chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again.

32 And he spake that saying openly. And Peter took him, and began to rebuke him.

33 But when he had turned about and looked on his disciples, he rebuked Peter, saying, Get thee behind me, Satan: for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but the things that be of men.

34 ¶ And when he had called the people unto him with his disciples also, he said unto them, [d]Whosoever will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.

35 For [f]whosoever will save his life shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the gospel's, the same shall save it.

36 For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?

37 Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

38 [t]Whosoever therefore [k]shall be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation; of him also shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.

CHAPTER 9.

2 Jesus is transfigured 11 Concerning the coming of Elias 14 He casteth forth a dumb and deaf spirit 30 foretelleth his death and resurrection 33 exhorteth his disciples to humility 38 bidding them not to prohibit such as be not against them.

AND he said unto them, [u]Verily I say unto you, That there be some of them that stand here, which shall not taste of death, till they have seen [v]the kingdom of God come with power.

2 ¶ [w]And after six days Jesus taketh with him Peter, and James, and John, and leadeth them up into an high mountain apart by themselves: and he was transfigured before them.

3 And his raiment became shining, exceeding [x]white as snow; so as no fuller on earth can white them.

4 And there appeared unto them Elias with Moses: and they were talking with Jesus.

5 And Peter answered and said to Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias.

6 For he wist not what to say; for they were sore afraid.

7 And there was a cloud that overshadowed them: and a voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: hear him.

8 And suddenly, when they had looked round about, they saw no man any more, save Jesus only with themselves.

9 [c]And as they came down from the mountain, he charged them that they should tell no man what things they had seen, till the Son of man were risen from the dead.

10 And they kept that saying with themselves, questioning one with another what the rising from the dead should mean.

11 ¶ And they asked him, saying, Why say the scribes [b]that Elias must first come?

12 And he answered and told them, Elias verily cometh first, and restoreth all things; and [d]how it is written of the Son of man, that he must suffer many things, and [e]be set at nought.

13 But I say unto you, That [f]Elias is indeed come, and they have done unto him whatsoever they listed, as it is written of him.

14 ¶ [g]And when he came to his disciples, he saw a great multitude about them, and the scribes questioning with them.

15 And straightway all the people, when they beheld him, were greatly amazed, and running to him saluted him.

16 And he asked the scribes, What question ye [1]with them?

17 And [k]one of the multitude answered and said, Master, I have brought unto thee my son, which hath a dumb spirit;

18 And wheresoever he taketh him, he [2]teareth him: and he foameth, and gnasheth with his teeth, and pineth away: and I spake to thy disciples that they should cast him out; and they could not.

19 He answereth him, and saith, O faithless generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him unto me.

20 And they brought him unto him: and [o]when he saw him, straightway the spirit tare him; and he fell on the ground, and wallowed foaming.

21 And he asked his father, How long is it ago since this came unto him? And he said, Of a child.

22 And ofttimes it hath cast him into the fire, and into the waters, to destroy him: but if thou canst do any thing, have compassion on us, and help us.

23 Jesus said unto him, [t]If thou canst believe, all things are possible to him that believeth.

24 And straightway the father of the child cried out, and said with tears, Lord, I believe; help thou mine unbelief.

25 When Jesus saw that the people came running together, he rebuked the foul spirit, saying unto him, Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I charge thee, come out of him, and enter no more into him

26 And the spirit cried, and rent him sore, and came out of him: and he was as one dead, insomuch that many said, He is dead.

27 But Jesus took him by the hand, and lifted him up; and he arose

28 [c]And when he was come into the house, his disciples asked him privately, Why could not we cast him out?

29 And he said unto them, This kind can come forth by nothing, but by prayer and fasting

30 ¶ And they departed thence, and passed through Galilee; and he would not that any man should know it.

31 [h]For he taught his disciples, and said unto them, The Son of man is delivered into the hands of men, and they shall kill him; and after that he is killed, he shall rise the third day.

32 But they understood not that saying, and were afraid to ask him

33 ¶ [i]And he came to Capernaum: and being in the house he asked them, What was it that ye disputed among yourselves by the way?

34 But they held their peace: for by the way they had disputed among themselves, who should be the greatest.

35 And he sat down, and called the twelve, and saith unto them, [l]If any man desire to be first, the same shall be last of all, and servant of all.

36 And [m]he took a child, and set him in the midst of them: and when he had taken him in his arms, he said unto them,

37 Whosoever shall receive one of such children in my name, receiveth me: and [n]whosoever shall receive me, receiveth not me, but him that sent me.

38 ¶ [p]And John answered him, saying, Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy name, and he followeth not us: and we forbad him, because he followeth not us.

39 But Jesus said, Forbid him not: [q]for there is no man which shall do a miracle in my name, that can lightly speak evil of me

40 For [r]he that is not against us is on our part.

Christ disputeth with the Pharisees touching divorcement 13 He blesseth the children 17 Instructeth a rich man how he may inherit life everlasting 23 The danger of riches 35 James and John reproved 46 Blind Bartimaeus restored to sight

AND [o]he arose from thence, and cometh into the coasts of Judæa by the farther side of Jordan: and the people resort unto him again; and, as he was wont, he taught them again.

2 ¶ [p]And the Pharisees came to him, and asked him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife? tempting him.

3 And he answered and said unto them, What did Moses command you?

4 And they said, [r]Moses suffered to write a bill of divorcement, and to put her away.

5 And Jesus answered and said unto them, For the hardness of your heart he wrote you this precept.

6 But from the beginning of the creation [u]God made them male and female.

7 [x]For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and cleave to his wife;

8 And they twain shall be one flesh: so then they are no more twain, but one flesh.

9 What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.

10 And in the house his disciples asked him again of the same matter.

11 And he saith unto them, [c]Whosoever shall put away his wife, and marry another, committeth adultery against her.

12 And if a woman shall put away her husband, and be married to another, she committeth adultery.

13 ¶ [f]And they brought young children to him, that he should touch them: and his disciples rebuked those that brought them.

14 But when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for [g]of such is the kingdom of God.

15 Verily I say unto you, [h]Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein.

16 And he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them.

17 ¶ [k]And when he was gone forth into the way, there came one running, and kneeled to him, and asked him, Good Master, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life?

18 And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? there is none good but one, that is, God.

19 Thou knowest the commandments, [o]Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Defraud not, Honour thy father and mother.

20 And he answered and said unto him, Master, all these have I observed from my youth.

21 Then Jesus beholding him loved him, and said unto him, One thing thou lackest: go thy way, sell whatsoever thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have [r]treasure in heaven: and come, take up the cross, and follow me.

22 And he was sad at that saying, and went away grieved: for he had great possessions.

23 ¶ [c]And Jesus looked round about, and saith unto his disciples, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God!

24 And the disciples were astonished at his words. But Jesus answereth again, and saith unto them, Children, 26 And they were astonished out of measure, saying among themselves, Who then can be saved?

32 ¶ [m] And they were in the way going up to Jerusalem; and Jesus went before them: and they were amazed; and as they followed, they were afraid. [n] And he took again the twelve, and began to tell them what things should happen unto him,

33 Saying, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be delivered unto the chief priests, and unto the scribes; and they shall condemn him to death, and shall deliver him to the Gentiles:

34 And they shall mock him, and shall scourge him, and shall spit upon him, and shall kill him: and the third day he shall rise again.

35 ¶ [o] And James and John, the sons of Zebedee, come unto him, saying, Master, we would that thou shouldest do for us whatsoever we shall desire.

36 And he said unto them, What would ye that I should do for you?

37 They said unto him, Grant unto us that we may sit, one on thy right hand, and the other on thy left hand, in thy glory.

38 But Jesus said unto them, Ye know not what ye ask: can ye drink of the cup that I drink of? and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?

39 And they said unto him, We can. And Jesus said unto them, Ye shall indeed drink of the cup that I drink of; and with the baptism that I am baptized withal shall ye be baptized:

40 But to sit on my right hand and on my left hand is not mine to give; but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared.

41 [b] And when the ten heard it, they began to be much displeased with James and John.

42 But Jesus called them to him, and saith unto them, [e] Ye know that they which [1] are accounted to rule over the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and their great ones exercise authority upon them.

43 [f] But so shall it not be among you: but whosoever will be great among you, shall be your minister:

44 And whosoever of you will be the chiefest, shall be servant of all.

45 For even [h] the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and [k] to give his life a ransom for many.

46 ¶ [k] And they came to Jericho: and as he went out of Jericho with his disciples and a great number of people, blind Bartimæus, the son of Timæus, sat by the highway side begging.

47 And when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out, and say, Jesus, thou son of David, have mercy on me.

48 And many charged him that he should hold his peace: but he cried the more a great deal, Thou son of David, have mercy on me.

49 And Jesus stood still, and commanded him to be called. And they call the blind man, saying unto him, Be of good comfort, rise; he calleth thee.

50 And he, casting away his garment, rose, and came to Jesus.

51 And Jesus answered and said unto him, What wilt thou that I should do unto thee? The blind man said unto him, Lord, that I might receive my sight.

52 And Jesus said unto him, Go thy way; [p] thy faith hath [2] made thee whole. And immediately he received his sight, and followed Jesus in the way.

Bethany, at the mount of Olives, he sendeth forth two of his disciples,
2 And saith unto them, Go your way into the village over against you: and as soon as ye be entered into it, ye shall find a colt tied, whereon never man sat; loose him, and bring him.
3 And if any man say unto you, Why do ye this? say ye that the Lord hath need of him; and straightway he will send him hither.
4 And they went their way, and found the colt tied by the door without in a place where two ways met; and they loose him.
5 And certain of them that stood there said unto them, What do ye, loosing the colt?
6 And they said unto them even as Jesus had commanded: and they let them go.
7 And they brought the colt to Jesus, and cast their garments on him; and he sat upon him.
8 [g] And many spread their garments in the way: and others cut down branches off the trees, and strawed them in the way.

10 Blessed be the kingdom of our father David, that cometh in the name of the Lord. [i] Hosanna in the highest.
11 [m] And Jesus entered into Jerusalem, and into the temple: and when he had looked round about upon all things, and now the eventide was come, he went out unto Bethany with the twelve.
12 ¶ [p] And on the morrow, when they were come from Bethany, he was hungry:
13 [q] And seeing a fig tree afar off having leaves, he came, if haply he might find any thing thereon: and when he came to it, he found nothing but leaves; for the time of figs was not yet.
14 And Jesus answered and said unto it, No man eat fruit of thee hereafter for ever. And his disciples heard it.
15 ¶ [r] And they come to Jerusalem: and Jesus went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the money-changers, and the seats of them that sold doves;
16 And would not suffer that any man should carry any vessel through the temple.

18 And [c] the scribes and chief priests heard it, and sought how they might destroy him: for they feared him, because [d] all the people was astonished at his doctrine.
19 And when even was come, he went out of the city.
20 ¶ [e] And in the morning, as they passed by, they saw the fig tree dried up from the roots.
21 And Peter calling to remembrance saith unto him, Master, behold, the fig tree which thou cursedst is withered away.
22 And Jesus answering saith unto them, [2] Have faith in God.

27 ¶ And they come again to Jerusalem: [o] and as he was walking in the temple, there come to him the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders, 28 And say unto him, By what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority to do these things?

33 And they answered and said unto Jesus, We cannot tell. And Jesus answering saith unto them, Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things.

CHAPTER 12

1 The parable of the vineyard let out to unthankful husbandmen 13 Of paying tribute to Cæsar 18 Error of the Sadducees 28 The first commandment 35 Christ is 41 The poor widow is commended

AND [a]he began to speak unto them by parables A certain man planted a vineyard, and set an hedge about it, and digged a place for the winefat, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country.

2 And at the season he sent to the husbandmen a servant, that he might receive from the husbandmen of the fruit of the vineyard.

3 And they caught him, and beat him, and sent him away empty.

4 And again he sent unto them another servant; and at him they cast stones, and wounded him in the head, and sent him away shamefully handled.

5 And again he sent another; and him they killed, and many others; beating some, and killing some.

6 Having yet therefore one son, his wellbeloved, he sent him also last unto them, saying, They will reverence my son

7 But those husbandmen said among themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and the inheritance shall be our's.

8 And they took him, and killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard

9 What shall therefore the lord of the vineyard do? he will come and destroy the husbandmen, and will give the vineyard unto others

10 And have ye not read this scripture, [f]The stone which the builders rejected is become the head of the corner:

11 This was the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes?

12 [h]And they sought to lay hold on him, but feared the people for they knew that he had spoken the parable against them: and they left him, and went their way.

13 ¶ [i]And they send unto him certain of the Pharisees and of the Herodians, to catch him in his words

14 And when they were come, they say unto him, Master, we know that thou art true, and carest for no man for thou regardest not the person of men, but teachest the way of God in truth: Is it lawful to give tribute to Cæsar, or not?

15 Shall we give, or shall we not give? But he, knowing their hypocrisy, said unto them, Why tempt ye me? bring me a [k]penny, that I may see it.

16 And they brought it And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription? And they said unto him, Cæsar's

17 And Jesus answering said unto them, Render to Cæsar the things that are Cæsar's, and to God the things that are God's. And they marvelled at him

18 ¶ [b]Then come unto him the Sadducees, [c]which say there is no resurrection; and they asked him, saying,

19 Master, [d]Moses wrote unto us, If a man's brother die, and leave his wife behind him, and leave no children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

20 Now there were seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and dying left no seed.

21 And the second took her, and died, neither left he any seed: and the third likewise

22 And the seven had her, and left no seed: last of all the woman died also.

23 In the resurrection therefore, when they shall rise, whose wife shall she be of them? for the seven had her to wife.

24 And Jesus answering said unto them, Do ye not therefore err, because ye know not the scriptures, neither the power of God?

25 For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage; but [e]are as the angels which are in heaven.

26 And as touching the dead, that they rise: have ye not read in the book of Moses, how in the bush God spake unto him, saying, [g]I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob?

27 He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the living: ye therefore do greatly err

28 ¶ [l]And one of the scribes came, and having heard them reasoning together, and perceiving that he had answered them well, asked him Which is the first commandment of all?

29 And Jesus answered him, The first of all the commandments is, [l]Hear, O Israel; The Lord our God is one Lord 30 And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandment.

33 And to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbour as himself, [e]is more than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices

34 And when Jesus saw that he answered discreetly, he said unto him, Thou art not far from the kingdom of God. [g]And no man after that durst ask him any question

35 ¶ [h]And Jesus answered and said, while he taught in the temple, How say the scribes that Christ is the son of David?

36 For David himself said [i]by the Holy Ghost, [k]The LORD said to my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool

40 [p]Which devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayers: these shall receive greater damnation.

41 ¶ [q]And Jesus sat over against the treasury, and beheld how the people cast [r]money [s]into the treasury: and many that were rich cast in much.

42 And there came a certain poor widow, and she threw in two [t]mites, which make a farthing.

43 And he called unto him his disciples, and saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, That [u]this poor widow hath cast more in, than all they which have cast into the treasury:

44 For all they did cast in of their abundance, but she of her want did cast in all that she had, [x]even all her living.

AND [a]as he went out of the temple, one of his disciples saith unto him, Master, see what manner of stones and what buildings are here!

2 And Jesus answering said unto him, Seest thou these great buildings? [b]there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

3 And as he sat upon the mount of Olives over against the temple, Peter and James and John and Andrew asked him privately, 4 [d]Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign when all these things shall be fulfilled?

5 And Jesus answering them began to say, [f]Take heed lest any man deceive you:

6 For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ, and shall deceive many.

7 And when ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars, be ye not troubled: for such things must needs be; but the end shall not be yet.

8 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be earthquakes in divers places, and there shall be famines and troubles: [i]these are the beginnings of sorrows.

9 ¶ But [m]take heed to yourselves: for they shall deliver you up to councils; and in the synagogues ye shall be beaten: and ye shall be brought before rulers and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them.

10 And [p]the gospel must first be published among all nations.

11 But when they shall lead you, and deliver you up, take no thought beforehand what ye shall speak, neither do ye premeditate: but whatsoever shall be given you in that hour, that speak ye: for it is not ye that speak, [r]but the Holy Ghost.

12 Now [s]the brother shall betray the brother to death, and the father the son; and children shall rise up against their parents, and shall cause them to be put to death.

13 [t]And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: but [u]he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.

14 ¶ [x]But when ye shall see the abomination of desolation, [y]spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing where it ought not, (let him that readeth understand,) then [z]let them that be in Judæa flee to the mountains:

CHAPTER 14.

1 A conspiracy against Christ 3 Precious ointment is poured on his head. 10 Judas selleth his Master 12 Christ himself foretelleth how he shall be betrayed 22 instituteth his supper 53 He is falsely accused, 65 and shamefully abused 68 He is thrice denied of Peter

AFTER [c]two days was the feast of the passover, and of unleavened bread: and the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might take him by craft, and put him to death.

2 But they said, Not on the feast day, lest there be an uproar of the people.

3 ¶ [e]And being in Bethany in the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at meat, there came a woman having an alabaster box of ointment of [1]spikenard very precious; and she brake the box, and poured it on his head

4 And there were some that had indignation within themselves, and said, Why was this waste of the ointment made?

5 For it might have been sold for more than three hundred [2]pence, and have been given to the poor. And they murmured against her.

6 And Jesus said, Let her alone; why trouble ye her? she hath wrought a good work on me.

7 For [i]ye have the poor with you always, and whensoever ye will ye may do them good: but me ye have not always.

8 She hath done what she could: she is come aforehand to anoint my body to the burying.

9 Verily I say unto you, Wheresoever this gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, this also that she hath done shall be spoken of for a memorial of her

10 ¶ [m]And Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve, went unto the chief priests, to betray him unto them.

11 And when they heard it, they were glad, and promised to give him money. And he sought how he might conveniently betray him.

12 ¶ [o]And the first day of unleavened bread, when they [3]killed the passover, his disciples said unto him, Where wilt thou that we go and prepare that thou mayest eat the passover?

13 And he sendeth forth two of his disciples, and saith unto them, Go ye into the city, and there shall meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water follow him.

14 And wheresoever he shall go in, say ye to the goodman of the house, The Master saith, Where is the guest chamber, where I shall eat the pass over with my disciples?

15 And he will shew you a large upper room furnished and prepared there make ready for us.

16 And his disciples went forth, and came into the city, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover.

17 [c]And in the evening he cometh with the twelve

18 And as they sat and did eat, Jesus said, Verily I say unto you, One of you which eateth with me shall betray me

19 And they began to be sorrowful, and to say unto him one by one, Is it I? and another said, Is it I?

20 And he answered and said unto them, It is one of the twelve, that dippeth with me in the dish

21 [h]The Son of man indeed goeth, as it is written of him but woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! good were it for that man if he had never been born.

22 ¶ [i]And as they did eat, Jesus took bread, and blessed, and brake it, and gave to them, and said, Take, eat this is my body

23 And he took the cup and when he had given thanks he gave it to them and they all drank of it.

24 And he said unto them This is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many 25 Verily I say unto you, I will drink no more of the fruit of the vine, until that day that I drink it new in the kingdom of God.

26 ¶ [n]And when they had sung an [l]hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives

27 [o]And Jesus saith unto them All ye shall be offended because of me this night: for it is written, [p]I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered 28 But [q]after that I am risen, I will go before you into Galilee.

29 [r]But Peter said unto him, Although all shall be offended, yet will not I

30 And Jesus saith unto him, Verily I say unto thee, That this day, even in this night, before the cock crow twice thou shalt deny me thrice

31 But he spake the more vehemently, If I should die with thee, I will not deny thee in any wise. Likewise also said they all.

32 [a]And they came to a place which was named Gethsemane and he saith to his disciples, Sit ye here, while I shall pray

33 And he taketh with him Peter and James and John, and began to be sore amazed, and to be very heavy, 34 And saith unto them, [b]My soul is exceeding sorrowful unto death tarry ye here, and watch.

35 And he went forward a little and fell on the ground, and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass from him

36 And he said, [d]Abba, Father, [e]all things are possible unto thee; take away this cup from me: [f]nevertheless not what I will, but what thou wilt 37 And he cometh, and findeth them sleeping, and saith unto Peter, Simon, sleepest thou? couldest not thou watch one hour?

38 Watch ye and pray, lest ye enter into temptation. [g]The spirit truly is ready, but the flesh is weak

39 And again he went away, and prayed, and spake the same words

40 And when he returned, he found them asleep again, (for their eyes were heavy,) neither wist they what to answer him.

41 And he cometh the third time, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest it is enough, [k]the hour is come; behold, the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners

42 Rise up, let us go; lo, he that betrayeth me is at hand.

43 ¶ [m]And immediately, while he yet spake, cometh Judas, one of the twelve, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and the scribes and the elders

44 And he that betrayed him had given them a token, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he, take him, and lead him away safely

45 And as soon as he was come he goeth straightway to him, and saith, Master, master; and kissed him

46 ¶ And they laid their hands on him, and took him

47 And one of them that stood by drew a sword, and smote a servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear

48 [s]And Jesus answered and said unto them, Are ye come out, as against a thief, with swords and with staves to take me?

49 I was daily with you in the temple teaching, and ye took me not: but [t]the scriptures must be fulfilled.

51 And there followed him a certain young man, having a linen cloth cast about his naked body; and the young men laid hold on him:

52 And he left the linen cloth, and fled from them naked.

53 ¶ [c] And they led Jesus away to the high priest: and with him were assembled all the chief priests and the elders and the scribes.

54 And Peter followed him afar off, even into the palace of the high priest: and he sat with the servants, and warmed himself at the fire.

55 [g] And the chief priests and all the council sought for witness against Jesus to put him to death; and found none.

56 For many bare false witness against him, but their witness agreed not together.

57 And there arose certain, and bare false witness against him, saying,

58 We heard him say, [i] I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and within three days I will build another made without hands

59 But neither so did their witness agree together.

60 [l] And the high priest stood up in the midst, and asked Jesus, saying, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witness against thee?

61 But [m] he held his peace, and answered nothing. [o] Again the high priest asked him, and said unto him, Art thou the Christ, the Son of the Blessed?

62 And Jesus said, I am: [q] and ye shall see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven.

63 Then the high priest rent his clothes, and saith, What need we any further witnesses?

64 Ye have heard the blasphemy: what think ye? And they all condemned him to be guilty of death.

65 And some began to spit on him, and to cover his face, and to buffet him, and to say unto him, Prophesy: and the servants did strike him with the palms of their hands.

66 ¶ [s] And as Peter was beneath in the palace, there cometh one of the maids of the high priest

67 And when she saw Peter warming himself, she looked upon him, and said, And thou also wast with Jesus of Nazareth.

68 But he denied, saying, I know not, neither understand I what thou sayest. And he went out into the porch; and the cock crew.

CHAPTER 15.

1 Jesus is brought bound, and accused before Pilate 15 Pilate giveth up Jesus to be crucified 17 He is crowned with thorns, 27 crucified between two thieves, 43 and honourably buried by Joseph.

AND [k] straightway in the morning the chief priests held a consultation with the elders and scribes and the whole council, and bound Jesus, and carried him away, and delivered him to Pilate.

2 [k] And Pilate asked him, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answering said unto him, Thou sayest it.

3 And the chief priests accused him of many things: but he answered nothing.

4 [m] And Pilate asked him again, saying, Answerest thou nothing? behold how many things they witness against thee.

5 [p] But Jesus yet answered nothing; so that Pilate marvelled.

6 Now [r] at that feast he released unto them one prisoner, whomsoever they desired.

7 And there was one named Barabbas, which lay bound with them that had made insurrection with him, who had committed murder in the insurrection

8 And the multitude crying aloud began to desire him to do as he had ever done unto them.

9 But Pilate answered them, saying, Will ye that I release unto you the King of the Jews?

10 For he knew that the chief priests had delivered him for envy

11 But [r] the chief priests moved the people, that he should rather release Barabbas unto them

12 And Pilate answered and said again unto them, What will ye then that I shall do unto him whom ye call the King of the Jews?

13 And they cried out again, Crucify him.

14 Then Pilate said unto them, Why, what evil hath he done? And they cried out the more exceedingly, Crucify him

15 ¶ [b]And so Pilate, willing to content the people, released Barabbas unto them, and delivered Jesus, when he had scourged him, to be crucified

16 [c]And the soldiers led him away into the hall, called Prætorium, and they call together the whole band

17 And they clothed him with purple, and platted a crown of thorns, and put it about his head, 18 And began to salute him, Hail, King of the Jews!

19 And they smote him on the head with a reed, and did spit upon him, and bowing their knees worshipped him

20 And when they had mocked him, they took off the purple from him, and put his own clothes on him, and led him out to crucify him.

21 [d]And they compel one Simon a Cyrenian, who passed by, coming out of the country, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to bear his cross

22 [e]And they bring him unto the place Golgotha, which is, being interpreted, The place of a skull

23 [f]And they gave him to drink wine mingled with myrrh: but he received it not.

24 And when they had crucified him, [g]they parted his garments, casting lots upon them, what every man should take.

25 And [h]it was the third hour, and they crucified him

26 And [i]the superscription of his accusation was written over, THE KING OF THE JEWS.

27 And [k]with him they crucify two thieves, the one on his right hand, and the other on his left.

28 And the scripture was fulfilled, which saith, [l]And he was numbered with the transgressors

29 And [m]they that passed by railed on him, wagging their heads, and saying, Ah, [n]thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days

30 Save thyself, and come down from the cross

31 Likewise also the chief priests mocking said among themselves with the scribes, He saved others; himself he cannot save

32 Let Christ the King of Israel descend now from the cross, that we may see and believe And [o]they that were crucified with him reviled him

33 And [p]when the sixth hour was come, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour.

35 And some of them that stood by, when they heard it, said, Behold, he calleth Elias.

36 And [b]one ran and filled a spunge full of vinegar, and put it on a reed, and [c]gave him to drink, saying, Let alone; let us see whether Elias will come to take him down

37 [d]And Jesus cried with a loud voice, and gave up the ghost

38 And [e]the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom

39 ¶ And [f]when the centurion, which stood over against him, saw that he so cried out and gave up the ghost, he said, Truly this man was the Son of God

40 [g]There were also women looking on [h]afar off: among whom was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the less and of Joses, and Salome;

41 (Who also, when he was in Galilee, [i]followed him and ministered unto him,) and many other women which came up with him unto Jerusalem

42 ¶ [k]And now when the even was come, because it was the preparation, that is, the day before the sabbath,

43 Joseph of Arimathæa, an honourable counsellor, which also [l]waited for the kingdom of God, came, and went in boldly unto Pilate, and craved the body of Jesus.

44 And Pilate marvelled if he were already dead: and calling unto him the centurion, he asked him whether he had been any while dead

45 And when he knew it of the centurion, he gave the body to Joseph

46 [m]And he bought fine linen, and took him down, and wrapped him in the linen, and laid him in a sepulchre which was hewn out of a rock, and rolled a stone unto the door of the sepulchre

47 And Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses beheld where he was laid.

1 An angel declareth the resurrection 9 Christ appeareth to Mary Magdalene 12 to two disciples 14 then to the apostles 15 whom he sendeth forth to preach the gospel 19 and ascendeth into heaven.

AND [t]when the sabbath was past Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, [u]had bought sweet spices, that they might come and anoint him.

2 [a]And very early in the morning the first day of the week, they came unto the sepulchre at the rising of the sun

3 And they said among themselves, Who shall roll us away the stone from the door of the sepulchre?

4 And when they looked, they saw that the stone was rolled away: for it was very great

5 [d]And entering into the sepulchre, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a long white garment; and they were affrighted

6 [e]And he saith unto them, Be not affrighted: Ye seek Jesus of Nazareth, which was crucified: he is risen, he is not here: behold the place where they laid him

7 But go your way, tell his disciples and Peter that he goeth before you into Galilee: there shall ye see him, [g]as he said unto you.

8 And they went out quickly, and fled from the sepulchre; for they trembled and were amazed: [o]neither said they any thing to any man; for they were afraid

9 ¶ Now when Jesus was risen early the first day of the week, [r]he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, [t]out of whom he had cast seven devils.

10 [z]And she went and told them that had been with him, as they mourned and wept

11 [a]And they, when they had heard that he was alive, and had been seen of her, believed not

12 ¶ After that he appeared in another form [b]unto two of them as they walked, and went into the country

13 And they went and told it unto the residue: neither believed they them

14 ¶ [c]Afterward he appeared unto the eleven as they sat [1]at meat, and upbraided them with their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they believed not them which had seen him after he was risen

15 [f]And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, [g]and preach the gospel to every creature

16 [h]He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; [i]but he that believeth not shall be damned

17 And these signs shall follow them that believe; [k]In my name shall they cast out devils; [l]they shall speak with new tongues;

18 [l]They shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; [p]they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover

19 ¶ So then [q]after the Lord had spoken unto them, he was [r]received up into heaven, and [s]sat on the right hand of God

20 And they went forth, and preached every where, the Lord working with them, [t]and confirming the word with signs following. Amen.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO

ST. LUKE.

CHAPTER 1.

1 The preface of Luke to his whole gospel. 5 The conception of John the Baptist. 26 and of Christ. 39 The prophecy of Elisabeth and of Mary concerning Christ. 57 The nativity of John. 67 The prophecy of Zacharias.

FORASMUCH as many have taken in hand to set forth in order a declaration of those things which are most surely believed among us,

2 [d]Even as they delivered them unto us, which [e]from the beginning were eyewitnesses, and ministers of the word;

3 [f]It seemed good to me also, having had perfect understanding of all things from the very first, to write unto thee [h]in order, [i]most excellent Theophilus,

4 [i]That thou mightest know the certainty of those things, wherein thou hast been instructed

5 ¶ THERE was [a]in the days of Herod, the king of Judæa, a certain priest named Zacharias, [b]of the course of Abia: and his wife was of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elisabeth.

6 And they were both [c]righteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord blameless.

7 And they had no child, because that Elisabeth was barren, and they both were now well stricken in years.

8 And it came to pass, that while he executed the priest's office before God [g]in the order of his course, 9 According to the custom of the priest's office his lot was [k]to burn incense when he went into the temple of the Lord.

10 [m]And the whole multitude of the people were praying without at the time of incense.

11 And there appeared unto him an angel of the Lord standing on the right side of [b]the altar of incense.

12 And when Zacharias saw him, [c]he was troubled, and fear fell upon him.

13 But the angel said unto him, Fear not, Zacharias: for thy prayer is heard; and thy wife Elisabeth shall bear thee a son, and [d]thou shalt call his name John.

14 And thou shalt have joy and gladness; and [e]many shall rejoice at his birth.

15 For he shall be great in the sight of the Lord, and [f]shall drink neither wine nor strong drink; and he shall be filled with the Holy Ghost, [g]even from his mother's womb.

16 [h]And many of the children of Israel shall he turn to the Lord their God.

17 [i]And he shall go before him in the spirit and power of Elias, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient [2]to the wisdom of the just; to make ready a people prepared for the Lord.

18 And Zacharias said unto the angel, [k]Whereby shall I know this? for I am an old man, and my wife well stricken in years.

19 And the angel answering said unto him, I am [l]Gabriel, that stand in the presence of God; and am sent to speak unto thee, and to shew thee these glad tidings.

20 And, behold, [m]thou shalt be dumb, and not able to speak, until the day that these things shall be performed, because thou believest not my words, which shall be fulfilled in their season.

21 And the people waited for Zacharias, and marvelled that he tarried so long in the temple.

22 And when he came out, he could not speak unto them: and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple: for he beckoned unto them, and remained speechless.

23 And it came to pass, that, as soon as [n]the days of his ministration were accomplished, he departed to his own house.

24 And after those days his wife Elisabeth conceived, and hid herself five months, saying, 25 Thus hath the Lord dealt with me in the days wherein he looked on me, to [o]take away my reproach among men.

26 And in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth, 27 To a virgin [p]espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the virgin's name was Mary.

28 And the angel came in unto her, and said, [q]Hail, thou that art [1]highly favoured, [r]the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women.

29 And when she saw him, [s]she was troubled at his saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be.

30 And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary: for thou hast found favour with God.

31 [t]And, behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and [u]shalt call his name JESUS.

32 He shall be great, [v]and shall be called the Son of the Highest: and [w]the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David.

33 [x]And he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end.

34 Then said Mary unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man?

35 And the angel answered and said unto her, [y]The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called [z]the Son of God.

36 And, behold, thy cousin Elisabeth, she hath also conceived a son in her old age: and this is the sixth month with her, who was called barren.

37 For [2]with God nothing shall be impossible.

38 And Mary said, Behold the handmaid of the Lord; be it unto me according to thy word. And the angel departed from her.

39 And Mary arose in those days, and went into the hill country with haste, [a]into a city of Juda;

40 And entered into the house of Zacharias, and saluted Elisabeth.

41 And it came to pass, that, when Elisabeth heard the salutation of Mary, the babe leaped in her womb; and Elisabeth was filled with the Holy Ghost:

42 And she spake out with a loud voice, and said, [b]Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb.

43 And whence is this to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me?

44 For, lo, as soon as the voice of thy salutation sounded in mine ears, the babe leaped in my womb for joy.

45 And blessed is she [1]that believed: for there shall be a performance of those things which were told her from the Lord.

46 And Mary said, [c]My soul doth magnify the Lord, 47 And my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.

48 For [f]he hath regarded the low estate of his handmaiden: for, behold, from henceforth [h]all generations shall call me blessed.

49 For he that is mighty [i]hath done to me great things; and [l]holy is his name.

50 And [m]his mercy is on them that fear him from generation to generation.

51 [n]He hath shewed strength with his arm; [p]he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.

52 [q]He hath put down the mighty from their seats, and exalted them of low degree.

53 [s]He hath filled the hungry with good things; and the rich he hath sent empty away.

54 He hath holpen his servant Israel, [x]in remembrance of his mercy;

55 [y]As he spake to our fathers, to Abraham, and to his seed for ever.

56 And Mary abode with her about three months, and returned to her own house.

57 Now Elisabeth's full time came that she should be delivered; and she brought forth a son.

58 And her neighbours and her cousins heard how the Lord had shewed great mercy upon her; and they rejoiced with her.

59 And it came to pass, that [c]on the eighth day they came to circumcise the child; and they called him Zacharias, after the name of his father.

60 And his mother answered and said, [f]Not so; but he shall be called John.

61 And they said unto her, There is none of thy kindred that is called by this name.

62 And they made signs to his father, how he would have him called 63 And he asked for a writing table, and wrote, saying, His name is John. And they marvelled all.

64 And his mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue loosed, and he spake, and praised God.

65 And fear came on all that dwelt round about them: and all these [6]sayings were noised abroad throughout all the hill country of Judæa.

66 And all they that heard them [h]laid them up in their hearts, saying, What manner of child shall this be! And [u]the hand of the Lord was with him.

67 And his father Zacharias [b]was filled with the Holy Ghost, and prophesied, saying,

68 [d]Blessed be the Lord God of Israel; for [e]he hath visited and redeemed his people,

69 [v]And hath raised up an horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David;

70 [k]As he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets, which have been since the world began.

71 That we should be saved from our enemies, and from the hand of all that hate us;

72 [o]To perform the mercy promised to our fathers, and to remember his holy covenant;

73 [r]The oath which he sware to our father Abraham,

74 That he would grant unto us, that we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies might [t]serve him without fear, 75 [w]In holiness and righteousness before him, all the days of our life.

76 And thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the Highest: for [z]thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways;

77 To give knowledge of salvation unto his people [2]by [2] the remission of their sins,

78 Through the [3]tender mercy of our God; whereby the [4]dayspring from on high hath visited us, 79 [b]To give light to them that sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace.

80 And [d]the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, and [e]was in the deserts till the day of his shewing unto Israel.

AND it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Cæsar Augustus, that all the world should be [5]taxed.

2 ([g]And this taxing was first made when Cyrenius was governor of Syria.)

3 And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city.

4 And Joseph also went up [7]from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judæa, unto [8]the city of David.

8 And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping [1] watch over their flock by night

9 And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them and the glory of the Lord shone round about them [h] and they were sore afraid

10 And the angel said unto them Fear not for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, [k] which shall be to all people

11 [m] For unto you is born this day in the city of David [n] a Saviour, [o] which is Christ the Lord

12 And this shall be a sign unto you, Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger

13 [q] And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying,

14 [s] Glory to God in the highest, and on earth [t] peace, [u] good will toward men.

15 And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, [2] the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us.

16 And they came with haste and found Mary, and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger

17 And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child

18 And all they that heard it wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds

19 [b] But Mary kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart

20 And the shepherds returned glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them

22 And when b the days of her purification according to the law of Moses were accomplished, they brought him to Jerusalem, to present him to the Lord;

23 (As it is written in the law of the Lord, c Every male that openeth the womb shall be called holy to the Lord;)

24 And to offer a sacrifice according to [f] that which is said in the law of the Lord, A pair of turtledoves, or two young pigeons

25 And, behold, there was a man in Jerusalem, whose name was Simeon, and the same man was just and devout, [g] waiting for the consolation of Israel and the Holy Ghost was upon him

26 And it was revealed unto him by the Holy Ghost, that he should not [i] see death, before he had seen the Lord's Christ

27 And he came [l] by the Spirit into the temple: and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him after the custom of the law

28 Then took he him up in his arms, and blessed God, and said,

29 Lord, [p] now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, according to thy word

30 For mine eyes [r] have seen thy salvation

31 Which thou hast prepared before the face of all people;

32 [x] A light to lighten the Gentiles, and the glory of thy people Israel

33 And Joseph and his mother marvelled at those things which were spoken of him.

34 And Simeon blessed them, and said unto Mary his mother, Behold this child is set for the [y] fall and rising again of many in Israel; and for [z] a sign which shall be spoken against;

35 (Yea, [a] a sword shall pierce through thy own soul also) that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed

36 And there was one Anna, a prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Aser: she was of a great age, and had lived with an husband seven years from her virginity;

37 And she was a widow of about fourscore and four years, which departed not from the temple, but served God with fastings and prayers [c] night and day.

38 And she coming in that instant gave thanks likewise unto the Lord, and spake of him to all them that [s] looked for redemption in [3] Jerusalem.

39 And when they had performed all things according to the law of the Lord, they returned into Galilee, to their own city Nazareth.

40 [a]And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, filled with wisdom: and the grace of God was upon him.

41 Now his parents went to Jerusalem [b]every year at the feast of the passover.

42 And when he was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem after the custom of the feast.

43 And when they had fulfilled the days, as they returned, the child Jesus tarried behind in Jerusalem; and Joseph and his mother knew not of it.

44 But they, supposing him to have been in the company, went a day's journey; and they sought him among their kinsfolk and acquaintance.

45 And when they found him not, they turned back again to Jerusalem, seeking him.

46 And it came to pass, that after three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the doctors, both hearing them, and asking them questions.

47 And [c]all that heard him were astonished at his understanding and answers.

48 And when they saw him, they were amazed: and his mother said unto him, Son, why hast thou thus dealt with us? behold, thy father and I have sought thee sorrowing.

49 And he said unto them, How is it that ye sought me? wist ye not that I must be about [m]my Father's business?

50 And [n]they understood not the saying which he spake unto them.

51 And he went down with them, and came to Nazareth, and was subject unto them: but his mother [o]kept all these sayings in her heart.

52 And Jesus [p]increased in wisdom and [q]stature, and in favour with God and man.

3 [a]And he came into all the country about Jordan, preaching the baptism of repentance [b]for the remission of sins;

4 As it is written in the book of the words of Esaias the prophet, saying, [d]The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

5 Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be brought low; and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough ways shall be made smooth;

6 And [f]all flesh shall see the salvation of God.

7 Then said he to the multitude that came forth to be baptized of him, [g]O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

8 Bring forth therefore fruits [i]worthy of repentance, and begin not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, That God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham.

9 And now also the axe is laid unto the root of the trees: [k]every tree therefore which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

10 And the people asked him, saying, [l]What shall we do then?

11 He answereth and saith unto them, [m]He that hath two coats, let him impart to him that hath none; and he that hath meat, let him do likewise.

12 Then [n]came also publicans to be baptized, and said unto him, Master, what shall we do?

13 And he said unto them, [o]Exact no more than that which is appointed you.

14 And the soldiers likewise demanded of him, saying, And what shall we do? And he said unto them, [q]Do violence to no man, [r]neither accuse any falsely; and be content with your [s]wages.

15 And as the people were [t]in expectation, and all men [u]mused in their hearts of John, whether he were the Christ, or not,

16 John answered, saying unto them all, [v]I indeed baptize you with water; but one mightier than I cometh, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to unloose: he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost and with fire:

17 Whose fan is in his hand, and he will throughly purge his floor, and [x]will gather the wheat into his garner, but the chaff he will burn with fire unquenchable

18 And many other things in his exhortation preached he unto the people

19 [a]But Herod the tetrarch, being reproved by him for Herodias his brother Philip's wife and for all the evils which Herod had done,

20 Added yet this above all, that he shut up John in prison

21 Now when all the people were baptized, [b]it came to pass, that Jesus also being baptized and praying, the heaven was opened

22 And the Holy Ghost descended in a bodily shape like a dove upon him and a voice came from heaven, which said, Thou art my beloved Son, in thee I am well pleased

1 Temptation and fasting of Christ 13 He overcometh the first 14 He beginneth to preach 16 He cometh to Nazareth admired for his words 23 He worketh one possessed of a devil 38 Peter's mother in law 40 and divers other sick persons

AND [i]Jesus being full of the Holy Ghost returned from Jordan, and [k]was led by the Spirit into the wilderness,

2 Being forty days tempted of the devil And [l]in those days he did eat nothing and when they were ended, he afterward hungered

3 And the devil said unto him If thou be the Son of God, command this stone that it be made bread

4 And Jesus answered him, saying [m]It is written, That man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God

5 And the devil, taking him up into an high mountain, shewed unto him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time

6 And the devil said unto him, All this power will I give thee, and the glory of them for [n]that is delivered unto me; and to whomsoever I will I give it

7 If thou therefore wilt [o]worship me, all shall be thine

8 And Jesus answered and said unto him, Get thee behind me, Satan for [a] it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.

9 [f]And he brought him to Jerusalem, and set him on a pinnacle of the temple, and said unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down from hence:

10 For [g]it is written, He shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee:

11 And in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.

12 And Jesus answering said unto him, [h]It is said, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

13 And when the devil had ended all the temptation, he departed from him [k]for a season.

14 ¶ [l]And Jesus returned [m]in the power of the Spirit into [1]Galilee: and there went out a fame of him through all the region round about.

15 And he taught in their synagogues, being glorified of all.

16 ¶ And he came to [o]Nazareth, where he had been brought up: and, as his custom was, [p]he went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and stood up for to read.

17 And there was delivered unto him the book of the prophet Esaias. And when he had opened the book, he found the place where it was written,

18 [r]The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the broken-hearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised,

19 To preach the acceptable year of the Lord.

20 And he closed the book, and he gave it again to the minister, and sat down. And the eyes of all them that were in the synagogue were fastened on him.

21 And he began to say unto them, This day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears.

22 And all bare him witness, and [v]wondered at the gracious words which proceeded out of his mouth. And they said, [x]Is not this Joseph's son?

23 And he said unto them, Ye will surely say unto me this proverb, Physician, heal thyself: whatsoever we have heard done in [a]Capernaum, do also here in [c]thy country.

24 And he said, Verily I say unto you, No [b]prophet is accepted in his own country.

25 But I tell you of a truth, [c]many widows were in Israel in the days of Elias, when the heaven was shut up three years and six months, when great famine was throughout all the land;

26 But unto none of them was Elias sent, save unto Sarepta, a city of Sidon, unto a woman that was a widow.

27 [f]And many lepers were in Israel in the time of Eliseus the prophet; and none of them was cleansed, saving Naaman the Syrian.

28 And all they in the synagogue, when they heard these things, were filled with wrath, 29 And rose up, and thrust him out of the city, and led him unto the [1]brow of the hill whereon their city was built, that they might cast him down headlong.

30 But he [m]passing through the midst of them went his way, 31 And [n]came down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee, and taught them on the sabbath days.

32 And they were astonished at his doctrine: [q]for his word was with power.

33 ¶ [r]And in the synagogue there was a man, which had a spirit of an unclean devil, and cried out with a loud voice, 34 Saying, [2]Let us alone; what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? [n]art thou come to destroy us? [t]I know thee who thou art; [u]the Holy One of God.

35 And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. And when the devil had thrown him in the midst, he came out of him, and hurt him not.

36 And they were all amazed, and spake among themselves, saying, What a word is this! for with authority and power he commandeth the unclean spirits, and they come out.

37 And the fame of him went out into every place of the country round about.

38 ¶ [z]And he arose out of the synagogue, and entered into Simon's house. And Simon's wife's mother was taken with a great fever; and they besought him for her.

39 And he stood over her, and rebuked the fever; and it left her: and immediately she arose and ministered unto them.

40 ¶ [b]Now when the sun was setting, all they that had any sick with divers diseases brought them unto him; and he laid his hands on every one of them, and healed them.

41 [b]And devils also came out of many, crying out, and saying, Thou art Christ the Son of God. And [d] he rebuking them suffered them not [1] to speak: for they knew that he was Christ.

42 [e]And when it was day, he departed and went into a desert place: and the people sought him, and came unto him, and stayed him, that he should not depart from them.

43 And he said unto them, I must preach the kingdom of God to other cities also: for therefore am I sent.

44 [h]And he preached in the synagogues of Galilee.

CHAPTER 5

1 Christ teacheth the people. 4 The miraculous draught of fishes. 12 Christ cleanseth the leper. 16 He withdraweth himself to pray. 17 He healeth one sick of the palsy. 27 Calleth Matthew. 29 Eateth with sinners. 34 Foretelleth the afflictions of the apostles.

AND [i]it came to pass, that, as the people pressed upon him to hear the word of God, he stood by the lake of Gennesaret,

2 And saw two ships standing by the lake: but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were washing their nets.

3 And he entered into one of the ships, which was Simon's, and prayed him that he would thrust out a little from the land. And he sat down, and taught the people out of the ship.

4 Now when he had left speaking, he said unto Simon, [m]Launch out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught.

5 And Simon answering said unto him, Master, we have toiled all the night, and have taken nothing: nevertheless at thy word I will let down the net.

6 And when they had this done, they inclosed a great multitude of fishes: and their net brake.

7 And they beckoned unto their partners, which were in the other ship, that they should come and help them. And they came, and filled both the ships, so that they began to sink.

8 When Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, [o]Depart from me; for I am a sinful man, O Lord.

9 For he was astonished, and all that were with him, at the draught of the fishes which they had taken:

10 And so was also James, and John, the sons of Zebedee, which were partners with Simon. And Jesus said unto Simon, Fear not; [r]from henceforth thou shalt catch men.

11 And when they had brought their ships to land, [s]they forsook all, and followed him.

12 ¶ [t]And it came to pass, when he was in a certain city, behold a man full of leprosy: who seeing Jesus fell on his face, and besought him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

13 And he put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will: be thou clean. And immediately the leprosy departed from him.

14 [f]And he charged him to tell no man: but go, and shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing, [g]according as Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them.

15 But so much the more went there a fame abroad of him: [u]and great multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed by him of their infirmities.

16 ¶ [k]And he withdrew himself into the wilderness, and prayed.

17 And it came to pass on a certain day, as he was teaching, that there were Pharisees and doctors of the law sitting by, which were come out of every town of Galilee, and Judæa, and Jerusalem: and the power of the Lord was present to heal them.

18 ¶ [m]And, behold, men brought in a bed a man which was taken with a palsy: and they sought means to bring him in, and to lay him before him.

19 And when they could not find by what way they might bring him in because of the multitude, they went upon the housetop, and let him down through the tiling with his couch into the midst before Jesus.

20 And when he saw their faith, he said unto him, Man, thy sins are forgiven thee.

21 [p]And the scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, Who is this which speaketh blasphemies? [p]Who can forgive sins, but God alone?

22 But when Jesus perceived their thoughts, he answering said unto them, What reason ye in your hearts?

23 Whether is easier, to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Rise up and walk?

24 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power upon earth to forgive sins, (he said unto the sick of the palsy,) I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy couch, and go into thine house.

25 And immediately he rose up before them, and took up that whereon he lay, and departed to his own house, glorifying God.

26 And they were all amazed, and they glorified God, and were filled with fear, saying, We have seen strange things to day.

27 ¶ [b] And after these things he went forth, and saw a publican, named Levi, sitting at the receipt of custom and he said unto him, Follow me

28 And he left all, rose up, and followed him

29 [d] And Levi made him a great feast in his own house. and [e] there was a great company of publicans and of others that sat down with them

30 But their scribes and Pharisees murmured against his disciples, saying, Why do ye eat and drink with publicans and sinners?

31 And Jesus answering said unto them, They that are whole need not a physician; but they that are sick 32 [g] I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

33 ¶ And they said unto him, [h] Why do the disciples of John fast often, and make prayers, and likewise the disciples of the Pharisees; but thine eat and drink?

34 And he said unto them, Can ye make the children of the bridechamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them?

35 But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they fast in those days.

36 ¶ [i] And he spake also a parable unto them; No man putteth a piece of a new garment upon an old, if otherwise, then both the new maketh a rent, and the piece that was taken out of the new agreeth not with the old 37 And no man putteth new wine into old bottles; else the new wine will burst the bottles, and be spilled, and the bottles shall perish.

38 But new wine must be put into new bottles; and both are preserved

39 No man also having drunk old wine straightway desireth new: for he saith, The old is better.

AND [q] it came to pass on the second sabbath after the first, that he went through the corn fields; and his disciples plucked the ears of corn, and did eat, rubbing them in their hands

2 And certain of the Pharisees said unto them, Why do ye that [q] which is not lawful to do on the sabbath days?

4 How he went into the house of God, and did take and eat the shewbread, and gave also to them that were with him, [c] which it is not lawful to eat but for the priests alone?

5 And he said unto them, That the Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath.

6 [f] And it came to pass also on another sabbath, that he entered into the synagogue and taught: and there was a man whose right hand was withered

7 And the scribes and Pharisees watched him, whether he would heal on the sabbath day, that they might find an accusation against him.

8 But he knew their thoughts, and said to the man which had the withered hand Rise up, and stand forth in the midst. And he arose and stood forth

9 Then said Jesus unto them, I will ask you one thing; Is it lawful on the sabbath days to do good, or to do evil? to save life, or to destroy it?

10 And looking round about upon them all, he said unto the man, Stretch forth thy hand And he did so: and his hand was restored whole as the other.

11 And they were filled with madness; and communed one with another what they might do to Jesus.

12 [k] And it came to pass in those days, that he went out into a mountain to pray, and continued all night in prayer to God.

13 ¶ And when it was day, he called unto him his disciples: [l] and of them he chose twelve, whom also he named apostles;

14 Simon, ([m] whom he also named Peter,) and Andrew his brother, James and John, Philip and Bartholomew,

15 Matthew and Thomas, James the son of Alphæus, and Simon called Zelotes

16 And Judas [n] the brother of James, and Judas Iscariot, which also was the traitor.

17 ¶ And he came down with them, and stood in the plain, and the company of his disciples, [p] and a great multitude of people out of all Judæa and Jerusalem, and from the sea coast of Tyre and Sidon, which came to hear him, and to be healed of their diseases;

18 And they that were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed.
19 And the whole multitude [b]sought to touch him: for [d]there went virtue out of him, and healed them all.
20 ¶ And he lifted up his eyes on his disciples, and said, [e]Blessed be ye poor: for your's is the kingdom of God.
21 [f]Blessed are ye that hunger now: for ye shall be filled. [g]Blessed are ye that weep now: for ye shall laugh.
22 [i]Blessed are ye, when men shall hate you, and when they [m]shall separate you from their company, and shall reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, for the Son of man's sake.
23 [p]Rejoice ye in that day, and leap for joy: for, behold, your reward is great in heaven: for [r]in the like manner did their fathers unto the prophets.
24 [s]But woe unto you [t]that are rich! for [u]ye have received your consolation.
25 [x]Woe unto you that are full! for ye shall hunger. [y]Woe unto you that laugh now! for ye shall mourn and weep.
26 [a]Woe unto you, when all men shall speak well of you! for so did their fathers to the false prophets.
27 ¶ [c]But I say unto you which hear, Love your enemies, do good to them which hate you, 28 Bless them that curse you, and [e]pray for them which despitefully use you.
29 [f]And unto him that smiteth thee on the one cheek offer also the other; [h]and him that taketh away thy cloke forbid not to take thy coat also.
30 [i]Give to every man that asketh of thee; and of him that taketh away thy goods ask them not again.
31 [l]And as ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise.
32 [n]For if ye love them which love you, what thank have ye? for sinners also love those that love them.
33 And if ye do good to them which do good to you, what thank have ye? for sinners also do even the same.
34 [p]And if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receive, what thank have ye? for sinners also lend to sinners, to receive as much again.
35 But [q]love ye your enemies, and do good, and [r]lend, hoping for nothing again; and your reward shall be great, and [s]ye shall be the children of the Highest: for he is kind unto the unthankful and to the evil.

49 But he that heareth, and doeth not, is like a man that without a foundation built an house upon the earth; against which the stream did beat vehemently, and immediately it fell; and the ruin of that house was great.

CHAPTER 7.

1 Christ findeth a greater faith in the centurion a Gentile than in any of the Jews 10 healeth his servant 11 raiseth the widow's son at Nain 19 answereth John's messengers 24 testifieth of John 36 sheweth himself a friend to sinners

NOW when he had ended all his sayings in the audience of the people, [a]he entered into Capernaum

2 And a certain centurion's servant, who was dear unto him, was sick, and ready to die

3 And when he heard of Jesus, he sent unto him the elders of the Jews, beseeching him that he would come and heal his servant.

4 And when they came to Jesus, they besought him instantly, saying, That he was worthy for whom he should do this

5 For he loveth our nation, and he hath built us a synagogue

6 Then Jesus went with them. And when he was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying unto him, Lord, trouble not thyself: for I am not worthy that thou shouldest enter under my roof

7 Wherefore neither thought I myself worthy to come unto thee: but say in a word, and my servant shall be healed

8 For I also am a man set under authority, having under me soldiers, and I say unto [1]one, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it

9 When Jesus heard these things, he marvelled at him, and turned him about, and said unto the people that followed him, I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel

10 And they that were sent, returning to the house, found the servant whole that had been sick.

11 ¶ And it came to pass the day after, that he went into a city called Nain; and many of his disciples went with him, and much people

12 Now when he came nigh to the gate of the city, behold, there was a dead man carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow: and much people of the city was with her

13 And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her, and said unto her, Weep not.

14 And he came and touched the [4]bier: and they that bare him stood still. And he said, Young man, I say unto thee, [n]Arise

15 And he that was dead sat up, and began to speak. And he delivered him to his mother.

16 [o]And there came a fear on all: and they glorified God, saying, That a great prophet is risen up among us; and, That God hath visited his people.

17 And this rumour of him went forth throughout all Judæa, and throughout all the region round about

18 ¶ And the disciples of John shewed him of all these things

19 ¶ And John calling unto him two of his disciples sent them to Jesus, saying, Art thou he that should come? or look we for another?

20 When the men were come unto him, they said, John Baptist hath sent us unto thee, saying, Art thou he that should come? or look we for another?

21 And in that same hour he cured many of their infirmities and plagues, and of evil spirits, and unto many that were blind he gave sight

22 Then Jesus answering said unto them, Go your way, and tell John what things ye have seen and heard; how that the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, to the poor the gospel is preached

23 And blessed is he, whosoever shall not be offended in me.

24 ¶ And when the messengers of John were departed, he began to speak unto the people concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness for to see? A reed shaken with the wind?

25 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they which are gorgeously apparelled, and live delicately, are in kings' courts

26 But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? Yea, I say unto you, and much more than a prophet.

27 This is he, of whom it is written, [k]Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee

28 For I say unto you, Among those that are born of women there is not a greater prophet than John the Baptist: but he that is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he

29 And all the people that heard him, and the publicans, justified God, [l]being baptized with the baptism of John

30 But the Pharisees and lawyers [2]rejected [m]the counsel of God [3]against themselves, being not baptized of him

31 ¶ And the Lord said, [p]Whereunto then shall I liken the men of this generation? and to what are they like?

34 The Son of man is come eating and drinking, and ye say, Behold a gluttonous man, and a winebibber, a friend of publicans and sinners!

35 [f]But wisdom is justified of all her children

36 ¶ [g]And one of the Pharisees desired him that he would eat with him. And he went into the Pharisee's house, and sat down to meat

37 And, behold, a woman in the city, which was a sinner, when she knew that Jesus sat at meat in the Pharisee's house, brought an alabaster box of ointment,

38 And stood at his feet behind him weeping, and began to wash his feet with tears, and did wipe them with the hairs of her head, and kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment.

4 ¶ [k]And when much people were gathered together, and were come to him out of every city, he spake by a parable.

5 A sower went out to sow his seed: and as he sowed, some fell by the way side; and it was trodden down, and the fowls of the air devoured it

6 And some fell upon a rock; and as soon as it was sprung up, it withered away, because it lacked moisture.

7 And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprang up with it, and choked it

8 And other fell on good ground, and sprang up, and bare fruit an hundred fold. And when he had said these things, he cried, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

9 [m]And his disciples asked him, saying, What might this parable be?

10 And he said, Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God: but to others in parables; [n]that seeing they might not see and hearing they might not understand

11 [o]Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God

12 Those by the way side are they that hear; then cometh the devil, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved.

13 They on the rock are they, which, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, which for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away.

14 And that which fell among thorns are they, which, when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection.

15 But that on the good ground are they, which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience.

16 ¶ "No man, when he hath lighted a candle, covereth it with a vessel, or putteth it under a bed; but setteth it on a candlestick, that they which enter in may see the light.

17 [b]For nothing is secret, that shall not be made manifest; neither any thing hid, that shall not be known and come abroad.

18 Take heed therefore how ye hear: [d]for whosoever hath, to him shall be given; and whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he [l]seemeth to have.

19 ¶ [e]Then came to him his mother and his brethren, and could not come at him for the press.

20 And it was told him by certain which said, Thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to see thee.

21 And he answered and said unto them, My mother and my brethren are these which hear the word of God, and do it.

22 ¶ [f]Now it came to pass on a certain day, that he went into a ship with his disciples: and he said unto them, Let us go over unto the other side of the lake. And they launched forth.

23 But as they sailed he fell asleep: and there came down a storm of wind on the lake; and they were filled with water, and were in jeopardy.

24 And they came to him, and awoke him, saying, Master, master, we perish. Then he arose, and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water: and they ceased, and there was a calm.

25 And he said unto them, Where is your faith? And they being afraid wondered, saying one to another, What manner of man is this! for he commandeth even the winds and water, and they obey him.

26 ¶ [k]And they arrived at the country of the Gadarenes, which is over against Galilee.

27 And when he went forth to land, there met him out of the city a certain man, which had devils long time, and ware no clothes, neither abode in any house, but in the tombs.

28 When he saw Jesus, he cried out, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of God most high? I beseech thee, torment me not.

29 (For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For oftentimes it had caught him: and he was kept bound with chains and in fetters; and he brake the bands, and was driven of the devil into the wilderness.)

30 And Jesus asked him, saying, What is thy name? And he said, Legion: because many devils were entered into him.

31 And they besought him that he would not command them to go out [c]into the deep.

32 And there was there an herd of many swine feeding on the mountain: and they besought him that he would suffer them to enter into them. And he suffered them.

33 Then went the devils out of the man, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the lake, and were choked.

34 When they that fed them saw what was done, they fled, and went and told it in the city and in the country.

35 Then they went out to see what was done; and came to Jesus, and found the man, out of whom the devils were departed, sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed, and in his right mind: and they were afraid.

36 They also which saw it told them by what means he that was possessed of the devils was healed.

37 ¶ [g]Then the whole multitude of the country of the Gadarenes round about [h]besought him to depart from them; for they were taken with great fear: and he went up into the ship, and returned back again.

38 Now [i]the man out of whom the devils were departed besought him that he might be with him: but Jesus sent him away, saying, 39 Return to thine own house, and shew how great things God hath done unto thee. And he went his way, and published throughout the whole city how great things Jesus had done unto him.

40 And it came to pass, that, when Jesus was returned, the people gladly received him: for they were all waiting for him.

41 ¶ [l]And, behold, there came a man named Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue: and he fell down at Jesus' feet, and besought him that he would come into his house:

42 For he had one only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she lay a dying. But as he went the people thronged him.

43 ¶ [a]And a woman having an issue of blood twelve years, which had spent all her living upon physicians, neither could be healed of any,

44 Came behind him, and touched the border of his garment: and immediately her issue of blood stanched.

45 And Jesus said, Who touched me? When all denied, Peter and they that were with him said, Master, the multitude throng thee and press thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me?

46 And Jesus said, Somebody hath touched me: for I perceive that [k]virtue is gone out of me.

47 And when the woman saw that she was not hid, she came trembling, and falling down before him, she declared unto him before all the people for what cause she had touched him, and how she was healed immediately.

48 And he said unto her, Daughter, be of good comfort: thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace.

49 ¶ [m]While he yet spake, there cometh one from the ruler of the synagogue's house, saying to him, Thy daughter is dead; trouble not the Master.

50 But when Jesus heard it, he answered him, saying, Fear not: believe only, and she shall be made whole.

51 And when he came into the house, he suffered no man to go in, save Peter, and James, and John, and the father and the mother of the maiden.

52 And all wept, and bewailed her: but he said, Weep not; she is not dead, [q]but sleepeth.

53 And they laughed him to scorn, knowing that she was dead.

54 And he put them all out, and took her by the hand, and called, saying, Maid, [r]arise.

55 And her spirit came again, and she arose straightway: and he commanded to give her meat.

56 And her parents were astonished: but [s]he charged them that they should tell no man what was done.

THEN [a]he called his twelve disciples together, and gave them power and authority over all devils, and to cure diseases.

2 And [b]he sent them to preach the kingdom of God, and to heal the sick.

3 [c]And he said unto them, Take nothing for your journey, neither staves, nor scrip, neither bread, neither money; neither have two coats apiece.

4 [e]And whatsoever house ye enter into, there abide, and thence depart.

5 [f]And whosoever will not receive you, when ye go out of that city, [g]shake off the very dust from your feet for a testimony against them.

6 [h]And they departed, and went through the towns, preaching the gospel, and healing every where.

7 ¶ [i]Now Herod the tetrarch heard of all that was done by him: and he was perplexed, because that it was said of some, that John was risen from the dead;

8 And of some, that Elias had appeared; and of others, that one of the old prophets was risen again.

9 And Herod said, John have I beheaded: but who is this, of whom I hear such things? [l]And he desired to see him.

10 ¶ [m]And the apostles, when they were returned, told him all that they had done. [o]And he took them, and went aside privately into a desert place belonging to the city called Bethsaida.

11 And the people, when they knew it, followed him: and he received them, and spake unto them of the kingdom of God, and healed them that had need of healing.

12 [p]And when the day began to wear away, then came the twelve, and said unto him, Send the multitude away, that they may go into the towns and country round about, and lodge, and get victuals: for we are here in a desert place.

13 But he said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they said, We have no more but five loaves and two fishes; except we should go and buy meat for all this people.

14 For they were about five thousand men. And he said to his disciples, Make them sit down by fifties in a company.

15 And they did so, and made them all sit down.

16 Then he took the five loaves and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed them, and brake, and gave to the disciples to set before the multitude.

17 And they did eat, and were all filled: and there was taken up of fragments that remained to them twelve baskets

18 ¶ [a]And it came to pass, as he was alone praying, his disciples were with him. and he asked them, saying, Whom say the people that I am?

19 They answering said, [b]John the Baptist; but some say, Elias; and others say, that one of the old prophets is risen again

20 He said unto them, But whom say ye that I am? [c]Peter answering said, The Christ of God

21 [d]And he straitly charged them, and commanded them to tell no man that thing;

22 Saying, [e]The Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be slain, and be raised the third day.

23 ¶ [f]And he said to them all, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me

24 For whosoever will save his life shall lose it but whosoever will lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it.

25 [g]For what is a man advantaged, if he gain the whole world, and lose himself, or be cast away?

26 [h]For whosoever shall be ashamed of me and of my words, of him shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he shall come in his own glory, and in his Father's, and of the holy angels.

27 [i]But I tell you of a truth, there be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they see the kingdom of God

28 ¶ [k]And it came to pass about an eight days after these [l]sayings, he took Peter and John and James, and went up into a mountain to pray.

29 And as he prayed, the fashion of his countenance was altered, and his raiment was white and glistering.

30 And, behold, there talked with him two men, which were Moses and Elias:

31 Who appeared in glory, and spake of his decease which he should accomplish at Jerusalem.

32 But Peter and they that were with him [m]were heavy with sleep: and when they were awake, they saw his glory, and the two men that stood with him.

33 And it came to pass, as they departed from him, Peter said unto Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias not knowing what he said.

34 While he thus spake, there came a cloud, and overshadowed them and they feared as they entered into the cloud.

35 And there came a voice out of the cloud, saying, [n]This is my beloved Son: [o]hear him

36 And when the voice was past, Jesus was found alone. [p]And they kept it close, and told no man in those days any of those things which they had seen.

37 ¶ [q]And it came to pass, that on the next day, when they were come down from the hill, much people met him

38 And, behold, a man of the company cried out, saying, Master, I beseech thee, look upon my son. for he is mine only child.

39 And, lo, a spirit taketh him, and he suddenly crieth out, and it teareth him that he foameth again, and bruising him hardly departeth from him.

40 And I besought thy disciples to cast him out; and they could not 41 And Jesus answering said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you, and suffer you? Bring thy son hither.

42 And as he was yet a coming, the devil threw him down, and tare him. And Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the child, and delivered him again to his father

43 ¶ And they were all amazed at the mighty power of God But while they wondered every one at all things which Jesus did, he said unto his disciples, 44 [r]Let these sayings sink down into your ears. for the Son of man shall be delivered into the hands of men.

45 [s]But they understood not this saying, and it was hid from them, that they perceived it not and they feared to ask him of that saying.

46 ¶ [t]Then there arose a reasoning among them, which of them should be greatest

47 And Jesus, perceiving the thought of their heart, took a child, and set him by him,

48 And said unto them, [u]Whosoever shall receive this child in my name receiveth me. and whosoever shall receive me receiveth him that sent me: [v]for he that is least among you all, the same shall be great

49 ¶ [x]And John answered and said, Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy name; and we forbad him, because he followeth not with us

51 ¶ And it came to pass, when the time was come that [c]he should be received up, he stedfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem, 52 And sent messengers before his face: and they went and entered into a village of the Samaritans, to make ready for him.

53 And [d]they did not receive him, because his face was as though he would go to Jerusalem.

54 And when his disciples James and John saw this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as [m]Elias did?

55 But he turned, and rebuked them, and said, Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of.

56 For [n]the Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them. And they went to another village.

57 ¶ [p]And it came to pass, that, as they went in the way, a certain man said unto him, Lord, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.

58 And Jesus said unto him, Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head.

59 [r]And he said unto another, Follow me. But he said, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father.

60 Jesus said unto him, Let the dead bury their dead: but go thou and preach the kingdom of God.

61 And another also said, Lord, [s]I will follow thee; but let me first go bid them farewell, which are at home at my house.

62 And Jesus said unto him, No man, having put his hand to the plough, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God.

AFTER these things the Lord appointed other seventy also, and [a]sent them two and two before his face into every city and place, whither he himself would come.

2 Therefore said he unto them, [b]The harvest truly is great, but the labourers are few: [c]pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth labourers into his harvest.

3 Go your ways: [m]behold, I send you forth as lambs among wolves.

4 'Carry neither purse, nor scrip, nor shoes: and [c]salute no man by the way.

5 [d]And into whatsoever house ye enter, first say, Peace be to this house.

6 And if the son of peace be there, your peace shall rest upon it: if not, it shall turn to you again.

7 [f]And in the same house remain, [g]eating and drinking such things as they give: for [h]the labourer is worthy of his hire. Go not from house to house.

8 And into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you, eat such things as are set before you:

9 [k]And heal the sick that are therein, and say unto them, [l]The kingdom of God is come nigh unto you.

10 But into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you not, go your ways out into the streets of the same, and say, 11 [n]Even the very dust of your city, which cleaveth on us, we do wipe off against you: notwithstanding be ye sure of this, that the kingdom of God is come nigh unto you.

12 But I say unto you, that [q]it shall be more tolerable in that day for Sodom, than for that city.

13 [r]Woe unto thee, Chorazin! woe unto thee, Bethsaida! [s]for if the mighty works had been done in Tyre and Sidon, which have been done in you, they had a great while ago repented, sitting in sackcloth and ashes.

14 But it shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the judgment, than for you.

15 [u]And thou, Capernaum, which art [x]exalted to heaven, [y]shalt be thrust down to hell.

16 [a]He that heareth you heareth me; and [b]he that despiseth you despiseth me; [c]and he that despiseth me despiseth him that sent me.

17 ¶ And [d]the seventy returned again with joy, saying, Lord, even the devils are subject unto us through thy name.

18 And he said unto them, [e]I beheld Satan as lightning fall from heaven.

19 Behold, [f]I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you.

20 Notwithstanding in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you; but rather rejoice, because [h]your names are written in heaven.

21 ¶ [k]In that hour Jesus rejoiced in spirit, and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes: even so, Father; for so it seemed good in thy sight.

22 [a]All[1] things are delivered to me of my Father: and [b]no man knoweth who the Son is, but the Father; and who the Father is, but the Son, and he to whom the Son will reveal him.

23 ¶ And he turned him unto his disciples, and said privately, [c]Blessed are the eyes which see the things that ye see:

24 For I tell you, [d]that many prophets and kings have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them.

25 ¶ And, behold, a certain lawyer stood up, and tempted him, saying, [e]Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?

26 He said unto him, What is written in the law? how readest thou?

27 And he answering said, [f]Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and [g]thy neighbour as thyself.

28 And he said unto him, Thou hast answered right: this do, and [m]thou shalt live.

29 But he, willing to [n]justify himself, said unto Jesus, And who is my neighbour?

30 And Jesus answering said, A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among thieves, which stripped him of his raiment, and wounded him, and departed, leaving him half dead.

31 And by chance there came down a certain priest that way: and when he saw him, [p]he passed by on the other side.

32 And likewise a Levite, when he was at the place, came and looked on him, and passed by on the other side.

33 But a certain [q]Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was: and when he saw him, he had compassion on him, 34 And went to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring in oil and wine, and set him on his own beast, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him.

35 And on the morrow when he departed, he took out two [4]pence, and gave them to the host, and said unto him, Take care of him; and whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come again, I will repay thee.

36 Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbour unto him that fell among the thieves?

37 And he said, He that shewed mercy on him. Then said Jesus unto him, Go, and do thou likewise.

39 And she had a sister called Mary, [u]which also [v]sat at Jesus' feet, and heard his word.

40 But Martha was cumbered about much serving, and came to him, and said, Lord, dost thou not care that my sister hath left me to serve alone? bid her therefore that she help me.

1 Christ teacheth to pray 14 He, casting out a dumb devil, rebuketh the blasphemous Pharisees 28 and sheweth who are blessed 29 preacheth to the people, 37 and reprehendeth the outward shew of holiness in the Pharisees, scribes, and lawyers

AND it came to pass, that, as he was praying in a certain place, when he ceased, one of his disciples said unto him, Lord, teach us to pray, as John also taught his disciples.

2 And he said unto them, When ye pray, say, [o]Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, as in heaven, so in earth.

3 Give us [2]day by day our daily bread.

4 And forgive us our sins; for we also forgive every one that is indebted to us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil.

5 And he said unto them, Which of you shall have a friend, and shall go unto him at midnight, and say unto him, Friend, lend me three loaves;

6 For a friend of mine [3]in his journey is come to me, and I have nothing to set before him?

7 And he from within shall answer and say, Trouble me not: the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise and give thee.

8 I say unto you, [r]Though he will not rise and give him, because he is his friend, yet because of his importunity he will rise and give him as many as he needeth.

9 [s]And I say unto you, Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you.

10 For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.

11 [a] If a son shall ask bread of any of you that is a father, will he give him a stone? or if he ask a fish, will he for a fish give him a serpent?

12 Or if he shall ask an egg, will he [1] offer him a scorpion?

13 If ye then being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him?

14 ¶ [b] And he was casting out a devil and it was dumb And it came to pass when the devil was gone out, the dumb spake, and the people wondered

15 But some of them said, [c] He casteth out devils through [2] Beelzebub the chief of the devils

16 And others, tempting him, [d] sought of him a sign from heaven

17 [e] But [f] he knowing their thoughts said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation and a house divided against a house falleth

18 If Satan also be divided against himself how shall his kingdom stand? because ye say that I cast out devils through Beelzebub.

19 And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do your sons cast them out? therefore shall they be your judges

20 But if I [g] with the finger of God cast out devils, no doubt the kingdom of God is come upon you

21 [h] When a strong man armed keepeth his palace, his goods are in peace

22 But [i] when a stronger than he shall come upon him and overcome him, he taketh from him all his armour wherein he trusted, and divideth his spoils

23 [k] He that is not with me is against me: and he that gathereth not with me scattereth

24 [l] When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man he walketh through dry places seeking rest, and finding none, he saith I will return unto my house whence I came out

25 And when he cometh, he findeth it swept and garnished

26 Then goeth he, and taketh to him seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter in and dwell there and [3] the last state of that man is worse than the first

27 ¶ And it came to pass, as he spake these things a certain woman of the company lifted up her voice and said unto him, [m] Blessed is the womb that bare thee, and the paps which thou hast sucked.

28 But he said, Yea [p] rather, blessed are they that hear the word of God, and keep it

29 ¶ [q] And when the people were gathered thick together, he began to say, This is an evil generation they seek a sign, and there shall no sign be given it, but the sign of Jonas the prophet.

30 For as [r] Jonas was a sign unto the Ninevites, so shall also the Son of man be to this generation

31 [s] The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with the men of this generation, and condemn them for she came from the utmost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon, and, behold, a greater than Solomon is here

32 The men of Nineve shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for [t] they repented at the preaching of Jonas. and, behold, a greater than Jonas is here

33 [u] No man, when he hath lighted a candle, putteth it in a secret place, neither under a [3] bushel, but on a candlestick, that they which come in may see the light

34 [x] The light of the body is the eye therefore when thine eye is single, thy whole body also is full of light, but when thine eye is evil, thy body also is full of darkness

35 Take heed therefore that the light which is in thee be not darkness

36 If thy whole body therefore be full of light, having no part dark, the whole shall be full of light as when [1] the bright shining of a candle doth give thee light.

37 ¶ And as he spake, a certain Pharisee besought him to dine with him and he went in, and sat down to meat

38 And [s] when the Pharisee saw it, he marvelled that he had not first washed before dinner

39 [y] And the Lord said unto him, Now do ye Pharisees make clean the outside of the cup and the platter but [z] your inward part is full of ravening and wickedness

40 Ye fools, did not he that made that which is without make that which is within also?

41 [z] But rather give alms [5] of such things as ye have; and, behold, all things are clean unto you 42 [a] But woe unto you, Pharisees! for ye tithe mint and rue and all manner of herbs, and pass over judgment and the love of God these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone.

43 [a]Woe unto you, Pharisees! for ye love the uppermost seats in the synagogues, and greetings in the markets.

44 [b]Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! [c]for ye are as graves which appear not, and the men that walk over them are not aware of them.

45 ¶ Then answered one of the lawyers, and said unto him, Master, thus saying thou reproachest us also.

46 And he said, Woe unto you also, ye lawyers! [d]for ye lade men with burdens grievous to be borne, and ye yourselves touch not the burdens with one of your fingers.

47 [e]Woe unto you! for ye build the sepulchres of the prophets, and your fathers killed them.

48 Truly ye bear witness that ye allow the deeds of your fathers: for they indeed killed them, and ye build their sepulchres.

49 Therefore also said the wisdom of God, [f]I will send them prophets and apostles, and some of them they shall slay and persecute

50 That the blood of all the prophets, which was shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation;

51 [l]From the blood of Abel unto [m]the blood of Zacharias, which perished between the altar and the temple: verily I say unto you, It shall be required of this generation.

52 [n]Woe unto you, lawyers! for ye have taken away the key of knowledge: ye entered not in yourselves, and them that were entering in ye [2]hindered

53 And as he said these things unto them, the scribes and the Pharisees began to urge him vehemently, and to provoke him to speak of many things:

54 Laying wait for him, and [o]seeking to catch something out of his mouth, that they might accuse him.

IN [p]the mean time, when there were gathered together an innumerable multitude of people, insomuch that they trode one upon another, he began to say unto his disciples first of all, [q]Beware ye of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy.

2 [r]For there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; neither hid, that shall not be known.

3 Therefore whatsoever ye have spoken in darkness shall be heard in the light; and that which ye have spoken in the ear in closets shall be proclaimed upon the housetops.

4 [s]And I say unto you [t]my friends, Be not afraid of them that kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do.

5 But I will forewarn you whom ye shall fear: Fear him, which after he hath killed hath power to cast into hell; yea, I say unto you, Fear him.

6 Are not five sparrows sold for two [1]farthings, and not one of them is forgotten before God?

7 But even the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not therefore: ye are of more value than many sparrows.

8 [u]Also I say unto you, Whosoever shall confess me before men, him shall the Son of man also confess before the angels of God:

9 But he that denieth me before men shall be denied before the angels of God.

10 And [x]whosoever shall speak a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but unto him that blasphemeth against the Holy Ghost it shall not be forgiven.

11 [y]And when they bring you unto the synagogues, and unto magistrates, and powers, take ye no thought how or what thing ye shall answer, or what ye shall say:

12 For the Holy Ghost shall teach you in the same hour what ye ought to say.

13 ¶ And one of the company said unto him, Master, speak to my brother, that he divide the inheritance with me.

14 And he said unto him, [z]Man, who made me a judge or a divider over you?

15 And he said unto them, [a]Take heed, and beware of covetousness: for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth.

16 And he spake a parable unto them, saying, The ground of a certain rich man brought forth plentifully:

17 And he thought within himself, saying, What shall I do, because I have no room where to bestow my fruits?

18 And he said, This will I do: I will pull down my barns, and build greater; and there will I bestow all my fruits and my goods.

19 And I will say to my soul, [z]Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years, take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry

20 But God said unto him, Thou fool this night [a]thy [1]soul shall be required of thee [b]then whose shall those things be, which thou hast provided?

21 So is he that layeth up treasure for himself, [c]and is not rich toward God

22 ¶ And he said unto his disciples Therefore I say unto you, [d]Take no thought for your life what ye shall eat; neither for the body, what ye shall put on

23 The life is more than meat, and the body is more than raiment

24 Consider the ravens for they neither sow nor reap; which neither have storehouse nor barn, and [e]God feedeth them how much more are ye better than the fowls?

25 And which of you with taking thought can add to his stature one cubit?

26 If ye then be not able to do that thing which is least, why take ye thought for the rest?

27 Consider the lilies how they grow they toil not, they spin not, and yet I say unto you, that Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these 28 If then God so clothe the grass which is to day in the field, and to morrow is cast into the oven, how much more will he clothe you, O ye of little faith?

29 And seek not ye what ye shall eat or what ye shall drink, [2]neither be ye of doubtful mind

30 For all these things do the nations of the world seek after and your Father knoweth that ye have need of these things

31 ¶ [f]But rather seek ye the kingdom of God and all these things shall be added unto you

32 Fear not, little flock; for [g]it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom

33 [h]Sell that ye have and give alms, [i]provide yourselves bags which wax not old a treasure in the heavens that faileth not where no thief approacheth, neither moth corrupteth

34 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also

35 [k]Let your loins be girded about, and [l]your lights burning,

36 And ye yourselves like unto men that wait for their lord when he will return from the wedding, that when he cometh and knocketh they may open unto him immediately

37 [m]Blessed are those servants whom the lord when he cometh shall find watching verily I say unto you that he shall gird himself, and make them to sit down to meat, and will come forth and serve them

38 And if he shall come in the second watch or come in the third watch and find them so blessed are those servants

39 [n]And this know, that if the good man of the house had known what hour the thief would come he would have watched, and not have suffered his house to be broken through

40 [o]Be ye therefore ready also for the Son of man cometh at an hour when ye think not 41 ¶ Then Peter said unto him, Lord speakest thou this parable unto us or even to all?

42 And the Lord said [p]Who then is that faithful and wise steward whom his lord shall make ruler over his household, to give them their portion of meat in due season?

43 Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing

44 [q]Of a truth I say unto you that he will make him ruler over all that he hath

45 [r]But and if that servant say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming and shall begin to beat the menservants and maidens and to eat and drink and to be drunken,

46 The lord of that servant will come in a day when he looketh not for him and at an hour when he is not aware and will [3]cut him in sunder, and will appoint him his portion with the unbelievers

47 And [s]that servant which knew his lord's will, and prepared not himself neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes

48 [t]But he that knew not, and did commit things worthy of stripes shall be beaten with few stripes For unto whomsoever much is given of him shall be much required and to whom men have committed much, of him they will ask the more

49 ¶ [u]I am come to send fire on the earth, and what will I, if it be already kindled?

50 But [v]I have a baptism to be baptized with; and how am I [4]straitened till it be accomplished!

51 [w]Suppose ye that I am come to give peace on earth? I tell you Nay, [x]but rather division

52 [y]For from henceforth there shall be five in one house divided, three against two and two against three

53 The father shall be divided against

THERE were present at that season some that told him of the Galilæans, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices.

2 And Jesus answering said unto them, Suppose ye that these Galilæans were sinners above all the Galilæans, because they suffered such things?

3 I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

4 Or those eighteen, upon whom the tower in Siloam fell, and slew them, think ye that they were [2]sinners above all men that dwelt in Jerusalem?

5 I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

6 ¶ He spake also this parable; [z]A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came and sought fruit thereon, and found none.

7 Then said he unto the dresser of his vineyard, Behold, these three years I come seeking fruit on this fig tree, and find none: cut it down; why cumbereth it the ground?

8 And he answering said unto him, Lord, let it alone this year also, till I shall dig about it, and dung it:

9 And if it bear fruit, well: and if not, then after that thou shalt cut it down.

10 And he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath.

11 ¶ And, behold, there was a woman which had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and was bowed together, and could in no wise lift up herself.

12 And when Jesus saw her, he called her to him, and said unto her, Woman, thou art loosed from thine infirmity.

13 [b]And he laid his hands on her: and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God.

14 And the ruler of the synagogue answered with indignation, because that Jesus had healed on the sabbath day, and said unto the people, [c]There are six days in which men ought to work: in them therefore come and be healed, and [d]not on the sabbath day.

15 The Lord then answered him, and said, Thou hypocrite, [e]doth not each one of you on the sabbath loose his ox or his ass from the stall, and lead him away to watering?

16 And ought not this woman, [h]being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan hath bound, lo, these eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the sabbath day?

17 And when he had said these things, all his adversaries were ashamed: and all the people rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him.

18 ¶ [i]Then said he, Unto what is the kingdom of God like? and whereunto shall I resemble it?

19 It is like a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and cast into his garden; and it grew, and waxed a great tree; and the fowls of the air lodged in the branches of it.

20 And again he said, Whereunto shall I liken the kingdom of God?

21 It is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three [4]measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

22 [k]And he went through the cities and villages, teaching, and journeying toward Jerusalem.

23 Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, 24 ¶ [m]Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for [n]many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able.

25 [o]When once the master of the house is risen up, and [p]hath shut to the door, and ye begin to stand without, and to knock at the door, saying, [q]Lord, Lord, open unto us; and he shall answer and say unto you, [r]I know you not whence ye are:

26 Then shall ye begin to say, We have eaten and drunk in thy presence, and thou hast taught in our streets

27 [a]But he shall say, I tell you, I know you not whence ye are; [b]depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity.

28 [c]There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, [d]when ye shall see Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of God, and you yourselves thrust out.

29 And they shall come from the east, and from the west, and from the north, and from the south, and shall sit down in the kingdom of God.

30 [e]And, behold, there are last which shall be first, and there are first which shall be last.

31 ¶ The same day there came certain of the Pharisees, saying unto him, Get thee out, and depart hence: for Herod will kill thee.

32 And he said unto them, Go ye, and tell that fox, Behold, I cast out devils, and I do cures to day and to morrow, and the third day [h]I shall be perfected.

33 Nevertheless I must walk to day, and to morrow, and the day following: for it cannot be that a prophet perish out of Jerusalem.

34 [i]O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, which killest the prophets, and stonest them that are sent unto thee; how often would I have gathered thy children together, as a hen doth gather her brood under her wings, and ye would not!

35 Behold, [l]your house is left unto you desolate: and verily I say unto you, Ye shall not see me, until the time come when ye shall say, [m]Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

AND it came to pass, as he went into the house of one of the chief Pharisees to eat bread on the sabbath day, that they watched him.

2 And, behold, there was a certain man before him which had the dropsy.

3 And Jesus answering spake unto the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, [n]Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath day?

4 And they held their peace. And he took him, and healed him, and let him go;

5 And answered them, saying, [o]Which of you shall have an ass or an ox fallen into a pit, and will not straightway pull him out on the sabbath day?

8 When thou art bidden of any man to a wedding, sit not down in the highest room; lest a more honourable man than thou be bidden of him,

9 And he that bade thee and him come and say to thee, Give this man place; and thou begin with shame to take the lowest room.

11 [q]For whosoever exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

12 ¶ Then said he also to him that bade him, When thou makest a dinner or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, neither thy kinsmen, nor thy rich neighbours; lest they also bid thee again, and a recompence be made thee.

13 But when thou makest a feast, call [k]the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind:

14 And thou shalt be blessed; for they cannot recompense thee: for thou shalt be recompensed at the resurrection of the just.

15 ¶ And when one of them that sat at meat with him heard these things, he said unto him, [m]Blessed is he that shall eat bread in the kingdom of God.

16 [r]Then said he unto him, A certain man made a great supper, and bade many:

17 And [s]sent his servant at supper time to say to them that were bidden, Come; for all things are now ready.

18 And they all with one consent began to make excuse. The first said unto him, I have bought a piece of ground, and I must needs go and see it: I pray thee have me excused.

19 And another said, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them: I pray thee have me excused.

20 And another said, I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.

21 So that servant came, and shewed his lord these things. Then the master of the house being angry said to his servant, Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in hither the poor, and the maimed, and the halt, and the blind.

22 And the servant said, Lord, it is done as thou hast commanded, and yet there is room.
23 And the lord said unto the servant, Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled.
24 For I say unto you, [b]That none of those men which were bidden shall taste of my supper.
25 ¶ And there went great multitudes with him: and he turned, and said unto them,
26 [d]If any man come to me, [e]and hate not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, [f]yea, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple.
27 And [g]whosoever doth not bear his cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple.
28 For [h]which of you, intending to build a tower, sitteth not down first, and counteth the cost, whether he have sufficient to finish it?
29 Lest haply, after he hath laid the foundation, and is not able to finish it, all that behold it begin to mock him, 30 Saying, This man began to build, and was not able to finish.
31 Or what king, going to make war against another king, sitteth not down first, and consulteth whether he be able with ten thousand to meet him that cometh against him with twenty thousand?
32 Or else, while the other is yet a great way off, he sendeth an ambassage, and desireth conditions of peace.
33 So likewise, whosoever he be of you that forsaketh not all that he hath, he cannot be my disciple.
34 ¶ [k]Salt is good: but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be seasoned?
35 It is neither fit for the land, nor yet for the dunghill; but men cast it out. He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

1 The parable of the lost sheep 8 of the piece of silver 11 of the prodigal son

THEN [l]drew near unto him all the publicans and sinners for to hear him.
2 And the Pharisees and scribes murmured, saying, This man receiveth sinners, [m]and eateth with them.
3 ¶ And he spake this parable unto them, saying,
4 [o]What man of you, having an hundred sheep, if he lose one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he find it?

6 And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and neighbours, saying unto them Rejoice with me; for I have found my sheep [a]which was lost.
7 I say unto you, that likewise joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, [c]more than over ninety and nine just persons, which need no repentance.
8 ¶ Either what woman having ten [1]pieces of silver, if she lose one piece, doth not light a candle, and sweep the house, and seek diligently till she find it?
9 And when she hath found it, she calleth her friends and her neighbours together, saying, Rejoice with me; for I have found the piece which I had lost.
10 Likewise, I say unto you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth.
11 ¶ And he said, A certain man had two sons:
12 And the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me the portion of goods that falleth to me. And he divided unto them [t]his living.
13 And not many days after the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into a far country, and there wasted his substance with [r]otous living.
14 And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that land; and he began to be in want.
15 And he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country, and he sent him into his fields to feed swine.
16 And he would fain have filled his belly with the husks that the swine did eat: and no man gave unto him.
17 And when he came to himself, he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger!
18 I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee, 19 And am no more worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired servants.
20 And he arose, and came to his father. But [m]when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him.
21 And the son said unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, [p]and in thy sight, and am no more worthy to be called thy son.
22 But the father said to his servants, Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet.

23 And bring hither the fatted calf, and kill it, and let us eat, and be merry:

24 [a] For this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found. And they began to be merry.

25 Now his elder son was in the field: and as he came and drew nigh to the house, he heard musick and dancing.

26 And he called one of the servants, and asked what these things meant.

27 And he said unto him, Thy brother is come; and thy father hath killed the fatted calf, because he hath received him safe and sound.

28 And he was angry, and would not go in: therefore came his father out, and intreated him.

29 And he answering said to his father, Lo, these many years do I serve thee, neither transgressed I at any time thy commandment: and yet thou never gavest me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends:

30 But as soon as this thy son was come, which hath devoured thy living with harlots, thou hast killed for him the fatted calf.

31 And he said unto him, Son, thou art ever with me, and all that I have is thine.

32 It was meet that we should make merry, and be glad: [g] for this thy brother was dead, and is alive again; and was lost, and is found.

CHAPTER 16.

1 The parable of the unjust steward. 14 Christ reproveth the hypocrisy of the covetous Pharisees. 19 The rich glutton and Lazarus the beggar.

AND he said also unto his disciples, There was a certain rich man, which had a steward; and the same was accused unto him that he had wasted his goods.

2 And he called him, and said unto him, How is it that I hear this of thee? give an account of thy stewardship; for thou mayest be no longer steward.

3 Then the steward said within himself, What shall I do? for my lord taketh away from me the stewardship: I cannot dig; to beg I am ashamed.

4 I am resolved what to do, that, when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses.

5 So he called every one of his lord's debtors unto him, and said unto the first, How much owest thou unto my lord?

6 And he said, An hundred [4] measures of oil. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and sit down quickly, and write fifty.

7 Then said he to another, And how much owest thou? And he said, An hundred [1] measures of wheat. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and write fourscore.

8 And the lord commended the unjust steward, because he had done wisely: for the children of this world are in their generation wiser than [i] the children of light.

9 And I say unto you, [k] Make to yourselves friends of the [2] mammon of unrighteousness; that, when ye fail, they may receive you into everlasting habitations.

10 [d] He that is faithful in that which is least is faithful also in much: and he that is unjust in the least is unjust also in much.

11 If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous [3] mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches?

12 And if ye have not been faithful in that which is another man's, who shall give you that which is your own?

13 ¶ [e] No servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

14 And the Pharisees also, [f] who were covetous, heard all these things: and they derided him.

15 And he said unto them, Ye are they which [h] justify yourselves before men; but [i] God knoweth your hearts: for [k] that which is highly esteemed among men is abomination in the sight of God.

16 [l] The law and the prophets were until John: since that time the kingdom of God is preached, and every man presseth into it.

17 [m] And it is easier for heaven and earth to pass, than one tittle of the law to fail.

18 [n] Whosoever putteth away his wife, and marrieth another, committeth adultery: and whosoever marrieth her that is put away from her husband committeth adultery.

19 ¶ There was a certain rich man, which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day:

20 And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, which was laid at his gate, full of sores, 21 And desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table: moreover the dogs came and licked his sores.

22 And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels unto Abraham's bosom. the rich man also died, and was buried;
23 And in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom.
24 And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and [a]cool my tongue; for I [b]am tormented in this flame.
25 But Abraham said, Son, [c]remember that thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things: but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented.
26 And beside all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed: so that they which would pass from hence to you cannot; neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence 27 Then he said, I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father's house

29 Abraham saith unto him, [h]They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them

31 And he said unto him, If they hear not Moses and the prophets, [k]neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead.

CHAPTER 17.

1 Christ teacheth to avoid occasions of offence 3 One to forgive another 6 The power of faith 11 He healeth ten lepers 22 Of the kingdom of God, and the coming of the Son of man

THEN said he unto the disciples, [l]It is impossible but that offences will come: but woe unto him, through whom they come!
2 It were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he cast into the sea, than that he should offend one of these little ones
3 ¶ Take heed to yourselves: [m]If thy brother trespass against thee, [n]rebuke him; and if he repent, forgive him
4 And if he trespass against thee seven times in a day, and seven times in a day turn again to thee, saying, I repent; thou shalt forgive him
5 And the apostles said unto the Lord, Increase our faith
6 [o]And the Lord said, If ye had faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye might say unto this sycamine tree, Be thou plucked up by the root, and be thou planted in the sea; and it should obey you
7 But which of you, having a servant plowing or feeding cattle, will say unto him by and by, when he is come from the field, Go and sit down to meat?
8 And will not rather say unto him, Make ready wherewith I may sup, and gird thyself, [p]and serve me, till I have eaten and drunken; and afterward thou shalt eat and drink?
9 Doth he thank that servant because he did the things that were commanded him? I trow not.
10 So likewise ye, when ye shall have done all those things which are commanded you, say, We are [q]unprofitable servants: we have done that which was our duty to do.
11 ¶ And it came to pass, [r]as he went to Jerusalem, that he passed through the midst of Samaria and Galilee
12 And as he entered into a certain village, there met him ten men that were lepers, [s]which stood afar off.
13 And they lifted up their voices, and said, Jesus, Master, have mercy on us.
14 And when he saw them, he said unto them, [t]Go shew yourselves unto the priests. And it came to pass, that, as they went, they were cleansed.
15 And one of them, when he saw that he was healed turned back, and with a loud voice glorified God,
16 And fell down on his face at his feet, giving him thanks: and he was a Samaritan
17 And Jesus answering said, Were there not ten cleansed? but where are the nine?
18 There are not found that returned to give glory to God, save this stranger.
19 [u]And he said unto him, Arise, go thy way: thy faith hath made thee whole
20 ¶ And when he was demanded of the Pharisees, when the kingdom of God should come, he answered them and said, The kingdom of God cometh not [1]with observation:
21 [v]Neither shall they say, Lo here! or lo there! for, behold, [w]the kingdom of God is [2]within you
22 And he said unto the disciples, [x]The days will come, when ye shall desire to see one of the days of the Son of man, and ye shall not see it.
23 [y]And they shall say to you, See here; or, see there: go not after them, nor follow them

5 "Yet because this widow troubleth me, I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming she weary me

6 And the Lord said, Hear what the unjust judge saith

7 And [z]shall not God avenge his own elect, which cry day and night unto him, though he bear long with them?

8 I tell you [a]that he will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless when the Son of man cometh, shall he find faith on the earth?

9 And he spake this parable unto certain [y]which trusted in themselves [b]that they were righteous, and despised others

10 Two men went up into the temple to pray, the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican.

11 The Pharisee [c]stood and prayed thus with himself, [d]God, I thank thee, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican

12 I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I possess

13 And the publican, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner

14 I tell you, this man went down to his house [e]justified rather than the other: [f]for every one that exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted

15 [g]And they brought unto him also infants, that he would touch them: but when his disciples saw it, they rebuked them.

16 But Jesus called them unto him, and said, Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for [h]of such is the kingdom of God

17 [i]Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child shall in no wise enter therein

18 [x]And a certain ruler asked him, saying, Good Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?

19 And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? none is good save one, that is, God

20 Thou knowest the commandments [z]Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, [a]Honour thy father and thy mother

21 And he said, All these have I kept from my youth up

22 Now when Jesus heard these things, he said unto him, Yet lackest thou one thing: [b]sell all that thou hast, and distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven, and come, follow me.

23 And when he heard this, he was very sorrowful, for he was very rich.

24 And when Jesus saw that he was very sorrowful, he said, [c]How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God!

25 For it is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26 And they that heard it said, Who then can be saved?

27 And he said, [d]The things which are impossible with men are possible with God.

28 [e]Then Peter said, Lo, we have left all, and followed thee.

29 And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, [f]There is no man that hath left house, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or children, for the kingdom of God's sake, 30 [g]Who shall not receive manifold more in this present time, and in the world to come life everlasting.

31 ¶ [h]Then he took unto him the twelve, and said unto them, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and all things [i]that are written by the prophets concerning the Son of man shall be accomplished.

32 For [k]he shall be delivered unto the Gentiles, and shall be mocked, and spitefully entreated, and spitted on:

33 And they shall scourge him, and put him to death: and the third day he shall rise again.

34 [l]And they understood none of these things: and this saying was hid from them, neither knew they the things which were spoken.

35 ¶ [m]And it came to pass, that as he was come nigh unto Jericho, a certain blind man sat by the way side begging:

36 And hearing the multitude pass by, he asked what it meant.

37 And they told him, that Jesus of Nazareth passeth by.

38 And he cried, saying, Jesus, thou son of David, have mercy on me.

39 And they which went before rebuked him, that he should hold his peace: but he cried so much the more, Thou son of David, have mercy on me.

40 And Jesus stood, and commanded him to be brought unto him: and when he was come near, he asked him, 41 Saying, What wilt thou that I shall do unto thee? And he said, Lord, that I may receive my sight.

[x] John 1 11.

42 And Jesus said unto him, Receive thy sight: [p]thy faith hath saved thee.

43 And immediately he received his sight, and followed him, [q]glorifying God: and all the people, when they saw it, gave praise unto God.

CHAPTER 19.

1 Of Zacchæus a publican 11 The ten pieces of money 28 Christ rideth into Jerusalem 41 weepeth over it 45 driveth the buyers and sellers out of the temple 47 teaching daily in it. The rulers would destroy him, but fear the people

AND Jesus entered and passed through Jericho.

2 And, behold, there was a man named Zacchæus, which was the chief among the publicans, and he was rich.

3 And he sought to see Jesus who he was; and could not for the press, because he was little of stature.

4 And he ran before, and climbed up into a sycomore tree to see him: for he was to pass that way.

5 And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up, and saw him, and said unto him, Zacchæus, make haste, and come down; for to day I must abide at thy house.

6 And he made haste, and came down, and received him joyfully.

7 And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying, [k]That he was gone to be guest with a man that is a sinner.

8 And Zacchæus stood, and said unto the Lord; Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor, and if I have taken any thing from any man by [m]false accusation, [n]I restore him fourfold.

9 And Jesus said unto him, This day is salvation come to this house, forsomuch as [y]he also is [y]a son of Abraham.

10 [z]For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.

11 And as they heard these things, he added and spake a parable, because he was nigh to Jerusalem, and because [v]they thought that the kingdom of God should immediately appear.

12 [w]He said therefore, A certain nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return.

13 And he called his ten servants, and delivered them ten [1]pounds, and said unto them, Occupy till I come.

14 [x]But his citizens hated him, and sent a message after him, saying, We will not have this man to reign over us.

15 And it came to pass, that when he was returned, having received the kingdom, then he commanded these servants to be called unto him, to whom he had given the [1] money, that he might know how much every man had gained by trading.

16 Then came the first, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained ten pounds

17 And he said unto him, Well, thou good servant: because thou hast been [b] faithful in a very little, have thou authority over ten cities.

18 And the second came, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained five pounds

19 And he said likewise to him, Be thou also over five cities.

20 And another came, saying, Lord, behold, here is thy pound, which I have kept laid up in a napkin

21 [c] For I feared thee, because thou art an austere man: thou takest up that thou layedst not down, and reapest that thou didst not sow.

22 And he saith unto him, [d] Out of thine own mouth will I judge thee, thou wicked servant. [e] Thou knewest that I was an austere man, taking up that I laid not down, and reaping that I did not sow:

23 Wherefore then gavest not thou my money into the bank, that at my coming I might have required mine own with usury?

24 And he said unto them that stood by, Take from him the pound, and give it to him that hath ten pounds.

25 (And they said unto him, Lord, he hath ten pounds.)

26 For I say unto you, [m] That unto every one which hath shall be given; and from him that hath not, even that he hath shall be taken away from him.

27 But those mine enemies, which would not that I should reign over them, bring hither, and slay them before me.

28 ¶ And when he had thus spoken, [n] he went before, ascending up to Jerusalem.

29 [o] And it came to pass, when he was come nigh to Bethphage and Bethany, at the mount called the mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples, 30 Saying, Go ye into the village over against you; in the which at your entering ye shall find a colt tied, whereon yet never man sat: loose him, and bring him hither.

31 And if any man ask you, Why do ye loose him? thus shall ye say unto him, Because the Lord hath need of him.

32 And they that were sent went their way, and found even as he had said unto them.

33 And as they were loosing the colt, the owners thereof said unto them, Why loose ye the colt?

34 And they said, The Lord hath need of him.

35 And they brought him to Jesus: [q] and they cast their garments upon the colt, and they set Jesus thereon.

36 [r] And as he went, they spread their clothes in the way.

37 And when he was come nigh, even now at the descent of the mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works that they had seen, 38 Saying, [s] Blessed be the King that cometh in the name of the Lord: peace in heaven, and glory in the highest.

39 And some of the Pharisees from among the multitude said unto him, Master, rebuke thy disciples.

40 And he answered and said unto them, I tell you that, if these should hold their peace, [t] the stones would immediately cry out.

41 ¶ And when he was come near, he beheld the city, and [u] wept over it, 42 Saying, If thou hadst known, even thou, at least in this thy day, the things which belong unto thy peace! but now they are hid from thine eyes.

43 For the days shall come upon thee, that thine enemies shall [v] cast a trench about thee, and compass thee round, and keep thee in on every side, 44 And [w] shall lay thee even with the ground, and thy children within thee; and [x] they shall not leave in thee one stone upon another; [y] because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation.

45 [z] And he went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold therein, and them that bought, 46 Saying unto them, [a] It is written, My house is the house of prayer: but [b] ye have made it a den of thieves.

47 And he taught daily in the temple. But [c] the chief priests and the scribes and the chief of the people sought to destroy him, 48 And could not find what they might do: for all the people [2] were very attentive to hear him.

CHAPTER 20.

1 Christ avoucheth his authority by a question of John's baptism 9 The parable of the vineyard 19 Of giving tribute to Cæsar 27 He confuteth the Sadducees 41 How Christ is the son of David 45 He warneth his disciples to beware of the scribes.

AND [a]it came to pass, that on one of those days, as he taught the people in the temple, and preached the gospel, the chief priests and the scribes came upon him with the elders,

2 And spake unto him, saying, Tell us, [c]by what authority doest thou these things? or who is he that gave thee this authority?

3 And he answered and said unto them, I will also ask you one thing; and answer me:

4 The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or of men?

5 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then believed ye him not?

6 But and if we say, Of men; all the people will stone us: [f]for they be persuaded that John was a prophet.

7 And they answered, that they could not tell whence it was.

8 And Jesus said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.

9 Then began he to speak to the people this parable; [g]A certain man planted a vineyard, and let it forth to husbandmen, and went into a far country for a long time.

10 And at the season he sent a servant to the husbandmen, that they should give him of the fruit of the vineyard: but the husbandmen beat him, and sent him away empty.

11 And again he sent another servant: and they beat him also, and entreated him shamefully, and sent him away empty

12 And again he sent a third: and they wounded him also, and cast him out.

13 Then said the lord of the vineyard, What shall I do? I will send my beloved son: it may be they will reverence him when they see him.

14 But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, This is the heir: come, let us kill him, that the inheritance may be our's

15 So they cast him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What therefore shall the lord of the vineyard do unto them?

16 He shall come and destroy these husbandmen, and shall give the vineyard to others And when they heard it, they said, God forbid.

17 And he beheld them, and said, What is this then that is written, [i]The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner?

19 ¶ And the chief priests and the scribes the same hour sought to lay hands on him; and they feared the people. for they perceived that he had spoken this parable against them.

20 [d]And they watched him, and sent forth spies, which should feign themselves just men, that they might take hold of his words, that so they might deliver him unto the power and authority of the governor.

21 And they asked him, saying, [e]Master, we know that thou sayest and teachest rightly, neither acceptest thou the person of any, but teachest the way of God [1]truly:

22 Is it lawful for us to give tribute unto Cæsar, or no?

23 But he perceived their craftiness, and said unto them, Why tempt ye me?

24 Shew me a [2]penny. Whose image and superscription hath it? They answered and said, Cæsar's.

25 And he said unto them, Render therefore unto Cæsar the things which be Cæsar's, and unto God the things which be God's.

26 And they could not take hold of his words before the people: and they marvelled at his answer, and held their peace.

27 ¶ [h]Then came to him certain of the Sadducees, [i]which deny that there is any resurrection: and they asked him, 28 Saying, Master, [k]Moses wrote unto us, If any man's brother die, having a wife, and he die without children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

29 There were therefore seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and died without children.

30 And the second took her to wife, and he died childless.

31 And the third took her; and in like manner the seven also: and they left no children, and died.

32 Last of all the woman died also.

33 Therefore in the resurrection whose wife of them is she? for seven had her to wife.

34 And Jesus answering said unto them, The children of this world marry, and are given in marriage:

35 But they which shall be accounted worthy to obtain that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage:

36 Neither can they die any more:

for [a] they are equal unto the angels, and are the children of God, [b] being the children of the resurrection

37 Now that the dead are raised, [c] even Moses shewed at the bush, when he calleth the Lord the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob 38 For he is not a God of the dead, but of the living: for [d] all live unto him.

39 ¶ Then certain of the scribes answering said, Master, thou hast well said

40 And after that they durst not ask him any question at all.

41 And he said unto them, [f] How say they that Christ is David's son?

42 And David himself saith in the book of Psalms, [g] The LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, 43 Till I make thine enemies thy footstool.

44 David therefore calleth him Lord, how is he then his son?

45 ¶ [o] Then in the audience of all the people he said unto his disciples,

46 [q] Beware of the scribes, which desire to walk in long robes, and [r] love greetings in the markets, and the highest seats in the synagogues, and the chief rooms at feasts;

47 [s] Which devour widows' houses and for a shew make long prayers: the same shall receive greater damnation.

CHAPTER 21

1 Christ commendeth the poor widow 5 foretelleth the destruction of the temple and of Jerusalem 25 the signs which shall be before the last day

AND he looked up, [a] and saw the rich men casting their gifts into the treasury.

2 And he saw also a certain poor widow casting in thither two [2] mites.

3 And he said, Of a truth I say unto you, [b] that this poor widow hath cast in more than they all:

4 For all these have of their abundance cast in unto the offerings of God: but she of her penury hath cast in all the living that she had.

5 ¶ [c] And as some spake of the temple, how it was adorned with goodly stones and gifts, he said,

6 As for these things which ye behold, the days will come, in the which [f] there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

7 And they asked him, saying, Master, but when shall these things be? and what sign will there be when these things shall come to pass?

8 And he said, [f] Take heed that ye be not deceived: for many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ, [i] and the time draweth near: go ye not therefore after them.

9 But when ye shall hear of wars and commotions, be not terrified: for these things must first come to pass; but the end is not by and by.

10 [d] Then said he unto them, Nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom:

11 And great earthquakes shall be in divers places, and famines, and pestilences; and fearful sights and great signs shall there be from heaven

12 [f] But before all these, they shall lay their hands on you, and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues, and [h] into prisons, [i] being brought before kings and rulers [k] for my name's sake.

13 And [m] it shall turn to you for a testimony.

14 [n] Settle it therefore in your hearts, not to meditate before what ye shall answer:

15 For I will give you a mouth and wisdom, [p] which all your adversaries shall not be able to gainsay nor resist.

16 [r] And ye shall be betrayed both by parents, and brethren, and kinsfolks, and friends; and [s] some of you shall they cause to be put to death.

17 And [t] ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake

18 [u] But there shall not an hair of your head perish.

19 In your patience possess ye your souls.

20 [x] And when ye shall see Jerusalem compassed with armies, then know that the desolation thereof is nigh.

21 Then let them which are in Judæa flee to the mountains; and let them which are in the midst of it depart out; and let not them that are in the countries enter thereinto.

22 For these be the days of vengeance, that [c] all things which are written may be fulfilled.

23 [d] But woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck, in those days! for there shall be great distress in the land, and wrath upon this people

24 And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations: and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, [g] until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled

25 ¶ [h] And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring;

26 Men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth [a]for the powers of heaven shall be shaken

27 And then shall they see the Son of man [c]coming in a cloud with power and great glory.

28 And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads, for [d]your redemption draweth nigh.

29 [e]And he spake to them a parable, Behold the fig tree, and all the trees,

30 When they now shoot forth, ye see and know of your own selves that summer is now nigh at hand

31 So likewise ye, when ye see these things come to pass, know ye that the kingdom of God is nigh at hand

32 Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass away, till all be fulfilled.

33 [f]Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away.

34 ¶ And [g]take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares.

35 For [h]as a snare shall it come on all them that dwell on the face of the whole earth.

36 [i]Watch ye therefore, and [k]pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and [l]to stand before the Son of man.

37 [m]And in the day time he was teaching in the temple; and [n]at night he went out, and abode in the mount that is called the mount of Olives

6 And he promised, and sought opportunity to betray him unto them [1]in the absence of the multitude.

7 ¶ [b]Then came the day of unleavened bread, when the passover must be killed

8 And he sent Peter and John, saying, Go and prepare us the passover, that we may eat.

9 And they said unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare?

10 And he said unto them, Behold, when ye are entered into the city, there shall a man meet you, bearing a pitcher of water; follow him into the house where he entereth in.

11 And ye shall say unto the goodman of the house, The Master saith unto thee, Where is the guestchamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples?

12 And he shall shew you a large upper room furnished: there make ready.

13 And they went, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover

14 [d]And when the hour was come, he sat down, and the twelve apostles with him

15 And he said unto them, [2]With desire I have desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer:

16 For I say unto you, I will not any more eat thereof, [m]until it be fulfilled in the kingdom of God

17 And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and said, Take this, and divide it among yourselves

18 For [n]I say unto you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God shall come 19 ¶ [r]And he took bread, and gave thanks, and brake it, and gave unto them, saying, This is my body which is given for you: [s]this do in remembrance of me.

20 Likewise also the cup after supper, saying, [t]This cup is the new testament in my blood, which is shed for you.

21 ¶ [x]But, behold, the hand of him that betrayeth me is with me on the table

22 [z]And truly the Son of man goeth, [a]as it was determined: but woe unto that man by whom he is betrayed!

23 [c]And they began to enquire among themselves, which of them it was that should do this thing

24 ¶ [d]And there was also a strife among them, which of them should be accounted the greatest.

25 [e]And he said unto them, The kings of the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and they that exer cise authority upon them are called benefactors.

26 [b]But ye shall not be so: [c]but he that is greatest among you, let him be as the younger, and he that is chief, as he that doth serve 27 [d]For whether is greater, he that sitteth at meat, or he that serveth? [e]is not he that sitteth at meat? but [f]I am among you as he that serveth.

28 Ye are they which have continued with me in [h]my temptations.

29 And [i]I appoint unto you a kingdom, as my Father hath appointed unto me;

30 That [k]ye may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, [l]and sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

31 ¶ And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, behold, [m]Satan hath desired to have you, that he may [n]sift you as wheat 32 But [p]I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not: [q]and when thou art converted, strengthen thy brethren.

33 And he said unto him, Lord, I am ready to go with thee, both into prison, and to death.

34 [r]And he said, I tell thee, Peter, the cock shall not crow this day, before that thou shalt thrice deny that thou knowest me

35 [s]And he said unto them, When I sent you without purse and scrip, and shoes, lacked ye any thing? And they said, Nothing

36 Then said he unto them, But now, he that hath a purse, let him take it, and likewise his scrip: and he that hath no sword, let him sell his garment, and buy one.

37 For I say unto you, that this that is written must yet be accomplished in me, [a]And he was reckoned among the transgressors: for the things concerning me have an end 38 And they said, Lord, behold, here are two swords. And he said unto them, It is enough.

39 ¶ [b]And he came out, and [c]went, as he was wont, to the mount of Olives; and his disciples also followed him

40 [d]And when he was at the place, he said unto them, Pray that ye enter not into temptation

41 [g]And he was withdrawn from them about a stone's cast, and kneeled down, and prayed,

42 Saying, Father, if thou be [1]willing, remove this cup from me: nevertheless [h]not my will, but thine, be done

43 And there appeared [k]an angel unto him from heaven, strengthening him.

44 [a]And being in an agony he prayed more earnestly: and his sweat was as it were great drops of blood falling down to the ground.

45 And when he rose up from prayer, and was come to his disciples, he found them sleeping for sorrow, 46 And said unto them, Why sleep ye? rise and [e]pray, lest ye enter into temptation.

47 ¶ And while he yet spake, [g]behold a multitude, and he that was called Judas, one of the twelve, went before them, and drew near unto Jesus to kiss him.

48 But Jesus said unto him, Judas, betrayest thou the Son of man with a kiss?

49 When they which were about him saw what would follow, they said unto him, Lord, shall we smite with the sword?

50 ¶ And [o]one of them smote the servant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear.

51 And Jesus answered and said, Suffer ye thus far. And he touched his ear, and healed him.

52 [r]Then Jesus said unto the chief priests, and captains of the temple, and the elders, which were come to him, Be ye come out, as against a thief, with swords and staves?

53 When I was daily with you in the temple, ye stretched forth no hands against me: [u]but this is your hour, and the power of darkness.

54 ¶ [z]Then took they him, and led him, and brought him into the high priest's house. [y]And Peter followed afar off.

55 [z]And when they had kindled a fire in the midst of the hall, and were set down together, Peter sat down among them.

56 But a certain maid beheld him as he sat by the fire, and earnestly looked upon him, and said, This man was also with him.

57 And he denied him, saying, Woman, I know him not.

58 [d]And after a little while another saw him, and said, Thou art also of them. And Peter said, Man, I am not.

59 [f]And about the space of one hour after another confidently affirmed, saying, Of a truth this fellow also was with him: for he is a Galilæan.

60 And Peter said, Man, I know not what thou sayest. And immediately, while he yet spake, the cock crew.

61 And the Lord turned, and looked upon Peter. [l]And Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said unto him, [l]Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice.

62 And Peter went out, and wept bitterly.

63 ¶ [a]And the men that held Jesus mocked him, and smote him

64 And when they had blindfolded him, they struck him on the face, and asked him, saying, Prophesy, who is it that smote thee?

65 And many other things blasphemously spake they against him.

66 ¶ [a]And as soon as it was day, [c]the elders of the people and the chief priests and the scribes came together, and led him into their council, saying,

67 [d]Art thou the Christ? tell us And he said unto them, If I tell you, ye will not believe:

68 And if I also ask you, ye will not answer me, nor let me go.

69 [h]Hereafter shall the Son of man sit on the right hand of the power of God

70 Then said they all, Art thou then the Son of God? And he said unto them, [i]Ye say that I am.

71 [k]And they said, What need we any further witness? for we ourselves have heard of his own mouth.

CHAPTER 23.

1 Jesus is accused before Pilate, and sent to Herod. 8 Herod mocketh him 13 Barabbas desired of the people is loosed by Pilate and Jesus given to be crucified 33 Two evildoers are crucified with him 46 His death 50 His burial

AND [l]the whole multitude of them arose, and led him unto Pilate.

2 And they began to accuse him, saying, We found this fellow [m]perverting the nation, and [n]forbidding to give tribute to Cæsar, saying [o]that he himself is Christ a King

3 [p]And Pilate asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answered him and said, Thou sayest it

4 Then said Pilate to the chief priests and to the people, [r]I find no fault in this man.

5 And they were the more fierce, saying, He stirreth up the people, teaching throughout all Jewry, beginning from Galilee to this place.

6 When Pilate heard of Galilee, he asked whether the man were a Galilean.

7 And as soon as he knew that he belonged unto [s]Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, who himself also was at Jerusalem at that time

8 ¶ And when Herod saw Jesus, he was exceeding glad: for [t]he was desirous to see him of a long season, because [u]he had heard many things of him; and he hoped to have seen some miracle done by him

9 Then he questioned with him in many words; but he answered him nothing.

10 And the chief priests and scribes stood and vehemently accused him.

11 [t]And Herod with his men of war set him at nought, and mocked him, and arrayed him in a gorgeous robe, and sent him again to Pilate.

12 ¶ And the same day [v]Pilate and Herod were made friends together: for before they were at enmity between themselves.

13 ¶ [x]And Pilate, when he had called together the chief priests and the rulers and the people,

14 Said unto them, [h]Ye have brought this man unto me, as one that perverteth the people: and, behold, [z]I, having examined him before you, have found no fault in this man touching those things whereof ye accuse him:

15 No, nor yet Herod: for I sent you to him; and, lo, nothing worthy of death is done unto him

16 [m]I will therefore chastise him, and release him.

17 (For of necessity he must release one unto them at the feast.)

18 And [y]they cried out all at once, saying, Away with this man, and release unto us Barabbas:

19 (Who for a certain sedition made in the city, and for murder, was cast into prison.)

20 Pilate therefore, willing to release Jesus, spake again to them.

21 But they cried, saying, Crucify him, crucify him.

22 And he said unto them the third time, Why, what evil hath he done? I have found no cause of death in him: I will therefore chastise him, and let him go

23 And they were instant with loud voices, requiring that he might be crucified. And the voices of them and of the chief priests prevailed

24 And [y]Pilate [1]gave sentence that it should be as they required.

25 And he released unto them him that for sedition and murder was cast into prison, whom they had desired; but he delivered Jesus to their will 26 [z]And as they led him away, they laid hold upon one Simon, a Cyrenian, coming out of the country, and on him they laid the cross, that he might bear it after Jesus.

27 ¶ And there followed him a great company of people, and of women, which also bewailed and lamented him.

28 But Jesus turning unto them said, Daughters of Jerusalem, weep not for me, but weep for yourselves, and for your children.

29 [a]For, behold, the days are coming, in the which they shall say, Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bare, and the paps which never gave suck.

30 [c]Then shall they begin to say to the mountains, Fall on us; and to the hills, Cover us.

31 [d]For if they do these things in a green tree, what shall be done in the dry?

32 [f]And there were also two other, malefactors, led with him to be put to death.

33 And [h]when they were come to the place, which is called [l]Calvary, there they crucified him, and the malefactors, one on the right hand, and the other on the left.

34 ¶ Then said Jesus, Father, [j]forgive them; for [k]they know not what they do. And [m]they parted his raiment, and cast lots.

35 And [o]the people stood beholding. And the [p]rulers also with them derided him, saying, He saved others; let him save himself, if he be Christ, the chosen of God.

36 And the soldiers also mocked him, coming to him, and offering him vinegar, 37 And saying, If thou be the king of the Jews, save thyself.

38 [u]And a superscription also was written over him in letters of Greek, and Latin, and Hebrew, THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

39 ¶ [y]And one of the malefactors which were hanged railed on him, saying, If thou be Christ, save thyself and us.

40 But the other answering rebuked him, saying, Dost not thou fear God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation?

41 And we indeed justly; for we receive the due reward of our deeds: but this man hath done nothing amiss.

42 And he said unto Jesus, Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy kingdom.

43 And Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, To day shalt thou be with me in paradise.

44 [e]And it was about the sixth hour, and there was a darkness over all the [2]earth until the ninth hour.

45 And the sun was darkened, and [f]the veil of the temple was rent in the midst.

46 ¶ And when Jesus had cried with a loud voice, he said, [h]Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit: [i]and having said thus, he gave up the ghost.

47 [b]Now when the centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, Certainly this was a righteous man.

48 And all the people that came together to that sight, beholding the things which were done, smote their breasts, and returned.

49 [c]And all his acquaintance, and the women that followed him from Galilee, stood afar off, beholding these things.

50 ¶ [g]And, behold, there was a man named Joseph, a counsellor; and he was a good man, and a just:

51 (The same had not consented to the counsel and deed of them;) he was of Arimathæa, a city of the Jews: [i]who also himself waited for the kingdom of God.

52 This man went unto Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus.

53 [n]And he took it down, and wrapped it in linen, and laid it in a sepulchre that was hewn in stone, wherein never man before was laid.

54 And that day was [z]the preparation, and the sabbath drew on.

55 And the women also, [r]which came with him from Galilee, followed after, and [s]beheld the sepulchre, and how his body was laid.

56 And they returned, and [c]prepared spices and ointments; and rested the sabbath day [z]according to the commandment.

CHAPTER 24

1 Christ's resurrection is declared by two angels. 13 Christ himself appeareth to two disciples. 36 afterwards he appeareth to the apostles, reproving their unbelief. 47 giveth them a charge. 50 is taken up. the Holy Ghost. 51 and ascendeth into heaven.

NOW [z]upon the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they came unto the sepulchre, [a]bringing the spices which they had prepared, and certain others with them.

2 [b]And they found the stone rolled away from the sepulchre.

3 [c]And they entered in, and found not the body of the Lord Jesus.

4 And it came to pass, as they were much perplexed thereabout, [d]behold, two men stood by them in shining garments:

5 And as they were afraid, and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said unto them, Why seek ye [3]the living among the dead?

6 He is not here, but is risen: [g]remember how he spake unto you when he was yet in Galilee,

7 Saying, The Son of man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again.

8 And [a] they remembered his words,
9 [c] And returned from the sepulchre, and told all these things unto the eleven, and to all the rest.
10 It was Mary Magdalene, and [g] Joanna, and Mary the mother of James, and other women that were with them, which told these things unto the apostles.
11 [i] And their words seemed to them as idle tales, and they believed them not.
12 [l] Then arose Peter, and ran unto the sepulchre; and stooping down, he beheld the linen clothes laid by themselves, and departed, wondering in himself at that which was come to pass.
13 ¶ [m] And, behold, two of them went that same day to a village called Emmaus, which was from Jerusalem about threescore furlongs.
14 And they talked together of all these things which had happened.
15 And it came to pass, that, while they communed together and reasoned, [o] Jesus himself drew near, and went with them.
16 But [p] their eyes were holden that they should not know him.
17 And he said unto them, What manner of communications are these that ye have one to another, as ye walk, and are sad?
18 And the one of them, [r] whose name was Cleopas, answering said unto him, Art thou only a stranger in Jerusalem, and hast not known the things which are come to pass there in these days?
19 And he said unto them, What things? And they said unto him, Concerning Jesus of Nazareth, [t] which was a prophet [z] mighty in deed and word before God and all the people:
20 [y] And how the chief priests and our rulers delivered him to be condemned to death, and have crucified him.
21 But we trusted [a] that it had been he which should have redeemed Israel and beside all this, to day is the third day since these things were done.
22 Yea, and [b] certain women also of our company made us astonished, which were early at the sepulchre;
23 And when they found not his body, they came, saying, that they had also seen [c] a vision of angels, which said that he was alive.
24 And [f] certain of them which were with us went to the sepulchre, and found it even so as the women had said: but him they saw not.
25 Then he said unto them, O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken:

26 [h] Ought not Christ to have suffered these things, and to enter into his glory?
27 [u] And beginning at [e] Moses and [f] all the prophets, he expounded unto them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself.
28 And they drew nigh unto the village, whither they went: and [h] he made as though he would have gone further.
29 But [k] they constrained him, saying, Abide with us: for it is toward evening, and the day is far spent. And he went in to tarry with them.
30 And it came to pass, as he sat at meat with them, [m] he took bread, and blessed it, and brake, and gave to them.
31 And their eyes were opened, and they knew him; and he [l] vanished out of their sight.
32 And they said one to another, Did not our heart burn within us, while he talked with us by the way, and while he opened to us the scriptures?
33 And they rose up the same hour, and returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven gathered together, and them that were with them, 34 Saying, The Lord is risen indeed, and [g] hath appeared to Simon.
35 And they told what things were done in the way, and how he was known of them in breaking of bread.
36 ¶ [d] And as they thus spake, Jesus himself stood in the midst of them, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you.
37 But they were terrified and affrighted, and supposed that they had seen [a] a spirit.
38 And he said unto them, Why are ye troubled? and why do thoughts arise in your hearts?
39 Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I myself: [z] handle me, and see; for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me have.
40 And when he had thus spoken, he shewed them his hands and his feet.
41 And while they yet believed not [c] for joy, and wondered, he said unto them, [d] Have ye here any meat?
42 And they gave him a piece of a broiled fish, and of an honeycomb.
43 [e] And he took it, and did eat before them.
44 And he said unto them, [g] These are the words which I spake unto you, while I was yet with you, that all things must be fulfilled, which were written in the law of Moses, and in the prophets, and in the psalms, concerning me.

45 Then [a]opened he their understanding, that they might understand the scriptures,

46 And said unto them, [b]Thus it is written, and thus it behoved Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day:

47 And that repentance and [c]remission of sins should be preached in his name [f]among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem.

48 And [h]ye are witnesses of these things.

49 ¶ [k]And, behold, I send the promise of my Father upon you: but tarry ye in the city of Jerusalem, until ye be endued with power from on high.

50 ¶ And he led them out [c]as far as to Bethany, and he lifted up his hands, and blessed them.

51 [d]And it came to pass, while he blessed them, he was parted from them, and carried up into heaven.

52 [g]And they worshipped him, and returned to Jerusalem with great joy:

53 And were continually [i]in the temple, praising and blessing God. Amen.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ST. JOHN.

CHAPTER 1.

The divinity, humanity, and office of Christ.

IN the beginning [a]was the Word, and the Word was [d]with God, [f]and the Word was God.

2 [g]The same was in the beginning with God.

3 [i]All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made.

4 [k]In him was life; and [l]the life was the light of men.

5 And [q]the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not.

6 ¶ [t]There was a man sent from God, whose name was John.

7 [v]The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all men through him might believe.

8 He was not that Light, but was sent to bear witness of that Light.

9 [z]That was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world.

10 He was in the world, and [a]the world was made by him, and the world knew him not.

11 [c]He came unto his own, and his own received him not.

12 But [d]as many as received him, to them gave he [2]power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name:

13 [f]Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

14 [g]And the Word [h]was made [i]flesh, and dwelt among us, (and [k]we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) [l]full of grace and truth.

15 ¶ [p]John bare witness of him, and cried, saying, This was he of whom I spake, [a]He that cometh after me is preferred before me: [b]for he was before me.

16 And of his [c]fulness have all we received, and grace for grace.

17 For [h]the law was given by Moses, but [i]grace and [k]truth came by Jesus Christ.

18 [m]No man hath seen God at any time; [n]the only begotten Son, which is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him.

19 ¶ And this is [r]the record of John, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, Who art thou?

20 And [u]he confessed, and denied not; but confessed, I am not the Christ.

21 And they asked him, What then? Art thou [x]Elias? And he saith, I am not. Art thou [y]that [1]prophet? And he answered, No.

22 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? that we may give an answer to them that sent us. What sayest thou of thyself?

23 [b]He said, I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as [e]said the prophet Esaias.

24 And they which were sent were of the Pharisees.

25 And they asked him, and said unto him, Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not that Christ, nor Elias, neither that prophet?

26 John answered them, saying, [i]I baptize with water: [m]but there standeth one among you, whom ye know not;

27 [o]He it is, who coming after me is preferred before me, whose shoe's latchet I am not worthy to unloose.

28 These things were done [a]in Bethabara beyond Jordan, where John was baptizing

29 ¶ The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold [b]the Lamb of God, [c]which [1]taketh away the sin of the world.

30 [d]This is he of whom I said, After me cometh a man which is preferred before me: for he was before me.

31 And I knew him not: but that he should be made manifest to Israel, [e]therefore am I come baptizing with water.

32 [1]And John bare record, saying, I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it abode upon him.

33 And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, the same said unto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, [f]the same is he which baptizeth with the Holy Ghost.

34 And I saw, and bare record that this is the Son of God.

35 ¶ Again the next day after John stood, and two of his disciples;

36 And looking upon Jesus as he walked, he saith, [m]Behold the Lamb of God!

37 And the two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus.

38 Then Jesus turned, and saw them following, and saith unto them, What seek ye? They said unto him, Rabbi, (which is to say, being interpreted, Master,) where [2]dwellest thou?

39 He saith unto them, Come and see. They came and saw where he dwelt, and abode with him that day: for it was [3]about the tenth hour.

40 One of the two which heard John speak, and followed him, was [4]Andrew, Simon Peter's brother.

41 He first findeth his own brother Simon, and saith unto him, We have found the Messias, which is, being interpreted, [4]the Christ.

42 And he brought him to Jesus. And when Jesus beheld him, he said, Thou art Simon the son of Jona: [5]thou shalt be called Cephas, which is by interpretation, [5]A stone.

43 ¶ The day following Jesus would go forth into Galilee, and findeth Philip, and saith unto him, Follow me.

44 Now [z]Philip was of Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter.

45 Philip findeth [y]Nathanael, and saith unto him, We have found him, of whom [x]Moses in the law, and the [w]prophets, did write, Jesus [b]of Nazareth, the son of Joseph.

46 And Nathanael said unto him, [d]Can there any good thing come out of Nazareth? Philip saith unto him, Come and see.

47 Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and saith of him, Behold [b]an Israelite indeed, in whom is no guile!

48 Nathanael saith unto him, Whence knowest thou me? Jesus answered and said unto him, Before that Philip called thee, when thou wast under the fig tree, I saw thee.

49 Nathanael answered and saith unto him, Rabbi, [f]thou art the Son of God; thou art [h]the King of Israel.

50 Jesus answered and said unto him, Because I said unto thee, I saw thee under the fig tree, believest thou? thou shalt see greater things than these.

51 And he saith unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto you, [k]Hereafter ye shall see heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of man.

CHAPTER 2.

1 Christ turneth water into wine. 3 He rebuketh his mother. 6 He turneth into Capernaum and to Jerusalem. 14 where he purgeth the temple. 19 He foretelleth his death and resurrection. 23 Many believe because of his miracles.

AND the third day there was a marriage in [n]Cana of Galilee; and the mother of Jesus was there:

2 And both Jesus was called, and his disciples, to the marriage.

3 And when they wanted wine, the mother of Jesus saith unto him, They have no wine.

4 Jesus saith unto her, [o]Woman, [p]what have I to do with thee? [q]mine hour is not yet come.

5 His mother saith unto the servants, Whatsoever he saith unto you, do it.

6 And there were set there six waterpots of stone, [r]after the manner of the purifying of the Jews, containing two or three firkins apiece.

7 Jesus saith unto them, Fill the waterpots with water. And they filled them up to the brim.

8 And he saith unto them, Draw out now, and bear unto the governor of the feast. And they bare it.

9 When the ruler of the feast had tasted [u]the water that was made wine, and knew not whence it was (but the servants which drew the water knew;) the governor of the feast called the bridegroom,

10 And saith unto him, Every man at the beginning doth set forth good wine; and when men have well drunk, then that which is worse: but thou hast kept the good wine until now.

11 This beginning of miracles did Jesus in Cana of Galilee, [s]and manifested forth his glory; and his disciples believed on him.

12 ¶ After this he went down to Capernaum, he, and his mother, and [a]his brethren, and his disciples: and they continued there not many days.

13 ¶ [b]And the Jews' passover was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem,

14 [c]And found in the temple those that sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the changers of money sitting:

15 And when he had made a scourge of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple, and the sheep, and the oxen; and poured out the changers' money, and overthrew the tables;

16 And said unto them that sold doves, Take these things hence; make not [f]my Father's house an house of merchandise.

17 And his disciples remembered that it was written, [h]The zeal of thine house hath eaten me up.

18 ¶ Then answered the Jews and said unto him, [i]What sign shewest thou unto us, seeing that thou doest these things?

19 Jesus answered and said unto them, [m]Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.

20 Then said the Jews, Forty and six years was this temple in building, and wilt thou rear it up in three days?

21 But he spake [o]of the temple of his body.

22 When therefore he was risen from the dead, [p]his disciples remembered that he had said this unto them; and they believed the scripture, and the word which Jesus had said.

23 ¶ Now when he was in Jerusalem at the passover, in the feast day, many believed in his name, when they saw the miracles which he did.

24 But Jesus did not commit himself unto them, because he knew all men, 25 And needed not that any should testify of man: for [r]he knew what was in man.

1 Christ teacheth the necessity of regeneration. 16 The great love of God. 18 Condemnation is for unbelief. 23 The baptism witness and testimony of John concerning Christ.

THERE was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews:

2 [a]The same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for [c]no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except [d]God be with him.

3 Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, [f]Except a man be born [j]again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.

4 Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born?

5 Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, [e]Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.

6 That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.

7 Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born [j]again.

8 [k]The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit.

9 Nicodemus answered and said unto him, [l]How can these things be?

10 Jesus answered and said unto him, Art thou a master of Israel, and knowest not these things?

11 [k]Verily, verily, I say unto thee, We speak that we do know, and testify that we have seen, and [y]ye receive not our witness.

12 If I have told you earthly things, and ye believe not, how shall ye believe, if I tell you of heavenly things?

13 And [n]no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which is in heaven.

14 ¶ [s]And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so [t]must the Son of man be lifted up:

15 That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but [u]have eternal life.

16 ¶ [x]For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

17 [z]For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved.

18 ¶ [y]He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.

19 And this is the condemnation, [a]that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil.

20 For [b]every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be [c]reproved.

21 But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God.

22 ¶ After these things came Jesus and his disciples into the land of Judæa; and there he tarried with them, [a]and baptized

23 ¶ And John also was baptizing in Ænon near to [b]Salim, because there was much water there: [c]and they came, and were baptized

24 For [d]John was not yet cast into prison

25 ¶ Then there arose a question between some of John's disciples and the Jews about purifying.

26 And they came unto John, and said unto him, Rabbi, he that was with thee beyond Jordan, [f]to whom thou barest witness, behold, the same baptizeth, and all men come to him.

27 John answered and said, [g]A man can [1]receive nothing, except it be given him from heaven.

28 Ye yourselves bear me witness, that I said, [h]I am not the Christ, but [k]that I am sent before him

29 [l]He that hath the bride is the bridegroom but [m]the friend of the bridegroom, which standeth and heareth him, rejoiceth greatly because of the bridegroom's voice. this my joy therefore is fulfilled.

30 He must increase, but I must decrease

31 [o]He that cometh from above [p]is above all: [q]he that is of the earth is earthly, and speaketh of the earth: [r]he that cometh from heaven is above all.

32 And [s]what he hath seen and heard, that he testifieth; and no man receiveth his testimony.

33 He that hath received his testimony [u]hath set to his seal that God is true

34 [v]For he whom God hath sent speaketh the words of God: for God giveth not the Spirit [w]by measure unto him

35 [x]The Father loveth the Son, and hath given all things into his hand.

36 [c]He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him

CHAPTER 4

1 Christ talketh with a woman of Samaria. 27 He answereth his disciples. 31 He teacheth them. 39 Many Samaritans believe on him. 43 He departeth into Galilee. 46 He healeth the ruler's son.

WHEN therefore the Lord knew how the Pharisees had heard that Jesus made and [y]baptized more disciples than John,

2 (Though Jesus himself baptized not, but his disciples,)

3 He left Judea, and departed again into Galilee.

4 And he must needs go through Samaria

5 Then cometh he to a city of Samaria, which is called Sychar, near to the parcel of ground [c]that Jacob gave to his son Joseph

6 Now Jacob's well was there. Jesus therefore, being wearied with his journey, sat thus on the well: and it was about the sixth hour

7 There cometh a woman of Samaria to draw water. Jesus saith unto her, Give me to drink.

8 (For his disciples were gone away unto the city to buy meat.)

9 Then saith the woman of Samaria unto him, How is it that thou, being a Jew, askest drink of me, which am a woman of Samaria? for [h]the Jews have no dealings with the Samaritans.

10 Jesus answered and said unto her, If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee [n]living water.

11 The woman saith unto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deep. from whence then hast thou that living water?

12 Art thou greater than our father Jacob, which gave us the well, and drank thereof himself, and his children, and his cattle?

13 Jesus answered and said unto her, Whosoever drinketh of this water shall thirst again

14 But [r]whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him [z]shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life

15 [z]The woman saith unto him, Sir, give me this water, that I thirst not, neither come hither to draw 16 Jesus saith unto her, Go, call thy husband, and come hither.

17 The woman answered and said, I have no husband. Jesus said unto her, Thou hast well said, I have no husband 18 For thou hast had five husbands; and he whom thou now hast is not thy husband. in that saidst thou truly.

19 The woman saith unto him, Sir, [d]I perceive that thou art a prophet.

20 Our fathers worshipped in [e]this mountain, and ye say, that in [f]Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship

21 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, believe me, the hour cometh, [h]when ye shall neither in this mountain, nor yet at Jerusalem, worship the Father.

22 Ye worship [a]ye know not what: we know what we worship: for [b]salvation is of the Jews.
23 But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in [c]spirit [c]and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him.
24 [d]God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth.
25 The woman saith unto him, I know that Messias cometh, which is called Christ: when he is come, [e]he will tell us all things.
26 Jesus saith unto her, [f]I that speak unto thee am he.
27 ¶ And upon this came his disciples, and marvelled that he talked with the woman: yet no man said, What seekest thou? or, Why talkest thou with her?
28 The woman then left her waterpot, and went her way into the city, and saith to the men, 29 Come, see a man, [m]which told me all things that ever I did: is not this the Christ?
30 Then they went out of the city, and came unto him
31 ¶ In the mean while his disciples prayed him, saying, Master, eat.
32 But he said unto them, I have meat to eat that ye know not of.
33 Therefore said the disciples one to another, Hath any man brought him ought to eat?
34 Jesus saith unto them, [p]My meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and to finish his work.
35 Say not ye, There are yet four months, and then cometh harvest? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; [q]for they are white already to harvest.
36 [r]And he that reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal: that both he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together.
37 And herein is that saying true, One soweth, and another reapeth.
38 I sent you to reap that whereon ye bestowed no labour: other men laboured, and ye are entered into their labours.
39 ¶ And many of the Samaritans of that city believed on him [t]for the saying of the woman, which testified, He told me all that ever I did.
40 So when the Samaritans were come unto him, they besought him that he would tarry with them: and he abode there two days.
41 And many more believed because of his own word;

42 And said unto the woman, Now we believe, not because of thy saying: for [t]we have heard him ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the Saviour of the world.
43 ¶ Now after two days he departed thence, and went into Galilee.
44 For [g]Jesus himself testified, that a prophet hath no honour in his own country.
45 Then when he was come into Galilee, the Galilæans received him, [h]having seen all the things that he did at Jerusalem at the feast: [h]for they also went unto the feast 46 So Jesus came again into Cana of Galilee, [m]where he made the water wine. And there was a certain [l]nobleman, whose son was sick at Capernaum.
47 When he heard that Jesus was come out of Judæa into Galilee, he went unto him, and besought him that he would come down, and heal his son: for he was at the point of death.
48 Then said Jesus unto him, [o]Except ye see signs and wonders, ye will not believe.
49 The nobleman saith unto him, Sir, come down ere my child die.
50 Jesus saith unto him, Go thy way; thy son liveth. And the man believed the word that Jesus had spoken unto him, and he went his way.
51 And as he was now going down, his servants met him, and told him, saying, Thy son liveth.
52 Then enquired he of them the hour when he began to amend. And they said unto him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him.
53 So the father knew that it was at the same hour, in the which Jesus said unto him, Thy son liveth: and himself believed, and his whole house.
54 This is again the second miracle that Jesus did, when he was come out of Judæa into Galilee.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Jesus on the sabbath day healeth an impotent man. 10 The Jews therefore persecute him for it. 17 He answereth for himself, and reproveth them, shewing by the testimony of his Father, 32 of John, of his works, 39 and of the scriptures, who he is.

AFTER [s]this there was a feast of the Jews; and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.
2 Now there is at Jerusalem [u]by the sheep [z]market a pool, which is called in the Hebrew tongue Bethesda, having five porches
3 In these lay a great multitude of impotent folk, of blind, halt, withered, waiting for the moving of the water.

4 For an angel went down at a certain season into the pool, and troubled the water: whosoever then first after the troubling of the water stepped in was made whole of whatsoever disease he had.

5 And a certain man was there, which had an infirmity thirty and eight years.

6 When Jesus saw him lie, and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith unto him, Wilt thou be made whole?

7 The impotent man answered him, Sir, I have no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another steppeth down before me.

8 Jesus saith unto him, [e]Rise, take up thy bed, and walk.

9 And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed, and walked: and [f]on the same day was the sabbath.

10 ¶ The Jews therefore said unto him that was cured, It is the sabbath day: [g]it is not lawful for thee to carry thy bed.

11 He answered them, He that made me whole, the same said unto me, Take up thy bed, and walk.

12 Then asked they him, What man is that which said unto thee, Take up thy bed, and walk?

13 And he that was healed wist not who it was: for Jesus had conveyed himself away, [1]a multitude being in that place.

14 Afterward Jesus findeth him in the temple, and said unto him, Behold thou art made whole: [h]sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee.

15 The man departed, and told the Jews that it was Jesus, which had made him whole.

16 And therefore did the Jews persecute Jesus, and sought to slay him, because he had done these things on the sabbath day.

17 ¶ But Jesus answered them, [i]My Father worketh hitherto, and I work.

18 Therefore the Jews [k]sought the more to kill him, because he not only had broken the sabbath, but said also that God was his Father, [l]making himself equal with God.

19 Then answered Jesus and said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, [m]The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father do: for what things soever he doeth, these also doeth the Son likewise.

20 For [n]the Father loveth the Son, and sheweth him all things that himself doeth: and he will shew him greater works than these, that ye may marvel.

21 For as the Father raiseth up the dead, and quickeneth them; [o]even so the Son quickeneth whom he will.

22 For the Father judgeth no man, but [p]hath committed all judgment unto the Son:

23 That all men should honour the Son, even as they honour the Father. [q]He that honoureth not the Son honoureth not the Father which hath sent him.

24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, [r]He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; [s]but is passed from death unto life.

25 Verily, verily, I say unto you, The hour is coming, and now is, when [t]the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear shall live.

26 For as the Father hath life in himself; so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself;

27 And [u]hath given him authority to execute judgment also, [v]because he is the Son of man.

28 Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice, 29 [w]And shall come forth; [x]they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life, and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation.

30 [y]I can of mine own self do nothing: as I hear, I judge: and my judgment is just; because [z]I seek not mine own will, but the will of the Father which hath sent me.

31 [a]If I bear witness of myself, my witness is not true.

32 ¶ [b]There is another that beareth witness of me; and I know that the witness which he witnesseth of me is true.

33 Ye sent unto John, [c]and he bare witness unto the truth.

34 But I receive not testimony from man: but these things I say, that ye might be saved.

35 He was a burning and [d]a shining light: and [e]ye were willing for a season to rejoice in his light.

36 ¶ But [f]I have greater witness than that of John: for [g]the works which the Father hath given me to finish, the same works that I do, bear witness of me, that the Father hath sent me.

37 And the Father himself, which hath sent me, [h]hath borne witness of

CHAPTER 6.

1 Christ feedeth five thousand with five loaves and two fishes. 19 He walketh on the sea to his disciples. 32 Declareth himself to be the bread of life to believers. 66 Many of his disciples depart from him. 68 Peter confesseth him. 70 Judas is a devil.

AFTER [m]these things Jesus went over the sea of Galilee, which is the sea of Tiberias.

2 And a great multitude followed him, because they saw his miracles which he did on them that were diseased.

3 And Jesus went up into a mountain, and there he sat with his disciples.

4 [n]And the passover, a feast of the Jews, was nigh.

5 ¶ [o]When Jesus then lifted up his eyes and saw a great company come unto him, he saith unto Philip, Whence shall we buy bread, that these may eat?

6 And this he said to prove him: for he himself knew what he would do.

7 Philip answered him, [p]Two hundred pennyworth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one of them may take a little.

8 One of his disciples, Andrew Simon Peter's brother, saith unto him, 9 There is a lad here, which hath five barley loaves, and two small fishes: [q]but what are they among so many?

10 And Jesus said, Make the men sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand.

11 And Jesus took the loaves, and when he had given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set down; and likewise of the fishes as much as they would.

12 When they were filled, he said unto his disciples, Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost.

13 Therefore they gathered them together, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves, which remained over and above unto them that had eaten.

14 Then those men, when they had seen the miracle that Jesus did, said, This is of a truth [r]that prophet that should come into the world.

15 ¶ When Jesus therefore perceived that they would come and take him by force, to make him a king, he departed again into a mountain himself alone.

16 [s]And when even was now come, his disciples went down unto the sea, 17 And entered into a ship, and went over the sea toward Capernaum. And it was now dark, and Jesus was not come to them.

18 And the sea arose by reason of a great wind that blew.

19 So when they had rowed about five and twenty or thirty furlongs, they see Jesus walking on the sea, and drawing nigh unto the ship: and they were afraid.

20 But he saith unto them, It is I; be not afraid.

21 Then they willingly received him into the ship: and immediately the ship was at the land whither they went.

22 ¶ The day following, when the people which stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was none other boat there, save that one whereinto his disciples were entered, and that Jesus went not with his disciples into the boat, but that his disciples were gone away alone,

23 (Howbeit there came other boats from Tiberias nigh unto the place where they did eat bread, after that the Lord had given thanks:)

24 When the people therefore saw that Jesus was not there, neither his disciples, they also took shipping, and came to Capernaum, seeking for Jesus.

25 And when they had found him on the other side of the sea, they said unto him, Rabbi, when camest thou hither?

26 Jesus answered them and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Ye seek me, not because ye saw the miracles, but because ye did eat of the loaves, and were filled.

27 [1] Labour not for the meat which perisheth, but [c] for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: [e] for him hath God the Father sealed.

28 Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God?

29 Jesus answered and said unto them, [f] This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.

30 They said therefore unto him, [m] What sign shewest thou then, that we may see, and believe thee? what dost thou work?

31 [o] Our fathers did eat manna in the desert, as it is written, [p] He gave them bread from heaven to eat.

32 Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Moses gave you not that bread from heaven; but my Father giveth you the true bread from heaven.

33 For the bread of God is he which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world.

34 [u] Then said they unto him, Lord, evermore give us this bread.

35 And Jesus said unto them, [x] I am the bread of life: [y] he that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst.

36 [b] But I said unto you, That ye also have seen me, and believe not.

37 [c] All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and [d] him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out.

38 For I came down from heaven, [f] not to do mine own will, [g] but the will of him that sent me.

39 And this is the Father's will which hath sent me, [h] that of all which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day.

40 And this is the will of him that sent me, [k] that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.

41 The Jews then murmured at him, because he said, I am the bread which came down from heaven.

42 And they said, [m] Is not this Jesus the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? how is it then that he saith, I came down from heaven?

43 Jesus therefore answered and said unto them, Murmur not among yourselves.

44 [n] No man can come to me, except the Father which hath sent me draw him: and I will raise him up at the last day.

45 [b] It is written in the prophets, And they shall be all taught of God. [d] Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me.

46 [f] Not that any man hath seen the Father, [f] save he which is of God, he hath seen the Father.

47 Verily, verily, I say unto you, [h] He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.

48 [k] I am that bread of life.

49 [l] Your fathers did eat manna in the wilderness, and are dead.

50 [n] This is the bread which cometh down from heaven, that a man may eat thereof, and not die.

51 I am the living bread [q] which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: and [r] the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world.

52 [s] The Jews therefore [t] strove among themselves, saying, [t] How can this man give us his flesh to eat?

53 Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except [x] ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you.

54 [a] Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day.

55 For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed.

56 He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, [e] dwelleth in me, and I in him.

57 As the living Father hath sent me, and I live by the Father: so he that eateth me, even he shall live by me.

58 [i] This is that bread which came down from heaven: not as your fathers did eat manna, and are dead: he that eateth of this bread shall live for ever.

59 These things said he in the synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum.

60 [k] Many therefore of his disciples, when they had heard this, said, This is an hard saying; who can hear it?

61 When Jesus knew in himself that his disciples murmured at it, he said unto them, Doth this offend you?

62 [n] What and if ye shall see the Son of man ascend up where he was before?

63 [o] It is the spirit that quickeneth;

the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life.

64 But there are some of you that believe not. For [a]Jesus knew from the beginning who they were that believed not, and who should betray him.

65 And he said, Therefore [b]said I unto you, that no man can come unto me, except it were given unto him of my Father.

66 ¶ From that time many of his disciples went back, and walked no more with him.

67 Then said Jesus unto the twelve, Will ye also go away?

68 Then Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? thou hast [c]the words of eternal life.

69 [d]And we believe and are sure that thou art that Christ, the Son of the living God.

70 Jesus answered them, [e]Have not I chosen you twelve, [f]and one of you is a devil?

71 He spake of Judas Iscariot the son of Simon: for he it was that should betray him, being one of the twelve.

CHAPTER 7

1 Jesus rejoiceth the believers. 3 His brethren mock him. 10 Goeth to the feast of tabernacles. 14 Teacheth in the temple. 40 Divers opinions of him. 45 The Pharisees are angry that their officers took him not.

AFTER these things Jesus walked in Galilee: for he would not walk in Jewry, [a]because the Jews sought to kill him.

2 [b]Now the Jews' feast of tabernacles was at hand.

3 [c]His brethren therefore said unto him, Depart hence, and go into Judea, that thy disciples also may see the works that thou doest.

4 For there is no man that doeth any thing in secret, and he himself seeketh to be known openly. If thou do these things, shew thyself to the world.

5 For [d]neither did his brethren believe in him.

6 Then Jesus said unto them, [e]My time is not yet come: but your time is alway ready.

7 [f]The world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, [g]because I testify of it, that the works thereof are evil.

8 Go ye up unto this feast: I go not up yet unto this feast; [h]for my time is not yet full come.

9 When he had said these words unto them, he abode still in Galilee.

10 ¶ But when his brethren were gone up, then went he also up unto the feast, not openly, but as it were in secret.

11 Then [a]the Jews sought him at the feast, and said, Where is he?

12 And [b]there was much murmuring among the people concerning him: for [c]some said, He is a good man: others said, Nay; but he deceiveth the people.

13 Howbeit no man spake openly of him [d]for fear of the Jews.

14 ¶ Now about the midst of the feast Jesus went up into the temple, and taught.

15 [e]And the Jews marvelled, saying, How knoweth this man [f]letters, having never learned?

16 Jesus answered them, and said, [g]My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me.

17 [h]If any man will do his will he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself.

18 [i]He that speaketh of himself seeketh his own glory: but he that seeketh his glory that sent him, the same is true, and no unrighteousness is in him.

19 [k]Did not Moses give you the law, and yet none of you keepeth the law? [l]Why go ye about to kill me?

20 The people answered and said, [m]Thou hast a devil: who goeth about to kill thee?

21 Jesus answered and said unto them, I have done one work, and ye all marvel.

22 [n]Moses therefore gave unto you circumcision; (not because it is of Moses, [o]but of the fathers;) and ye on the sabbath day circumcise a man.

23 If a man on the sabbath day receive circumcision, [p]that the law of Moses should not be broken; are ye angry at me, because [q]I have made a man every whit whole on the sabbath day?

24 [r]Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment.

25 Then said some of them of Jerusalem, Is not this he, whom they seek to kill?

26 But, lo, he speaketh boldly, and they say nothing unto him. [s]Do the rulers know indeed that this is the very Christ?

27 [t]Howbeit we know this man whence he is: but when Christ cometh, no man knoweth whence he is.

28 Then cried Jesus in the temple as he taught, saying, [u]Ye both know me, and ye know whence I am: and [v]I am not come of myself, but he that sent me [w]is true, [x]whom ye know not.

29 But [a]I know him for I am from him, and he hath sent me.
30 Then [b]they sought to take him but [c]no man laid hands on him, because his hour was not yet come 31 And [d]many of the people believed on him, and said, When Christ cometh, will he do more miracles than these which this man hath done?
32 ¶ The Pharisees heard that the people murmured such things concerning him, and the Pharisees and the chief priests sent officers to take him
33 Then said Jesus unto them, [h]Yet a little while am I with you, and then I go unto him that sent me
34 Ye [i]shall seek me, and shall not find me and where I am, thither ye cannot come.
35 Then said the Jews among themselves, Whither will he go, that we shall not find him? will he go unto [k]the dispersed among the [2]Gentiles, and teach the Gentiles?
36 What manner of saying is this that he said, Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me and where I am, thither ye cannot come?
37 [l]In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, [m]If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink
38 [n]He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, [o]out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water.
39 (But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive: for the Holy Ghost was not yet given, because that Jesus was not yet [p]glorified.)
40 ¶ Many of the people therefore, when they heard this saying, said, Of a truth this is [q]the Prophet 41 Others said, [r]This is the Christ But some said, Shall Christ come [s]out of Galilee?
42 [t]Hath not the scripture said, That Christ cometh of the seed of David, and out of the town of Bethlehem, [u]where David was?
43 So [v]there was a division among the people because of him
44 And [w]some of them would have taken him; but no man laid hands on him
45 ¶ Then came the officers to the chief priests and Pharisees; and they said unto them, Why have ye not brought him?
46 The officers answered, [x]Never man spake like this man.
47 Then answered them the Pharisees, Are ye also deceived?
48 [y]Have any of the rulers or of the Pharisees believed on him?

49 But this people who knoweth not the law are cursed
50 Nicodemus saith unto them, (he that came [1]to Jesus by night being one of them,)
51 [f]Doth our law judge any man before it hear him, and know what he doeth?
52 They answered and said unto him, Art thou also of Galilee? Search, and look: for [g]out of Galilee ariseth no prophet.
53 And every man went unto his own house.

CHAPTER 8

1 Christ delivereth the woman taken in adultery
12 He preacheth himself the light of the world
33 answereth the Jews that boasted of Abraham,
59 and conveyeth himself from their cruelty

JESUS went unto the mount of Olives
2 And early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came unto him; and he sat down, and taught them
3 And the scribes and Pharisees brought unto him a woman taken in adultery, and when they had set her in the midst,
4 They say unto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act.
5 [a]Now Moses in the law commanded us, that such should be stoned: but what sayest thou?
6 This they said, tempting him, that they might have to accuse him But Jesus [c]stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground, as though he heard them not
7 So when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself, and said unto them [d]He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her.
8 And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground
9 And they which heard it, [e]being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, even unto the last and Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst
10 When Jesus had lifted up himself, and saw none but the woman he said unto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee?
11 She said, No man, Lord And Jesus said unto her, [f]Neither do I condemn thee: go, and [g]sin no more.
12 ¶ Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, [h]I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life
13 The Pharisees therefore said unto him, [a]Thou bearest record of thyself; thy record is not true.

14 Jesus answered and said unto them, Though I bear record of myself, yet my record is true: for I know whence I came, and whither I go; but [d]ye cannot tell whence I come, and whither I go.

15 [e]Ye judge after the flesh; [f]I judge no man.

16 And yet if I judge, my judgment is true: for [h]I am not alone, but I and the Father that sent me.

17 [k]It is also written in your law, that the testimony of two men is true.

18 I am one that bear witness of myself, and [m]the Father that sent me beareth witness of me.

19 Then said they unto him, Where is thy Father? Jesus answered, [o]Ye neither know me, nor my Father. [q]If ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also.

20 These words spake Jesus in [r]the treasury, as he taught in the temple: and [s]no man laid hands on him; for [t]his hour was not yet come.

21 Then said Jesus again unto them, I go my way, and [v]ye shall seek me, and [x]shall die in your sins: whither I go, ye cannot come.

22 Then said the Jews, Will he kill himself? because he saith, Whither I go, ye cannot come.

23 And he said unto them, [a]Ye are from beneath; I am from above: [b]ye are of this world; I am not of this world.

24 [d]I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins: [f]for if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins.

25 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? And Jesus saith unto them, Even the same that I said unto you from the beginning.

26 I have many things to say and to judge of you: but [h]he that sent me is true; and [k]I speak to the world those things which I have heard of him.

27 They understood not that he spake to them of the Father.

28 Then said Jesus unto them, When ye have [m]lifted up the Son of man, [n]then shall ye know that I am he, and [o]that I do nothing of myself; but [q]as my Father hath taught me, I speak these things.

29 And [r]he that sent me is with me: [s]the Father hath not left me alone; [t]for I do always those things that please him.

30 As he spake these words, [v]many believed on him.

31 Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him, If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed;

32 And ye shall know the truth, and [x]the truth shall make you free.

33 ¶ They answered him, [a]We be Abraham's seed, and were never in bondage to any man: how sayest thou, Ye shall be made free?

34 Jesus answered them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, [b]Whosoever committeth sin is the servant of sin.

35 And [d]the servant abideth not in the house for ever: but the Son abideth ever.

36 [f]If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed.

37 I know that ye are Abraham's seed; but [h]ye seek to kill me, because my word hath no place in you.

38 [k]I speak that which I have seen with my Father: and ye do that which ye have seen with your father.

39 They answered and said unto him, [m]Abraham is our father. Jesus saith unto them, [n]If ye were Abraham's children, ye would do the works of Abraham.

40 [o]But now ye seek to kill me, a man that hath told you the truth, [q]which I have heard of God: this did not Abraham.

41 Ye do the deeds of your father. Then said they to him, We be not born of fornication; [r]we have one Father, even God.

42 Jesus said unto them, [s]If God were your Father, ye would love me: [t]for I proceeded forth and came from God; [v]neither came I of myself, but he sent me.

43 [x]Why do ye not understand my speech? even because ye cannot hear my word.

44 [a]Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and [b]abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it.

45 And because I tell you the truth, ye believe me not.

46 Which of you convinceth me of sin? And if I say the truth, why do ye not believe me?

47 [d]He that is of God heareth God's words: ye therefore hear them not, because ye are not of God.

48 Then answered the Jews, and said unto him, Say we not well that thou art a Samaritan, and [f]hast a devil?

49 Jesus answered, I have not a devil; but I honour my Father, and ye do dishonour me.

Abraham, which is dead? and the went out of the temple, [l]going through

CHAPTER 9.

1 A blind man restored to sight 13 He is brought to the Pharisees 16 who are offended at it and ex- communicate him. 35 He confesseth Christ

AND as Jesus passed by, he saw a man which was blind from his birth
2 And his disciples asked him, saying,
Master, [a]who did sin, this man, or his parents, that he was born blind?
3 Jesus answered, Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents: [b]but that the works of God should be made manifest in him
4 [c]I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work
5 As long as I am in the world, [d]I am the light of the world.
6 When he had thus spoken, [e]he spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and he [1]anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay, 7 And said unto him, Go, wash [g]in interpretation, Sent.) He went his way therefore, and washed, and came they which before had seen him that he was blind, said, Is not this he that sat and begged?

9 Some said, This is he: others said,
He is like him. but he said, I am he.
10 Therefore said they unto him,
How were thine eyes opened?
11 He answered and said, [a]A man that is called Jesus made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and said unto me, Go to the pool of Siloam, and wash: and I went and washed, and
I received sight
12 Then said they unto him, Where is he? He said, I know not.
13 ¶ They brought to the Pharisees him that aforetime was blind.
14 And it was the sabbath day when Jesus made the clay, and opened his eyes
15 Then again the Pharisees also asked him how he had received his sight. He said unto them, He put clay upon mine eyes, and I washed, and do see 16 Therefore said some of the Phari- sees, This man is not of God, because he keepeth not the sabbath day.
Others said, [b]How can a man that is a sinner do such miracles? And [c]there was a division among them.
17 They say unto the blind man again, What sayest thou of him, that he hath opened thine eyes? He said,
[d]He is a prophet.
18 But the Jews did not believe concerning him that he had been blind, and received his sight, until they called the parents of him that had received his sight
19 And they asked them, saying, Is this your son, who ye say was born blind? how then doth he now see?
20 His parents answered them and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind.
21 But by what means he now seeth, we know not; or who hath opened his eyes, we know not: he is of age; ask him: he shall speak for himself.
22 These words spake his parents, because [e]they feared the Jews: for the Jews had agreed already, that if any man did confess that he was Christ, he [f]should be put out of the synagogue.
23 Therefore said his parents, He is of age; ask him.
24 Then again called they the man that was blind, and said unto him, [g]Give God the praise: [h]we know that this man is a sinner.
25 He answered and said, Whether he be a sinner or no, I know not: one thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, now I see.

26 Then said they to him again
What did he to thee? how opened he thine eyes?
27 He answered them I have told you already, and ye did not hear:
wherefore would ye hear it again?
will ye also be his disciples?
28 Then they reviled him and said,
Thou art his disciple; but we are Moses' disciples.
29 We know that God spake unto Moses: as for this fellow, [a]we know not from whence he is.
30 The man answered and said unto them, [b]Why herein is a marvellous thing, that ye know not from whence he is, and yet he hath opened mine eyes.
31 Now we know that [c]God heareth not sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, and doeth his will, him he heareth.
32 Since the world began was it not heard that any man opened the eyes of one that was born blind.
33 [d]If this man were not of God, he could do nothing.
34 They answered and said unto him,
[e]Thou wast altogether born in sins, and dost thou teach us? And they [1]cast him out.
35 Jesus heard that they had cast him out; and when he had found him, he said unto him, Dost thou believe on [f]the Son of God?
36 He answered and said, Who is he,
Lord, that I might believe on him?
37 And Jesus said unto him, Thou hast both seen him, and [g]it is he that talketh with thee.
38 And he said, Lord, I believe. And he worshipped him.
39 [h]And Jesus said, [i]For judgment
I am come into this world, [k]that they which see not might see; and that they which see might be made blind.
40 And some of the Pharisees which were with him heard these words, [l]and said unto him, Are we blind also?
41 Jesus said unto them, [m]If ye were blind ye should have no sin: but now ye say, We see, therefore your sin remaineth.

some other way, the same is a thief and a robber.

his own sheep by name, and leadeth them out.
4 And when he putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know his voice.
5 And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers.
6 This parable spake Jesus unto them: but they understood not what things they were which he spake unto them.
7 Then said Jesus unto them again,
Verily, verily, I say unto you, I am the door of the sheep.
8 All that ever came before me are thieves and robbers: but the sheep did not hear them.
9 [a]I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture.
10 The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly.
11 [b]I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep.
12 But he that is an hireling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and [c]leaveth the sheep, and fleeth: and the wolf catcheth them, and scat-tereth the sheep.
13 The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheep.
14 I am the good shepherd, and [d]know my sheep, and am known of mine.
15 [e]As the Father knoweth me, even so know I the Father: [f]and I lay down my life for the sheep.
16 And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice;
[g]and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd.
17 Therefore doth my Father love me, [h]because I lay down my life, that I might take it again.
18 No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have power to lay it down, and I [i]have power to take it again. [k]This commandment have I received of my Father.
19 ¶ [l]There was a division therefore again among the Jews for these sayings.
20 And many of them said, [m]He hath a devil, and is mad; why hear ye him?
21 Others said, These are not the words of him that hath a devil. [n]Can a devil [o]open the eyes of the blind?

22 ¶ And it was at Jerusalem the feast of the dedication, and it was winter.
23 And Jesus walked in the temple [b] in Solomon's porch.
24 Then came the Jews round about him, and said unto him, How long dost thou [1] make us to doubt? If thou be the Christ, tell us plainly.
25 Jesus answered them, I told you, and ye believed not: [c] the works that I do in my Father's name, they bear witness of me.
26 But [d] ye believe not, because ye are not of my sheep, as I said unto you.
27 [e] My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me:
28 And I give unto them eternal life; and [h] they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand.
29 [k] My Father, [l] which gave them me, is greater than all; and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand.
30 [m] I and my Father are one.
31 Then [n] the Jews took up stones again to stone him.
32 Jesus answered them, Many good works have I shewed you from my Father; for which of those works do ye stone me?
33 The Jews answered him, saying, For a good work we stone thee not, but for blasphemy; and because that thou, being a man, [p] makest thyself God.
34 Jesus answered them, [r] Is it not written in your law, I said, Ye are gods?
35 If he called them gods, [s] unto whom the word of God came, and the scripture cannot be broken;
36 Say ye of him, [t] whom the Father hath sanctified, and [u] sent into the world, Thou blasphemest; [x] because I said, I am [y] the Son of God?
37 [b] If I do not the works of my Father, believe me not.
38 But [c] if I do, though ye believe not me, [d] believe the works: that ye may know, and believe, [e] that the Father is in me, and I in him.
39 [f] Therefore they sought again to take him: but he escaped out of their hand, 40 And went away again beyond Jordan into the place [g] where John at first baptized; and there he abode.
41 And many resorted unto him, and said, John did no miracle: [g] but all things that John spake of this man were true.
42 [h] And many believed on him there.

NOW a certain man was sick, named Lazarus, of Bethany, the town of [a] Mary and her sister Martha.
2 ([a] It was that Mary which anointed the Lord with ointment and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick.)
3 Therefore his sisters sent unto him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou lovest is sick.
4 When Jesus heard that, he said, This sickness is not unto death, [c] but for the glory of God, that the Son of God might be glorified thereby.
5 Now Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus.
6 When he had heard therefore that he was sick, [d] he abode two days still in the same place where he was.
7 Then after that saith he to his disciples, Let us go into Judæa again.
8 His disciples say unto him, Master, [m] the Jews of late sought to stone thee; and goest thou thither again?
9 Jesus answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? [p] If any man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world.
10 But [q] if a man walk in the night, he stumbleth, because there is no light in him.
11 These things said he: and after that he saith unto them, Our friend Lazarus [r] sleepeth; but I go, that I may awake him out of sleep.
12 Then said his disciples, Lord, if he sleep, he shall do well.
13 Howbeit Jesus spake of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of taking of rest in sleep.
14 Then said Jesus unto them plainly, Lazarus is dead.
15 And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, to the intent ye may believe; nevertheless let us go unto him.
16 Then said Thomas, which is called Didymus, unto his fellow disciples, Let us also go, that we may die with him.
17 Then when Jesus came, he found that he had lain in the grave four days already.
18 Now Bethany was nigh unto Jerusalem, [2] about fifteen furlongs off:
19 And many of the Jews came to Martha and Mary, to comfort them concerning their brother.
20 Then Martha, as soon as she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met him: but Mary sat still in the house.
21 Then said Martha unto Jesus, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

22 But I know, that even now, [a]whatsoever thou wilt ask of God, God will give it thee

23 Jesus saith unto her, Thy brother shall rise again

24 Martha saith unto him, [b]I know that he shall rise again in the resurrection at the last day.

25 Jesus said unto her, I am [c]the resurrection, and the life: [d]he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live

26 And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this?

27 She saith unto him, Yea, Lord: [h]I believe that thou art the Christ, the Son of God, which should come into the world.

28 And when she had so said, she went her way, and called Mary her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come and calleth for thee.

29 As soon as she heard that, she arose quickly, and came unto him.

30 Now Jesus was not yet come into the town, but was in that place where Martha met him

31 [m]The Jews then which were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they saw Mary, that she rose up hastily and went out, followed her, saying, She goeth unto the grave to weep there

32 Then when Mary was come where Jesus was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying unto him, [p]Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

33 When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping which came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and [l]was troubled,

34 And said, Where have ye laid him? They said unto him, Lord, come and see

35 [l]Jesus wept

36 Then said the Jews, Behold how he loved him!

37 And some of them said, Could not this man, [t]which opened the eyes of the blind, have caused that even this man should not have died?

38 Jesus therefore again groaning in himself cometh to the grave. It was a cave, and a stone lay upon it.

39 Jesus said, Take ye away the stone. Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord, by this time he stinketh: for he hath been dead four days.

40 Jesus saith unto her, Said I not unto thee, that, if thou wouldest believe, thou shouldest [a]see the glory of God?

41 Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead was laid. And Jesus lifted up his eyes, and said, Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard me.

42 And I knew that thou hearest me always: but [c]because of the people which stand by I said it, that they may believe that thou hast sent me.

43 And when he thus had spoken, he cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, come forth.

44 And he that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with grave-clothes: and [g]his face was bound about with a napkin. Jesus saith unto them, Loose him, and let him go

45 Then many of the Jews which came to Mary, [s]and had seen the things which Jesus did, believed on him

46 But some of them went their ways to the Pharisees, and told them what things Jesus had done.

47 ¶ [k]Then gathered the chief priests and the Pharisees a council, and said, [i]What do we? for this man doeth many miracles.

48 If we let him thus alone, all men will believe on him: and the Romans shall come and take away both our place and nation

49 And one of them, named [n]Caiaphas, being the high priest that same year, said unto them, Ye know nothing at all,

50 [o]Nor consider that it is expedient for us, that one man should die for the people and that the whole nation perish not

51 And this spake he not of himself: but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus should die for that nation;

52 And [q]not for that nation only, [r]but that also he should gather together in one the children of God that were scattered abroad

53 Then from that day forth they took counsel together for to put him to death.

54 Jesus [u]therefore walked no more openly among the Jews; but went thence unto a country near to the wilderness, into a city called [x]Ephraim, and there continued with his disciples.

55 ¶ [y]And the Jews' passover was nigh at hand: and many went out of the country up to Jerusalem before the passover, to purify themselves

56 [z]Then sought they for Jesus, and spake among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

57 Now both the chief priests and the Pharisees had given a commandment, that if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him

CHAPTER 12

1 Jesus cometh Mary anointeth his feet 9 The people flock to see Lazarus 12 Christ rideth into Jerusalem 20 Greeks desire to see Jesus 23 He foretelleth his death 37 The Jews are blinded 44 Jesus calleth earnestly for confession of faith

THEN Jesus six days before the passover came to Bethany, [a] where Lazarus was which had been dead, whom he raised from the dead.

2 [b] There they made him a supper; and Martha served but Lazarus was one of them that sat at the table with him

3 Then took [h] Mary a pound of ointment of spikenard, very costly, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair and the house was filled with the odour of the ointment

4 Then saith one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, which should betray him,

5 Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred pence, and given to the poor?

6 This he said, not that he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, and [k] had the bag, and bare what was put therein

7 Then said Jesus, Let her alone: against the day of my burying hath she kept this.

8 For [l] the poor always ye have with you; but me ye have not always

9 Much people of the Jews therefore knew that he was there and they came not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, [c] whom he had raised from the dead

10 ¶ [d] But the chief priests consulted that they might put Lazarus also to death;

11 [e] Because that by reason of him many of the Jews went away, and believed on Jesus

12 ¶ [f] On the next day much people that were come to the feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem,

13 Took branches of palm trees, and went forth to meet him, and cried, [g] Hosanna: Blessed is the King of Israel that cometh in the name of the Lord

14 [h] And Jesus, when he had found a young ass, sat thereon; as it is written,

15 [i] Fear not, daughter of Sion: behold, thy King cometh, sitting on an ass's colt

16 These things [k] understood not his disciples at the first [l] but when Jesus was glorified, [m] then remembered they that these things were written of him, and that they had done these things unto him.

17 The people therefore that was with him when he called Lazarus out of his grave, and raised him from the dead, bare record

18 [n] For this cause the people also met him, for that they heard that he had done this miracle

19 The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, [o] Perceive ye how ye prevail nothing? behold, the world is gone after him

20 ¶ And there [p] were certain Greeks among them [q] that came up to worship at the feast

21 The same came therefore to Philip, [r] which was of Bethsaida of Galilee, and desired him, saying, Sir, we would see Jesus

22 Philip cometh and telleth Andrew and again Andrew and Philip tell Jesus.

23 ¶ And Jesus answered them, saying, [s] The hour is come, that the Son of man should be glorified

24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, [t] Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit.

25 [u] He that loveth his life shall lose it; and he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal.

26 If any man serve me, let him follow me; and [v] where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honour.

27 [w] Now is my soul troubled; and what shall I say? Father, save me from this hour: [x] but for this cause came I unto this hour

28 Father, glorify thy name. [y] Then came there a voice from heaven, saying, I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again

29 The people therefore, that stood by, and heard it said that it thundered: others said, An angel spake to him

30 Jesus answered and said, [z] This voice came not because of me, but for your sakes

31 Now is the judgment of this world: now shall [a] the prince of this world be cast out

32 And I, [b] if I be lifted up from the earth will draw [c] all men unto me

33 [d] This he said, signifying what death he should die

34 The people answered him, [e] We have heard out of the law that Christ abideth for ever: and how sayest thou, The Son of man must be lifted up? who is this Son of man?

35 Then Jesus said unto them, Yet a little while [c] is the light with you. [d]Walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you: for [e]he that walketh in darkness knoweth not whither he goeth.

36 While ye have light, believe in the light that ye may be [f]the children of light. These things spake Jesus, and departed, and [h]did hide himself from them.

37 ¶ But though he had done so many miracles before them, yet they believed not on him:

38 That the saying of Esaias the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spake, [m]Lord, who hath believed our report? and to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed?

39 Therefore they could not believe, because that Esaias said again, 40 [n]He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart; that they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their heart, and be converted, and I should heal them.

41 [q]These things said Esaias, when he saw his glory, and spake of him.

42 ¶ Nevertheless among the chief rulers also many believed on him; but [r]because of the Pharisees they did not confess him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue:

43 [s]For they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God.

44 ¶ Jesus cried and said, [t]He that believeth on me, believeth not on me, but on him that sent me.

45 And [u]he that seeth me seeth him that sent me.

46 [x]I am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth on me should not abide in darkness.

47 And if any man hear my words, and believe not, [y]I judge him not: for [z]I came not to judge the world, but to save the world.

48 [a]He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: [b]the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day.

49 For [k]I have not spoken of myself; but the Father which sent me, he gave me a commandment, [m]what I should say, and what I should speak.

50 And I know that his commandment is life everlasting: whatsoever I speak therefore, even as the Father said unto me, so I speak.

NOW [a]before the feast of the passover, when Jesus knew that [b]his hour was come that he should depart out of this world unto the Father, having loved his own which were in the world, he loved them unto the end.

2 And supper being ended, [f]the devil having now put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him;

3 Jesus knowing [g]that the Father had given all things into his hands, and [h]that he was come from God, and went to God;

4 [i]He riseth from supper, and laid aside his garments; and took a towel, and girded himself.

5 After that he poureth water into a bason, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded.

6 Then cometh he to Simon Peter: and [l]Peter saith unto him, Lord, [o]dost thou wash my feet?

7 Jesus answered and said unto him, What I do thou knowest not now; [p]but thou shalt know hereafter.

8 Peter saith unto him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, [r]If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me.

9 Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head.

10 Jesus saith to him, He that is washed needeth not save to wash his feet, but is clean every whit: and [s]ye are clean, but not all.

11 For [y]he knew who should betray him; therefore said he, Ye are not all clean.

12 So after he had washed their feet, and had taken his garments, and was set down again, he said unto them, Know ye what I have done to you?

13 [c]Ye call me Master and Lord: and ye say well; for so I am.

14 [e]If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet; [g]ye also ought to wash one another's feet.

15 For [i]I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you.

16 [k]Verily, verily, I say unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord; neither he that is sent greater than he that sent him.

17 [n]If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them.

18 ¶ I speak not of you all: I know whom I have chosen: but that the scripture may be fulfilled, [o]He that eateth bread with me hath lifted up his heel against me.

19 [a]Now [1] I tell you before it come, that, when it is come to pass, ye may believe that I am he.
20 [b]Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that receiveth whomsoever I send receiveth me; and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me.
21 [c]When Jesus had thus said, [d]he was troubled in spirit, and testified, and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, that [e]one of you shall betray me.
22 Then the disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spake.
23 Now [f]there was leaning on Jesus' bosom one of his disciples, whom Jesus loved.
24 Simon Peter therefore beckoned to him, that he should ask who it should be of whom he spake.
25 He then lying on Jesus' breast saith unto him, Lord, who is it?
26 Jesus answered, He it is, to whom I shall give a [2]sop, when I have dipped it. And when he had dipped the sop, he gave it to Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon.
27 [g]And after the sop Satan entered into him. Then said Jesus unto him, That thou doest, do quickly.
28 Now no man at the table knew for what intent he spake this unto him.
29 For some of them thought, because [h]Judas had the bag, that Jesus had said unto him, Buy those things that we have need of against the feast; or, that he should give something to the poor.
30 He then having received the sop went immediately out: and it was night.
31 ¶ Therefore, when he was gone out, Jesus said, [i]Now is the Son of man glorified, and [k]God is glorified in him.
32 If God be glorified in him, God shall also glorify him in himself, and [l]shall straightway glorify him.
33 Little children, yet a little while I am with you. Ye shall seek me: [m]and as I said unto the Jews, Whither I go, ye cannot come; so now I say to you.
34 [n]A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.
35 [o]By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another.
36 ¶ Simon Peter said unto him, Lord, whither goest thou? Jesus answered him, Whither I go, thou canst not follow me now; but [p]thou shalt follow me afterwards.
37 Peter said unto him, Lord, why cannot I follow thee now? I will [q]lay down my life for thy sake.

5 Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way?
6 Jesus saith unto him, I am [e]the way, [f]the truth, and [g]the life: [h]no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.
7 [i]If ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also: and from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him.
8 Philip saith unto him, Lord, shew us the Father, and it sufficeth us.
9 Jesus saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Philip? [k]he that hath seen me hath seen the Father; and how sayest thou then, Shew us the Father?
10 Believest thou not that [l]I am in the Father, and the Father in me? the words that I speak unto you [m]I speak not of myself: but the Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works.
11 Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me [a]or else believe me for the very works' sake.
12 [o]Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father.
13 [p]And whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son.
14 If ye shall ask [q]any thing in my name, I will do it.
15 ¶ [r]If ye love me, keep my commandments.
16 And I will pray the Father, and [s]he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever;
17 Even [t]the Spirit of truth; [u]whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, [a]and shall be in you.

18 [b]I will not leave you [1]comfort less: [c]I will come to you.
19 Yet a little while, and the world seeth me no more; but [c]ye see me
[d]because I live, ye shall live also.
20 At that day ye shall know that [e]I am in my Father, and ye in me, and I in you.
21 [f]He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveeth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him.
22 [m]Judas saith unto him, not Iscariot, Lord, how is it that thou wilt manifest thyself unto us, and not unto the world?
23 Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, [n]and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him.
24 He that loveth me not keepeth not my sayings: and [r]the word which ye hear is not mine, but the Father's which sent me.
25 These things have I spoken unto you, being yet present with you.
26 But [t]the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, [u]he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you.
27 [z]Peace I leave with you, my peace
I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.
28 Ye have heard how [c]I said unto you, I go away, and come again unto you. If ye loved me, ye would rejoice, because I said, [d]I go unto the Father:
for [f]my Father is greater than I.
29 And [f]now I have told you before it come to pass, that, when it is come to pass, ye might believe.
30 Hereafter I will not talk much with you: [k]for the prince of this world cometh, and hath nothing in me.
31 But that the world may know that I love the Father; and [l]as the Father gave me commandment, even so I do.
Arise, let us go hence.

eth not fruit he taketh away: and every branch that beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit.
3 [d]Now ye are clean through the word which I have spoken unto you.
4 [f]Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me.
5 I am the vine, ye are the branche
He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much [2]fruit for [2]without me ye can do nothi 6 If a man abide not in me, [1]he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered, and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned
7 If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, [n]ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.
8 [o]Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit, [r]so shall ye be my disciples.
9 As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you: continue ye in my love.
10 [t]If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love.
11 These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and [z]that your joy might be full.
12 [z]This is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you.
13 [a]Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.
14 [b]Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you.
15 Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; [c]for all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you.
16 [b]Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and [d]ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain: that [f]whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you.
17 These things I command you, that ye love one another.
18 [m]If the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you.
19 [o]If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but [r]because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you.
20 Remember the word that I said unto you, [a]The servant is not greater than his lord. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you; [c]if they have kept my saying, they will keep yours also.

21 But [b]all these things will they do unto you for my name's sake, because they know not him that sent me.

22 [k]If I had not come and spoken unto them, they had not had sin: [m]but now they have no [l]cloke for their sin.

23 [n]He that hateth me hateth my Father also.

24 If I had not done among them [p]the works which none other man did, they had not had sin: but now have they both seen and hated both me and my Father.

25 But this cometh to pass, that the word might be fulfilled that is written in their law, [r]They hated me without a cause.

26 [s]But when the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, [u]he shall testify of me:

27 And [x]ye also shall bear witness, because [y]ye have been with me from the beginning.

CHAPTER 16.

1 Christ comforteth his disciples against tribulation by the promise of the Holy Ghost &c. 23 assureth their prayers to be acceptable to his Father. 33 Peace in Christ, and in the world affliction.

THESE things have I spoken unto you, that ye [z]should not be offended.

2 [a]They shall put you out of the synagogues: yea, the time cometh, [b]that whosoever killeth you will think that he doeth God service.

3 And [c]these things will they do unto you, because they have not known the Father, nor me.

4 But [d]these things have I told you, that when the time shall come, ye may remember that I told you of them. And these things I said not unto you at the beginning, because I was with you.

5 But now [f]I go my way to him that sent me; and none of you asketh me, Whither goest thou?

6 But because I have said these things unto you, sorrow hath filled your heart.

7 Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, [g]the Comforter will not come unto you; but [k]if I depart, I will send him unto you.

8 And when he is come, he will [2]reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment:

9 [b]Of sin, because they believe not on me;

10 [c]Of righteousness, [e]because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more;

11 [f]Of judgment, because [g]the prince of this world is judged.

12 I have yet many things to say unto you, [i]but ye cannot bear them now.

13 Howbeit when he, [l]the Spirit of truth, is come, [m]he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come.

14 He shall glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, and shall shew it unto you.

15 [q]All things that the Father hath are mine: therefore said I, that he shall take of mine, and shall shew it unto you.

16 A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me, [t]because I go to the Father.

17 Then said some of his disciples among themselves, What is this that he saith unto us, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me: and, Because I go to the Father?

18 They said therefore, What is this that he saith, A little while? we cannot tell what he saith.

19 Now Jesus knew that they were desirous to ask him, and said unto them, Do ye enquire among yourselves of that I said, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me?

20 Verily, verily, I say unto you, That ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice: and ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy.

21 [w]A woman when she is in travail hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world.

22 And ye now therefore have sorrow: but I will see you again, and [y]your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you.

23 And in that day ye shall ask me nothing. [h]Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give it you.

24 Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: ask, and ye shall receive, [t]that your joy may be full.

25 These things have I spoken unto you in [2]proverbs: but the time cometh, when I shall no more speak unto you in [1]proverbs, but I shall shew you plainly of the Father.

26 At that day ye shall ask in my name: and I say not unto you, that I will pray the Father for you:

27 [c]For the Father himself loveth you, because ye have loved me, and [d]have believed that I came out from God.

28 [e]I came forth from the Father, and am come into the world: again, I leave the world, and go to the Father.

29 His disciples said unto him, Lo, now speakest thou plainly, and speakest no [2]proverb.

30 Now are we sure that [f]thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should ask thee: by this [m]we believe that thou camest forth from God.

31 Jesus answered them, Do ye now believe?

32 [g]Behold, the hour cometh, yea, is now come, that ye shall be scattered, [r]every man to [3]his own, and shall leave me alone: and [s]yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me.

33 These things I have spoken unto you, that [u]in me ye might have peace. [v]In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; [x]I have overcome the world.

CHAPTER 17.

1 Christ prayeth to his Father to glorify him, 6 to preserve his apostles, 20 and all other believers.

THESE words spake Jesus, and lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said, Father, [a]the hour is come; glorify thy Son, that thy Son also may glorify thee:

2 [b]As thou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give eternal life to as many [h]as thou hast given him.

3 And [i]this is life eternal, that they might know thee [k]the only true God, and Jesus Christ, [l]whom thou hast sent.

4 [o]I have glorified thee on the earth: [p]I have finished the work [q]which thou gavest me to do.

5 And now, O Father, glorify thou me with thine own self with the glory [z]which I had with thee before the world was.

6 [a]I have manifested thy name unto the men [z]which thou gavest me out of the world: thine they were, and thou gavest them me; and they have kept thy word.

7 Now they have known that all things whatsoever thou hast given me are of thee.

8 For I have given unto them the words [a]which thou gavest me; and they have received them, [a]and have known surely that I came out from thee, and they have believed that thou didst send me.

9 I pray for them: [b]I pray not for the world, but for them which thou hast given me; for they are thine.

10 And all mine are thine, and [c]thine are mine; and I am glorified in them.

11 [d]And now I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to thee. Holy Father, [h]keep through thine own name those whom thou hast given me, that they may be one, [k]as we are.

12 While I was with them in the world, [l]I kept them in thy name: those that thou gavest me I have kept, and [n]none of them is lost, [o]but the son of perdition; [p]that the scripture might be fulfilled.

13 And now come I to thee; and these things I speak in the world, that they might have my joy fulfilled in themselves.

14 I have given them thy word; [t]and the world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, [x]even as I am not of the world.

15 I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but [a]that thou shouldest keep them from the evil

16 They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

17 [b]Sanctify them through thy truth: [c]thy word is truth.

18 [e]As thou hast sent me into the world, even so have I also sent them into the world.

19 And [g]for their sakes I sanctify myself, that they also might be [4]sanctified through the truth.

20 Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word;

21 [m]That they all may be one; as [n]thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me.

22 And the glory which thou gavest me I have given them; [r]that they may be one, even as we are one:

23 I in them, and thou in me, [t]that they may be made perfect in one; and that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them, as thou hast loved me.

24 [y]Father, I will that they also, whom thou hast given me, be with me where I am; that they may behold my glory, which thou hast given me: [z]for thou lovedst me before the foundation of the world.

25 O righteous Father, [a]the world hath not known thee: but [b]I have known thee, and [c]these have known that thou hast sent me.

26 [d]And I have declared unto them thy name, and will declare it: that the love [e]wherewith thou hast loved me may be in them, and I in them.

CHAPTER 18

1 Judas betrayeth Jesus. 10 Peter smiteth off Malchus's ear. 12 Jesus is taken. 15 Peter's denial. 19 Jesus is examined before Caiaphas. 28 His arraignment before Pilate.

WHEN Jesus had spoken these words, [f]he went forth with his disciples over [h]the brook Cedron, where was a garden, into the which he entered, and his disciples.

2 And Judas also, which betrayed him, knew the place: [i]for Jesus oftimes resorted thither with his disciples.

3 [k]Judas then, having received a band of men and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, cometh thither with lanterns and torches and weapons.

4 Jesus therefore, knowing all things that should come upon him, went forth, and said unto them, Whom seek ye?

5 They answered him, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus saith unto them, I am he. And Judas also, which betrayed him, stood with them.

6 As soon then as he had said unto them, I am he, they went backward, and fell to the ground.

7 Then asked he them again, Whom seek ye? And they said, Jesus of Nazareth.

8 Jesus answered, I have told you that I am he: if therefore ye seek me, let these go their way:

9 That the saying might be fulfilled, which he spake, [l]Of them which thou gavest me have I lost none.

10 [m]Then Simon Peter having a sword drew it, and smote the high priest's servant, and cut off his right ear. The servant's name was Malchus.

11 Then said Jesus unto Peter, Put up thy sword into the sheath: [n]the cup which my Father hath given me, shall I not drink it?

12 Then the band and the captain and officers of the Jews took Jesus, and bound him, 13 And [o]led him away to [p]Annas first; for he was father in law to Caiaphas, which was the high priest that same year.

14 [q]Now Caiaphas was he, which gave counsel to the Jews, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

15 ¶ [r] And Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple: that disciple was known unto the high priest, and went in with Jesus into the palace of the high priest.

16 [s]But Peter stood at the door without. Then went out that other disciple, which was known unto the high priest, and spake unto her that kept the door, and brought in Peter.

17 Then saith the damsel that kept the door unto Peter, Art not thou also one of this man's disciples? He saith, I am not.

18 And the servants and officers stood there, who had made a fire of coals; for it was cold: and they warmed themselves: and Peter stood with them and warmed himself.

19 ¶ The high priest then asked Jesus of his disciples, and of his doctrine.

20 Jesus answered him, [t]I spake openly to the world; I ever taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, whither the Jews always resort; and in secret have I said nothing.

21 Why askest thou me? ask them which heard me, what I have said unto them: behold, they know what I said.

22 And when he had thus spoken, one of the officers which stood by [u]struck Jesus [1]with the palm of his hand, saying, Answerest thou the high priest so?

23 Jesus answered him, If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil: but if well, why smitest thou me?

24 [v]Now Annas had sent him bound unto Caiaphas the high priest.

25 And Simon Peter stood and warmed himself. [w]They said therefore unto him, Art not thou also one of his disciples? He denied it, and said, I am not.

26 One of the servants of the high priest, being his kinsman whose ear Peter cut off, saith, Did not I see thee in the garden with him?

27 Peter then denied again: and [x]immediately the cock crew.

28 ¶ [y]Then led they Jesus from Caiaphas unto [2]the hall of judgment: and it was early; [z]and they themselves went not into the judgment hall, lest they should be defiled; but that they might eat the passover.

29 Pilate then went out unto them, and said, What accusation bring ye against this man?

30 They answered and said unto him, If he were not a malefactor, we would not have delivered him up unto thee.

31 Then said Pilate unto them, Take ye him, and judge him according to your law. The Jews therefore said unto him, It is not lawful for us to put any man to death:

32 [a]That the saying of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spake, signifying what death he should die

33 [b]Then Pilate entered into the judgment hall again, and called Jesus, and said unto him, Art thou the King of the Jews?

34 Jesus answered him, Sayest thou this thing of thyself, or did others tell it thee of me?

35 Pilate answered, Am I a Jew? [c]Thine own nation and the chief priests have delivered thee unto me: what hast thou done?

36 [d]Jesus answered, [e]My kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence.

37 Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that [f]is of the truth heareth my voice

38 Pilate saith unto him, What is truth? And when he had said this, he went out again unto the Jews, and saith unto them, [m]I find in him no fault at all 39 [n]But ye have a custom, that I should release unto you one at the passover: will ye therefore that I release unto you the King of the Jews?

40 [o]Then cried they all again, saying, Not this man, but Barabbas. Now Barabbas was a robber.

3 And said, Hail, King of the Jews! and they smote him with their hands.

4 Pilate therefore went forth again, and saith unto them, Behold, I bring him forth to you, [q]that ye may know that I find no fault in him.

5 Then came Jesus forth, wearing the crown of thorns, and the purple robe. And Pilate saith unto them, Behold the man!

6 [r]When the chief priests therefore and officers saw him, they cried out, saying, Crucify him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Take ye him, and crucify him: for I find no fault in him.

7 The Jews answered him, [b]We have a law, and by our law he ought to die, because [c]he made himself the Son of God

8 ¶ When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he was the more afraid;

9 And went again into the judgment hall, and saith unto Jesus, Whence art thou? [d]But Jesus gave him no answer.

10 Then saith Pilate unto him, Speakest thou not unto me? knowest thou not that I have power to crucify thee, and have power to release thee?

11 Jesus answered, [e]Thou couldest have no power at all against me, except it were given thee from above: therefore he that delivered me unto thee hath the greater sin.

12 And from thenceforth Pilate sought to release him: but the Jews cried out, saying, [f]If thou let this man go, thou art not Cæsar's friend: [g]whosoever maketh himself a king speaketh against Cæsar.

13 ¶ When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he brought Jesus forth, and sat down in the judgment seat in a place that is called the Pavement, but in the Hebrew, Gabbatha.

14 And [m]it was the preparation of the passover, and about the sixth hour: and he saith unto the Jews, Behold your King!

15 But they cried out, Away with him, away with him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Shall I crucify your king? The chief priests answered, [n]We have no king but Cæsar.

16 [o]Then delivered he him therefore unto them to be crucified. And they took Jesus, and led him away.

17 [p]And he bearing his cross [q]went forth into a place called the place of a skull, which is called in the Hebrew Golgotha:

18 Where they crucified him, and two other with him, on either side one, and Jesus in the midst.

19 ¶ [r]And Pilate wrote a title, and put it on the cross. And the writing was, JESUS OF NAZARETH THE KING OF THE JEWS.

20 This title then read many of the Jews: for the place where Jesus was crucified was nigh to the city: and it was written in Hebrew, and Greek, and Latin.

21 Then said the chief priests of the Jews to Pilate, Write not, The King of the Jews; but that he said, I am King of the Jews.

22 Pilate answered, What I have written I have written.

23 ¶ [s]Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments, and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also his coat: now the coat was without seam, [1]woven from the top throughout.

24 They said therefore among themselves, Let us not rend it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be: that the scripture might be fulfilled, which saith, [c]They parted my raiment among them, and for my vesture they did cast lots These things therefore the soldiers did.

25 ¶ [d]Now there stood by the cross of Jesus his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of [2]Cleophas, and Mary Magdalene.

26 When Jesus therefore saw his mother, and [e]the disciple standing by, whom he loved, he saith unto his mother, [f]Woman, behold thy son!

27 Then saith he to the disciple, Behold thy mother! And from that hour that disciple took her [g]unto his own home.

28 ¶ After this, Jesus knowing that all things were now accomplished, [h]that the scripture might be fulfilled, saith, I thirst.

29 Now there was set a vessel full of vinegar: and [i]they filled a spunge with vinegar, and put it upon hyssop, and put it to his mouth.

30 When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, [k]It is finished: and he bowed his head, and gave up the ghost.

31 The Jews therefore, [l]because it was the preparation, [m]that the bodies should not remain upon the cross on the sabbath day, (for that sabbath day was an high day,) besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away.

32 Then came the soldiers, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other which was crucified with him.

33 But when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs:

34 But one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and forthwith [n]came there out blood and water.

35 And he that saw it bare record, and his record is true: and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye might believe.

36 For these things were done, [o]that the scripture should be fulfilled, A bone of him shall not be broken.

37 And again another scripture saith, [p]They shall look on him whom they pierced.

secretly[a] for fear of the Jews, besought Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus: and Pilate gave him leave. He came therefore, and took the body of Jesus.

39 And there came also [b]Nicodemus, which at the first came to Jesus by night, and brought a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about an hundred pound weight.

40 Then took they the body of Jesus, and [d]wound it in linen clothes with the spices, as the manner of the Jews is to bury.

41 Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden; and in the garden a new sepulchre, wherein was never man yet laid 42 [h]There laid they Jesus therefore [1]because of the Jews' preparation day; for the sepulchre was nigh at hand.

CHAPTER 20.

1 Mary cometh to the sepulchre 3 also Peter and John 11 Jesus appeareth to Mary Magdalene, 19 and to his disciples 24 The incredulity, and confession of Thomas

THE [m]first day of the week cometh Mary Magdalene early, when it was yet dark, unto the sepulchre, and seeth the stone taken away from the sepulchre.

2 Then she runneth, and cometh to Simon Peter, and to the [p]other disciple, whom Jesus loved, and saith unto them, They have taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre, and we know not where they have laid him.

3 [s]Peter therefore went forth, and that other disciple, and came to the sepulchre.

4 So they ran both together: and the other disciple did outrun Peter, and came first to the sepulchre.

5 And he stooping down, and looking in, saw [u]the linen clothes lying; yet went he not in.

6 Then cometh Simon Peter following him, and went into the sepulchre, and seeth the linen clothes lie,

7 And [x]the napkin, that was about his head, not lying with the linen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by itself.

8 Then went in also that other disciple, which came first to the sepulchre, and he saw, and believed.

9 For as yet they knew not the [a]scripture, that he must rise again from the dead.

10 Then the disciples went away again unto their own home.

11 ¶ [c]But Mary stood without at the sepulchre weeping: and as she wept, she stooped down, and looked into the sepulchre, 12 And seeth two angels in white sitting, the one at the head, and the other at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain.

13 And they say unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? She saith unto them, Because they have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid him.

14 [b]And when she had thus said, she turned herself back, and saw Jesus standing, and [c]knew not that it was Jesus.

15 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? whom seekest thou? She, supposing him to be the gardener, saith unto him, Sir, if thou have borne him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I will take him away.

16 Jesus saith unto her, Mary. She turned herself, and saith unto him, Rabboni; which is to say, Master.

17 Jesus saith unto her, Touch me not; for I am not yet ascended to my Father: but go to [h]my brethren, and say unto them, [i]I ascend unto my Father, and your Father, and to [k]my God, and your God.

18 [l]Mary Magdalene came and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord, and that he had spoken these things unto her.

19 ¶ Then the same day at evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jews, came Jesus and stood in the midst, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you.

20 And when he had so said, he shewed unto them his hands and his side. [n]Then were the disciples glad, when they saw the Lord.

21 Then said Jesus to them again, Peace be unto you: [o]as my Father hath sent me, even so send I you.

22 And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and saith unto them, [p]Receive ye the Holy Ghost:

23 Whosoever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them; and whose soever sins ye retain, they are retained.

24 ¶ But Thomas, one of the twelve, [q]called Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came.

25 The other disciples therefore said unto him, We have seen the Lord. But he said unto them, Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my hand into his side, I will not believe.

26 [r]And after eight days again his disciples were within, and Thomas with them: then came Jesus, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace be unto you.

27 Then saith he to Thomas, Reach hither thy finger, and behold my hands; and reach hither thy hand, and thrust it into my side: and be not faithless, but believing.

28 And Thomas answered and said unto him, My Lord and my God.

29 Jesus saith unto him, Thomas, because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed: [s]blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed.

30 ¶ [t]And many other signs truly did Jesus in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book:

31 [u]But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; [v]and that believing ye might have life through his name.

CHAPTER 21

1 Christ appeareth again to 7 disciples. 10 He directeth with them. 15 communeth after their meat with Peter. 18 foretelleth him of his death.

AFTER these things Jesus shewed himself again to the disciples at the sea of Tiberias; and on this wise shewed he himself.

2 There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas called Didymus, and [a]Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and [b]the sons of Zebedee, and two other of his disciples.

3 Simon Peter saith unto them, I go a fishing. They say unto him, We also go with thee. They went forth, and entered into a ship immediately; and that night they caught nothing.

4 But when the morning was now come, Jesus stood on the shore: but the disciples [c]knew not that it was Jesus.

5 Then [d]Jesus saith unto them, [e]Children, have ye any meat? They answered him, No.

6 And he said unto them, [f]Cast the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall find. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes.

7 Therefore [g]that disciple whom Jesus loved saith unto Peter, It is the Lord. Now when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girt his fisher's coat unto him, (for he was naked,) and did cast himself into the sea.

8 And the other disciples came in a little ship, (for they were not far from land, but as it were two hundred cubits,) dragging the net with fishes.

9 As soon then as they were come to land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid thereon, and bread.

10 Jesus saith unto them, Bring of the fish which ye have now caught.
11 Simon Peter went up, and drew the net to land full of great fishes, an hundred and fifty and three: and for all there were so many, yet was not the net broken.
12 Jesus saith unto them, [b]Come and dine. And none of the disciples durst ask him, Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord.
13 Jesus then cometh, and taketh bread, and giveth them, and fish likewise.
14 This is now [c]the third time that Jesus shewed himself to his disciples, after that he was risen from the dead.
15 ¶ So when they had dined, Jesus saith to Simon Peter, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me more than these? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my lambs.
16 He saith to him again the second time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. [g]He saith unto him, Feed my sheep.
17 He saith unto him the third time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? Peter was grieved because he said unto him the third time, Lovest thou me? And he said unto him, Lord, [i]thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I love thee. Jesus saith unto him, Feed my sheep.

19 This spake he, signifying [c]by what death he should glorify God. And when he had spoken this, he saith unto him, Follow me.
20 Then Peter, turning about, seeth the disciple [d]whom Jesus loved following; which also leaned on his breast at supper, and said, Lord, which is he that betrayeth thee?
21 Peter seeing him saith to Jesus, Lord, and what shall this man do?
22 Jesus saith unto him, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee? follow thou me.
23 Then went this saying abroad among the brethren, that that disciple should not die: yet Jesus said not unto him, He shall not die; but, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee?

2 [e]Until the day in which he was taken up, after that he through the Holy Ghost [f]had given commandments unto the apostles whom he had chosen:
3 [g]To whom also he shewed himself alive after his passion by many infallible proofs, being seen of them forty days, and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God:
4 [h]And, [2]being assembled together with them, commanded them that they should not depart from Jerusalem, but wait for the promise of the Father, [m]which, saith he, ye have heard of me.

5 [b]For John truly baptized with water; [c]but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost not many days hence.
6 When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord, wilt thou at this time [l]restore again the kingdom to Israel?
7 And he said unto them, [k]It is not for you to know the times or the seasons, which the Father hath put in his own power.
8 [l]But ye shall receive [1]power, [m]after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and [n]ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judæa, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.
9 [p]And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, [q]he was taken up; and a cloud received him out of their sight

10 And while they looked stedfastly toward heaven as he went up behold two men stood by them in white apparel,

11 Which also said Ye men of Galilee why stand ye gazing up into heaven? this same Jesus which is taken up from you into heaven shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven

12 Then returned they unto Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is from Jerusalem a sabbath day's journey

13 And when they were come in they went up into an upper room, where abode both Peter, and James and John and Andrew Philip and Thomas Bartholomew and Matthew James the son of Alphæus and Simon Zelotes and Judas the brother of James

14 These all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication with the women and Mary the mother of Jesus and with his brethren

15 And in those days Peter stood up in the midst of the disciples and said (the number of names together were about an hundred and twenty)

16 Men and brethren this scripture must needs have been fulfilled which the Holy Ghost by the mouth of David spake before concerning Judas which was guide to them that took Jesus

17 For he was numbered with us and had obtained part of this ministry

18 Now this man purchased a field with the reward of iniquity and falling headlong he burst asunder in the midst and all his bowels gushed out

19 And it was known unto all the dwellers at Jerusalem, insomuch as that field is called in their proper tongue Aceldama that is to say The field of blood

20 For it is written in the book of Psalms Let his habitation be desolate and let no man dwell therein and his bishoprick let another take

21 Wherefore of these men which have companied with us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us

22 Beginning from the baptism of John unto that same day that he was taken up from us must one be ordained to be a witness with us of his resurrection

23 And they appointed two Joseph called Barsabas who was surnamed Justus and Matthias

24 And they prayed and said Thou Lord which knowest the hearts of all men shew whether of these two thou hast chosen

25 That he may take part of this ministry and apostleship from which Judas by transgression fell that he might go to his own place

26 And they gave forth their lots and the lot fell upon Matthias and he was numbered with the eleven apostles

CHAPTER 2

1 The apostles filled with the Holy Ghost speak in various languages 14 Peter preaches 41 Three thousand are converted 42 and baptized 43 Many wonders and miracles are done by the apostles 44 The manner of the first christians

AND when the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place

2 And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting

3 And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them

4 And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance

5 And there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews devout men, out of every nation under heaven

6 Now when this was noised abroad the multitude came together and were confounded because that every man heard them speak in his own language

7 And they were all amazed and marvelled saying one to another Behold are not all these which speak Galilæans?

8 And how hear we every man in our own tongue wherein we were born?

9 Parthians, and Medes and Elamites, and the dwellers in Mesopotamia and in Judæa and Cappadocia in Pontus, and Asia

10 Phrygia, and Pamphylia in Egypt and in the parts of Libya about Cyrene, and strangers of Rome Jews and proselytes,

11 Cretes and Arabians we do hear them speak in our tongues the wonderful works of God

12 And they were all amazed and were in doubt saying one to another What meaneth this

13 Others mocking said, These men are full of new wine

14 ¶ But Peter standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and said unto them, Ye men of Judæa, and all ye that dwell at Jerusalem be this known unto you, and hearken to my words

15 For these are not drunken, as ye suppose, [b]seeing it is but the third hour of the day

16 But this is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel;

17 [f]And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, [h]I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh and your sons and [k]your daughters shall prophesy and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams

18 And on my servants and on my handmaidens I will pour out in those days of my Spirit, [m]and they shall prophesy

19 [n]And I will shew wonders in heaven above, and signs in the earth beneath, blood, and fire and vapour of smoke.

20 [p]The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood before that great and notable day of the Lord come

21 And it shall come to pass, that [r]whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved

22 Ye men of Israel hear these words, Jesus of Nazareth, a man approved of God among you [t]by miracles and wonders and signs, which God did by him in the midst of you, as ye yourselves also know

23 Him, [v]being delivered by the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God [x]ye have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified and slain

24 [z]Whom God hath raised up, having loosed the pains of death because it was not possible that he should be holden of it

25 For David speaketh concerning him, [c]I foresaw the Lord always before my face, for he is on my right hand that I should not be moved

26 Therefore did my heart rejoice, and my tongue was glad, moreover also my flesh shall rest in hope

27 Because thou wilt not leave my soul in hell, neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy One to see corruption

28 Thou hast made known to me the ways of life, thou shalt make me full of joy with thy countenance

29 Men and brethren, [l]let me freely speak unto you [h]of the patriarch David, that he is both dead and buried, and his sepulchre is with us unto this day

30 Therefore being a prophet, [n]and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him, that of the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh, he would raise up Christ to sit on his throne,

31 He seeing this before spake of the resurrection of Christ, [t]that his soul was not left in hell, neither his flesh did see corruption

32 [c]This Jesus hath God raised up, [d]whereof we all are witnesses

33 Therefore [t]being by the right hand of God exalted, and [g]having received of the Father the promise of the Holy Ghost, he [t]hath shed forth this which ye now see and hear

34 For David is not ascended into the heavens but he saith himself, [t]The LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand

35 Until I make thy foes thy footstool.

36 Therefore let all the house of Israel know assuredly, that God [o]hath made that same Jesus, whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ

37 ¶ Now when they heard this, [t]they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do?

38 Then Peter said unto them, [r]Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost

39 For the promise is unto you, and [u]to your children, and [x]to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call

40 And with many other words did he testify and exhort, saying Save yourselves from this untoward generation.

41 ¶ Then they that gladly received his word were baptized and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls

42 [b]And they continued stedfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers

43 And fear came upon every soul: and [d]many wonders and signs were done by the apostles

44 And all that believed were together, and [t]had all things common;

45 And sold their possessions and goods and [f]parted them to all men, as every man had need

46 [f]And they, continuing daily with one accord [h]in the temple, and [t]breaking bread [2]from house to house, did eat their meat with gladness and singleness of heart, 47 Praising God and [z]having favour with all the people And [t]the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved.

CHAPTER 3.

1 A lame man healed 12 Peter preacheth to the people 19 He exhorteth them to repentance and faith to ask remission of their sins

NOW Peter and John went up together [b]into the temple at the hour of prayer, [c]being the ninth hour.

2 And [d]a certain man lame from his mother's womb was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful, [h]to ask alms of them that entered into the temple;

3 Who seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple asked an alms.

4 And Peter, fastening his eyes upon him with John, said, Look on us.

5 And he gave heed unto them, expecting to receive something of them.

6 Then Peter said, Silver and gold have I none, but such as I have give I thee: [m]In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth rise up and walk.

7 And he took him by the right hand, and lifted him up: and immediately his feet and ancle bones received strength.

8 And he [o]leaping up stood, and walked, and entered with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praising God.

9 [p]And all the people saw him walking and praising God:

10 And they knew that it was he which [q]sat for alms at the Beautiful gate of the temple: and they were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened unto him.

11 And as the lame man which was healed held Peter and John, all the people ran together unto them in the porch [r]that is called Solomon's, greatly wondering.

12 ¶ And when Peter saw it, he answered unto the people, Ye men of Israel, why marvel ye at this? or why look ye so earnestly on us, as though by our own power or holiness we had made this man to walk?

13 [s]The God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, the God of our fathers, [t]hath glorified his Son Jesus; whom ye [b]delivered up, and [c]denied him in the presence of Pilate, when he was determined to let him go.

14 But ye denied [e]the Holy One [f]and the Just, and desired a murderer to be granted unto you;

15 And killed the [2]Prince of life, [g]whom God hath raised from the dead; [h]whereof we are witnesses.

16 [i]And his name through faith in his name hath made this man strong, whom ye see and know: yea, the faith which is by him hath given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all.

17 And now, brethren, I wot that [a]through ignorance ye did it, as did also your rulers.

18 But [c]those things, which God before had shewed [k]by the mouth of all his prophets, that Christ should suffer, he hath so fulfilled.

19 ¶ [d]Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord,

20 And he shall send Jesus Christ, which before was preached unto you:

21 [l]Whom the heaven must receive until the times of [k]restitution of all things, [f]which God hath spoken by the mouth of all his holy prophets since the world began.

22 For Moses truly said unto the fathers, [m]A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me; him shall ye hear in all things whatsoever he shall say unto you.

23 And it shall come to pass, that every soul, which will not hear that prophet, shall be destroyed from among the people.

24 Yea, and all the prophets from Samuel and those that follow after, as many as have spoken, have likewise foretold of these days.

25 [r]Ye are the children of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying unto Abraham, [s]And in thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed.

26 [t]Unto you first God, having raised up his Son Jesus, [u]sent him to bless you, [v]in turning away every one of you from his iniquities.

CHAPTER 4.

1 Peter and John imprisoned. 5 After Peter boldly avoucheth the lame man to be healed by the name of Jesus, 13 the rulers command them to speak no more in that name. 23 The church fleeth to prayer.

AND as they spake unto the people, the priests, and the [1]captain of the temple, and the Sadducees, came upon them,

2 [d]Being grieved that they taught the people, and preached through Jesus the resurrection from the dead.

3 And they laid hands on them, and put them in hold unto the next day: for it was now eventide.

4 Howbeit many of them which heard the word believed; and the number of the men was about five thousand.

5 ¶ And it came to pass on the morrow, that their rulers, and elders, and scribes,

6 And [k]Annas the high priest, and Caiaphas, and John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kindred of the high priest, were gathered together at Jerusalem.

7 And when they had set them in the midst, they asked, [b]By what power, or by what name, have ye done this?

8 [d]Then Peter, filled with the Holy Ghost, said unto them, Ye rulers of the people, and elders of Israel,

9 If we this day be examined of the good deed done to the impotent man, by what means he is made whole;

10 Be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Israel, [f]that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, [g]whom God raised from the dead, even by him doth this man stand here before you whole.

11 [i]This is the stone which was set at nought of you builders, which is become the head of the corner.

12 [m]Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved.

13 ¶ Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, [o]and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus.

14 And beholding the man which was healed [r]standing with them, they could say nothing against it.

15 But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the council, they conferred among themselves, 16 Saying, [s]What shall we do to these men? for that indeed a notable miracle hath been done by them is [t]manifest to all them that dwell in Jerusalem; and we cannot deny it.

17 But that it spread no further among the people, let us straitly threaten them, that they speak henceforth to no man in this name.

18 [v]And they called them, and commanded them not to speak at all nor teach in the name of Jesus.

19 But Peter and John answered and said unto them, [x]Whether it be right in the sight of God to hearken unto you more than unto God, judge ye.

20 [z]For we cannot but speak the things which [a]we have seen and heard.

21 So when they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding nothing how they might punish them, [b]because of the people: for all men glorified God for [c]that which was done.

22 For the man was above forty years old, on whom this miracle of healing was shewed.

23 ¶ And being let go, [a]they went to their own company, and reported all that the chief priests and elders had said unto them.

24 And when they heard that, they lifted up their voice to God with one accord, and said, Lord, [c]thou art God, which hast made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all that in them is:

25 Who by the mouth of thy servant David hast said, [e]Why did the heathen rage, and the people imagine vain things?

26 The kings of the earth stood up, and the rulers were gathered together against the Lord, and against his Christ.

27 For [h]of a truth against [i]thy holy child Jesus, [k]whom thou hast anointed, both Herod, and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles, and the people of Israel, were gathered together, 28 [n]For to do whatsoever thy hand and thy counsel determined before to be done.

29 And now, Lord, behold their threatenings, and grant unto thy servants, [p]that with all boldness they may speak thy word, 30 By stretching forth thine hand to heal; [q]and that signs and wonders may be done [r]by the name of [i]thy holy child Jesus.

31 ¶ And when they had prayed, [u]the place was shaken where they were assembled together; and they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, [z]and they spake the word of God with boldness.

32 And the multitude of them that believed [z]were of one heart and of one soul: [b]neither said any of them that ought of the things which he possessed was his own; but they had all things common.

33 And with [c]great power gave the apostles [d]witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus: and [f]great grace was upon them all.

34 Neither was there any among them that lacked: [g]for as many as were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the prices of the things that were sold,

35 [k]And laid them down at the apostles' feet: [m]and distribution was made unto every man according as he had need.

36 And Joses, who by the apostles was surnamed Barnabas, (which is, being interpreted, The son of consolation,) a Levite, and of the country of Cyprus, 37 [p]Having land, sold it, and brought the money, and laid it at the apostles' feet.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Sin of Ananias and Sapphira 17 The apostles again imprisoned 19 delivered by an angel &c

BUT a certain man named Ananias with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession,

2 And kept back part of the price, his wife also being privy to it, [a]and brought a certain part, and laid it at the apostles' feet.

3 [b]But Peter said, Ananias, why hath [c]Satan filled thine heart [d]to lie to the Holy Ghost, and to keep back part of the price of the land?

4 Whiles it remained, was it not thine own? and after it was sold, was it not in thine own power? why hast thou conceived this thing in thine heart? thou hast not lied unto men, but unto God.

5 And Ananias hearing these words [e]fell down, and gave up the ghost: and great fear came on all them that heard these things.

6 And the young men arose, [f]wound him up, and carried him out, and buried him.

7 And it was about the space of three hours after, when his wife, not knowing what was done, came in.

8 And Peter answered unto her, Tell me whether ye sold the land for so much? And she said, Yea, for so much.

9 Then Peter said unto her, How is it that ye have agreed together [g]to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? behold, the feet of them which have buried thy husband are at the door, and shall carry thee out.

10 [h]Then fell she down straightway at his feet, and yielded up the ghost: and the young men came in, and found her dead, and, carrying her forth, buried her by her husband.

11 [i]And great fear came upon all the church, and upon as many as heard these things.

12 ¶ And [k]by the hands of the apostles were many signs and wonders wrought among the people; (and they were all with one accord in Solomon's porch.

13 And [l]of the rest durst no man join himself to them: [m]but the people magnified them.

14 And believers were the more added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women.)

15 Insomuch that they brought forth the sick [n]into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, [o]that at the least the shadow of Peter passing by might overshadow some of them.

16 There came also a multitude out of the cities round about unto Jerusalem, bringing [p]sick folks, and them which were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed every one.

17 ¶ [q]Then the high priest rose up, and all they that were with him, (which is the sect of the Sadducees,) and were filled with [r]indignation, 18 [s]And laid their hands on the apostles, and put them in the common prison.

19 But [t]the angel of the Lord by night opened the prison doors, and brought them forth, and said, 20 Go, stand and speak in the temple to the people [u]all the words of this life.

21 And when they heard that, they entered into the temple early in the morning, and taught. [v]But the high priest came, and they that were with him, and called the council together, and all the senate of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought.

22 But when the officers came, and found them not in the prison, they returned, and told,

23 Saying, The prison truly found we shut with all safety, and the keepers standing without before the doors: but when we had opened, we found no man within.

24 Now when the high priest and [w]the captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these things, they doubted of them whereunto this would grow.

25 Then came one and told them, saying, Behold, the men whom ye put in prison are standing in the temple, and teaching the people.

26 Then went the captain with the officers, and brought them without violence: [x]for they feared the people, lest they should have been stoned.

27 And when they had brought them, they set them before the council: and the high priest asked them, 28 Saying, [y]Did not we straitly command you that ye should not teach in this name? and, behold, ye have filled Jerusalem with your doctrine, [z]and intend to bring this man's [a]blood upon us.

29 ¶ Then Peter and the other apostles answered and said, [b]We ought to obey God rather than men.

30 [c]The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom ye slew and [d]hanged on a tree.

31 [e]Him hath God exalted with his right hand to be [f]a Prince and [f]a Saviour, [g]for to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins.

32 And [a] we are his witnesses of these things; and so is also the Holy Ghost, [b] whom God hath given to them that obey him.

33 ¶ [c] When they heard that, they were cut to the heart, and took counsel to slay them.

34 Then stood there up one in the council, a Pharisee, named [f] Gamaliel, a doctor of the law, had in reputation among all the people, and commanded to put the apostles forth a little space;

35 And said unto them, Ye men of Israel, take heed to yourselves what ye intend to do as touching these men.

36 For before these days rose up Theudas, boasting himself to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as [1] obeyed him, were scattered, and brought to nought.

37 After this man rose up Judas of Galilee in the days of the taxing, and drew away much people after him: he also perished; and all, even as many as obeyed him, were dispersed.

38 And now I say unto you, Refrain from these men, and let them alone: [o] for if this counsel or this work be of men, it will come to nought:

39 [p] But if it be of God, ye cannot overthrow it; lest haply ye be found even [r] to fight against God.

40 And to him they agreed: and when they had [s] called the apostles, [t] and beaten them, they commanded that they should not speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go.

41 ¶ And they departed from the presence of the council, [u] rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for his name.

42 And daily [x] in the temple, and in every house, [y] they ceased not to teach and preach Jesus Christ.

CHAPTER 6.

1 The apostles, desirous to have the poor regarded, 3 appoint the office of deaconship to seven chosen men 5 Of whom Stephen is one 12 Who is taken, and falsely accused of blasphemy

AND in those days, [b] when the number of the disciples was multiplied, there arose a murmuring of the [d] Grecians against the Hebrews, because their widows were neglected [d] in the daily ministration.

2 Then the twelve called the multitude of the disciples unto them, and said, [f] It is not reason that we should leave the word of God, and serve tables.

3 Wherefore, brethren, [g] look ye out among you seven men of honest report, full of the Holy Ghost and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business.

4 But we [c] will give ourselves continually to prayer, and to the ministry of the word.

5 ¶ And the saying pleased the whole multitude: and they chose Stephen, [e] a man full of faith and of the Holy Ghost, and [g] Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and [h] Nicolas a proselyte of Antioch:

6 Whom they set before the apostles: and [i] when they had prayed, [k] they laid their hands on them.

7 And [l] the word of God increased; and the number of the disciples multiplied in Jerusalem greatly; and a great company [m] of the priests were obedient to the faith.

8 And Stephen, full of faith and power, did great wonders and miracles among the people.

9 ¶ Then there arose certain of the synagogue, which is called the synagogue of the Libertines, and Cyrenians, and Alexandrians, and of them of Cilicia and of Asia, disputing with Stephen.

10 And [n] they were not able to resist the wisdom and the spirit by which he spake.

11 [q] Then they suborned men, which said, We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses, and against God.

12 And they stirred up the people, and the elders, and the scribes, and came upon him, and caught him, and brought him to the council,

13 And set up false witnesses, which said, This man ceaseth not to speak blasphemous words against this holy place, and the law:

14 [v] For we have heard him say, that this Jesus of Nazareth shall [a] destroy this place, and shall change the [2] customs which Moses delivered us.

15 And all that sat in the council, looking stedfastly on him, saw his face as it had been the face of an angel.

CHAPTER 7.

1 Stephen, permitted to answer to the accusation of blasphemy, 2 sheweth that Abraham worshipped God rightly 51 reprehendeth their rebellion, and murdering of Christ. 54 They stone him to death.

THEN said the high priest, Are these things so?

2 And he said, [c] Men, brethren, and fathers, hearken; The God of glory appeared unto our father Abraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in Charran,

3 And said unto him, [h] Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and come into the land which I shall shew thee.

4 Then [b] came he out of the land of the Chaldæans, and dwelt in Charran and from thence, when his father was dead, he removed him into this land, wherein ye now dwell.

5 And he gave him none inheritance in it, no, not so much as to set his foot on: [j] yet he promised that he would give it to him for a possession, and to his seed after him, when as yet he had no child

6 And God spake on this wise, [k] That his seed should sojourn in a strange land; and that they should bring them into bondage, and entreat them evil [k] four hundred years.

7 And the nation to whom they shall be in bondage will I judge, said God and after that shall they come forth, and [l] serve me in this place.

8 [m] And he gave him the covenant of circumcision: [n] and so Abraham begat Isaac, and circumcised him the eighth day; [p] and Isaac begat Jacob; and [q] Jacob begat the twelve patriarchs.

9 [r] And the patriarchs, moved with envy, sold Joseph into Egypt. [s] but God was with him,

10 And delivered him out of all his afflictions, [t] and gave him favour and wisdom in the sight of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and he made him governor over Egypt and all his house

11 [u] Now there came a dearth over all the land of Egypt and Chanaan, and great affliction. and our fathers found no sustenance.

12 [a] But when Jacob heard that there was corn in Egypt, he sent out our fathers first

13 [b] And at the second time Joseph was made known to his brethren, and Joseph's kindred was made known unto Pharaoh

14 [c] Then sent Joseph, and called his father Jacob to him, and [c] all his kindred, threescore and fifteen souls

15 [f] So Jacob went down into Egypt, [g] and died, he, and our fathers,

16 And [h] were carried over into Sychem, and laid in [k] the sepulchre that Abraham bought for a sum of money of the sons of Emmor the father of Sychem

17 But when [m] the time of the promise drew nigh, which God had sworn to Abraham, [n] the people grew and multiplied in Egypt,

18 Till another king arose, which knew not Joseph

19 The same dealt subtilly with our kindred, and evil entreated our fathers, [o] so that they cast out their young children, to the end they might not live.

20 [c] In which time Moses was born, and [d] was [l] exceeding fair, and nourished up in his father's house three months.

21 And [e] when he was cast out, Pharaoh's daughter took him up, and nourished him for her own son

22 And Moses was learned in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and was [g] mighty in words and in deeds.

23 [i] And when he was full forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren the children of Israel.

24 And seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged him that was oppressed, and smote the Egyptian:

25 [z] For he supposed his brethren would have understood how that God by his hand would deliver them. but they understood not.

26 [a] And the next day he shewed himself unto them as they strove, and would have set them at one again, saying, Sirs, ye are brethren; why do ye wrong one to another?

27 But he that did his neighbour wrong thrust him away, saying, [v] Who made thee a ruler and a judge over us?

28 Wilt thou kill me, as thou diddest the Egyptian yesterday?

29 [y] Then fled Moses at this saying, and was a stranger in the land of Madian, where he begat two sons.

30 [z] And when forty years were expired, there appeared to him in the wilderness of mount Sina an angel of the Lord in a flame of fire in a bush

31 When Moses saw it, he wondered at the sight. and as he drew near to behold it, the voice of the Lord came unto him, 32 Saying, [a] I am the God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob Then Moses trembled, and durst not behold.

33 [b] Then said the Lord to him, Put off thy shoes from thy feet: for the place where thou standest is holy ground.

34 [i] I have seen, I have seen the affliction of my people which is in Egypt, and I have heard their groaning, and am come down to deliver them. And now come, I will send thee into Egypt

35 This Moses whom they refused, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge? the same did God send to be a ruler and a deliverer [c] by the hand

37 ¶ This is that Moses, which said unto the children of Israel, [h]A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, [i]like unto me; [k]him shall ye hear.

38 [m]This is he, that was in the church in the wilderness with [n]the angel which spake to him in the mount Sina, and with our fathers: [p]who received the lively [q]oracles to give unto us:

39 To whom our fathers would not obey, but thrust him from them, and in their hearts turned back again into Egypt, 40 [s]Saying unto Aaron, Make us gods to go before us: for as for this Moses, which brought us out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him.

41 [x]And they made a calf in those days, and offered sacrifice unto the idol, and rejoiced in the works of their own hands.

42 Then [b]God turned, and gave them up to worship [c]the host of heaven; as it is written in the book of the prophets, [e]O ye house of Israel, have ye offered to me slain beasts and sacrifices by the space of forty years in the wilderness?

43 Yea, ye took up the tabernacle of Moloch, and the star of your god Remphan, figures which ye made to worship them: and I will carry you away beyond Babylon.

44 Our fathers had the tabernacle of witness in the wilderness, as he had appointed, [z]speaking unto Moses, [k]that he should make it according to the fashion that he had seen.

45 [l]Which also our fathers [3]that came after brought in with Jesus into the possession of the Gentiles, [m]whom God drave out before the face of our fathers, unto the days of David;

46 [p]Who found favour before God, and [q]desired to find a tabernacle for the God of Jacob.

47 [s]But Solomon built him an house.

48 Howbeit [t]the most High dwelleth not in temples made with hands; as saith the prophet, 49 [x]Heaven is my throne, and earth is my footstool: what house will ye build me? saith the Lord: or what is the place of my rest?

2 And devout men carried Stephen to his burial, and [s]made great lamentation over him.

3 As for Saul, [t]he made havock of the church, entering into every house, [u]and haling men and women committed them to prison.

4 Therefore [x]they that were scattered abroad went every where preaching the word.

5 Then [y]Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and preached Christ unto them.

6 And the people with one accord gave heed unto those things which

Philip spake, hearing and seeing the miracles which he did

7 For [a] unclean spirits, crying with loud voice, came out of many that were possessed with them: and many taken with palsies, and that were lame, were healed.

8 And there was great joy in that city.

9 But there was a certain man, called Simon, which before time in the same city [b] used sorcery, and bewitched the people of Samaria, giving out that himself was some great one:

10 To whom they all gave heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great power of God.

11 And to him they had regard, because that of long time he had bewitched them with sorceries.

12 But when they believed Philip preaching the things [f] concerning the kingdom of God, and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women.

13 Then Simon himself believed also: and when he was baptized, he continued with Philip, and wondered, beholding the [i] miracles and signs which were done.

14 Now when the apostles which were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent unto them Peter and John:

15 Who, when they were come down, prayed for them, [k] that they might receive the Holy Ghost:

16 (For [l] as yet he was fallen upon none of them: only [m] they were baptized in [n] the name of the Lord Jesus.)

17 Then [o] laid they their hands on them, and they received the Holy Ghost.

18 And when Simon saw that through laying on of the apostles' hands the Holy Ghost was given, he offered them money, 19 Saying, Give me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay hands, he may receive the Holy Ghost.

20 But Peter said unto him, Thy money perish with thee, because [p] thou hast thought that [q] the gift of God may be purchased with money.

21 Thou hast neither part nor lot in this matter: for thy heart is not right in the sight of God.

22 Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray God, [r] if perhaps the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee.

23 For I perceive that thou art in [s] the gall of bitterness, and in the bond of iniquity.

24 Then answered Simon, and said, [t] Pray ye to the Lord for me, that none of these things which ye have spoken come upon me.

25 And they, when they had testified and preached the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem, and preached the gospel in many villages of the Samaritans.

26 And the angel of the Lord spake unto Philip, saying, Arise, and go toward the south unto the way that goeth down from Jerusalem unto Gaza, which is desert.

27 And he arose and went: and, behold, [u] a man of Ethiopia, an eunuch of great authority under Candace queen of the Ethiopians, who had the charge of all her treasure, and [v] had come to Jerusalem for to worship, 28 Was returning, and sitting in his chariot read Esaias the prophet.

29 Then the Spirit said unto Philip, Go near, and join thyself to this chariot.

30 And Philip ran thither to him, and heard him read the prophet Esaias, and said, Understandest thou what thou readest?

31 And he said, How can I, except some man should guide me? And he desired Philip that he would come up and sit with him.

32 The place of the scripture which he read was this, [w] He was led as a sheep to the slaughter; and like a lamb dumb before his shearer, so opened he not his mouth:

33 In his humiliation his judgment was taken away: and who shall declare his generation? for his life is taken from the earth.

34 And the eunuch answered Philip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the prophet this? of himself, or of some other man?

35 Then Philip opened his mouth, [x] and began at the same scripture, and preached unto him Jesus.

36 And as they went on their way, they came unto a certain water: and the eunuch said, See, here is water; [y] what doth hinder me to be baptized?

37 And Philip said, [z] If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. And he answered and said, [a] I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.

38 And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they went down both into the water, both Philip and the eunuch; and he baptized him.

39 And when they were come up out of the water, [b] the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip, that the eunuch saw him no more: and he went on his way rejoicing.

40 But Philip was found at Azotus:

and passing through he preached in all the cities, till he came to Cæsarea.

CHAPTER 9.

1 Saul going towards Damascus 4 is called to the apostleship by Christ 18 and is baptized by Ananias 20 He preacheth Christ boldly 31 Peter healeth Æneas 36 and restoreth Tabitha to life

AND [d]Saul, yet breathing out threatenings and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went unto the high priest,

2 And desired of him letters to Damascus to the synagogues, that if he found any [1]of this way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound unto Jerusalem.

3 And [f]as he journeyed, he came near Damascus: and suddenly there shined round about him a light from heaven

4 And he fell to the earth, and heard a voice saying unto him, Saul, Saul, [g]why persecutest thou me?

5 And he said, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest: [h]it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks

6 And he trembling and astonished said, Lord, [m]what wilt thou have me to do? And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do

7 And [o]the men which journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing a voice, but seeing no man

8 And Saul arose from the earth; and when his eyes were opened, he saw no man: but they led him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus

9 And he was three days without sight, and neither did eat nor drink

10 ¶ And there was a certain disciple at Damascus, [s]named Ananias, and to him said the Lord in a vision, Ananias. And he said, Behold, I am here, Lord.

11 And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the street which is called Straight, and enquire in the house of Judas for one called Saul, [x]of Tarsus: for, behold, he prayeth, 12 And hath seen in a vision a man named Ananias coming in, and putting his hand on him, that he might receive his sight.

13 Then Ananias answered, Lord, I have heard by many of this man [a]how much evil he hath done to thy saints at Jerusalem

14 And here he hath authority from the chief priests to bind all [d]that call on thy name.

15 But the Lord said unto him, Go thy way: for [e]he is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before [g]the Gentiles, and [h]kings, and the children of Israel:

16 For [a]I will shew him how great things he must suffer for my name's sake

17 [b]And Ananias went his way, and entered into the house, and [c]putting his hands on him said, Brother Saul, the Lord, even Jesus, that appeared unto thee in the way as thou camest, hath sent me, that thou mightest receive thy sight, and [e]be filled with the Holy Ghost

18 And immediately there fell from his eyes as it had been scales and he received sight forthwith, and arose, and was baptized

19 And when he had received meat, he was strengthened. [f]Then was Saul certain days with the disciples which were at Damascus

20 And straightway he preached Christ in the synagogues, [k]that he is the Son of God.

21 But all that heard him were amazed, and said; [k]Is not this he that destroyed them which called on this name in Jerusalem, and came hither for that intent, that he might bring them bound unto the chief priests?

22 But Saul increased the more in strength, [m]and confounded the Jews which dwelt at Damascus, proving that this is very Christ

23 ¶ And after that many days were fulfilled, [p]the Jews took counsel to kill him

24 [t]But their laying wait was known of Saul. And they watched the gates day and night to kill him

25 Then the disciples took him by night, and [r]let him down by the wall in a basket

26 And [t]when Saul was come to Jerusalem, he assayed to join himself to the disciples: but they were all afraid of him, and believed not that he was a disciple.

27 [u]But Barnabas took him, and brought him to the apostles, and declared unto them how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, [y]and how he had preached boldly at Damascus in the name of Jesus

28 And [z]he was with them coming in and going out at Jerusalem.

29 And he spake boldly in the name of the Lord Jesus, and disputed against the [b]Grecians: [c]but they went about to slay him

30 Which when the brethren knew, they brought him down to Cæsarea, and sent him forth to Tarsus.

31 [f]Then had the churches rest throughout all Judæa and Galilee and Samaria, and were edified; and walking in the fear of the Lord, and in the comfort of the Holy Ghost, were multiplied.

32 ¶ And it came to pass, as Peter passed [a] throughout all quarters, he came down also to the saints which dwelt at Lydda.

33 And there he found a certain man named Æneas, which had kept his bed eight years, and was sick of the palsy.

34 And Peter said unto him, Æneas, [b] Jesus Christ maketh thee whole: arise, and make thy bed. And he arose immediately.

35 And all that dwelt at Lydda and [c] Saron saw him, and [d] turned to the Lord.

36 ¶ Now there was at Joppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, which by interpretation is called [1] Dorcas: this woman was full [e] of good works and almsdeeds which she did.

37 And it came to pass in those days, that she was sick, and died: whom when they had washed, they laid her in [f] an upper chamber.

38 And forasmuch as Lydda was nigh to Joppa, and the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent unto him two men, desiring him that he would not [2] delay to come to them.

39 Then Peter arose and went with them. When he was come, they brought him into the upper chamber: and all the widows stood by him weeping, and shewing the coats and garments which Dorcas made, while she was with them.

40 But Peter [g] put them all forth, and [m] kneeled down, and prayed; and turning him to the body [n] said, Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes: and when she saw Peter, she sat up.

41 And he gave her his hand, and lifted her up, and when he had called the saints and widows, presented her alive.

42 And it was known throughout all Joppa; [p] and many believed in the Lord.

43 And it came to pass, that he tarried many days in Joppa with one [r] Simon a tanner.

the ninth hour of the day an angel of God coming in to him, and saying unto him, Cornelius.

4 And when he looked on him, he was afraid, and said, What is it, Lord? And he said unto him, Thy prayers and thine alms are come up for a memorial before God.

5 And now send men to Joppa, and call for one Simon, whose surname is Peter.

6 He lodgeth with one [c] Simon a tanner, whose house is by the sea side: [d] he shall tell thee what thou oughtest to do.

7 And when the angel which spake unto Cornelius was departed, he called two of his household servants, and a devout soldier of them that waited on him continually;

8 And when he had declared all these things unto them, he sent them to Joppa.

9 ¶ On the morrow, as they went on their journey, and drew nigh unto the city, [i] Peter went up upon the house-top to pray about the sixth hour:

10 And he became very hungry, and would have eaten: but while they made ready, he fell into a trance,

11 And [k] saw heaven opened, and a certain vessel descending unto him, as it had been a great sheet knit at the four corners, and let down to the earth:

12 Wherein were all manner of four-footed beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.

13 And there came a voice to him, Rise, Peter; kill, and eat.

14 But Peter said, Not so, Lord; [o] for I have never eaten any thing that is common or unclean.

15 And the voice spake unto him again the second time, [p] What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.

16 This was done thrice: and the vessel was received up again into heaven.

17 Now while Peter doubted in himself what this vision which he had seen should mean, behold, the men which were sent from Cornelius had made enquiry for Simon's house, and stood before the gate, 18 And called, and asked whether Simon, which was surnamed Peter, were lodged there.

19 ¶ While Peter thought on the vision, [q] the Spirit said unto him, Behold, three men seek thee.

20 [x] Arise therefore, and get thee down, and go with them, doubting nothing: for I have [y] sent them.

21 Then Peter went down to the men which were sent unto him from Cornelius; and said, Behold, I am he whom ye seek. what is the cause wherefore ye are come?

22 And they said, [c]Cornelius the centurion, a just man, and one that feareth God, and [d]of good report among all the nation of the Jews, was warned from God by an holy angel to send for thee into his house, and to hear words of thee.

23 Then called he them in, and lodged them. And on the morrow Peter went away with them, [e]and certain brethren from Joppa accompanied him.

24 And the morrow after they entered into Cæsarea. And Cornelius waited for them, and had called together his kinsmen and near friends

25 And as Peter was coming in, Cornelius met him, and fell down at his feet, and worshipped him.

26 But Peter took him up, saying, [f]Stand up; I myself also am a man.

27 And as he talked with him, he went in, and found many that were come together.

28 And he said unto them, Ye know how [g]that it is an unlawful thing for a man that is a Jew to keep company, or come unto one of another nation; but [h]God hath shewed me that I should not call any man common or unclean.

29 Therefore came I unto you without gainsaying, as soon as I was sent for: I ask therefore for what intent ye have sent for me?

30 And Cornelius said, Four days ago I was fasting until this hour; and at the ninth hour I prayed in my house, and, behold, [i]a man stood before me [k]in bright clothing, 31 And said, Cornelius, [l]thy prayer is heard, [m]and thine alms are had in remembrance in the sight of God.

32 Send therefore to Joppa, and call hither Simon, whose surname is Peter; he is lodged in the house of one Simon a tanner by the sea side who, when he cometh, shall speak unto thee.

33 Immediately therefore I sent to thee; and thou hast well done that thou art come. Now therefore are we all here present before God, to hear all things that are commanded thee of God.

34 ¶ Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, [n]Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons:

35 But [o]in every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him.

36 The word which God sent unto the children of Israel, [p]preaching peace by Jesus Christ. ([q]he is Lord of all)

37 That word, I say, ye know, which was published throughout all Judæa, and [r]began from Galilee, after the baptism which John preached;

38 How [s]God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost and with power: who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil; [t]for God was with him

39 And [u]we are witnesses of all things which he did both in the land of the Jews, and in Jerusalem; [x]whom they slew and hanged on a tree.

40 Him [y]God raised up the third day, and shewed him openly;

41 [z]Not to all the people, but unto witnesses chosen before of God, even to us, [a]who did eat and drink with him after he rose from the dead.

42 And [b]he commanded us to preach unto the people, and to testify [c]that it is he which was ordained of God to be the Judge [d]of quick and dead

43 [e]To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name [f]whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins.

44 ¶ While Peter yet spake these words, [g]the Holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word.

45 [h]And they of the circumcision which believed were astonished, as many as came with Peter, [i]because that on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the Holy Ghost

46 For they heard them speak with tongues, and magnify God. Then answered Peter, 47 Can any man forbid water, that these should not be baptized, which have received the Holy Ghost [k]as well as we?

48 [l]And he commanded them to be baptized [m]in the name of the Lord. Then prayed they him to tarry certain days.

27 ¶ And in these days came k prophets from Jerusalem unto Antioch

28 And there stood up one of them named l Agabus, and signified by the Spirit that there should be great dearth throughout all the world which came to pass in the days of Claudius Cæsar

29 Then the disciples, every man according to his ability, determined to send relief unto the brethren which dwelt in Judæa

30 l Which also they did, and sent it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul

CHAPTER 12

1 King Herod killeth James and imprisoneth Peter 7 whom an angel delivereth 20 Herod is stricken by an angel and dieth miserably 24 After his death the word of God prospereth

NOW about that time Herod the king 2 stretched forth his hands to vex certain of the church

2 And he killed James m the brother of John with the sword

3 And because he saw it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to take Peter also (Then were y the days of unleavened bread)

4 And a when he had apprehended him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four quaternions of soldiers to keep him, intending after Easter to bring him forth to the people

5 Peter therefore was kept in prison but 3 prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him

6 And when Herod would have brought him forth the same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains and the keepers before the door kept the prison.

7 And, behold, [a] the angel of the Lord came upon him, and a light shined in the prison: and he smote Peter on the side, and raised him up, saying, Arise up quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands.

8 And the angel said unto him, Gird thyself, and bind on thy sandals. And so he did. And he saith unto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me.

9 And he went out, and followed him; and [c] wist not that it was true which was done by the angel; but thought [d] he saw a vision.

10 When they were past the first and the second ward, they came unto the iron gate that leadeth unto the city; [h] which opened to them of his own accord: and they went out, and passed on through one street; and forthwith the angel departed from him.

11 And when Peter was come to himself, he said, Now I know of a surety, that [i] the Lord hath sent his angel, and [m] hath delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews.

12 And when he had considered the thing, [o] he came to the house of Mary the mother of [q] John, whose surname was Mark; where many were gathered together [r] praying.

13 And as Peter knocked at the door of the gate, a damsel came [t] to hearken, named Rhoda.

14 And when she knew Peter's voice, she opened not the gate for gladness, but ran in, and told how Peter stood before the gate.

15 And they said unto her, Thou art mad. But she constantly affirmed that it was even so. Then said they, [y] It is his angel.

16 But Peter continued knocking: and when they had opened the door, and saw him, they were astonished.

17 But he, [b] beckoning unto them with the hand to hold their peace, declared unto them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said, Go shew these things unto James, and to the brethren. And he departed, and went into another place.

18 Now as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers, what was become of Peter.

19 And when Herod had sought for him, and found him not, he examined the keepers, and commanded that they should be put to death. And he went down from Judæa to Cæsarea, and there abode.

20 ¶ And Herod [1] was highly displeased with them of Tyre and Sidon: but they came with one accord to him, and, having made Blastus [1] the king's chamberlain their friend, desired peace; because [b] their country was nourished by the king's country.

21 And upon a set day Herod, arrayed in royal apparel, sat upon his throne, and made an oration unto them.

22 And the people gave a shout, saying, It is the voice of a god, and not of a man.

23 And immediately the angel of the Lord [d] smote him, because [g] he gave not God the glory: and he was eaten of worms, and gave up the ghost.

24 ¶ But [f] the word of God grew and multiplied.

25 And Barnabas and Saul returned from Jerusalem, when they had fulfilled their [2] ministry, and [t] took with them [k] John, whose surname was Mark.

CHAPTER 13

1 Paul and Barnabas go to the Gentiles 7 Of Sergius Paul the and Elymas 14 Paul preacheth at Antioch that Jesus is Christ 42 The Gentiles believe

NOW there were [n] in the church that was at Antioch certain prophets and teachers; as [p] Barnabas, and Simeon that was called Niger, and [r] Lucius of Cyrene, and Manaen, [3] which had been brought up with Herod the tetrarch, and Saul.

2 As they ministered to the Lord, and fasted the Holy Ghost said, [t] Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work [u] whereunto I have called them.

3 And [v] when they had fasted and prayed, and laid their hands on them, they sent them away.

4 ¶ So they, being sent forth by the Holy Ghost, departed unto Seleucia; and from thence they sailed to [z] Cyprus.

5 And when they were at Salamis, [a] they preached the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews: and they had also [c] John to their minister.

6 And when they had gone through the isle unto Paphos, they found [2] a certain sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jew, whose name was Bar-jesus:

7 Which was with the deputy of the country, Sergius Paulus, a prudent man; who called for Barnabas and Saul, and desired to hear the word of God.

8 But [e] Elymas the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn away the deputy from the faith.

9 Then Saul, (who also is called Paul,) [f] filled with the Holy Ghost, set his eyes on him, 11 And now, behold, [c]the hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou shalt be blind, not seeing the sun for a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist and a darkness, and he went about seeking some to lead him by the hand.

12 Then the deputy, when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the doctrine of the Lord.

13 Now when Paul and his company loosed from Paphos, they came to Perga in Pamphylia: and [f]John departing from them returned to Jerusalem.

14 ¶ But when they departed from Perga, they came to Antioch in Pisidia, and [h]went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and sat down.

15 And [m]after the reading of the law and the prophets the rulers of the synagogue sent unto them, saying, Ye men and brethren, if ye have [o]any word of exhortation for the people, say on.

16 Then Paul stood up, and beckoning with his hand said, Men of Israel, and [r]ye that fear God, give audience.

17 The God of this people of Israel [r]chose our fathers, and exalted the people [s]when they dwelt as strangers in the land of Egypt, and with an high arm brought he them out of it.

18 And [u]about the time of forty years [1]suffered he their manners in the wilderness.

21 [d]And afterward they desired a king: and God gave unto them Saul the son of Cis, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, by the space of forty years.

22 And [e]when he had removed him, [g]he raised up unto them David to be their king; to whom also he gave testimony, and said, [h]I have found David the son of Jesse, [k]a man after mine own heart, which shall fulfil all my will.

25 And as John fulfilled his course, he said, [b]Whom think ye that I am? I am not he. But, behold, there cometh one after me, whose shoes of his feet I am not worthy to loose.

26 Men and brethren, children of the stock of Abraham, and whosoever among you feareth God, [a]to you is the word of this salvation sent.

27 For they that dwell at Jerusalem, and their rulers, [e]because they knew him not, nor yet the voices of the prophets which are read every sabbath day, they have fulfilled them in condemning him.

28 [f]And though they found no cause of death in him, yet desired they Pilate that he should be slain.

29 [h]And when they had fulfilled all that was written of him, [i]they took him down from the tree, and laid him in a sepulchre.

30 [l]But God raised him from the dead:

31 And [n]he was seen many days of them which came up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are his witnesses unto the people.

32 And we declare unto you glad tidings, how that [l]the promise which was made unto the fathers, 33 God hath fulfilled the same unto us their children, in that he hath raised up Jesus again; as it is also written in the second psalm, [x]Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee.

34 And as concerning that he raised him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, he said on this wise, [z]I will give you the sure [1]mercies of David.

35 Wherefore he saith also in another psalm, [a]Thou shalt not suffer thine Holy One to see corruption.

36 For David, [3]after he had served his own generation by the will of God, [d]fell on sleep, and was laid unto his fathers, and saw corruption:

37 But he, whom God raised again, saw no corruption.

38 ¶ Be it known unto you therefore, men and brethren, that [f]through this man is preached unto you the forgiveness of sins:

39 And [g]by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses.

40 Beware therefore, lest that come upon you, which is spoken of in [m]the prophets;

41 Behold, ye despisers, and wonder, and perish: for I work a work in your days, a work which ye shall in no wise believe, though a man declare it unto you

42 And when the Jews were gone out of the synagogue, the Gentiles besought that these words might be preached to them [1]the next sabbath.

43 Now when the congregation was broken up, many of the Jews and religious proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas: who, speaking to them, [c]persuaded them to continue in [d]the grace of God.

44 ¶ And the next sabbath day came almost the whole city together to hear the word of God.

45 But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with envy, and [g]spake against those things which were spoken by Paul, contradicting and blaspheming

46 Then Paul and Barnabas waxed bold, and said, [h]It was necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you: but [k]seeing ye put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, [l]we turn to the Gentiles.

47 For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying, [m]I have set thee to be a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldest be for salvation unto the ends of the earth.

48 And when the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of the Lord: [p]and as many as were ordained to eternal life believed.

49 And the word of the Lord was published throughout all the region.

50 But the Jews stirred up the devout and honourable women, and the chief men of the city, and [r]raised persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them out of their coasts

51 [s]But they shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came unto Iconium.

52 And the disciples [t]were filled with joy, and with the Holy Ghost.

CHAPTER 14.

1 Paul and Barnabas are persecuted from Iconium. 8 At Lystra Paul healeth a cripple. 19 Paul is stoned. 21 They return to Antioch.

AND it came to pass in Iconium, that they went both together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spake, that a great multitude both of the Jews and also of the Greeks believed.

2 But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles, and made their minds evil affected against the brethren.

3 Long time therefore abode they speaking boldly in the Lord, [h]which gave testimony unto the word of his grace, and granted signs and wonders to be done by their hands.

4 But the multitude of the city was divided: and part held with the Jews, and part with the [i]apostles.

5 And when there was an assault made both of the Gentiles, and also of the Jews with their rulers, [b]to use them despitefully, and to stone them,

6 They were ware of it, and [c]fled unto Lystra and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and unto the region that lieth round about:

7 And there they preached the gospel

8 ¶ [f]And there sat a certain man at Lystra, impotent in his feet, being a cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked:

9 The same heard Paul speak: who stedfastly beholding him, and [i]perceiving that he had faith to be healed,

10 Said with a loud voice, [l]Stand upright on thy feet. And he leaped and walked.

11 And when the people saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voices, saying in the speech of Lycaonia, [o]The gods are come down to us in the likeness of men.

12 And they called Barnabas, Jupiter; and Paul, Mercurius, because he was the chief speaker

13 Then the priest of Jupiter, which was before their city, brought oxen and garlands unto the gates, and would have done sacrifice with the people.

14 Which when the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, heard of, [t]they rent their clothes, and ran in among the people, crying out,

15 And saying, Sirs, [t]why do ye these things? [z]We also are men of like passions with you, and preach unto you that ye should turn from [f]these vanities [a]unto the living God, [b]which made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all things that are therein:

16 [c]Who in times past suffered all nations to walk in their own ways

17 [d]Nevertheless he left not himself without witness, in that he did good, and [e]gave us rain from heaven, and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness.

18 And with these sayings scarce restrained they the people, that they had not done sacrifice unto them.

19 ¶ [f]And there came thither certain Jews from Antioch and Iconium, who persuaded the people, [j]and, having stoned Paul, drew him out of the city, supposing he had been dead.

6 ¶ And the apostles and elders came together for to consider of this matter.

7 And when there had been much disputing, Peter rose up, and said unto them, [h]Men and brethren, ye know how that a good while ago God made choice among us, that the Gentiles by my mouth should hear the word of the gospel, and believe

8 And God, [d]which knoweth the hearts, bare them witness, [f]giving them the Holy Ghost, even as he did unto us;

9 [h]And put no difference between us and them, [i]purifying their hearts by faith.

10 Now therefore why tempt ye God, [k]to put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear?

11 But [l]we believe that through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ we shall be saved, even as they

12 ¶ Then all the multitude kept silence, and gave audience to Barnabas and Paul, declaring what miracles and wonders God had [o]wrought among the Gentiles by them

13 ¶ And after they had held their peace, [l]James answered, saying Men and brethren, hearken unto me

14 [k]Simeon hath declared how God at the first did visit the Gentiles, to take out of them a people for his name

15 And to this agree the words of the prophets, as it is written,

16 [t]After this I will return, and will build again the tabernacle of David which is fallen down, and I will build again the ruins thereof, and I will set it up

17 That the residue of men might seek after the Lord, and all the Gentiles, upon whom my name is called, saith the Lord, who doeth all these things

18 Known unto God are all his works from the beginning of the world

19 Wherefore [o]my sentence is, that we trouble not them, which from among the Gentiles [b]are turned to God

20 But that we write unto them that they abstain [d]from pollutions of idols and from fornication, and from things strangled, [g]and from blood.

21 For Moses of old time hath in every city them that preach him, [h]being read in the synagogues every sabbath day

22 Then pleased it the apostles and elders, with the whole church, to send chosen men of their own company to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas; namely Judas surnamed [l]Barsabas, and Silas, chief men among the brethren.

23 And they wrote letters by them after this manner; The apostles and elders and brethren send greeting unto the brethren which are of the Gentiles in Antioch and Syria and Cilicia.

24 Forasmuch as we have heard, that [c]certain which went out from us have troubled you with words, subverting your souls, saying, Ye must be circumcised, and keep the law: to whom we gave no such commandment:

25 It seemed good unto us, being assembled with one accord, to send chosen men unto you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul,

26 [j]Men that have hazarded their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

27 We have sent therefore Judas and Silas, who shall also tell you the same things by [1]mouth.

28 For it seemed good to the Holy Ghost, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things;

29 [k]That ye abstain from meats offered to idols, and [l]from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication: from which if ye keep yourselves, ye shall do well. Fare ye well.

30 So when they were dismissed, they came to Antioch: and when they had gathered the multitude together, they delivered the epistle:

31 Which when they had read, they rejoiced for the [2]consolation.

32 And Judas and Silas, being prophets also themselves, [o]exhorted the brethren with many words, and confirmed them.

33 And after they had tarried there a space, they were let [q]go in peace from the brethren unto the apostles.

34 Notwithstanding it pleased Silas to abide there still.

35 [r]Paul also and Barnabas continued in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also.

36 ¶ And some days after Paul said unto Barnabas, Let us go again and visit our brethren [u]in every city where we have preached the word of the Lord, and see how they do.

37 And Barnabas determined to take with them [y]John, whose surname was Mark.

38 But Paul thought not good to take him with them, [z]who departed from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the work.

39 And the contention was so sharp between them, that they departed asunder one from the other: and so

Barnabas took Mark, and sailed unto Cyprus;

40 And Paul chose Silas, and departed, [a]being recommended by the brethren unto the grace of God.

CHAPTER 16

1 Paul circumcises Timothy 14 He converteth Lydia, 16 and casteth out a spirit of divination. 19 Paul and Silas imprisoned 36 and delivered

THEN came he to [d]Derbe and Lystra: and, behold, a certain disciple was there, [e]named Timotheus, [f]the son of a certain woman, which was a Jewess, and believed; but his father was a Greek:

2 Which [h]was well reported of by the brethren that were at Lystra and Iconium.

3 Him would Paul have to go forth with him; and [g]took and circumcised him because of the Jews which were in those quarters: for they knew all that his father was a Greek.

4 And as they went through the cities, they delivered them the decrees for to keep, [m]that were ordained of the apostles and elders which were at Jerusalem.

5 And [n]so were the churches established in the faith, and increased in number daily.

6 Now when they had gone throughout Phrygia and the region of Galatia, and were forbidden of the Holy Ghost to preach the word in Asia,

7 After they were come to Mysia, they assayed to go into Bithynia: but the Spirit suffered them not.

8 And they passing by Mysia [p]came down to Troas.

9 And a vision appeared to Paul in the night; There stood a [x]man of Macedonia, and prayed him, saying, Come over into Macedonia, and help us.

10 And after he had seen the vision, immediately we endeavoured to go [t]into Macedonia, assuredly gathering that the Lord had called us for to preach the gospel unto them.

11 Therefore loosing from Troas, we came with a straight course to Samothracia, and the next day to Neapolis;

12 And from thence to [x]Philippi, which is [3]the chief city of that part of Macedonia, and a colony: and we were in that city abiding certain days.

13 And on the [4]sabbath we went out of the city by a river side, where prayer was wont to be made; and we sat down, and spake unto the women which resorted thither.

14 ¶ And a certain woman named

Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira, which worshipped God, heard us: whose [a]heart the Lord opened, that she attended unto the things which were spoken of Paul.

15 And when she was baptized, and her household, she besought us, saying, If ye have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house, and abide there. And [b]she constrained us.

16 ¶ And it came to pass, as we went to prayer, a certain damsel [c]possessed with a spirit [1]of divination met us, which brought her masters [d]much gain by soothsaying:

17 The same followed Paul and us, and cried, saying, These men are the servants of the most high God, which shew unto us the way of salvation.

18 And this did she many days. But Paul, [e]being grieved, turned and said to the spirit, I command thee in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her. [f]And he came out the same hour.

19 ¶ And [g]when her masters saw that the hope of their gains was gone, [h]they caught Paul and Silas, and [i]drew them into the [2]marketplace unto the rulers,

20 And brought them to the magistrates, saying, These men, being Jews, [k]do exceedingly trouble our city, 21 And teach customs, which are not lawful for us to receive, neither to observe, being Romans.

22 And the multitude rose up together against them: and the magistrates rent off their clothes, [l]and commanded to beat them.

23 And when they had laid many stripes upon them, they cast them into prison, charging the jailor to keep them safely:

24 Who, having received such a charge, thrust them into the inner prison, and made their feet fast in the stocks.

25 ¶ And at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sang praises unto God: and the prisoners heard them.

26 [m]And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken: and immediately [n]all the doors were opened, and every one's bands were loosed.

27 And the keeper of the prison awaking out of his sleep, and seeing the prison doors open, he drew out his sword, and would have killed himself, supposing that the prisoners had been fled.

28 But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, Do thyself no harm: for we are all here.

29 Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas, 30 And brought them out, and said, [b]Sirs, what must I do to be saved?

31 And they said, [c]Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.

32 And they spake unto him the word of the Lord, and to all that were in his house.

33 And he took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes; and was baptized, he and all his, straightway.

34 And when he had brought them into his house, [y]he set meat before them, and rejoiced, believing in God with all his house.

35 And when it was day, the magistrates sent the serjeants, saying, Let those men go.

36 And the keeper of the prison told this saying to Paul, The magistrates have sent to let you go: now therefore depart, and go in peace.

37 But Paul said unto them, They have beaten us openly uncondemned, [m]being Romans, and have cast us into prison; and now do they thrust us out privily? nay verily; but let them come themselves and fetch us out.

38 And the serjeants told these words unto the magistrates: and they feared, when they heard that they were Romans.

39 And they came and besought them, and brought them out, and [p]desired them to depart out of the city.

40 And they went out of the prison, [r]and entered into the house of Lydia: and when they had seen the brethren, they comforted them, and departed.

CHAPTER 17.

1 Paul preacheth at Thessalonica. 10 He is sent to Berea, and preacheth there. 15 He cometh to Athens, and preacheth the living God to them unknown. 34 Many are converted unto Christ.

NOW when they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was a synagogue of the Jews:

2 And Paul, as his manner was, [t]went in unto them, and three sabbath days reasoned with them out of the scriptures,

3 Opening and alleging, [x]that Christ must needs have suffered, and risen again from the dead; and that this Jesus, [3]whom I preach unto you, is Christ.

4 [y]And some of them believed, and consorted with Paul and [z]Silas; and of the devout Greeks a great multitude, and of the chief women not a few.

5 ¶ But the Jews which believed not, moved with envy, took unto them certain lewd fellows of the baser sort, and gathered a company, and set all the city on an uproar, and assaulted the house of [a]Jason, and sought to bring them out to the people.

6 And when they found them not, they drew Jason and certain brethren unto the rulers of the city, crying, [b]These that have turned the world upside down are come hither also;

7 Whom Jason hath received: and these all do contrary to the decrees of Cæsar, [c]saying that there is another king, one Jesus.

8 And they troubled the people and the rulers of the city, when they heard these things.

9 And when they had taken security of Jason, and of the other, they let them go.

10 ¶ And [d]the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night unto Berea: who coming thither went into the synagogue of the Jews.

11 These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and [e]searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so.

12 Therefore many of them believed; also of honourable women which were Greeks, and of men, not a few.

13 But when the Jews of Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was preached of Paul at Berea, they came thither also, and stirred up the people.

14 [f]And then immediately the brethren sent away Paul to go as it were to the sea: but Silas and Timotheus abode there still.

15 And they that conducted Paul brought him unto Athens: and [g]receiving a commandment unto Silas and Timotheus for to come to him with all speed, they departed.

16 ¶ Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, [h]his spirit was stirred in him, when he saw the city [3]wholly given to idolatry.

17 Therefore disputed he in the synagogue with the Jews, and with the devout persons, and in the market daily with them that met with him.

18 Then certain philosophers of the Epicureans, and of the Stoicks encountered him. And some said, What will this [5]babbler say? other some, He seemeth to be a setter forth of strange gods: because he preached unto them Jesus, and the resurrection.

19 And they took him, and brought him unto [6]Areopagus, saying, May we know what this new doctrine, whereof thou speakest, is?

20 For thou bringest certain strange things to our ears: we would know therefore what these things mean.

21 (For all the Athenians and strangers which were there spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell, or to hear some new thing.)

22 ¶ Then Paul stood in the midst of [1]Mars' hill, and said, Ye men of Athens, I perceive that in all things ye are too superstitious.

23 For as I passed by, and beheld your [2]devotions, I found an altar with this inscription, TO THE UNKNOWN GOD. Whom therefore ye ignorantly worship, him declare I unto you.

24 [i]God that made the world and all things therein, seeing that he is [4]Lord of heaven and earth, [j]dwelleth not in temples made with hands;

25 Neither is worshipped with men's hands, [k]as though he needed any thing, seeing [l]he giveth to all life, and breath, and all things;

26 And hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath determined the times before appointed, and [t]the bounds of their habitation;

27 [m]That they should seek the Lord, if haply they might feel after him, and find him, [n]though he be not far from every one of us:

28 For [o]in him we live, and move, and have our being; [p]as certain also of your own poets have said, For we are also his offspring.

29 Forasmuch then as we are the offspring of God, [r]we ought not to think that the Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and man's device.

30 And [t]the times of this ignorance God winked at; but [u]now commandeth all men every where to repent:

31 Because he hath appointed a day, in the which [x]he will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath [4]given assurance unto all men, in that [z]he hath raised him from the dead.

32 ¶ And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked: and others said, We will hear thee again of this matter.

33 So Paul departed from among them.

34 Howbeit certain men clave unto him, and believed: among the which was Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

CHAPTER 18.

1 Paul laboureth with his hands and preacheth at Corinth. 9 The Lord encourageth him in a vision 12 He is accused before Gallio, but is dismissed 24 Apollos preacheth Christ with great efficacy

AFTER these things Paul departed from Athens, and came to Corinth;

2 And found a certain Jew named [b]Aquila, born in Pontus, lately come from Italy, with his wife Priscilla; (because that Claudius had commanded all Jews to depart from Rome:) and came unto them.

3 And because he was of the same craft, he abode with them, [c]and wrought: for by their occupation they were tentmakers.

4 [d]And he reasoned in the synagogue every sabbath, and persuaded the Jews and the Greeks.

5 And [e]when Silas and Timotheus were come from Macedonia, Paul was [f]pressed in the spirit, and testified to the Jews that Jesus [1]was Christ.

6 And [g]when they opposed themselves, and blasphemed, [h]he shook his raiment, and said unto them, [i]Your blood be upon your own heads; [k]I am clean: [l]from henceforth I will go unto the Gentiles.

7 ¶ And he departed thence, and entered into a certain man's house, named Justus, one that worshipped God, whose house joined hard to the synagogue.

8 [m]And Crispus, the chief ruler of the synagogue, believed on the Lord with all his house; and many of the Corinthians hearing believed, and were baptized.

9 Then [n]spake the Lord to Paul in the night by a vision, Be not afraid, but speak, and hold not thy peace:

10 [o]For I am with thee, and no man shall set on thee to hurt thee: for I have much people in this city.

11 And he [2]continued there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

12 ¶ And when Gallio was the deputy of Achaia, the Jews made insurrection with one accord against Paul, and brought him to the judgment seat, 13 Saying, This fellow persuadeth men to worship God contrary to the law.

14 And when Paul was now about to open his mouth, Gallio said unto the Jews, [p]If it were a matter of wrong or wicked lewdness, O ye Jews, reason would that I should bear with you:

15 But if it be a question of words and names, and of your law, look ye to it; for I will be no judge of such matters.

16 And he drave them from the judgment seat.

17 Then all the Greeks took [a]Sosthenes, the chief ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgment seat. And Gallio cared for none of those things.

18 ¶ And Paul after this tarried there yet a good while, and then took his leave of the brethren, and sailed thence into Syria, and with him Priscilla and Aquila; having [c]shorn his head in [d]Cenchrea: for he had a vow.

19 And he came to Ephesus, and left them there: but he himself entered into the synagogue, and reasoned with the Jews.

20 When they desired him to tarry longer time with them, he consented not;

21 But bade them farewell, saying, [h]I must by all means keep this feast that cometh in Jerusalem: but I will return again unto you, [k]if God will. And he sailed from Ephesus.

22 And when he had landed at Cæsarea, and gone up, and saluted the church, he went down to Antioch.

23 And after he had spent some time there, he departed, and went over all the country of [u]Galatia and Phrygia in order, [x]strengthening all the disciples.

24 ¶ [y]And a certain Jew named Apollos, born at Alexandria, an eloquent man, and mighty in the scriptures, came to Ephesus.

25 This man was instructed in the way of the Lord; and being [z]fervent in the spirit, he spake and taught diligently the things of the Lord, [a]knowing only the baptism of John.

26 And he began to speak boldly in the synagogue: whom when Aquila and Priscilla had heard, they took him unto them, and expounded unto him the way of God more perfectly.

27 And when he was disposed to pass into Achaia, the brethren wrote, exhorting the disciples to receive him: who, when he was come, [b]helped them much which had believed through grace:

28 For he mightily convinced the Jews, and that publickly, [c]shewing by the scriptures that Jesus [1]was Christ.

CHAPTER 19.

6 The Holy Ghost is given by Paul's hands 9 The Jews believe not 24 Uproar raised against Paul

AND it came to pass, that, while [d]Apollos was at Corinth, Paul having passed through the upper coasts came to Ephesus: and finding certain disciples,

2 He said unto them, Have ye received the Holy Ghost since ye believed? And they said unto him [b]We have not so much as heard whether there be any Holy Ghost.

3 And he said unto them, Unto what then were ye baptized? And they said, [c]Unto John's baptism.

4 Then said Paul, [d]John verily baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying unto the people, that they should believe on him which should come after him, that is, on Christ Jesus.

5 When they heard this they were baptized [h]in the name of the Lord Jesus.

6 And when Paul had [k]laid his hands upon them, the Holy Ghost came on them; and [m]they spake with tongues, and prophesied.

7 And all the men were about twelve.

8 [p]And he went into the synagogue, and spake boldly for the space of three months, disputing and persuading the things [r]concerning the kingdom of God.

9 But [t]when divers were hardened, and believed not, but spake evil [u]of that way before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the disciples, disputing daily in the school of one Tyrannus.

10 And [x]this continued by the space of two years; so that all they which dwelt in Asia heard the word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks.

11 And [z]God wrought special miracles by the hands of Paul:

12 [a]So that from his body were brought unto the sick handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and the evil spirits went out of them.

13 ¶ [b]Then certain of the vagabond Jews, exorcists, [c]took upon them to call over them which had evil spirits the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, We adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preacheth.

14 And there were seven sons of one Sceva, a Jew, and chief of the priests, which did so.

15 And the evil spirit answered and said, Jesus I know, and Paul I know, but who are ye?

16 And the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, and overcame them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded.

17 And this was known to all the Jews and Greeks also dwelling at Ephesus; and [f]fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified.

18 And many that believed came, and [a]confessed, and shewed their deeds.

19 Many of them also which used curious arts brought their books together, and burned them before all men: and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver.

20 [e]So mightily grew the word of God and prevailed.

21 ¶ [f]After these things were ended, Paul [g]purposed in the spirit, when he had passed through Macedonia and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem, saying, After I have been there, [i]I must also see Rome.

22 So he sent into Macedonia two of [l]them that ministered unto him, Timotheus and [n]Erastus; but he himself stayed in Asia for a season.

23 And [o]the same time there arose no small stir about [q]that way.

24 For a certain man named Demetrius, a silversmith, which made silver shrines for Diana, brought [s]no small gain unto the craftsmen;

25 Whom he called together with the workmen of like occupation, and said, Sirs, ye know that by this craft we have our wealth.

26 Moreover ye see and hear, that not alone at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul hath persuaded and turned away much people, saying that [y]they be no gods, which are made with hands:

27 So that not only this our craft is in danger to be set at nought, but also that the temple of the great goddess Diana should be despised, and her magnificence should be destroyed, whom all Asia and the world worshippeth.

28 And when they heard these sayings, they were full of wrath, and cried out, saying, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

29 And the whole city was filled with confusion: and having caught [d]Gaius and [e]Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, Paul's companions in travel, they rushed with one accord into the theatre.

30 And when Paul would have entered in unto the people, the disciples suffered him not.

31 And certain of the chief of Asia, which were his friends, sent unto him, desiring him that he would not adventure himself into the theatre.

32 Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was confused; and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together.

33 And they drew Alexander out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. And [g]Alexander [h]beckoned with the hand, and would have made his defence unto the people.

34 But when they knew that he was a Jew, all with one voice about the space of two hours cried out, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

35 And when the townclerk had appeased the people, he said, Ye men of Ephesus, what man is there that knoweth not how that the city of the Ephesians is [1]a worshipper of the great goddess Diana, and of the image which fell down from Jupiter?

36 Seeing then that these things cannot be spoken against, ye ought to be quiet, and to do nothing rashly.

37 For ye have brought hither these men, which are neither robbers of churches, nor yet blasphemers of your goddess.

38 Wherefore if Demetrius, and the craftsmen which are with him, have a matter against any man, [2]the law is open, and there are deputies: let them implead one another.

39 But if ye enquire any thing concerning other matters, it shall be determined in a [3]lawful assembly.

40 For we are in danger to be called in question for this day's uproar, there being no cause whereby we may give an account of this concourse.

41 And when he had thus spoken, he dismissed the assembly.

AND after the uproar was ceased, Paul called unto him the disciples, and embraced them, and [a]departed for to go into Macedonia.

2 And when he had gone over those parts, and had given them much exhortation, he came into Greece,

3 And there abode three months. And [b]when the Jews laid wait for him, as he was about to sail into Syria, he purposed to return through Macedonia.

4 And there accompanied him into Asia Sopater of Berea; and of the Thessalonians, [c]Aristarchus and Secundus; and [d]Gaius of Derbe, and [e]Timotheus; and of Asia, [f]Tychicus and [g]Trophimus.

5 These going before tarried for us at Troas.

6 And we sailed away from Philippi after [h]the days of unleavened bread, and came unto them [i]to Troas in five days; where we abode seven days.

7 And upon [j]the first day of the week, when the disciples came together [k]to break bread, Paul preached unto them, ready to depart on the morrow; and continued his speech until midnight.

8 And there were many lights [l]in the upper chamber, where they were gathered together.

9 And there sat in a window a certain young man named Eutychus, being fallen into a deep sleep: and as Paul was long preaching, he sunk down with sleep, and fell down from the third loft, and was taken up dead.

10 And Paul went down, and [m]fell on him, and embracing him said, [n]Trouble not yourselves; for his life is in him.

11 When he therefore was come up again, and had broken bread, and eaten, and talked a long while, even till break of day, so he departed.

12 And they brought the young man alive, and were not a little comforted.

13 ¶ And we went before to ship, and sailed unto Assos, there intending to take in Paul: for so had he appointed, minding himself to go afoot.

14 And when he met with us at Assos, we took him in, and came to Mitylene.

15 And we sailed thence, and came the next day over against Chios; and the next day we arrived at Samos, and tarried at Trogyllium; and the next day we came to Miletus.

16 For Paul had determined to sail by Ephesus, because he would not spend the time in Asia: for [o]he hasted, if it were possible for him, [p]to be at Jerusalem [q]the day of Pentecost.

17 ¶ And from Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called the elders of the church.

18 And when they were come to him, he said unto them, Ye know, [r]from the first day that I came into Asia, after what manner I have been with you at all seasons,

19 Serving the Lord with all humility of mind, and with many tears, and temptations, which befell me [s]by the lying in wait of the Jews:

20 And how [t]I kept back nothing that was profitable unto you, but have shewed you, and have taught you publickly, and from house to house, 21 [u]Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, [v]repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ.

22 And now, behold, [w]I go bound in the spirit unto Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall befall me there:

23 Save that [x]the Holy Ghost witnesseth in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions [4]abide me.

24 But [a]none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, [b]so that I might finish my course with joy, [c]and the ministry, [d]which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God

25 And now, behold, [e]I know that ye all, among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom of God, shall see my face no more.

26 Wherefore I take you to record this day, that I am [f]pure from the blood of all men.

27 For [h]I have not shunned to declare unto you all [i]the counsel of God.

28 ¶ [k]Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost [l]hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, [m]which he hath purchased [n]with his own blood.

29 For I know this, that after my departing [p]shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock.

30 Also [q]of your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them.

31 Therefore watch, and remember, that [r]by the space of three years I ceased not to warn every one night and day with tears.

32 And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and [s]to the word of his grace, which is able [t]to build you up, and to give you [u]an inheritance among all them which are sanctified.

33 [b]I have coveted no man's silver, or gold, or apparel.

34 Yea, ye yourselves know, [d]that these hands have ministered unto my necessities, and to them that were with me.

35 I have shewed you all things, [f]how that so labouring ye ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, It is more blessed to give than to receive.

36 ¶ And when he had thus spoken, he [h]kneeled down, and prayed with them all.

37 And they all wept sore, and [i]fell on Paul's neck, and kissed him, 38 Sorrowing most of all for the words [k]which he spake, that they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him unto the ship.

CHAPTER 21.

1 Paul will not be dissuaded from going to Jerusalem.
27 where he is apprehended and in great danger.
31 but is permitted to speak to the people.

AND it came to pass, that after we were gotten from them, and had launched, we came with a straight course unto Coos, and the day following unto Rhodes, and from thence unto Patara.

2 And finding a ship sailing over unto Phenicia, we went aboard, and set forth.

3 Now when we had discovered Cyprus, we left it on the left hand, and sailed into Syria, and landed at Tyre: for there the ship was to unlade her burden.

4 And finding disciples, we tarried there seven days: [g]who said to Paul through the Spirit, that he should not go up to Jerusalem.

5 And when we had accomplished those days, we departed and went our way; and they all brought us on our way, with wives and children, till we were out of the city: and [h]we kneeled down on the shore, and prayed.

6 And when we had taken our leave one of another, we took ship; and they returned [i]home again.

7 And when we had finished our course from Tyre, we came to Ptolemais, and saluted the brethren, and abode with them one day.

8 And the next day we that were of Paul's company departed, and came unto Cæsarea: and we entered into the house of Philip [k]the evangelist, [l]which was one of the seven; and abode with him.

9 And the same man had four daughters, virgins, [m]which did prophesy.

10 And as we tarried there many days, there came down from Judæa a certain prophet named [n]Agabus.

11 And when he was come unto us, he took Paul's girdle, and bound his own hands and feet, and said, Thus saith the Holy Ghost, [o]So shall the Jews at Jerusalem bind the man that owneth this girdle, and shall deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles.

12 And when we heard these things, both we, and they of that place, besought him not to go up to Jerusalem.

13 Then Paul answered, [p]What mean ye to weep and to break mine heart? for I am ready not to be bound only, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus.

14 And when he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, [q]The will of the Lord be done.

15 And after those days we took up our carriages, and went up to Jerusalem.

16 There went with us also certain of the disciples of Cæsarea, and brought with them one Mnason of Cyprus, an old disciple, with whom we should lodge.

17 [a]And when we were come to Jerusalem, the brethren received us gladly.

18 And the day following Paul went in with us unto [c]James, and all the elders were present

19 And when he had saluted them, [d]he declared particularly what things God had wrought among the Gentiles [e]by his ministry

20 And when they heard it, they glorified the Lord, and said unto him, Thou seest, brother, how many thousands of Jews there are which believe, and they are all [f]zealous of the law;

21 And they are informed of thee, that thou teachest all the Jews which are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, saying that they ought not to circumcise their children, neither to walk after the customs.

22 What is it therefore? the multitude must needs come together: for they will hear that thou art come.

23 Do therefore this that we say to thee: We have four men which have a vow on them;

24 Them take, and purify thyself with them, and be at charges with them, that they may [h]shave their heads: and all may know that those things, whereof they were informed concerning thee, are nothing, but that thou thyself also walkest orderly, and keepest the law.

25 As touching the Gentiles which believe, [m]we have written and concluded that they observe no such thing, save only that they keep themselves from things offered to idols, and from blood, and from strangled, and from fornication

26 Then Paul took the men, and the next day purifying himself with them [o]entered into the temple, [p]to signify the accomplishment of the days of purification, until that an offering should be offered for every one of them

27 And when the seven days were almost ended, [r]the Jews which were of Asia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the people, and [s]laid hands on him,

28 Crying out, Men of Israel, help: This is the man, [u]that teacheth all men every where against the people, and the law, and this place: and further brought Greeks also into the temple, and hath polluted this holy place.

29 (For they had seen before with him in the city [y]Trophimus an Ephesian, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple.)

30 And [b]all the city was moved, and the people ran together: and they took Paul, and drew him out of the temple: and forthwith the doors were shut.

31 And as they went about to kill him, tidings came unto the chief captain of the band, that all Jerusalem was in an uproar.

32 [f]Who immediately took soldiers and centurions, and ran down unto them: and when they saw the chief captain and the soldiers, they left beating of Paul 33 Then the chief captain came near, and took him, and [k]commanded him to be bound with two chains; and demanded who he was, and what he had done.

34 And some cried one thing, some another, among the multitude: and when he could not know the certainty for the tumult, he commanded him to be carried into the castle.

35 And when he came upon the stairs, so it was, that he was borne of the soldiers for the violence of the people.

36 For the multitude of the people followed after, crying, [t]Away with him.

37 And as Paul was to be led into the castle he said unto the chief captain, May I speak unto thee? Who said, Canst thou speak Greek?

38 [l]Art not thou that Egyptian, which before these days madest an uproar, and leddest out into the wilderness four thousand men that were murderers?

39 But Paul said, [x]I am a man which am a Jew of Tarsus, a city in Cilicia, a citizen of no mean city: and, I beseech thee, suffer me to speak unto the people.

40 And when he had given him licence, Paul stood on the stairs, and [y]beckoned with the hand unto the people. And when there was made a great silence, he spake unto them in the Hebrew tongue, saying,

CHAPTER 22.

1 Paul declareth how he was converted 17 and called to his apostleship 22 At the very mentioning of the Gentiles the people exclaim on him 25 Claiming the privilege of a Roman he escapeth

MEN, [z]brethren, and fathers, hear ye my defence which I make now unto you.

2 (And when they heard that he spake in the Hebrew tongue to them, they kept the more silence: and he saith)

3 [a]I am verily a man which am a Jew, born in Tarsus, a city in Cilicia, yet brought up in this city [b]at the feet of [c]Gamaliel, and taught [d]according to the perfect manner of the law of the fathers, and [a]was zealous toward God, [c]as ye all are this day

4 [d]And I persecuted this way unto the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women

5 As also the high priest doth bear me witness, and [h]all the estate of the elders [i]from whom also I received letters unto the brethren, and went to Damascus, to bring them which were there bound unto Jerusalem, for to be punished

6 And [k]it came to pass, that, as I made my journey, and was come nigh unto Damascus about noon, suddenly there shone from heaven a great light round about me

7 And I fell unto the ground, and heard a voice saying unto me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

8 And I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And he said unto me, I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom thou persecutest

9 And [o]they that were with me saw indeed the light, and were afraid, but they heard not the voice of him that spake to me

10 And I said, What shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said unto me, Arise, and go into Damascus, and there it shall be told thee of all things which are appointed for thee to do

11 And when I could not see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of them that were with me, I came into Damascus

12 And [q]one Ananias, a devout man according to the law, [r]having a good report of all the [s]Jews which dwelt there

13 Came unto me, and stood, and said unto me, Brother Saul, receive thy sight. And the same hour I looked up upon him

14 And he said, [t]The God of our fathers [u]hath chosen thee, that thou shouldest know his will, and [x]see [y]that Just One, and [z]shouldest hear the voice of his mouth

15 [a]For thou shalt be his witness unto all men of [b]what thou hast seen and heard

16 And now why tarriest thou? arise, and be baptized, [c]and wash away thy sins, [d]calling on the name of the Lord

17 And [e]it came to pass, that, when I was come again to Jerusalem, even while I prayed in the temple, I was in a trance;

18 And [f]saw him saying unto me, [h]Make haste, and get thee quickly out of Jerusalem: for they will not receive thy testimony concerning me.

19 And I said, Lord, [b]they know that I imprisoned and [d]beat in every synagogue them that believed on thee:

20 [f]And when the blood of thy martyr Stephen was shed, I also was standing by, and [g]consenting unto his death, and kept the raiment of them that slew him

21 And he said unto me, Depart [k]for I will send thee far hence unto the Gentiles

22 And they gave him audience unto this word, and then lifted up their voices, and said, [m]Away with such a fellow from the earth: for it is not fit that [n]he should live

23 And as they cried out, and cast off their clothes, and threw dust into the air,

24 The chief captain commanded him to be brought into the castle, and bade that he should be examined by scourging; that he might know wherefore they cried so against him

25 And as they bound him with thongs, Paul said unto the centurion that stood by, [l]Is it lawful for you to scourge a man that is a Roman, and uncondemned?

26 When the centurion heard that, he went and told the chief captain, saying, Take heed what thou doest: for this man is a Roman.

27 Then the chief captain came, and said unto him, Tell me, art thou a Roman? He said, Yea.

28 And the chief captain answered, With a great sum obtained I this freedom. And Paul said, But I was free born.

29 Then straightway they departed from him which should have [l]examined him: and the chief captain also was afraid, after he knew that he was a Roman, and because he had bound him.

30 On the morrow, because he would have known the certainty wherefore he was accused of the Jews, he loosed him from his bands, and commanded the chief priests and all their council to appear, and brought Paul down, and set him before them.

CHAPTER 23

1 Is Paul pleadeth his cause. 2 He is smote commandeth them to smite him. 11 The Jews lie in wait for Paul. 27 He is sent to Felix the governor.

AND Paul, earnestly beholding the council, said, Men and brethren, I have lived in all good conscience before God until this day.

2 And the high priest Ananias commanded them that stood by him [i]to smite him on the mouth.

3 Then said Paul unto him, God shall smite thee, thou whited wall for sittest thou to judge me after the law, and [f]commandest me to be smitten contrary to the law

4 And they that stood by said, Revilest thou God's high priest?

5 Then said Paul, [g]I wist not, brethren, that he was the high priest: for it is written, [h]Thou shalt not speak evil of the ruler of thy people

6 But when Paul perceived that the one part were Sadducees, and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the council, Men and brethren, [i]I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee: [k]of the hope and resurrection of the dead I am called in question.

7 And when he had so said, there arose a dissension between the Pharisees and the Sadducees: and the multitude was divided.

8 [l]For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, neither angel, nor spirit: but the Pharisees confess both.

9 And there arose a great cry: and the scribes that were of the Pharisees' part arose, and strove, saying, [m]We find no evil in this man: but [n]if a spirit or an angel hath spoken to him, [o]let us not fight against God.

10 And when there arose a great dissension, the chief captain, fearing lest Paul should have been pulled in pieces of them, commanded the soldiers to go down, and to take him by force from among them, and to bring him into the castle.

11 And [p]the night following the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good cheer, Paul: for as thou hast testified of me in Jerusalem, so must thou bear witness also at Rome.

12 And when it was day, certain of the Jews banded together, and bound themselves [q]under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul.

13 And they were more than forty which had made this conspiracy.

14 And they came to the chief priests and elders, and said, We have bound ourselves under a great curse, that we will eat nothing until we have slain Paul.

15 Now therefore ye with the council signify to the chief captain that he bring him down unto you to morrow, as though ye would enquire some thing more perfectly concerning him: and we, or ever he come near, are ready to kill him.

16 And when Paul's sister's son heard of their lying in wait, he went and entered into the castle, and told Paul.

18 So he took him, and brought him to the chief captain, and said, Paul the prisoner called me unto him, and prayed me to bring this young man unto thee, who hath something to say unto thee.

19 Then the chief captain took him by the hand, and went with him asides privately, and asked him, What is that thou hast to tell me?

20 And he said, [r]The Jews have agreed to desire thee that thou would'st bring down Paul to morrow into the council, as though they would enquire somewhat of him more perfectly.

21 But do not thou yield unto them: for there lie in wait for him of them more than forty men, which have bound themselves with an oath, that they will neither eat nor drink till they have killed him: and now are they ready, looking for a promise from thee.

27 [s]This man was taken of the Jews, and should have been killed of them: then came I with an army, and rescued him, having understood that he was a Roman.

33 Who, when they came to Cæsarea, and delivered the epistle to the governor, presented Paul also before him.

CHAPTER 24.

1 Paul being accused by Tertullus 10 answereth for his life and doctrine 24 He preacheth Christ to Felix 27 who leaveth Paul in prison

AND after [m]five days [n]Ananias the high priest descended with the elders, and with a certain orator named Tertullus, who informed the governor against Paul.

2 And when he was called forth, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, Seeing that by thee we enjoy great quietness, and that very worthy deeds are done unto this nation by thy providence,

3 We accept it always, and in all places, most noble Felix, with all thankfulness.

4 Notwithstanding, that I be not further tedious unto thee, I pray thee that thou wouldest hear us of thy clemency a few words.

5 [q]For we have found this man a pestilent fellow, and a mover of sedition among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes:

6 [r]Who also hath gone about to profane the temple: whom we took, and would [s]have judged according to our law.

7 [t]But the chief captain Lysias came upon us, and with great violence took him away out of our hands,

8 [u]Commanding his accusers to come unto thee: by examining of whom thyself mayest take knowledge of all these things, whereof we accuse him.

9 And the Jews also assented, saying that these things were so.

10 Then Paul, after that the governor had beckoned unto him to speak, answered, Forasmuch as I know that thou hast been of many years a judge unto this nation, I do the more cheerfully answer for myself:

11 Because that thou mayest understand, that there are yet but twelve days since I went up to Jerusalem [x]for to worship.

12 [y]And they neither found me in the temple disputing with any man, neither raising up the people, neither in the synagogues, nor in the city:

13 Neither can they prove the things whereof they now accuse me.

14 But this I confess unto thee, that after [z]the way which they call heresy, so worship I the [a]God of my fathers, believing all things which are written in [b]the law and in the prophets;

15 And [c]have hope toward God, which they themselves also allow, [d]that there shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust.

16 And [e]herein do I exercise myself, to have always a conscience void of offence toward God, and toward men.

17 Now after many years [f]I came to bring alms to my nation, and offerings.

18 [g]Whereupon certain Jews from Asia found me purified in the temple, neither with multitude, nor with tumult.

19 [h]Who ought to have been here before thee, and object, if they had ought against me.

20 Or else let these same here say, if they have found any evil doing in me, while I stood before the council, 21 Except it be for this one voice, that I cried standing among them, [i]Touching the resurrection of the dead I am called in question by you this day.

22 And when Felix heard these things, having more perfect knowledge of that way, he deferred them, and said, When [k]Lysias the chief captain shall come down, I will know the uttermost of your matter.

23 And he commanded a centurion to keep Paul, and to let him have liberty, and [l]that he should forbid none of his acquaintance to minister or come unto him.

24 And after certain days, when Felix came [m]with his wife Drusilla, which was a Jewess, he sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Christ.

25 And as he reasoned of righteousness, temperance, and judgment to come, Felix trembled, and answered, Go thy way for this time; when I have a convenient season, I will call for thee.

26 He hoped also that [n]money should have been given him of Paul, that he might loose him: wherefore he sent for him the oftener, and communed with him.

27 But after two years Porcius Festus came into Felix room: and Felix, [b]willing to shew the Jews a pleasure, left Paul bound.

CHAPTER 25.

1 The Jews accuse Paul before Festus. 8 He answereth for himself, 11 and appealeth unto Cæsar.

NOW when Festus was come into the province, after three days he ascended from Cæsarea to Jerusalem.

2 [d]Then the high priest and the chief of the Jews informed him against Paul, and besought him,

3 And desired favour against him, that he would send for him to Jerusalem, [f]laying wait in the way to kill him.

4 But Festus answered, that Paul should be kept at Cæsarea, and that he himself would depart shortly thither.

5 Let them therefore, said he, which among you are able, go down with me, and accuse this man, [h]if there be any wickedness in him.

6 And when he had tarried among them [2]more than ten days, he went down unto Cæsarea; and the next day sitting on the judgment seat commanded Paul to be brought.

7 And when he was come, the Jews which came down from Jerusalem stood round about, [i]and laid many and grievous complaints against Paul, which they could not prove.

8 While he answered for himself, [k]Neither against the law of the Jews, neither against the temple, nor yet against Cæsar, have I offended any thing at all.

9 But Festus, [m]willing to do the Jews a pleasure, answered Paul, and said, [n]Wilt thou go up to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these things before me?

10 Then said Paul, I stand at Cæsar's [3]judgment seat, where I ought to be judged: to the Jews have I done no wrong, as thou very well knowest.

11 [p]For if I be an offender, or have committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things whereof these accuse me, no man may deliver me unto them. [r]I appeal unto Cæsar.

12 Then Festus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, Hast thou appealed unto Cæsar? unto Cæsar shalt thou go.

13 And after certain days king Agrippa and Bernice came unto Cæsarea to salute Festus.

14 And when they had been there many days, Festus declared Paul's cause unto the king, saying, [u]There is a certain man left in bonds by Felix:

15 [o]About whom, when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed me, desiring to have judgment against him.

16 [q]To whom I answered, It is not the manner of the Romans to deliver any man to die, before that he which is accused have the accusers face to face, and have licence to answer for himself concerning the crime laid against him.

17 Therefore, when they were come hither, [s]without any delay on the morrow I sat on the judgment seat, and commanded the man to be brought forth.

18 Against whom when the accusers stood up, they brought none accusation of such things as I supposed:

19 [t]But had certain questions against him of their own superstition, and of one Jesus, which was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive.

20 And because [1]I doubted of such manner of questions, I asked him whether he would go to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these matters.

21 But when Paul had appealed to be reserved unto the [3]hearing of Augustus, I commanded him to be kept till I might send him to Cæsar.

22 Then [x]Agrippa said unto Festus, I would also hear the man myself. To morrow, said he, thou shalt hear him.

23 And on the morrow, when Agrippa was come, and Bernice, with great [y]pomp, and was entered into the place of hearing, with the chief captains, and principal men of the city, at Festus' commandment Paul was brought forth.

24 And Festus said, King Agrippa, and all men which are here present with us, ye see this man, about whom [z]all the multitude of the Jews have dealt with me, both at Jerusalem, and also here, crying that he ought [a]not to live any longer.

25 But when I found that [b]he had committed nothing worthy of death, [c]and that he himself hath appealed to Augustus, I have determined to send him.

26 Of whom I have no certain thing to write unto my lord. Wherefore I have brought him forth before you, and specially before thee, O king Agrippa, that, after examination had, I might have somewhat to write.

27 For it seemeth to me unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not withal to signify the crimes laid against him.

CHAPTER 26

2 Paul in the presence of Agrippa declareth his life. 12 and miraculous conversion &c

THEN Agrippa said unto Paul, Thou art permitted to speak for thyself Then Paul stretched forth the hand, and answered for himself

2 I think myself happy, king Agrippa, because I shall answer for myself this day before thee touching all the things whereof I am accused of the Jews

3 Especially because I know thee to be expert in all customs and questions which are among the Jews wherefore I beseech thee to hear me patiently

4 My manner of life from my youth, which was at the first among mine own nation at Jerusalem, know all the Jews,

5 Which knew me from the beginning, if they would testify, that after [a] the most straitest sect of our religion I lived a Pharisee

6 [b] And now I stand and am judged for the hope of [c] the promise made of God unto our fathers

7 Unto which promise [d] our twelve tribes, instantly serving God [e] day and night, [f] hope to come For which hope's sake, king Agrippa, I am accused of the Jews

8 Why should it be thought a thing incredible with you, that God should raise the dead?

9 [g] I verily thought with myself, that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth

10 [h] Which thing I also did in Jerusalem and many of the saints did I shut up in prison, having received authority [i] from the chief priests, and when they were put to death, I gave my voice against them

11 [k] And I punished them oft in every synagogue, and compelled them to blaspheme; and being exceedingly mad against them, I persecuted them even unto strange cities

12 [l] Whereupon as I went to Damascus with authority and commission from the chief priests,

13 At midday, O king, I saw in the way a light from heaven, above the brightness of the sun, shining round about me and them which journeyed with me

14 And when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking unto me, and saying in the Hebrew tongue, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks

15 And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest.

16 But rise, and stand upon thy feet: for I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, [a] to make thee a minister and a witness both of these things which thou hast seen and of those things in the which I will appear unto thee,

17 Delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, [b] unto whom now I send thee,

18 [c] To open their eyes, and [d] to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, [e] that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and [f] inheritance among them which are [g] sanctified by faith that is in me

19 Whereupon O king Agrippa I was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision

20 But [h] shewed first unto them of Damascus, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the coasts of Judæa, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, and do [m] works meet for repentance

21 For these causes [n] the Jews caught me in the temple, and went about to kill me

22 Having therefore obtained help of God, I continue unto this day, witnessing both to small and great, saying none other things than those [o] which the prophets and [p] Moses did say should come

23 [q] That Christ should suffer, and [r] that he should be the first that should rise from the dead, and [s] should shew light unto the people, and to the Gentiles

24 And as he thus spake for himself, Festus said with a loud voice, Paul, [t] thou art beside thyself, much learning doth make thee mad

25 But he said, I am not mad, most noble Festus; but speak forth the words of truth and soberness

26 For the king knoweth of these things, before whom also I speak freely for I am persuaded that none of these things are hidden from him, for this thing was not done in a corner

27 King Agrippa, believest thou the prophets? I know that thou believest

28 Then Agrippa said unto Paul, Almost thou persuadest me to be a Christian

29 And Paul said, [u] I would to God, that not only thou, but also all that hear me this day, were both almost, and altogether such as I am, except these bonds

30 And when he had thus spoken, the king rose up, and the governor, and Bernice, and they that sat with them

31 And when they were gone aside, they talked between themselves, saying, [a]This man doeth nothing worthy of death or of bonds.

32 Then said Agrippa unto Festus, This man might have been set at liberty, [b]if he had not appealed unto Cæsar

CHAPTER 27.

1 Paul shipping toward Rom 10 foretelleth of the danger of the voyage 41 Thy suffer shipwreck 22 44 yet all come safe to land

AND when [c]it was determined that we should sail into Italy, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners unto one named Julius, a centurion of Augustus' band.

2 And entering into a ship of Adramyttium, we launched, meaning to sail by the coasts of Asia; one [d]Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, being with us.

3 And the next day we touched at Sidon And Julius [f]courteously entreated Paul, and gave him liberty to go unto his friends to refresh himself.

4 And when we had launched from thence, we sailed under Cyprus, because the winds were contrary.

5 And when we had sailed over the sea of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lycia.

6 And there the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing into Italy, and he put us therein.

7 And when we had sailed slowly many days, and scarce were come over against Cnidus, the wind not suffering us, we sailed under [2]Crete, over against Salmone;

8 And, hardly passing it, came unto a place which is called The fair havens; nigh whereunto was the city of Lasea.

9 Now when much time was spent, and when sailing was now dangerous, [k]because the fast was now already past, Paul admonished them,

10 And said unto them, Sirs, I perceive that this voyage will be with [3]hurt and much damage, not only of the lading and ship, but also of our lives.

11 Nevertheless the centurion believed the master and the owner of the ship, more than those things which were spoken by Paul.

12 And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, the more part advised to depart thence also, if by any means they might attain to Phenice, and there to winter; which is an haven of Crete, and lieth toward the south west and north west.

13 And when the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, loosing thence, they sailed close by Crete.

14 But not long after there [1]arose against it a tempestuous wind, called Euroclydon.

15 And when the ship was caught, and could not bear up into the wind, we let her drive.

16 And running under a certain island which is called Clauda, we had much work to come by the boat:

17 Which when they had taken up, they used helps, undergirding the ship; and, fearing lest they should fall into the quicksands, strake sail, and so were driven.

18 And we being exceedingly tossed with a tempest, the next day they lightened the ship;

19 And the third day [e]we cast out with our own hands the tackling of the ship.

20 And when neither sun nor stars in many days appeared, and no small tempest lay on us, all hope that we should be saved was then taken away.

21 But after long abstinence Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, Sirs, ye should have hearkened unto me, and not have loosed from Crete, and to have gained this harm and loss.

22 And now I exhort you to be of good cheer: for there shall be no loss of any man's life among you, but of the ship.

23 [g]For there stood by me this night the angel of God, whose I am, and [h]whom I serve, 24 Saying, Fear not, Paul; thou must be brought before Cæsar: and, lo, God hath given thee all them that sail with thee.

25 Wherefore, sirs, be of good cheer: [i]for I believe God, that it shall be even as it was told me.

26 Howbeit [1]we must be cast upon a certain island.

27 But when the fourteenth night was come, as we were driven up and down in Adria, about midnight the shipmen deemed that they drew near to some country;

28 And sounded, and found it twenty fathoms: and when they had gone a little further, they sounded again, and found it fifteen fathoms.

29 Then fearing lest we should have fallen upon rocks, they cast four anchors out of the stern, and wished for the day.

30 And as the shipmen were about to flee out of the ship, when they had let down the boat into the sea, under colour as though they would have cast anchors out of the foreship, 31 Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, Except these abide in the ship, ye cannot be saved.

32 Then the soldiers cut off the ropes of the boat, and let her fall off
33 And while the day was coming on, Paul besought them all to take meat, saying, This day is the fourteenth day that ye have tarried and continued fasting, having taken nothing.
34 Wherefore I pray you to take some meat: for this is for your health for [b]there shall not an hair fall from the head of any of you
35 And when he had thus spoken, he took bread, and [c]gave thanks to God in presence of them all: and when he had broken it, he began to eat
36 Then were they all of good cheer, and they also took some meat
37 And we were in all in the ship two hundred threescore and sixteen [d]souls
38 And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, and cast out the wheat into the sea
39 And when it was day, they knew not the land but they discovered a certain creek with a shore, into the which they were minded, if it were possible, to thrust in the ship
40 And when they had [1]taken up the anchors, they committed themselves unto the sea, and loosed the rudder bands, and hoised up the mainsail to the wind and made toward shore
41 And falling into a place where two seas met, [e]they ran the ship aground; and the forepart stuck fast, and remained unmoveable, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waves
42 And the soldiers' counsel was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out, and escape.
43 But the centurion, willing to save Paul, kept them from their purpose; and commanded that they which could swim should cast themselves first into the sea, and get to land:
44 And the rest, some on boards, and some on broken pieces of the ship And so it came to pass, [k]that they escaped all safe to land

3 And when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks, and laid them on the fire, there came a viper out of the heat, and fastened on his hand.
4 And when the barbarians saw the [o]venomous beast hang on his hand, they said among themselves, No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he hath escaped the sea, yet vengeance suffereth not to live.
5 And he shook off the beast into the fire, and [p]felt no harm
6 Howbeit they looked when he should have swollen, or fallen down dead suddenly but after they had looked a great while, and saw no harm come to him, they changed their minds, and [q]said that he was a god.
7 In the same quarters were possessions of the chief man of the island, whose name was Publius; who received us, and lodged us three days courteously
8 And it came to pass, that the father of Publius lay sick of a fever and of a bloody flux to whom Paul entered in and [f]prayed, and [g]laid his hands on him, and healed him
9 So when this was done, others also, which had diseases in the island, came, and were healed:
10 Who also honoured us with many [h]honours; and when we departed, they laded us with such things as were necessary
11 And after three months we departed in a ship of Alexandria which had wintered in the isle whose sign was Castor and Pollux
12 And landing at Syracuse, we tarried there three days
13 And from thence we fetched a compass, and came to Rhegium: and after one day the south wind blew, and we came the next day to Puteoli:
14 Where we found brethren, and were desired to tarry with them seven days and so we went toward Rome.
15 And from thence, when the brethren heard of us, they came to meet us as far as Appii forum, and The three taverns whom when Paul saw, he thanked God, and took courage
16 And when we came to Rome, the centurion [l]delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard but [l]Paul was suffered to dwell by himself with a soldier that kept him
17 And it came to pass, that after three days Paul called the chief of the Jews together and when they were come together, he said unto them, Men and brethren, [o]though I have committed nothing against the people, or customs of our fathers, yet [p]was

I delivered prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans.

18 Who, [a]when they had examined me, would have let me go, because there was no cause of death in me.

19 But when the Jews spake against it, [b]I was constrained to appeal unto Cæsar; not that I had ought to accuse my nation of.

20 For this cause therefore have I called for you, to see you, and to speak with you, because that [d]for the hope of Israel I am bound with [e]this chain.

21 And they said unto him, We neither received letters out of Judæa concerning thee, neither any of the brethren that came shewed or spake any harm of thee.

22 But we desire to hear of thee what thou thinkest: for as concerning this sect, we know that every where [g]it is spoken against 23 And when they had appointed him a day, there came many to him into his lodging; [h]to whom he expounded and testified the kingdom of God, persuading them concerning Jesus, [i]both out of the law of Moses, and out of the prophets, from morning till evening.

24 And [l]some believed the things which were spoken, and some believed not.

25 And when they agreed not among themselves, they departed, after that Paul had spoken one word, Well spake the Holy Ghost by Esaias the prophet unto our fathers,

26 Saying, [c]Go unto this people, and say, Hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and not perceive:

27 For the heart of this people is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes have they closed; lest they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them.

28 Be it known therefore unto you, that the salvation of God is sent [f]unto the Gentiles, and that they will hear it.

29 And when he had said these words, the Jews departed, and had great reasoning among themselves.

30 And Paul dwelt two whole years in his own hired house, and received all that came in unto him, 31 [k]Preaching the kingdom of God, and teaching those things which concern the Lord Jesus Christ, with all confidence, no man forbidding him.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE ROMANS.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Paul commendeth his calling 16 What his gospel is. 21 The sins of the Gentiles

PAUL, a servant of Jesus Christ, [c]called to be an apostle, [d]separated unto the gospel of God,

2 ([p]Which he had promised afore [h]by his prophets in the holy scriptures,)

3 Concerning his Son Jesus Christ our Lord, which was [k]made of the seed of David according to the flesh.

4 And [m]declared[2] to be the Son of God with power, according [n]to the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead:

5 By whom [o]we have received grace and apostleship, [3]for [q]obedience to the faith among all nations, [s]for his name:

6 Among whom are ye also the called of Jesus Christ:

7 To all that be in Rome, beloved of God, [u]called to be saints: [z]Grace to you and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

8 First, [a]I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, that [b]your faith is spoken of throughout the whole world.

9 For [c]God is my witness, [f]whom I serve [1]with my spirit in the gospel of his Son, that [t]without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers;

10 Making request, if by any means now at length I might have a prosperous journey [f]by the will of God to come unto you

11 For I long to see you, that [o]I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end ye may be established;

12 That is, that I may be comforted together [r]with you by [r]the mutual faith both of you and me.

13 Now I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that oftentimes I purposed to come unto you, (but [r]was let hitherto,) that I might have some [y]fruit [b]among you also, even as among other Gentiles.

14 I am debtor both to the Greeks, and to the Barbarians; both to the wise, and to the unwise.

15 So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the gospel to you that are at Rome also.

16 For [a]I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for [b]it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; [c]to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.

17 For [c]therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, [d]The just shall live by faith.

18 [e]For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness;

19 Because [f]that which may be known of God is manifest [g]in them; for [m]God hath shewed it unto them.

20 For [n]the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; [o]so that they are without excuse:

21 Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but [p]became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened.

22 [q]Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools,

23 And changed the glory of the uncorruptible [r]God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and fourfooted beasts, and creeping things.

24 [s]Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, [t]to dishonour their own bodies [u]between themselves:

25 Who changed [v]the truth of God [w]into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature [x]more than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen.

26 For this cause God gave them up unto [y]vile affections: for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature:

27 And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was meet.

28 And even as they did not like [7]to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to [8]a reprobate mind, to do those things [i]which are not convenient;

29 Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, malignity; whisperers,

30 Backbiters, haters of God, despiteful, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents,

31 Without understanding, covenant-breakers, [1]without natural affection, implacable, unmerciful:

32 Who [d]knowing the judgment of God, that they which commit such things [f]are worthy of death, not only do the same, but [h]have[2] pleasure in them that do them.

CHAPTER 2.

1 They that sin cannot excuse themselves 6 nor escape the judgment of God 9 whether Jews or Gentiles 14 The Gentiles cannot escape 17 nor yet the Jews

THEREFORE thou art [j]inexcusable, O man, whosoever thou art that judgest: [k]for wherein thou judgest another, thou condemnest thyself; for thou that judgest doest the same things.

2 But we are sure that the judgment of God is according to truth against them which commit such things.

3 And thinkest thou this, O man, that judgest them which do such things, and doest the same, that thou shalt escape the judgment of God?

4 Or despisest thou [z]the riches of his goodness and [a]forbearance and [b]longsuffering; [c]not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance?

5 But after thy hardness and impenitent heart [y]treasurest up unto thyself wrath against the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God;

6 [b]Who will render to every man according to his deeds:

7 To them who by patient continuance in well doing seek for glory and honour and immortality, eternal life:

8 But unto them that are contentious, and [f]do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, indignation and wrath,

9 Tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that doeth evil, of the Jew [h]first, and also of the [6]Gentile;

10 [i]But glory, honour, and peace, to every man that worketh good, to the Jew first, and also to the [b]Gentile:

11 For [k]there is no respect of persons with God.

12 For as many as have sinned without law shall also perish without law: and as many as have sinned in the law shall be judged by the law;

13 (For [m]not the hearers of the law are just before God, but the doers of the law shall be justified.

14 For when the Gentiles, which have not the law, do by nature the things contained in the law, these, having not the law, are a law unto themselves:
15 Which shew the work of the law written in their hearts, [1]their conscience also bearing witness, and their thoughts the mean while accusing or else excusing one another;)
16 [h]In the day when God shall judge the secrets of men [i]by Jesus Christ [k]according to my gospel.
17 Behold, [l]thou art called a Jew, and [m]restest in the law, and makest thy boast of God,
18 And [n]knowest his will, and [o]approvest [3]the things that are more excellent, being instructed out of the law;
19 And [p]art confident that thou thyself art a guide of the blind, a light of them which are in darkness,
20 An instructor of the foolish, a teacher of babes, [q]which hast the form of knowledge and of the truth in the law.
21 [r]Thou therefore which teachest another, teachest thou not thyself? thou that preachest a man should not steal, dost thou steal?
22 Thou that sayest a man should not commit adultery, dost thou commit adultery? thou that abhorrest idols, [s]dost thou commit sacrilege?
23 Thou that [t]makest thy boast of the law, through breaking the law dishonourest thou God?
24 For the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you, as it is [u]written.
25 [v]For circumcision verily profiteth, if thou keep the law: but if thou be a breaker of the law, thy circumcision is made uncircumcision.
26 Therefore [w]if the uncircumcision keep the righteousness of the law, shall not his uncircumcision be counted for circumcision?
27 And shall not uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfil the law, [x]judge thee who by the letter and circumcision dost transgress the law?
28 For [y]he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly, neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh:
29 But he is a Jew, [z]which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, [a]in the spirit, and not in the letter, [b]whose praise is not of men, but of God.

CHAPTER 3

1 The Jews' prerogative. 20 Flesh is justified by the law. 21 But all by faith only.

WHAT advantage then hath the Jew? or what profit is there of circumcision?

2 Much every way: chiefly, because that [c]unto them were committed the oracles of God.
3 For what if [b]some did not believe? [c]shall their unbelief make the faith of God without effect?
4 [d]God forbid: yea, let [e]God be true, but [f]every man a liar; as it is written, [g]That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged.
5 But if our unrighteousness commend the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous who taketh vengeance? ([h]I speak as a man)
6 God forbid: for then [i]how shall God judge the world?
7 For if the truth of God hath more abounded through my lie unto his glory; why yet am I also judged as a sinner?
8 And not rather, (as we be slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say,) "Let us do evil, that good may come? whose damnation is just.
9 What then? are we better than they? No, in no wise: for we have before [4]proved both Jews and Gentiles that [j]they are all under sin;
10 As it is written, "There is none righteous, no, not one:
11 There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God.
12 They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable, there is none that doeth good, no, not one.
13 [k]Their throat is an open sepulchre, with their tongues they have used deceit; [l]the poison of asps is under their lips:
14 [m]Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness:
15 [n]Their feet are swift to shed blood:
16 Destruction and misery are in their ways:
17 And the way of peace have they not known:
18 [o]There is no fear of God before their eyes.
19 Now we know that what things soever [p]the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that [q]every mouth may be stopped, and [r]all the world may become [5]guilty before God.
20 Therefore [s]by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for [t]by the law is the knowledge of sin.
21 But now [u]the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law [x]and the prophets;

22 Even the righteousness of God which is [t]by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe for [b]there is no difference

23 For [c]all have sinned and come short of the glory of God,

24 Being justified freely [d]by his grace [f]through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus

25 Whom God hath [l]set forth [g]to be a propitiation through faith [m]in his blood to declare his righteousness [k]for the [i]remission of [f]sins that are past through the forbearance of God,

26 To declare I say at this time his righteousness that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus 27 [n]Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? of works? Nay: but by the law of faith.

28 Therefore we conclude [o]that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law.

29 Is he the God of the Jews only? is he not also of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also:

30 Seeing [r]it is one God which shall justify the circumcision by faith and uncircumcision through faith.

31 Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the law.

CHAPTER 4

1 Abraham's faith was imputed to him for righteousness.
13 By faith he and his seed received the promise.
16 Abraham is the father of all that believe.

WHAT shall we say then that [p]Abraham our father as pertaining to the flesh hath found?

2 For if Abraham were [q]justified by works, he hath whereof to glory, but not before God.

3 For what saith the scripture? [s]Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness.

4 Now [d]to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.

5 But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth [g]the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.

6 Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works,

7 Saying, [t]Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered.

8 Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin.

9 Cometh this blessedness then upon the circumcision only, or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness.

10 How was it then reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision.

11 And [c]he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had yet being uncircumcised: that [h]he might be the father of all them that believe though they be not circumcised, that righteousness might be imputed unto them also:

12 And the father of circumcision to them who are not of the circumcision only, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had being yet uncircumcised.

13 For the promise, that he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith.

14 For [p]if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of none effect:

15 Because [r]the law worketh wrath: for where no law is, there is no transgression.

16 Therefore it is of faith, that it might be [g]by grace; [t]to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham; [u]who is the father of us all,

17 (As it is written, [x]I have made thee a father of many nations,) [d]before him whom he believed, even God, [z]who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those [b]things which be not as though they were.

18 Who against hope believed in hope, that he might become the father of many nations, according to that which was spoken, [e]So shall thy seed be.

19 And being not weak in faith, [f]he considered not his own body now dead, when he was about an hundred years old, neither yet the deadness of Sarah's womb:

20 He staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief, but was strong in faith, giving glory to God;

21 And being fully persuaded that, what he had promised, [h]he was able also to perform.

22 And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness.

23 Now [k]it was not written for his sake alone that it was imputed to him;

24 But for us also, to whom it shall be imputed, if we believe [l]on him that raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead;

25 [a]Who was delivered for our offences, and [b]was raised again for our justification

CHAPTER 5

1 Being justified by faith we have peace with God 17 and righteousness and life by Jesus Christ

THEREFORE [c]being justified by faith, we have [d]peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ

2 [e]By whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and [h]rejoice in hope of the glory of God

3 And not only so, but [i]we glory in tribulations also [k]knowing that tribulation worketh patience;

4 [m]And patience, experience; and experience, hope.

5 [n]And hope maketh not ashamed; [p]because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us

6 For when we were yet without strength, [q]in due time [r]Christ died for the ungodly.

7 For scarcely for a righteous man will one die yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die

8 But [s]God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us

9 Much more then, being now justified [x]by his blood, we shall be saved [y]from wrath through him

10 For [a]if, when we were enemies, [b]we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved [c]by his life

11 And not only so, but we also [h]joy in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the [3]atonement

12 Wherefore as [4]by one man sin entered into the world, and [f]death by sin, and so death passed upon all men, [6]for that all have sinned

13 (For until the law sin was in the world but [c]sin is not imputed when there is no law

14 Nevertheless death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over them that had not sinned after the similitude of Adam's transgression [r]who is the figure of him that was to come

15 But not as the offence, so also is the free gift For if through the offence of one many be dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace which is by one man, Jesus Christ, hath abounded [z]unto many

16 And not as it was by one that sinned, so is the gift for the judgment was by one to condemnation, but the free gift is of many offences unto justification.

17 For if [1]by one man's offence death reigned by one, much more they which receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness shall reign in life by one, Jesus Christ.)

18 Therefore as [1]by the offence of one judgment came upon all men to condemnation; even so [2]by the righteousness of one the free gift came [z]upon all men unto justification of life.

19 For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous.

20 Moreover [t]the law entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much [u]more abound.

21 That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord.

CHAPTER 6

1 We may not live in sin 12 nor let sin reign any more 2. Death is the wages of sin

WHAT shall we say then? [v]Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?

2 God forbid How shall we, that are [w]dead to sin, live any longer therein?

3 Know ye not, that [x]so many of us as [y]were baptized into Jesus Christ [z]were baptized into his death?

4 Therefore we are [a]buried with him by baptism into death that [b]like as Christ was raised up from the dead by [c]the glory of the Father, [d]even so we also should walk in newness of life

5 [e]For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection:

6 Knowing this, that [m]our old man is crucified with him, that [n]the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin

7 For [f]he that is dead is [7]freed from sin

8 Now [g]if we be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him

9 Knowing that [h]Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more, death hath no more dominion over him

10 For in that he died, [i]he died unto sin once: but in that he liveth, [k]he liveth unto God

11 Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be [l]dead indeed unto sin, but [z]alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord

12 [o]Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof.

13 Neither yield ye your [a]members as [1]instruments of unrighteousness unto sin: but [b]yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness unto God.

14 For [c]sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace.

15 What then? shall we sin, [d]because we are not under the law, but under grace? God forbid.

16 Know ye not, that [e]to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness?

17 But God be thanked, that ye were the servants of sin, but ye have obeyed from the heart [m]that form of doctrine [5]which was delivered you.

18 Being then [n]made free from sin, ye became the servants of righteousness.

19 I speak after the manner of men because of the infirmity of your flesh: for as ye have yielded your members servants to uncleanness and to iniquity unto iniquity; even so now yield your members servants to righteousness unto holiness.

20 For when ye were [o]the servants of sin, ye were free [6]from righteousness.

21 [p]What fruit had ye then in those things whereof ye are now ashamed? for [q]the end of those things is death.

22 But now [r]being made free from sin, and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting life.

23 For [s]the wages of sin is death; but [t]the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

CHAPTER 7.

1 No law hath power over a man longer than he liveth 4 But we are dead to the law 7 Yet is not the law sin, 12 but holy, just, good.

KNOW ye not, brethren, (for I speak to them that know the law,) how that the law hath dominion over a man as long as he liveth?

2 For [a]the woman which hath an husband is bound by the law to her husband so long as he liveth; but if the husband be dead, she is loosed from the law of her husband.

3 So then [c]if, while her husband liveth, she be married to another man, she shall be called an adulteress: but if her husband be dead, she is free from that law; so that she is no adulteress, though she be married to another man.

4 Wherefore, my brethren, ye also are become [h]dead to the law by the body of Christ; that ye should be married to another, even to him who is raised from the dead, that we should [i]bring forth fruit unto God.

5 For when we were in the flesh, the [2]motions of sins, which were by the law, [j]did work in our members [f]to bring forth fruit unto death.

6 But now we are delivered from the law, [3]that being dead wherein we were held; that we should serve [h]in newness of spirit, and not [3]in the oldness of the letter.

7 What shall we say then? Is the law sin? God forbid. Nay, [k]I had not known sin, but by the law: for I had not known [4]lust, except the law had said, [l]Thou shalt not covet.

8 But [m]sin, taking occasion by the commandment, wrought in me all manner of concupiscence. For [o]without the law sin was dead.

9 For I was alive without the law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died.

10 And the commandment, [p]which was ordained to life, I found to be unto death.

11 For sin, taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by it slew me.

12 Wherefore [q]the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good.

13 Was then that which is good made death unto me? God forbid. But sin, that it might appear sin, working death in me by that which is good; that sin by the commandment might become exceeding sinful.

14 For we know that the law is spiritual: but I am carnal, [s]sold under sin.

15 For that which I do I [7]allow not: for [b]what I would, that do I not; but what I hate, that do I.

16 If then I do that which I would not, I consent unto the law that it is good.

17 Now then it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

18 For I know that [c]in me (that is, in my flesh,) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good I find not.

19 For the good that I would I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I do.

20 Now if I do that I would not, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

21 I find then a law, that, when I would do good, evil is present with me.

22 For I [f]delight in the law of God after [g]the inward man:

23 But [t]I see another law in [k]my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members 24 O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from [1]the body of this death?

25 I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then with the mind I myself serve the law of God; but with the flesh the law of sin.

CHAPTER 8

1 They that are in Christ are free from condemnation. 5 What it is to mind the flesh. 6 And the Spirit. 17 Of being God's children. 28 What can sever us from his love.

THERE is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who [1]walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

2 For [a]the law of [b]the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from [c]the law of sin and death.

3 For [d]what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, [e]God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and [f]for sin, condemned sin in the flesh:

4 That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, [1]who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

5 For [g]they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit [g]the things of the Spirit.

6 For [h]to [4] be carnally minded is death; but [5]to be spiritually minded is life and peace.

7 Because [i]the [4] carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, [j]neither indeed can be.

8 So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God.

9 But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that [k]the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not [k]the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his.

10 And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the Spirit is life because of righteousness.

11 But if the Spirit of [l]him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, [m]he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies [7]by his Spirit that dwelleth in you.

12 [n]Therefore, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh:

13 For [o]if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do [p]mortify the deeds of the body ye shall live.

14 For [q]as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God.

15 For [r]ye have not received the spirit of bondage again [s]to fear; but ye have received the [t]Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, [u]Abba, Father.

16 [t]The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God:

17 And if children, then heirs; [v]heirs of God, and joint heirs with Christ; [w]if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together.

18 For I reckon that [x]the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us.

19 For [y]the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the [z]manifestation of the sons of God.

20 For [a]the creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected the same in hope, 21 Because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God.

22 For we know that [3]the whole creation [b]groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now.

23 And not only they, but ourselves also which have [c]the firstfruits of the Spirit, [c]even we ourselves groan within ourselves, [d]waiting for the adoption, to wit, the [e]redemption of our body.

24 For we are saved by hope: but [f]hope that is seen is not hope: for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for?

25 But if we hope for that we see not, then do we with patience wait for it.

26 Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for [g]we know not what we should pray for as we ought: but [t]the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered.

27 And [h]he that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, [7]because he maketh intercession for the saints [i]according to the will of God.

28 And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them [j]who are the called according to [8]his purpose.

29 For whom [k]he did foreknow, [l]he also did predestinate [m]to be conformed to the image of his Son, [n]that he might be the firstborn among many brethren.

30 Moreover whom he did predestinate, them he also [o]called: and whom he called, them he also [p]justified: and whom he justified, them he also [a]glorified.

31 What shall we then say to these things? [c]If God be for us, who can be against us?

32 [g]He that spared not his own Son, but [f]delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?

33 Who shall lay any thing to the charge of God's elect? [h]It is God that justifieth.

34 [i]Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, [l]who is even at the right hand of God, [m]who also maketh intercession for us.

35 Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

36 As it is written, [q]For thy sake we are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter.

37 [r]Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us.

38 For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor [t]principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come,

39 Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

CHAPTER 9.

1 Paul is sorry for the Jews. 7 All the seed of Abraham were not the children of the promise. 18 God hath mercy on whom he will. 25 The calling of the Gentiles and rejecting of the Jews.

I [x]SAY the truth in Christ, I lie not, my conscience also bearing me witness in the Holy Ghost,

2 [b]That I have great heaviness and continual sorrow in my heart.

3 For [d]I could wish that myself were [4]accursed from Christ for my brethren, my kinsmen according to the flesh:

4 [f]Who are Israelites; [g]to whom pertaineth the adoption, and [h]the glory, and [k]the [5]covenants, and [l]the giving of the law, and [n]the service of God, and [o]the promises;

5 [p]Whose are the fathers, and [r]of whom as concerning the flesh Christ came, [s]who is over all, God blessed for ever. Amen.

6 [x]Not as though the word of God hath taken none effect. For [y]they are not all Israel, which are of Israel:

7 [a]Neither, because they are the seed of Abraham, are they all children: but, In [z]Isaac shall thy seed be called.

8 That is, They which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God: but [b]the children of the promise are counted for the seed.

9 For this is the word of promise, [d]At this time will I come, and Sarah shall have a son.

10 And not only this, but when [g]Rebecca also had conceived by one, even by our father Isaac;

11 (For the children being not yet born, neither having done any good or evil, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of [x]him that calleth;)

12 It was said unto her, [m]The [1]elder shall serve the [2]younger.

13 As it is written, [o]Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated.

14 What shall we say then? [p]Is there unrighteousness with God? God forbid.

15 For he saith to Moses, [r]I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion.

16 So then it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that sheweth mercy.

17 For [u]the scripture saith unto Pharaoh, [z]Even for this same purpose have I raised thee up, that I might shew my power in thee, and that my name might be declared throughout all the earth.

18 Therefore hath he mercy on whom he will have mercy, and whom he will he hardeneth.

19 Thou wilt say then unto me, Why doth he yet find fault? For [y]who hath resisted his will?

20 Nay but, O man, who art thou that [3]repliest against God? [a]Shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, Why hast thou made me thus?

21 Hath not the [c]potter power over the clay, of the same lump to make [c]one vessel unto honour, and another unto dishonour?

22 What if God, willing to shew his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much longsuffering [4]the vessels of wrath [m]fitted [3]to destruction:

23 And that he might make known [p]the riches of his glory on the vessels of mercy, which he had [4]afore prepared unto glory,

24 Even us, whom he hath called, [u]not of the Jews only, but also of the Gentiles?

25 As he saith also in Osee, [z]I will call them my people, which were not my people; and her beloved, which was not beloved.

26 [b]And it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people; there shall they be called the children of the living God

27 Esaias also crieth concerning Israel, [b]Though the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, [c]a remnant shall be saved

28 For he will finish [1]the work, and cut it short in righteousness: [d]because a short work will the Lord make upon the earth

30 What shall we say then? [i]That the Gentiles, which followed not after righteousness, have attained to righteousness, [k]even the righteousness which is of faith

31 But Israel, [l]which followed after the law of righteousness, [g]hath not attained to the law of righteousness

32 Wherefore? Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the works of the law. For [f]they stumbled at that stumblingstone;

33 As it is written, [m]Behold, I lay in Sion a stumblingstone and rock of offence: and [y]whosoever believeth on him shall not be [2]ashamed

CHAPTER 10

5 The difference between the righteousness of the law and of faith. 11 and that all both Jew and Gentile that believe shall not be confounded

BRETHREN, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved

2 For I bear them record [c]that they have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge

3 For they being ignorant of [f]God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own [g]righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God

6 But the righteousness which is of faith speaketh on this wise, [m]Say not in thine heart, Who shall ascend into heaven? (that is, to bring Christ down from above:)

7 Or, Who shall descend into the deep? (that is, to bring up Christ again from the dead.)

8 But what saith it? [q]The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach;

9 That [a]if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved

10 For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation

11 For the scripture saith, [e]Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed

12 For [g]there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for [g]the same Lord over all [k]is rich unto all that call upon him

13 [m]For whosoever shall call [n]upon the name of the Lord shall be saved

14 How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear [r]without a preacher?

15 And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, [t]How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

16 But [z]they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Esaias saith, [z]Lord, who hath believed [3]our [4]report?

17 So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God

18 But I say, Have they not heard? Yes verily, [a]their sound went into all the earth, [b]and their words unto the ends of the world.

19 But I say, Did not Israel know? First Moses saith, [d]I will provoke you to jealousy by them that are no people, and by a [e]foolish nation I will anger you.

20 But Esaias is very bold, and saith, [h]I was found of them that sought me not, I was made manifest unto them that asked not after me.

21 But to Israel he saith, [k]All day long I have stretched forth my hands unto a disobedient and gainsaying people.

CHAPTER 11

1 God hath not cast off all Israel. 7 Some were elected though the rest were hardened. 18 The Gentiles may not be boastful. 33 God's judgments unsearchable.

I SAY then, [m]Hath God cast away his people? God forbid. For [o]I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.

2 God hath not cast away his people which [p]he foreknew. Wot ye not what the scripture saith [5]of Elias? how he maketh intercession to God against Israel, saying,

3 [r]Lord, they have killed thy prophets, and digged down thine altars; and I am left alone, and they seek my life

4 But what saith the answer of God unto him? [a]I have reserved to myself seven thousand men who have not bowed the knee to the image of Baal

5 [b]Even so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace

6 And [c]if by grace then is it no more of works otherwise grace is no more grace But if it be of works, then is it no more grace otherwise work is no more work

7 What then? [d]Israel hath not obtained that which he seeketh for, but the election hath obtained it, and the rest were [1]blinded

8 (According as it is written [h]God hath given them the spirit of [2]slumber, [3]eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear,) unto this day

9 And David saith [i]Let their table be made a snare and a trap and a stumblingblock and a recompence unto them

10 [k]Let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see and bow down their back alway

11 I say then Have they stumbled that they should fall? God forbid but rather [l]through their fall salvation is come unto the Gentiles, for to provoke them to jealousy

12 Now if the fall of them be the riches of the world, and the [4]diminishing of them the riches of the Gentiles, how much more their fulness?

13 For I speak to you Gentiles, in asmuch as [m]I am the apostle of the Gentiles I magnify mine office

14 If by any means I may provoke to emulation them which are my flesh, and [n]might save some of them

15 For if the casting away of them be the reconciling of the world what shall the receiving of them be, but life from the dead?

16 For if [o]the firstfruit be holy, the lump is also holy and if the root be holy so are the branches

17 And if [p]some of the branches be broken off [q]and thou, being a wild olive tree wert graffed in [r]among them and with them partakest of the root and fatness of the olive tree

18 [s]Boast not against the branches But if thou boast, thou bearest not the root but the root thee

19 Thou wilt say then The branches were broken off that I might be graffed in 20 Well, because of unbelief they were broken off and thou standest by faith [t]Be not highminded, but [u]fear:

22 Behold therefore the goodness and severity of God on them which fell severity, but toward thee, goodness, [c]if thou continue in his goodness otherwise [e]thou also shalt be cut off

23 And they also [f]if they abide not still in unbelief shall be graffed in for God is able to graff them in again

24 For if thou wert cut out of the olive tree which is wild by nature, and wert graffed contrary to nature into a good olive tree how much more shall these which be the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree?

25 For I would not brethren that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be [k]wise in your own conceits, that [5]"blindness[3] in part is happened to Israel, [n]until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in

26 And so all Israel shall be saved as it is written, [p]There shall come out of Sion the Deliverer and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob

27 [q]For this is my covenant unto them, when I shall take away their sins

28 As concerning the gospel, they are enemies for your sakes but as touching the election, they are [r]beloved for the fathers' sake

30 For as [v]ye in time past have not [t]believed God yet have now obtained mercy through their unbelief

31 Even so have these also now not [t]believed, that through your mercy they also may obtain mercy

32 For [w]God hath [6]concluded them all in unbelief, that he might have mercy upon all 33 O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! [b]how unsearchable are his judgments, and [c]his ways past finding out!

34 [d]For who hath known the mind of the Lord? or [e]who hath been his counsellor?

35 Or [f]who hath first given to him, and it shall be recompensed unto him again?

36 For [k]of him and through him and to him, are all things [l]to [5]whom be glory for ever Amen

CHAPTER 12

1 God's mercies move us to please God. 9 Love, and many other duties are required of us

I [m]BESEECH you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, [o]that ye [p]present your bodies [q]a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

2 And [a] be not conformed to this world but [b] be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind that ye may [c] prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect will of God.

3 I say, [d] through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, [e] not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think, but to think [f] soberly, according as God hath dealt [g] to every man the measure of faith.

4 For [h] as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office:

5 So [i] we, being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another.

6 [k] Having then gifts differing [l] according to the grace that is given to us, whether [m] prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith;

7 Or ministry, let us wait on our ministering: or [n] he that teacheth, on teaching;

8 Or [o] he that exhorteth, on exhortation: [p] he that [q] giveth, let him do it [r] with simplicity; [s] he that ruleth with diligence; he that sheweth mercy, [t] with cheerfulness.

9 [u] Let love be without dissimulation. [v] Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good.

10 [w] Be kindly affectioned one to another [x] with brotherly love; [y] in honour preferring one another;

11 Not slothful in business; fervent in spirit, serving the Lord;

12 [z] Rejoicing in hope; [a] patient in tribulation; [b] continuing instant in prayer;

13 [c] Distributing to the necessity of saints; [d] given to hospitality.

14 [e] Bless them which persecute you: bless, and curse not.

15 [f] Rejoice with them that do rejoice, and weep with them that weep.

16 [g] Be of the same mind one toward another. [h] Mind not high things, but [i] condescend to men of low estate. [k] Be not wise in your own conceits.

17 [l] Recompense to no man evil for evil. [m] Provide things honest in the sight of all men.

18 If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, [n] live peaceably with all men.

19 Dearly beloved, [o] avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, [p] Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord.

20 [q] Therefore if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink: for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head.

CHAPTER 13.

1 Of subjection to magistrates. 8 Love is the fulfilling of the law. 11 The works of darkness are out of season in the time of the gospel.

LET every soul [a] be subject unto the higher powers. For [b] there is no power but of God: the powers that be are [c] ordained of God.

2 Whosoever therefore resisteth [d] the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation.

3 For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? [e] do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same:

4 For he is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil.

5 Wherefore [f] ye must needs be subject, not only for wrath, [g] but also for conscience sake.

6 For for this cause pay ye tribute also: for they are God's ministers, attending continually upon this very thing.

7 [h] Render therefore to all their dues: tribute to whom tribute is due, custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honour to whom honour.

8 Owe no man any thing, but to love one another: for [i] he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law.

9 For this, [k] Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Thou shalt not covet; and if there be any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, namely, [l] Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

10 Love worketh no ill to his neighbour: therefore [m] love is the fulfilling of the law.

11 And that, knowing the time, that now it is high time [n] to awake out of sleep: for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed.

12 The night is far spent, the day is at hand: [o] let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and [p] let us put on the armour of light.

13 [q] Let us walk [r] honestly, as in the day; [s] not in rioting and drunkenness, [t] not in chambering and wantonness, [u] not in strife and envying.

14 But [x] put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and [y] make not provision for the flesh, to fulfil the lusts thereof.

CHAPTER 14.

1 How to treat a weak brother 3 Men may not condemn one the other for things indifferent

HIM that [a]is weak in the faith receive ye, but [1]not to doubtful disputations.

2 For one believeth that he [d]may eat all things: another, who is weak, eateth herbs.

3 Let not him that eateth despise him that eateth not; and [f]let not him which eateth not judge him that eateth: for God hath received him.

4 [k]Who art thou that judgest another man's servant? to his own master he standeth or falleth. Yea, he shall be holden up: for God is able to make him stand.

5 [m]One man esteemeth one day above another: another esteemeth every day alike. Let every man be [n]fully persuaded in his own mind.

6 He that [o]regardeth [4]the day, regardeth it unto the Lord; and he that regardeth not the day, to the Lord he doth not regard it. He that eateth, eateth to the Lord, for [p]he giveth God thanks; and he that eateth not, to the Lord he eateth not, and giveth God thanks.

7 For [t]none of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself.

8 For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's.

9 For [u]to this end Christ both died, and rose, and revived, that he might be [x]Lord both of the dead and living.

10 But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for [a]we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ.

11 For it is written, [y]As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God.

12 So then [b]every one of us shall give account of himself to God.

13 Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but judge this rather, that [i]no man put a stumblingblock or an occasion to fall in his brother's way.

14 I know, and am persuaded by the Lord Jesus, [c]that there is nothing [6]unclean of itself: but [g]to him that esteemeth any thing to be [6]unclean, to him it is unclean.

15 But if thy brother be grieved with thy meat, now walkest thou not [7]charitably. [s]Destroy not him with thy meat, for whom Christ died.

16 [h]Let not then your good be evil spoken of:

17 [j]For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost.

18 For he that in these things serveth Christ [b]is acceptable to God, and approved of men.

19 [e]Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace, and things wherewith [e]one may edify another.

20 [f]For meat destroy not the work of God. [k]All things indeed are pure; [l]but it is evil for that man who eateth with offence.

21 It is good neither to eat [l]flesh, nor to drink wine, nor any thing whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weak.

22 Hast thou faith? have it to thyself before God. [n]Happy is he that condemneth not himself in that thing which he alloweth.

23 And he that [3]doubteth is damned if he eat, because he eateth not of faith: for [p]whatsoever is not of faith is sin.

CHAPTER 15.

1 The strong must bear with the weak 15 Paul excuseth his writing, 30 and requesteth their prayers

WE [r]then that are strong ought to bear the [t]infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves.

2 [u]Let every one of us please his neighbour for his good [z]to edification.

3 [y]For even Christ pleased not himself; but, as it is written, The [t]reproaches of them that reproached thee fell on me.

4 For [b]whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope.

5 [c]Now the God of patience and consolation grant you to be likeminded one toward another [5]according to Christ Jesus:

6 That ye may [g]with one mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

7 Wherefore [i]receive ye one another, [k]as Christ also received us to the glory of God.

8 Now I say that [m]Jesus Christ was a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, [n]to confirm the promises made unto the fathers:

9 And [q]that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy; as it is written, [r]For this cause I will confess to thee among the Gentiles, and sing unto thy name.

10 And again he saith, [s]Rejoice, ye Gentiles, with his people.

11 And again, [z]Praise the Lord, all ye Gentiles; and laud him, all ye people.

12 And again, Esaias saith, [z]There

13 Now the God of hope fill you with all [c]joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Ghost

14 And [d]I myself also am persuaded of you, my brethren, that ye also are full of goodness, [e]filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another

15 Nevertheless brethren, I have written the more boldly unto you in some sort, as putting you in mind, [f]because of the grace that is given to me of God,

16 That [g]I should be the minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, ministering the gospel of God that the [h]offering[2] up of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being sanctified by the Holy Ghost

17 I have therefore whereof I may glory through Jesus Christ [i]in those things which pertain to God.

18 For I will not dare to speak of any of those things [k]which Christ hath not wrought by me, [l]to make the Gentiles obedient, by word and deed,

19 [m]Through mighty signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God; so that from Jerusalem, and round about unto Illyricum, I have fully preached the gospel of Christ

20 Yea, [n]so have I strived to preach the gospel, not where Christ was named, [o]lest I should build upon another man's foundation

25 But now [u]I go unto Jerusalem to minister unto the saints

26 For [v]it hath pleased them of Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor saints which are at Jerusalem

27 It hath pleased them verily; and their debtors they are. For [w]if the Gentiles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, [x]their duty is also to minister unto them in carnal things.

30 Now I beseech you, brethren, for the Lord Jesus Christ's sake, and [z]for the love of the Spirit, [a]that ye strive together with me in your prayers to God for me;

31 [b]That I may be delivered from them that [4]do not believe in Judea; and that [5]my service which I have for Jerusalem may be accepted of the saints;

32 [c]That I may come unto you with joy [d]by the will of God, and may with you [e]be refreshed.

33 Now [f]the God of peace be with you all. Amen

CHAPTER 16

Sundry salutations ending with praise and thanks to God

I COMMEND unto you Phebe our sister, which is a servant of the church which is at [g]Cenchrea:

2 [h]That ye receive her in the Lord, as becometh saints, and that ye assist her in whatsoever business she hath need of you: for she hath been a succourer of many, and of myself also

3 Greet [i]Priscilla and Aquila my helpers in Christ Jesus:

4 Who have for my life laid down their own necks: unto whom not only I give thanks, but also all the churches of the Gentiles

5 Likewise greet [k]the church that is in their house. Salute my wellbeloved Epænetus, who is [l]the firstfruits of Achaia unto Christ

6 Greet Mary, who bestowed much labour on us

7 Salute Andronicus and Junia, my kinsmen, *and my fellow*prisoners, who are of note among the apostles, who also [m]were in Christ before me

8 Greet Amplias my beloved in the Lord.

9 Salute Urbane, our helper in Christ, and Stachys my beloved.

10 Salute Apelles approved in Christ. Salute them which are of Aristobulus' [6]household.

11 Salute Herodion my kinsman. Greet them that be of the [7]household of Narcissus, which are in the Lord

12 Salute Tryphena and Tryphosa, who labour in the Lord. Salute the beloved Persis, which laboured much in the Lord 13 Salute Rufus [n]chosen in the Lord, and his mother and mine.

14 Salute Asyncritus, Phlegon, Her-mas, Patrobas, Hermes, and the brethren which are with them.

15 Salute Philologus, and Julia, Nereus, and his sister, and Olympas, and all the saints which are with them.

16 [e]Salute one another with an holy kiss. The churches of Christ salute you.

17 Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them [h]which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and [i]avoid them.

18 For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but [m]their own belly; and [o]by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple.

19 For [r]your obedience is come abroad unto all men. I am glad therefore on your behalf: but yet I would have you [t]wise unto that which is good, and [u]simple concerning evil.

20 And [x]the God of peace [y]shall [z]bruise Satan under your feet shortly. [a]The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE CORINTHIANS.

CHAPTER 1.

After his salutation and thanksgiving, 10 he exhorteth them to unity, 12 and reproveth their dissensions.

PAUL, [b]called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ [c]through the will of God, and Sosthenes our brother,

2 Unto the church of God which is at Corinth, to them that [d]are sanctified in Christ Jesus, [e]called to be saints, with all that in every place call upon the name of Jesus Christ [f]our Lord, [g]both their's and our's:

3 [i]Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 [n]I thank my God always on your behalf, for the grace of God which is given you by Jesus Christ;

5 That in every thing ye are enriched by him, [q]in all utterance, and in all knowledge;

6 Even as [r]the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you:

7 So that ye come behind in no gift; [t]waiting for the [2]coming of our Lord Jesus Christ:

8 [x]Who shall also confirm you unto the end, [y]that ye may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 [z]God is faithful, by whom ye were called unto [a]the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

10 Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, [a]that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no [b]divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment.

11 For it hath been declared unto me of you, my brethren, by them which are of the house of Chloe, that there are contentions among you.

12 Now this I say, [k]that every one of you saith, I am of Paul; and I of [l]Apollos; and I of [m]Cephas; and I of Christ.

13 [n]Is Christ divided? was Paul crucified for you? or were ye baptized in the name of Paul?

14 I thank God that I baptized none of you, but [o]Crispus and [p]Gaius;

15 Lest any should say that I had baptized in mine own name.

16 And I baptized also the household of [s]Stephanas: besides, I know not whether I baptized any other.

17 For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel, [t]not with wisdom of [u]words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of none effect.

18 For the preaching of the cross is to [x]them that perish [y]foolishness; but unto us [z]which are saved it is the [a]power of God.

19 For it is written, [a]I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent.
20 [b]Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? [c]hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world?
21 [d]For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe.
22 For the [e]Jews require a sign, and the Greeks seek after wisdom:
23 But we preach Christ crucified, [f]unto the Jews a stumblingblock, and unto the Greeks [g]foolishness;
24 But unto them which are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ [h]the power of God, and [i]the wisdom of God.
25 Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men.
26 For ye see your calling, brethren, how that [k]not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called:
27 But [l]God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty;
28 And base things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God chosen, yea, and [m]things which are not, [n]to bring to nought things that are:
29 [o]That no flesh should glory in his presence.
30 But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us [p]wisdom, and [q]righteousness, and [r]sanctification, and [s]redemption:
31 That, according as it is written, [t]He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

CHAPTER 2.

He declareth that his preaching, 1 though it bring not excellency of speech, far excelleth 6 the wisdom of this world, and 9 human sense

AND I, brethren, when I came to you, [u]came not with excellency of speech or of wisdom, declaring unto you [v]the testimony of God.
2 For I determined not to know any thing among you, [w]save Jesus Christ, and him crucified.
3 And [x]I was with you [y]in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling.
4 And my speech and my preaching [z]was not with [a]enticing words of man's wisdom, [b]but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power:
5 That your faith should not [c]stand in the wisdom of men, but [d]in the power of God.
6 Howbeit we speak wisdom among them [e]that are perfect: yet not [f]the wisdom of this world, nor of the princes of this world, [g]that come to nought:
7 But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom, [h]which God ordained before the world unto our glory:
8 [i]Which none of the princes of this world knew: for [k]had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.
9 But as it is written, [l]Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him.
10 But [m]God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God.
11 For what man knoweth the things of a man, [n]save the spirit of man which is in him? [o]even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God.
12 Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but [p]the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God.
13 [q]Which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual.
14 [r]But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: [s]for they are foolishness unto him: [t]neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.
15 [u]But he that is spiritual [1]judgeth all things, yet he himself is [2]judged of no man.
16 [v]For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he [3]may instruct him? [w]But we have the mind of Christ.

CHAPTER 3.

2 Milk is fit for children. 3 Against strife and division. 11 Christ the only foundation 16 How the temples of God, which 17 must be kept holy

AND I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto [x]spiritual, but as unto [y]carnal, even as unto [z]babes in Christ.
2 I have fed you with [a]milk, and not with meat: [b]for hitherto ye were not able to bear it, neither yet now are ye able.
3 For ye are yet carnal: for [d]whereas there is among you envying, and strife, and [b]divisions, are ye not carnal, and walk [7]as men?

4 For while one saith, I am of Paul; and another, I am of Apollos, are ye not carnal?

5 Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but [b]ministers by whom ye believed, [c]even as the Lord gave to every man?

6 [d]I have planted, [e]Apollos watered, [f]but God gave the increase.

7 So then [g]neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase.

8 Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: [h]and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labour.

9 For [i]we are labourers together with God: ye are God's [k]husbandry, ye are [l]God's building.

10 [m]According to the grace of God which is given unto me, as a wise masterbuilder, I have laid [n]the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon.

11 For other foundation can no man lay than [o]that is laid, [p]which is Jesus Christ.

12 Now if any man build upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble;

13 Every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day [q]shall declare it, because [r]it [s]shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is.

14 If any man's work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward.

15 If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire.

16 [t]Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?

17 If any man [u]defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are.

18 [v]Let no man deceive himself. If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise.

19 For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, [w]He taketh the wise in their own craftiness.

20 And again, [x]The Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain.

21 Therefore let no man glory in men. For [y]all things are yours;

22 Whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are yours;

CHAPTER 4

1 In what account the ministers ought to be had 9 The apostles spectacles to the world angels and men

LET a man so account of us, as of [a]the ministers of Christ, [b]and stewards of the mysteries of God.

2 Moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful.

3 But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged of you, or of man's [c]judgment: yea, I judge not mine own self.

4 For I know nothing by myself; yet am I not hereby justified: but he that judgeth me is the Lord.

5 [d]Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and [e]then shall every man have praise of God.

6 And these things, brethren, [f]I have in a figure transferred to myself and to Apollos for your sakes; [g]that ye might learn in us not to think of men above that which is written, [h]that no one of you [i]be puffed up for one against another.

7 For who [j]maketh thee to differ from another? and [k]what hast thou that thou didst not receive? now if thou didst receive it, why dost thou glory, as if thou hadst not received it?

8 Now ye are full, [l]now ye are rich, ye have reigned as kings without us: and I would to God ye did reign, that we also might reign with you.

9 For I think that God hath set forth [m]us the apostles last, [n]as it were appointed to death: for [o]we are made a [p]spectacle unto the world, and to angels, and to men.

10 [q]We are [r]fools for Christ's sake, but ye are wise in Christ; [s]we are weak, but ye are strong; ye are honourable, but we are despised.

11 [t]Even unto this present hour we both hunger, and thirst, and [u]are naked, and [v]are buffeted, and have no certain dwellingplace;

12 [w]And labour, working with our own hands: [x]being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we suffer it:

13 Being defamed, we intreat: [y]we are made as the filth of the world, and are the offscouring of all things unto this day.

14 I write not these things to shame you, but [z]as my beloved sons I warn you.

15 For though ye have ten thousand instructers in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers for [a]in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel 16 Wherefore I beseech you, [b]be ye followers of me

17 For this cause have I sent unto you [c]Timotheus, [d]who is my beloved son and faithful in the Lord, who shall bring you [e]into remembrance of my ways which be in Christ, as I [f]teach every where [g]in every church
18 [h]Now some are puffed up, as though I would not come to you
19 [i]But I will come to you shortly, [k]if the Lord will, and will know, not the speech of them which are puffed up, but the power.
20 For [l]the kingdom of God is not in word, but in power.
21 What will ye? [m]shall I come unto you with a rod, or in love, and in the spirit of meekness?

CHAPTER 5

1 The incestuous person 6 is cast to rather of shame than of rejoicing 7 The old leaven is to be purged out 10 Heinous offenders are to be shunned

IT is reported commonly that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not so much as [a]named among the Gentiles, [b]that one should have his [c]father's wife
2 [d]And ye are puffed up, and have not rather [e]mourned, that he that hath done this deed might be taken away from among you
3 [f]For I verily, as absent in body, but present in spirit, have [g]judged already, as though I were present, concerning him that hath so done this deed
4 In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when ye are gathered together and my spirit [h]with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ
5 [i]To deliver such an one unto [k]Satan for the destruction of the flesh that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus
6 [l]Your glorying is not good. Know ye not that [m]a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump?
7 Purge out therefore the old leaven that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened. For even [n]Christ our [o]passover [p]is sacrificed for us
8 Therefore [q]let us keep [r]the feast, [s]not with old leaven, neither [t]with the leaven of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth
9 I wrote unto you in an epistle [u]not to company with fornicators
10 [v]Yet not altogether with the fornicators [w]of this world, or with the covetous or extortioners, or with idolaters, for then must ye needs go [x]out of the world

11 But now I have written unto you not to keep company, [a]if any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such an one [b]no not to eat
12 For what have I to do to judge [c]them also that are without? do not ye judge [d]them that are within?
13 But them that are without God judgeth. Therefore [e]put away from among yourselves that wicked person.

CHAPTER 6

1 Of going to law with the brethren 9 The unrighteous condemned 15 Our bodies are the members of Christ and must not therefore be defiled

DARE any of you, having a matter against another, go to law before the unjust, and not before the saints?
2 Do ye not know that [a]the saints shall judge the world? and if the world shall be judged by you, are ye unworthy to judge the smallest matters?
3 Know ye not that we shall [b]judge angels? how much more things that pertain to this life?
4 [c]If then ye have judgments of things pertaining to this life, set them to judge who are least esteemed in the church
5 I speak to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise man among you? no, not one that shall be able to judge between his brethren?
6 But brother goeth to law with brother, and that before the unbelievers.
7 Now therefore there is utterly a fault among you, because ye go to law one with another. [d]Why do ye not rather take wrong? why do ye not rather suffer yourselves to be defrauded?
8 Nay, ye do wrong, and defraud, [e]and that your brethren.
9 Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: [f]neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind,
10 Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God.
11 And such were [g]some of you: [h]but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God.
12 [i]All things are lawful unto me, but all things are not [k]expedient: all things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the power of any.

13 [a]Meats for the belly, and the belly for meats: but God shall destroy both it and them. Now the body is not for fornication, but [b]for the Lord, [c]and the Lord for the body.
14 And [d]God hath both raised up the Lord, and will also raise up us [f]by his own power.
15 Know ye not that [g]your bodies are the members of Christ? shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them the members of an harlot? God forbid.
16 What? know ye not that he which is joined to an harlot is one body? for [h]two, saith he, shall be one flesh.
17 [i]But he that is joined unto the Lord is one spirit.
18 [k]Flee fornication. Every sin that a man doeth is without the body; but he that committeth fornication sinneth [m]against his own body.
19 What? [n]know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, [p]and ye are not your own?
20 For [q]ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's.

CHAPTER 7

2 He treateth of marriage. 10 The bond thereof ought not lightly to be loosed. 25 Virginity wherefore to be embraced. 35 For what respects we may either marry or abstain from marrying.

NOW concerning the things whereof ye wrote unto me: [t]It is good for a man not to touch a woman.
2 Nevertheless, to avoid fornication, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband.
3 Let the husband render unto the wife due benevolence: and likewise also the wife unto the husband.
4 The wife hath not power of her own body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband hath not power of his own body, but the wife.
5 [u]Defraud ye not one the other, except it be with consent for a time, that ye may give yourselves to fasting and prayer; and come together again, that [w]Satan tempt you not for your incontinency.
6 But I speak this by permission, [y]and not of commandment.
7 For [z]I would that all men were [a]even as I myself. But [b]every man hath his proper gift of God, one after this manner, and another after that.
8 I say therefore to the unmarried and widows, [c]It is good for them if they abide even as I.
9 But [d]if they cannot contain, let them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn.
10 And unto the married I command, yet not I, but the Lord, Let not the wife depart from her husband:
11 But and if she depart, let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to her husband: and let not the husband put away his wife.
12 But to the rest speak I, not the Lord: If any brother hath a wife that believeth not, and she be pleased to dwell with him, let him not put her away.
13 And the woman which hath an husband that believeth not, and if he be pleased to dwell with her, let her not leave him.
14 For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband: else were your children unclean; but now are they holy.
15 But if the unbelieving depart, let him depart. A brother or a sister is not under bondage in such cases: but God hath called us [e]to [f]peace.
16 For what knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt [g]save thy husband? or how knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt save thy wife?
17 But as God hath distributed to every man, as the Lord hath called every one, so let him walk. And [h]so ordain I in all churches.
18 Is any man called being circumcised? let him not become uncircumcised. Is any called in uncircumcision? [i]let him not be circumcised.
19 [j]Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but [k]the keeping of the commandments of God.
20 Let every man abide in the same calling wherein he was called.
21 Art thou called being a servant? care not for it: but if thou mayest be made free, use it rather.
22 For he that is called in the Lord, being a servant, is [l]the Lord's [m]freeman: likewise also he that is called, being free, is Christ's servant.
23 [n]Ye are bought with a price; be not ye the servants of men.
24 Brethren, let every man, wherein he is called, therein abide with God.
25 Now concerning virgins: I have no commandment of the Lord: yet I give my judgment, as one [o]that hath obtained mercy of the Lord [p]to be faithful.
26 I suppose therefore that this is good for the present [q]distress, I say, [r]that it is good for a man so to be.
27 Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? seek not a wife.

28 But and if thou marry, thou hast not sinned, and if a virgin marry she hath not sinned Nevertheless such shall have trouble in the flesh but I spare you

29 But [d]this I say, brethren the time is short it remaineth that both they that have wives be as though they had none,

30 And they that weep as though they wept not, and they that rejoice as though they rejoiced not and they that buy, as though they possessed not,

31 And they that use this world, as not [a]abusing it for [b]the fashion of this world passeth away

32 But I would have you without carefulness [c]He that is unmarried careth for the things [2]that belong to the Lord, how he may please the Lord

33 But he that is married careth for the things that are of the world, how he may please his wife

34 There is difference also between a wife and a virgin The unmarried woman [e]careth for the things of the Lord that she may be holy both in body and in spirit but she that is married careth for the things of the world how she may please her husband

35 And this I speak for your own profit, not that I may cast a snare upon you, but for that which is comely and that ye may attend upon the Lord without distraction

36 But if any man think that he behaveth himself uncomely toward his virgin, if she pass the flower of her age, and need so require, let him do what he will he sinneth not let them marry

37 Nevertheless he that standeth stedfast in his heart having no necessity but hath power over his own will, and hath so decreed in his heart that he will keep his virgin doeth well

38 [f]So then he that giveth her in marriage doeth well, but he that giveth her not in marriage doeth better

39 [g]The wife is bound by the law as long as her husband liveth, but if her husband be dead she is at liberty to be married to whom she will, [3]only in the Lord

40 But she is happier if she so abide [4]after my judgment and I [h]think also that I have the Spirit of God

CHAPTER 8

1 Of meats offered to idols. 8 How we are not approved of God by them. 9 We must take heed to the offence of our brethren.

NOW [a]as touching things offered unto idols, we know that we all have [b]knowledge [c]Knowledge puffeth up but charity edifieth

2 And [d]if any man think that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know

3 But if any man love God, [e]the same is known of him

4 As concerning therefore the eating of those things that are offered in sacrifice unto idols we know that [f]an idol is nothing in the world [g]and that there is none other God but one

5 For though there be that are [h]called gods, whether in heaven or in earth (as there be gods many and lords many,)

6 But [i]to us there is but one God the Father, [k]of whom are all things and we [l]in him, and [m]one Lord Jesus Christ, [n]by whom are all things and we by him

7 Howbeit there is not in every man that knowledge for some [o]with conscience of the idol unto this hour eat it as a thing offered unto an idol, and their conscience being weak is [p]defiled

8 But [q]meat commendeth us not to God for neither, if we eat, [r]are we the better, neither, if we eat not, [s]are we the worse

9 But [t]take heed lest by any means this [u]liberty of your's become [x]a stumblingblock to them that are weak

10 For if any man see thee which hast knowledge sit at meat in the idol's temple, shall not [y]the conscience of him which is weak be [6]emboldened to eat those things which are offered to idols, 11 And [z]through thy knowledge shall the weak brother perish, for whom Christ died?

12 But [a]when ye sin so against the brethren, and wound their weak conscience ye sin against Christ

13 Wherefore, [b]if meat make my brother to offend, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, lest I make my brother to offend

CHAPTER 9

4 [a] Have we not power to eat and to drink?

5 Have we not power to lead about a sister, a [b] wife, as well as other apostles, and as [c] the brethren of the Lord, and [d] Cephas?

6 Or I only and Barnabas, [e] have not we power to forbear working?

7 Who [f] goeth a warfare any time at his own charges? who [g] planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? or who [h] feedeth a flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock?

8 Say I these things as a man? or saith not the law the same also?

9 For it is written in the law of Moses, [i] Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corn. Doth God take care for oxen?

10 Or saith he it altogether for our sakes? For our sakes, no doubt, this is written: that [k] he that ploweth should plow in hope; and that he that thresheth in hope should be partaker of his hope.

11 [l] If we have sown unto you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we shall reap your carnal things?

12 If others be partakers of this power over you, are not we rather? [m] Nevertheless we have not used this power; but suffer all things, [n] lest we should hinder the gospel of Christ.

13 [o] Do ye not know that they which minister about holy things [p] live of the things of the temple? and they which wait at the altar are partakers with the altar?

14 Even so [q] hath the Lord ordained [r] that they which preach the gospel should live of the gospel.

15 But [s] I have used none of these things: neither have I written these things, that it should be so done unto me: for [t] it were better for me to die, than that any man should make my glorying void.

16 For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for [u] necessity is laid upon me; yea, woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel!

17 For if I do this thing willingly, [v] I have a reward: but if against my will, [w] a dispensation of the gospel is committed unto me.

18 What is my reward then? Verily that, [x] when I preach the gospel I may make the gospel of Christ without charge, that I [y] abuse not my power in the gospel.

19 For though I be [z] free from all men, yet have [a] I made myself servant unto all, [b] that I might gain the more.

20 And [c] unto the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain the Jews; to them that are under the law as under the law, that I might gain them that are under the law;

21 [d] To [e] them that are without law, as without law, (being not without law to God, but under the law to Christ,) that I might gain them that are without law.

22 [f] To the weak became I as weak, that I might gain the weak: [g] I am made all things to all men, [h] that I might by all means save some.

23 And this I do for the gospel's sake, that I might be partaker thereof with you.

24 Know ye not that they which run in a race run all, but one receiveth the prize? [i] So run, that ye may obtain.

25 And every man that [j] striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown; but we [k] an incorruptible.

26 I therefore so run, [l] not as uncertainly; so fight I, not as one that beateth the air.

27 [m] But I keep under my body, and [n] bring it into subjection, lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be a castaway.

CHAPTER 10.

1 The sacraments of the Jews 6 are types of ours, 7 and their punishments 11 examples for us

MOREOVER, brethren, I would not that ye should be ignorant, how that all our fathers were under [a] the cloud, and all passed through [b] the sea;

2 And were all baptized unto Moses in the cloud and in the sea,

3 And did all eat the same [c] spiritual meat;

4 And did all drink the same [c] spiritual drink: for they drank of that spiritual Rock that [d] followed them: and that Rock was Christ.

5 But with many of them God was not well pleased: for they [e] were overthrown in the wilderness.

6 Now these things were [f] our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as [g] they also lusted.

7 [h] Neither be ye idolaters, as were some of them; as it is written, [i] The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play.

8 [k] Neither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed, and [l] fell in one day three and twenty thousand.

9 Neither let us tempt Christ, as [m] some of them also tempted, and [n] were destroyed of serpents.

10 Neither murmur ye, as [o] some of them also murmured, and [p] were destroyed of [q] the destroyer.

11 Now all these things happened unto them for [r] ensamples: and [s] they are written for our admonition, [a] upon whom the ends of the world are come.

12 Wherefore [b] let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall.

13 There hath no temptation taken you but such as is [2] common to man: but [c] God is faithful, [f] who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also [g] make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it.

14 Wherefore, my dearly beloved, [m] flee from idolatry.

15 I speak as to [1] wise men; judge ye what I say.

16 [n] The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? [o] The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ?

17 For [p] we being many are one bread, and one body: for we are all partakers of that one bread.

18 Behold [q] Israel [r] after the flesh: [s] are not they which eat of the sacrifices partakers of the altar?

19 What say I then? [t] that the idol is any thing, or that which is offered in sacrifice to idols is any thing?

20 But I say that the things which the Gentiles [f] sacrifice, they sacrifice to devils, and not to God: and I would not that ye should have fellowship with devils.

21 [h] Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and [k] the cup of devils: ye cannot be partakers of the Lord's table, and of the table of devils.

22 Do we [l] provoke the Lord to jealousy? [u] are we stronger than he?

23 [v] All things are lawful for me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but all things edify not.

24 [w] Let no man seek his own, but every man another's [x] wealth.

25 [y] Whatsoever is sold in the shambles, that eat, asking no question for conscience sake:

26 For [z] the earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof.

27 If any of them that believe not bid you to a feast, and ye be disposed to go, [a] whatsoever is set before you, eat, asking no question for conscience sake.

28 But if any man say unto you, This is offered in sacrifice unto idols, eat not [b] for his sake that shewed it, and for conscience sake: for [c] the earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof:

29 Conscience, I say, not thine own, but of the other: for [d] why is my liberty judged of another man's conscience?

32 [g] Give none offence, neither to the Jews, nor to the [3] Gentiles, nor to [h] the church of God:

33 Even as [k] I please all men in all things, [l] not seeking mine own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved.

CHAPTER 11.

1 Of covering the head in prayer 23 Of the Lord's supper.

BE [p] ye followers of me, even as I also am of Christ.

2 Now I praise you, brethren, [r] that ye remember me in all things, and [s] keep the [4] ordinances, as I delivered them to you.

3 But I would have you know, that [y] the head of every man is Christ; and [a] the head of the woman is the man; and [b] the head of Christ is God.

4 Every man praying or [d] prophesying, having his head covered, dishonoureth his head.

5 But [e] every woman that prayeth or prophesieth with her head uncovered dishonoureth her head: for that is even all one as if she were [g] shaven.

6 For if the woman be not covered, let her also be shorn: but if it be [5] a shame for a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be covered.

7 For a man indeed ought not to cover his head, forasmuch as [m] he is the image and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man.

8 For [p] the man is not of the woman; but the woman of the man.

9 [q] Neither was the man created for the woman, but the woman for the man.

10 For this cause ought the woman [t] to have [6] power on her head [u] because of the angels.

11 Nevertheless [y] neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man, in the Lord.

12 For as the woman is of the man, even so is the man also by the woman; [a] but all things of God.

13 Judge in yourselves: is it comely that a woman pray unto God uncovered?

14 Doth not even nature itself teach you, that, if a man have long hair, it is a shame unto him?

15 But if a woman have long hair, it is a glory to her: for her hair is given her for a [6] covering.

16 But [e] if any man seem to be contentious, we have no such custom, [a]neither the churches of God

17 Now in this that I declare unto you I praise you not, that ye come together not for the better but for the worse

18 For first of all, when ye come together in the church, [b]I hear that there be [1]divisions among you; and I partly believe it

19 For [c]there must be also [2]heresies among you, [d]that they which are approved may be made manifest among you

20 When ye come together therefore into one place, [4]this is not to eat the Lord's supper

21 For in eating every one taketh before other his own supper and one is hungry, and [e]another is drunken

22 What? have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? or despise ye [f]the church of God, and [g]shame [h]them that have not? What shall I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise you not

23 For [i]I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, [k]That the Lord Jesus the same night in which he was betrayed took bread

24 And when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat: this is my body, which is broken for you: this do [7]in remembrance of me

25 After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me.

26 For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, [8]ye do shew the Lord's death [h]till he come

27 [l]Wherefore whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord

28 But [m]let a man examine himself and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup 29 For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh [1]damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's body.

30 For this cause many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep

31 For [j]if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged

32 But when we are judged, [7]we are chastened of the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world

33 Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eat, tarry one for another 34 And if any man hunger, let him eat at home; that ye come not together unto [k]condemnation. And the rest [l]will I set in order when [m]I come.

CHAPTER 12

1 Spiritual gifts 4 are divers 7 yet all to profit withal. 8 Their great diversity 27 Of Christ's body

NOW [b]concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I would not have you ignorant

2 Ye know [d]that ye were Gentiles, carried away unto these [9]dumb idols, even as ye were led

3 Wherefore I give you to understand, [k]that no man speaking by the Spirit of God calleth Jesus [s]accursed and [t]that no man can say that Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Ghost

4 Now [k]there are diversities of gifts, but [t]the same Spirit

5 [1]And there are differences of [5]administrations, but the same Lord

6 And there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God [o]which worketh all in all.

7 [r]But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal.

8 For to one is given by the Spirit [t]the word of wisdom; to another [u]the word of knowledge by the same Spirit;

9 [y]To another faith by the same Spirit; to another [z]the gifts of healing by the same Spirit;

10 [a]To another the working of miracles; to another [b]prophecy; [c]to another discerning of spirits; to another [d]divers kinds of tongues; to another the interpretation of tongues

11 But all these worketh that one and the selfsame Spirit, [t]dividing to every man severally [f]as he will

12 For [f]as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: [k]so also is Christ

13 For [t]by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, [m]whether we be Jews or [9]Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and [o]have been all made to drink into one Spirit

14 For the body is not one member, but many

15 If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

16 And if the ear shall say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

17 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?

18 But now hath [r]God set the members every one of them in the body, [s]as it hath pleased him

19 And if they were all one member, where were the body?

20 But now are they many members, yet but one body.

21 And the eye cannot say unto the hand, I have no need of thee: nor again the head to the feet, I have no need of you.

22 Nay, much more those members of the body, which seem to be more feeble, are necessary:

23 And those members of the body, which we think to be less honourable upon these we [1] bestow more abundant honour; and our uncomely parts have more abundant comeliness.

24 For our comely parts have no need: but God hath tempered the body together, having given more abundant honour to that part which lacked:

25 That there should be no [2] schism in the body; but that the members should have the same care one for another.

26 And whether one member suffer, all the members suffer with it; or one member be honoured, all the members rejoice with it.

27 Now [e] ye are the body of Christ, and [f] members in particular.

28 And [g] God hath set some in the church, first [h] apostles, secondarily [i] prophets, thirdly teachers, after that [k] miracles, then [l] gifts of healings, [m] helps, [n] governments, [o] diversities of tongues.

29 Are all apostles? are all prophets? are all teachers? are all [7] workers of miracles?

30 Have all the gifts of healing? do all speak with tongues? do all interpret?

31 But [r] covet earnestly the best gifts: and yet shew I unto you a more excellent way.

CHAPTER 13

1 All gifts without charity are nothing worth. 4 The praises thereof.

THOUGH I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal.

2 And though I have the gift of [s] prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all [t] faith, [u] so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing.

3 And [x] though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing.

4 [y] Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity [z] vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up,

5 Doth not behave itself unseemly, [a] seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil;

6 [b] Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but [c] rejoiceth [2] in the truth;

8 Charity never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away.

9 [b] For we know in part, and we prophesy in part.

10 But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away.

11 When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child: [1] but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

12 For [c] now we see through a glass, [d] darkly; but then [d] face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known.

13 And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity.

CHAPTER 14

1 Prophecy is commended. 2 and preferred before speaking with tongues &c.

FOLLOW after charity, and [e] desire spiritual gifts, [f] but rather that ye may prophesy.

2 For he that [g] speaketh in an unknown tongue speaketh not unto men, but unto God: for no man [b] understandeth him, howbeit in the spirit he speaketh mysteries.

3 But he that prophesieth speaketh unto men to edification, and exhortation, and comfort.

4 He that speaketh in an unknown tongue edifieth himself; but he that prophesieth edifieth the church.

5 I would that ye all spake with tongues, but rather that ye prophesied: for greater is he that prophesieth than he that speaketh with tongues, except he interpret, that the church may receive edifying.

6 Now, brethren, if I come unto you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, except I shall speak to you either by [c] revelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by doctrine?

7 And even things without life giving sound, whether pipe or harp, except they give a distinction in the [3] sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped?

8 For if the trumpet give an uncertain sound, who shall prepare himself to the battle?

9 So likewise ye, except ye utter by the tongue words [1] easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? for ye shall speak into the air.

10 There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and none of them is without signification.
11 Therefore if I know not the meaning of the voice, I shall be unto him that speaketh a barbarian, and he that speaketh shall be a barbarian unto me.
12 Even so ye, forasmuch as ye are zealous [1]of spiritual gifts, seek that ye may excel to the edifying of the church.
13 Wherefore let him that speaketh in an unknown tongue pray that he may interpret.
14 For if I pray in an unknown tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitful.
15 What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also: [c]I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing [f]with the understanding also.
16 Else when thou shalt bless with the spirit, how shall he that occupieth the room of the unlearned say Amen [g]at thy giving of thanks, seeing he understandeth not what thou sayest?
17 For thou verily givest thanks well, but the other is not edified.
18 I thank my God, I speak with tongues more than ye all:
19 Yet in the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, that by my voice I might teach others also, than ten thousand words in an unknown tongue.
20 Brethren, [n]be not children in understanding: howbeit in malice [i]be ye children, but in understanding be [j]men.
21 [k]In the law it is [r]written, With men of other tongues and other lips will I speak unto this people; and yet for all that will they not hear me, saith the Lord.
22 Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not to them that believe, but to them that believe not: but prophesying serveth not for them that believe not, but for them which believe.
23 If therefore the whole church be come together into one place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in those that are unlearned, or unbelievers, [z]will they not say that ye are mad?
24 But if all prophesy, and there come in one that believeth not, or one unlearned, he is convinced of all, he is judged of all:
25 And thus are the secrets of his heart made manifest; and so falling down on his face he will worship God, and report that God is in you of a truth.

26 How is it then, brethren? when ye come together, every one of you hath a psalm, [a]hath a doctrine, hath a tongue, hath a revelation, hath an interpretation. [b]Let all things be done unto edifying.
27 If any man speak in an unknown tongue, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and that by course, and let one interpret.
28 But if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church; and let him speak to himself, and to God.
29 Let the prophets speak two or three, and [c]let the other judge.
30 If any thing be revealed to another that sitteth by, [d]let the first hold his peace.
31 For ye may all prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be comforted.
32 And [g]the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets.
33 For God is not the author of [2]confusion, but of peace, [h]as in all churches of the saints.
34 [i]Let your women keep silence in the churches: for it is not permitted unto them to speak, but [l]they are commanded to be under obedience, as also saith the [m]law.
35 And if they will learn any thing, let them ask their husbands at home: for it is a shame for women to speak in the church.
36 What? came the word of God out from you? or came it unto you only?
37 [o]If any man think himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him acknowledge that the things that I write unto you are the commandments of the Lord.
38 But if any man be ignorant, let him be ignorant.
39 Wherefore, brethren, [t]covet to prophesy, and forbid not to speak with tongues.
40 [u]Let all things be done decently and in order.

CHAPTER 15.

3 By Christ's resurrection 12 he proveth the necessity of our resurrection. 35 The manner thereof.

MOREOVER, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel [a]which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and [y]wherein ye stand;
2 By which also ye are saved, if ye [z]keep in memory [b]what I preached unto you, unless [a]ye have believed in vain.
3 For [b]I delivered unto you first of all that [c]which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins [d]according to the scriptures;
4 And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day [a]according to the scriptures:

5 [c]And that he was seen of Cephas, then [c]of the twelve:

6 After that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once: of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep.

7 After that, he was seen of James, then [h]of all the apostles.

8 [i]And last of all he was seen of me also, as of [j]one born out of due time.

9 For I am [k]the least of the apostles, that am not meet to be called an apostle, because [l]I persecuted the church of God.

10 But [m]by the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain; but [p]I laboured more abundantly than they all: [r]yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me.

11 Therefore whether it were I or they, so we preach, and so ye believed.

12 Now if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead?

13 But if there be no resurrection of the dead, [s]then is Christ not risen:

14 And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain.

15 Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God; because [c]we have testified of God that he raised up Christ whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead rise not.

16 For if the dead rise not, then is not Christ raised:

17 And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vain; [e]ye are yet in your sins.

18 Then they also which are fallen asleep in Christ are perished.

19 [f]If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable.

20 But now [g]is Christ risen from the dead, and become [h]the firstfruits of them that slept.

21 For [i]since by man came death, [k]by man came also the resurrection of the dead.

22 For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

23 But [l]every man in his own order: Christ the firstfruits; afterward they that are Christ's at his coming.

24 Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up [o]the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule and all authority and power.

25 For he must reign, [p]till he hath put all enemies under his feet.

26 [b]The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death.

27 For he [q]hath put all things under his feet. But when he saith all things are put under him, it is manifest that he is excepted, which did put all things under him.

28 [r]And when all things shall be subdued unto him, then [s]shall the Son also himself be subject unto him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all.

29 Else what shall they do which are baptized for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? why are they then baptized for the dead?

30 And [t]why stand we in jeopardy every hour?

31 I protest by [u]your[2] rejoicing which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, [x]I die daily.

32 If [y]after the manner of men [z]I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantageth it me, if the dead rise not? [a]let us eat and drink; for to morrow we die.

33 Be not deceived: [b]evil communications corrupt good manners.

34 [c]Awake to righteousness, and sin not; [2]for some have not the knowledge of God: [d]I speak this to your shame.

35 But some man will say, [e]How are the dead raised up? and with what body do they come?

36 Thou fool, [f]that which thou sowest is not quickened, except it die

37 And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other grain:

38 But God giveth it a body as it hath pleased him, and to every seed his own body.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds.

40 There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another.

41 There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars: for one star differeth from another star in glory.

42 [m]So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption, it is raised in incorruption:

43 [n]It is sown in dishonour; it is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power:

44 It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and [o]there is a spiritual body.

45 And so it is written, The first man

Adam [a] was made a living soul, [b] the last Adam was made [c] a quickening spirit

46 Howbeit that was not first which is spiritual but that which is natural, and afterward that which is spiritual

47 [d] The first man is of the earth, [e] earthy the second man is the Lord [f] from heaven

48 As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy [g] and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly

49 And [m] as we have borne the image of the earthy, [n] we shall also bear the image of the heavenly

50 Now this I say, brethren that [g] flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God, neither doth corruption inherit incorruption

51 Behold, I shew you a mystery, [i] We shall not all sleep, [k] but we shall all be changed,

52 In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed

53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and [l] this mortal must put on immortality

54 So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, [m] Death is swallowed up in victory

55 [n] O death, where is thy sting? O [o] grave, where is thy victory?

56 The sting of death is sin, and [m] the strength of sin is the law

57 [p] But thanks be to God, which giveth us [q] the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ

58 [r] Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know [s] that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

CHAPTER 16

The duty of relieving the brethren &c

NOW concerning [t] the collection for the saints as I have given order to the churches of Galatia, even so do ye

2 [u] Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him that there be no gatherings when I come

3 And when I come, [v] whomsoever ye shall approve by your letters, them will I send to bring your [w] liberality unto Jerusalem

4 [x] And if it be meet that I go also they shall go with me

5 Now I will come unto you, [h] when I shall pass through Macedonia. for I do pass through Macedonia

6 And it may be that I will abide, yea, and winter with you, that ye may [d] bring me on my journey whithersoever I go

7 For I will not see you now by the way but I trust to tarry a while with you, [h] if the Lord permit

8 But I will tarry at Ephesus until Pentecost

9 For [k] a great door and effectual is opened unto me, and [l] there are many adversaries

10 Now [y] if Timotheus come, see that he may be with you without fear for [p] he worketh the work of the Lord, as I also do

11 [z] Let no man therefore despise him but conduct him forth [a] in peace, that he may come unto me for I look for him with the brethren

12 As touching our brother [r] Apollos, I greatly desired him to come unto you with the brethren but his will was not at all to come at this time, but he will come when he shall have convenient time

13 [s] Watch ye, [a] stand fast in the faith quit you like men, [c] be strong

14 [t] Let all your things be done with charity

15 I beseech you, brethren, (ye know [e] the house of Stephanas, that it is [f] the firstfruits of Achaia, and that they have addicted themselves to [h] the ministry of the saints,)

16 [i] That ye submit yourselves unto such, and to every one that helpeth with us, and [l] laboureth

17 I am glad of the coming of Stephanas and Fortunatus and Achaicus [p] for that which was lacking on your part they have supplied

18 [r] For they have refreshed my spirit and your's therefore [s] acknowledge ye them that are such

19 The churches of Asia salute you Aquila and Priscilla salute you much [m] in the Lord [t] with the church that is in their house

20 All the brethren greet you [u] Greet ye one another with an holy kiss

21 [v] The salutation of me Paul with mine own hand

22 If any man [b] love not the Lord Jesus Christ, [c] let him be Anathema [d] Maran atha

23 [f] The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you

24 My love be with you all in Christ Jesus Amen

¶ The first epistle to the Corinthians was written from Philippi by Stephanas and Fortunatus, and Achaicus and Timotheus.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE CORINTHIANS.

CHAPTER 1.

3 The apostle encourageth them against troubles 12 Of his sincere manner of preaching

PAUL, [c]an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, unto the church of God which is at Corinth, [c]with all the saints which are in all Achaia:

2 [d]Grace be to you and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 [e]Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort;

4 Who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God.

5 For as [m]the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our consolation also aboundeth by Christ.

6 And whether we be afflicted, [o]it is for your consolation and salvation, which [3]is effectual in the enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer: or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation and salvation.

7 And our hope of you is stedfast, knowing, that [s]as ye are partakers of the sufferings, so shall ye be also of the consolation.

8 For we would not, brethren, have you ignorant of [y]our trouble which came to us in Asia, that we were pressed out of measure, above strength, insomuch that we despaired even of life:

9 But we had the [z]sentence of death in ourselves, that we should [b]not trust in ourselves, but in God which raiseth the dead:

10 [c]Who delivered us from so great a death, and doth deliver: in whom we trust that he will yet deliver us;

11 Ye also [e]helping together by prayer for us, that [f]for the gift bestowed upon us by the means of many persons thanks may be given by many on our behalf.

12 For our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and [g]godly sincerity, [k]not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly to you-ward.

13 For we write none other things unto you, than what ye read or acknowledge; and I trust ye shall acknowledge even to the end;

14 As also ye have acknowledged us in part, [a]that we are your rejoicing, even as [b]ye also are our's in the day of the Lord Jesus.

15 And in this confidence [d]I was minded to come unto you before, that ye might have [f]a second [4]benefit;

16 And to pass by you into Macedonia, and [h]to come again out of Macedonia unto you, and of you to be brought on my way toward Judæa.

17 When I therefore was thus minded, did I use lightness? or the things that I purpose, do I purpose [k]according to the flesh, that with me there should be yea yea, and nay nay?

18 But as God is true, our [2]word toward you was not yea and nay.

19 For [l]the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us, even by me and Silvanus and Timotheus, was not yea and nay, [n]but in him was yea.

20 [p]For all the promises of God in him are yea, and in him Amen, unto the glory of God by us

21 Now he which stablisheth us with you in Christ, and [q]hath anointed us, is God;

22 Who [r]hath also sealed us, and [t]given the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.

23 Moreover [u]I call God for a record upon my soul, [x]that to spare you I came not as yet unto Corinth.

24 Not for [z]that we have dominion over your faith, but are helpers of your joy: for [a]by faith ye stand.

CHAPTER 2.

1 Having showed the reason why he came not to them, 6 he requireth them to forgive the excommunicated person. 14 The happy success of his preaching

BUT I determined this with myself, [d]that I would not come again to you in heaviness.

2 For if I make you sorry, who is he then that maketh me glad, but the same which is made sorry by me?

3 And I wrote this same unto you, lest, when I came, [g]I should have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice; [h]having confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all.

4 For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote unto you with many tears; [i]not that ye should be grieved, but that ye might know the love which I have more abundantly unto you.

5 But [m]if any have caused grief, he hath not "grieved me, but in part: that I may not overcharge you all.

6 Sufficient to such a man is this [1]punishment, which was inflicted [f]of many.

7 [h]So that contrariwise ye ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, lest perhaps such a one should be swallowed up with overmuch sorrow.

8 Wherefore I beseech you that ye would confirm your love toward him.

9 For to this end also did I write, that I might know the proof of you, whether ye be "obedient in all things.

10 To whom ye forgive any thing, I forgive also: for if I forgave any thing, to whom I forgave it, for your sakes forgave I it [3]in the person of Christ;

11 Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices.

12 Furthermore, [p]when I came to Troas to preach Christ's gospel, and [q]a door was opened unto me of the Lord, 13 [r]I had no rest in my spirit, because I found not Titus my brother: but taking my leave of them, I went from thence into Macedonia.

14 Now thanks be unto God, which always [s]causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest [t]the savour of his knowledge by us in every place.

15 For we are unto God a sweet savour of Christ, [x]in them that are saved, and [a]in them that perish:

16 [b]To the one we are the savour of death unto death; and to the other the savour of life unto life. And [c]who is sufficient for these things?

17 For we are not as many, which [d]corrupt [6]the word of God: but as [h]of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we [6]in Christ.

CHAPTER 3

1 He sheweth the faith and graces of the Corinthians to be a sufficient commendation of his ministry
6 A comparison of the law and the gospel

DO [m]we begin again to commend ourselves? or need we, as some others, "epistles of commendation to you, or letters of commendation from you?

2 [p]Ye are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read of all men:

3 Forasmuch as ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ [r]ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not "in tables of stone, but [x]in fleshy tables of the heart.

4 And such trust have we through Christ to God ward:

5 [a]Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves; but [c]our sufficiency is of God;

6 Who also hath made us able [b]ministers of [c]the new testament; not "of the letter, but of the spirit: for [e]the letter killeth, [g]but the spirit [2]giveth life.

7 But if [i]the ministration of death, [k]written and engraven in stones, was glorious, [l]so that the children of Israel could not stedfastly behold the face of Moses for the glory of his countenance; which glory was to be done away:

8 How shall not [n]the ministration of the spirit be rather glorious?

9 For if the ministration of condemnation be glory, much more doth the ministration [o]of righteousness exceed in glory.

10 For even that which was made glorious had no glory in this respect, by reason of the glory that excelleth.

11 For if that which is done away was glorious, much more that which remaineth is glorious.

12 Seeing then that we have such hope, [s]we use great [4]plainness of speech:

13 And not as Moses, [t]which put a vail over his face, that the children of Israel could not stedfastly look to "the end of that which is abolished:

14 But [x]their minds were blinded: for until this day remaineth the same vail untaken away in the reading of the old testament; which vail is done away in Christ.

15 But even unto this day, when Moses is read, the vail is upon their heart.

16 Nevertheless [c]when it shall turn to the Lord, [e]the vail shall be taken away.

17 Now [f]the Lord is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.

18 But we all, with open face beholding [5]as in a glass [k]the glory of the Lord, [t]are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as [7]by the Spirit of the Lord.

CHAPTER 4.

1 He declareth how he hath used all sincerity and fruthfulness in preaching the gospel
7 The troubles and persecutions which he daily endured

THEREFORE seeing we have [o]this ministry, [q]as we have received mercy, we faint not;

2 But have renounced the hidden things of [8]dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, [s]nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but [t]by manifestation of the truth [y]commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God.

3 But if our gospel be hid, [x]it is hid to them that are lost:

4 In whom [b]the god of this world [d]hath blinded the minds of them which believe not lest [a]the light of the glorious gospel of Christ [b]who is the image of God, should shine unto them

5 [d]For we preach not ourselves but Christ Jesus the Lord, and [e]ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake

6 For God, [f]who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath [h]shined in our hearts, to give [i]the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ

7 But we have this treasure in [m]earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us

8 We are [o]troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but [2]not in despair,

9 Persecuted, but not forsaken, [q]cast down but not destroyed,

10 [r]Always bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, [s]that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body

11 For we which live [u]are always delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh

12 So then [x]death worketh in us, but life in you

13 We having [y]the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, [z]I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak,

14 Knowing that [a]he which raised up the Lord Jesus shall raise up us also by Jesus, and shall present us with you

15 For [b]all things are for your sakes, that [c]the abundant grace might through the thanksgiving of many redound to the glory of God

16 For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man perish, yet [d]the inward man is renewed day by day

17 For [e]our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory;

18 [f]While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal, but the things which are not seen are eternal.

CHAPTER 5

1 Paul in his assured hope of immortal glory, 9 laboureth to keep a good conscience, 18 and by his ministry to reconcile others also in Christ to God.

FOR we know that if [z]our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have [a]a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

2 For in this [a]we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed upon with our house which is from heaven

3 If so be that [c]being clothed we shall not be found naked

4 For we that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened: not for that we would be unclothed, but [g]clothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life

5 Now [k]he that hath wrought us for the selfsame thing is God, who also [l]hath given unto us the earnest of the Spirit

6 Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord:

7 (For [p]we walk by faith, not by sight:)

8 We are confident, I say, and [r]willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.

9 Wherefore we [3]labour, that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him.

10 [z]For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, [y]that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad.

11 Knowing therefore [a]the terror of the Lord we persuade men, but [c]we are made manifest unto God; and I trust also are made manifest in your consciences.

12 For [f]we commend not ourselves again unto you, but give you occasion [f]to glory on our behalf, that ye may have somewhat to answer them which glory [4]in appearance, and not in heart.

13 For [k]whether we be beside ourselves, it is to God: or whether we be sober, it is for your cause.

14 For the love of Christ constraineth us, because we thus judge, that if one died for all, then were all dead:

15 And that he died for all, [o]that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again.

16 [q]Wherefore henceforth know we no man after the flesh: yea, though we have known Christ after the flesh, [r]yet now henceforth know we him no more.

17 Therefore if any man [t]be in Christ, [5]he is [t]a new creature: [u]old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.

18 And all things are of God, [y]who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation;

19 To wit, that [z]God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath [1]committed unto us the word of reconciliation

20 Now then we are [2]ambassadors for Christ, as [a]though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God.

21 For [b]he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made [c]the righteousness of God in him.

CHAPTER 6.

1 Paul's sufferings in the ministry. 14 He exhorteth them to avoid all fellowship as being themselves temples of the living God.

WE then, as [d]workers together with him, [e]beseech you also [f]that ye receive not the grace of God in vain.

2 (For he saith, [g]I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee: behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation.)

3 [h]Giving no offence in any thing, that the ministry be not blamed:

4 But in all things [2]approving ourselves [i]as the ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses,

5 [k]In stripes, in imprisonments, [3]in tumults, in labours, in watchings, in fastings;

6 By pureness, by knowledge, by longsuffering, by kindness, by the Holy Ghost, by love unfeigned,

7 [l]By the word of truth, by [c]the power of God, by [c]the armour of righteousness on the right hand and on the left,

8 By honour and dishonour, by evil report and good report: as deceivers, and yet true;

9 As unknown, and [m]yet well known; [n]as dying, and, behold, we live; [f]as chastened, and not killed;

10 As sorrowful, yet alway rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

11 O ye Corinthians, our mouth is open unto you, [o]our heart is enlarged.

12 Ye are not straitened in us, but [p]ye are straitened in your own bowels.

13 Now for a recompence in the same, (I speak as unto my children,) be ye also enlarged.

14 [q]Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for [r]what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness?

15 And what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel?

18 [k]And will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty.

CHAPTER 7.

1 He exhorteth them to purity of life. 3 He declareth what comfort he took in his afflictions by reason of their godly sorrow.

HAVING [m]therefore these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

2 Receive us; we have wronged no man, we have corrupted no man, [o]we have defrauded no man.

3 I speak not this to condemn you: for [q]I have said before, that ye are in our hearts to die and live with you.

4 [r]Great is my boldness of speech toward you, [t]great is my glorying of you: [x]I am filled with comfort, I am exceeding joyful in all our tribulation.

5 For, [y]when we were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but [z]we were troubled on every side; [a]without were fightings, within were fears.

6 Nevertheless [d]God, that comforteth those that are cast down, comforted us by [f]the coming of Titus;

7 And not by his coming only, but by the consolation wherewith he was comforted in you, when he told us your earnest desire, your mourning, your fervent mind toward me; so that I rejoiced the more.

8 For though I made you sorry with a letter, I do not repent, [k]though I did repent: for I perceive that the same epistle hath made you sorry, though it were but for a season.

9 Now I rejoice, not that ye were made sorry, but that ye sorrowed to repentance: for ye were made sorry [4]after a godly manner, that ye might receive damage by us in nothing.

10 For [c]godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of: [g]but the sorrow of the world worketh death.

11 For behold this selfsame thing, that ye sorrowed after a godly sort, what carefulness it wrought in you, yea, what clearing of yourselves, yea, what indignation, yea, what fear, yea, what vehement desire, yea, what zeal, yea, what revenge! In all things ye have approved yourselves to be clear in this matter.

12 Wherefore, though I wrote unto you, I did it not for his cause that had done the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered wrong, [d]but that our care for you in the sight of God might appear unto you.

13 Therefore we were comforted in your comfort: yea, and exceedingly the more joyed we for the joy of Titus, because his spirit [f]was refreshed by you all.

14 For if I have boasted any thing to him of you, I am not ashamed; but as we spake all things to you in truth, even so our boasting, which I made before Titus, is found a truth.

15 And his [g]inward affection is more abundant toward you, whilst he remembereth [h]the obedience of you all, how with fear and trembling ye received him.

16 I rejoice therefore that [i]I have confidence in you in all things.

CHAPTER 8.

1 He stirreth them up to a liberal contribution for the poor saints at Jerusalem by the example of the Macedonians 9 and by the example of Christ 16 He commendeth to the saints Titus and others.

MOREOVER brethren, we do you to wit of the grace of God bestowed on the churches of Macedonia;

2 How that in a great trial of affliction the abundance of their joy and [o]their deep poverty abounded unto the riches of their [q]liberality.

3 For to their power, I bear record, yea, and beyond their power they were willing of themselves;

4 Praying us with much intreaty that we would receive the gift and take upon us [r]the fellowship of the ministering to the saints.

5 And this they did, not as we hoped, but first gave their own selves to the Lord, and unto us by the will of God.

6 Insomuch that [s]we desired Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also finish in you the same [t]grace also.

7 Therefore as [u]ye abound in every thing, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love to us, see [w]that ye abound in this grace also.

8 [x]I speak not by commandment, but by occasion of the forwardness of others and to prove the sincerity of your love.

9 For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, [a]that though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich.

10 And herein [a]I give my advice for [b]this is expedient for you, who have begun before, not only to do, but also to be [c]forward[1] a year ago.

11 Now therefore perform the doing of it, that as there was a readiness to will, so there may be a performance also out of that which ye have.

12 For [e]if there be first a willing mind, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not.

13 For I mean not that other men be eased, and ye burdened;

14 But by an equality, that now at this time your abundance may be a supply for their want, that their abundance also may be a supply for your want: that there may be equality:

15 As it is written, [f]He that had gathered much had nothing over; and he that had gathered little had no lack.

16 But thanks be to God, which put the same earnest care into the heart of Titus for you.

17 For indeed he accepted [k]the exhortation; but being more forward, of his own accord he went unto you.

18 And we have sent with him [l]the brother whose praise is in the gospel throughout all the churches;

19 And not that only, but who was also [m]chosen of the churches to travel with us with this [3]grace which is administered by us [n]to the glory of the same Lord, and declaration of your ready mind:

20 Avoiding this, that no man should blame us in this abundance which is administered by us:

21 [p]Providing for honest things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men.

22 And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have oftentimes proved diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, upon the great confidence which [5]I have in you.

23 Whether any do enquire of Titus, he is my partner and fellowhelper concerning you: or our brethren be enquired of, they are [t]the messengers of the churches, and the glory of Christ.

24 Wherefore shew ye to them, and before the churches the proof of your love, and of our [z]boasting on your behalf.

CHAPTER 9.

1 The reason why he sent Titus and the brethren beforehand. 6 He stirreth them up to a bountiful alms as being but a kind of sowing of seed.

FOR as touching [z]the ministering to the saints, it is superfluous for me to write to you:

2 For I know [b]the forwardness of your mind, [c]for which I boast of you to them of Macedonia, that [a]Achaia was ready a year ago; and your zeal hath provoked very many.

3 [c]Yet have I sent the brethren, lest our boasting of you should be in vain in this behalf, that, as I said, ye may be ready:

4 Lest haply if they of Macedonia come with me, and find you unprepared, we (that we say not, ye) should be ashamed in this same confident boasting.

5 Therefore I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren, that they would go before unto you, and make up before hand your [4]bounty, [b]whereof ye had notice before, that the same might be ready, as a matter of bounty, and not as of covetousness.

6 [f]But this I say, He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully.

7 Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give, [g]not grudgingly, or of necessity: for [g]God loveth a cheerful giver.

8 [h]And God is able to make all grace abound toward you; that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work.

9 (As it is written, [i]He hath dispersed abroad; he hath given to the poor: his righteousness remaineth for ever.

10 Now he that [j]ministereth seed to the sower both minister bread for your food, and multiply your seed sown, and increase the fruits of your [k]righteousness;)

11 Being enriched in every thing to all [7g]bountifulness, [b]which causeth through us thanksgiving to God.

12 For the administration of this service not only [d]supplieth the want of the saints, but is abundant also by many thanksgivings unto God;

13 Whiles by the experiment of this ministration they [l]glorify God for your professed subjection unto the gospel of Christ, and for your liberal [g]distribution unto them, and unto all men;

14 And by their prayer for you, which long after you for the exceeding [h]grace of God in you.

15 Thanks be unto God [x]for his unspeakable gift.

CHAPTER 10

2 But I beseech you, [b]that I may not be bold when I am present with that confidence, wherewith I think to be bold against some, which [1]think of us as if we walked according to the flesh.

3 For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh:

4 ([d]For the weapons [e]of our warfare are not carnal, but [f]mighty [2]through God [g]to the pulling down of strong holds;)

5 [h]Casting down [3]imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ;

6 [i]And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when [k]your obedience is fulfilled.

7 [m]Do ye look on things after the outward appearance? [n]If any man trust to himself that he is Christ's, let him of himself think this again, that, as he is Christ's, even so are [o]we Christ's.

8 For though I should boast somewhat more [p]of our authority, which the Lord hath given us for edification, and not for your destruction, [q]I should not be ashamed:

9 That I may not seem as if I would terrify you by letters.

10 For his letters, [s]say they, are weighty and powerful; but [t]his bodily presence is weak, and his [u]speech contemptible.

11 Let such an one think this, that, such as we are in word by letters when we are absent, such will we be also in deed when we are present.

12 [c]For we dare not make ourselves of the number, or compare ourselves with some that commend themselves: but they measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, [9]are not wise.

13 [a]But we will not boast of things without our measure, but according to the measure of the [1]rule which God hath distributed to us, a measure to reach even unto you.

14 For we stretch not ourselves beyond our measure, as though we reached not unto you: [f]for we are come as far as to you also in preaching the gospel of Christ:

15 Not boasting of things without our measure, that is, [1]of other men's labours; but having hope, when your faith is increased, that we shall be [2]enlarged by you according to our rule abundantly, 16 To preach the gospel in the regions beyond you, and not to boast in another man's [4]line of things made ready to our hand.

17 [a]But he that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

18 For [b]not he that commendeth himself is approved, but [c]whom the Lord commendeth.

CHAPTER 11.

1 Paul entereth into a forced commendation of himself. 7 And of his preaching. 23 He recounteth his sufferings for the gospel

WOULD to God ye could bear with me a little in [f]my folly: and indeed [g]bear with me.

2 For I am [h]jealous over you with godly jealousy: for [i]I have espoused you to one husband, [j]that I may present you [k]as a chaste virgin to Christ.

3 But I fear, lest by any means, as [l]the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds [m]should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ.

4 For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear [n]with him.

5 For I suppose [o]I was not a whit behind the very chiefest apostles.

6 But though [p]I be rude in speech, yet not [q]in knowledge; but [r]we have been throughly made manifest among you in all things.

7 Have I committed an offence in abasing myself that ye might be exalted, because I have preached to you the gospel of God freely?

8 I robbed other churches, taking wages of them, to do you service.

9 And when I was present with you, and wanted, [s]I was chargeable to no man: for that which was lacking to me [t]the brethren which came from Macedonia supplied: and in all things I have kept myself [u]from being burdensome unto you, and so will I keep myself.

10 [v]As the truth of Christ is in me, [w]no[1] man shall stop me of this boasting in the regions of Achaia.

11 Wherefore? [x]because I love you not? God knoweth.

12 But what I do, that I will do, [y]that I may cut off occasion from them which desire occasion; that wherein they glory, they may be found even as we.

13 For such [z]are false apostles, [a]deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ.

14 And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into [b]an angel of light.

15 Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; [c]whose end shall be according to their works.

16 I say again, Let no man think me a fool; if otherwise, yet as a fool [d]receive me, that I may boast myself a little.

17 That which I speak, [e]I speak it not after the Lord, but as it were foolishly, in this confidence of boasting.

18 [f]Seeing that many glory after the flesh, I will glory also.

19 For ye suffer fools gladly, [g]seeing ye yourselves are wise.

20 For ye suffer, [h]if a man bring you into bondage, if a man devour you, if a man take of you, if a man exalt himself, if a man smite you on the face.

21 I speak as concerning reproach, [i]as though we had been weak. Howbeit [j]whereinsoever any is bold, (I speak foolishly,) I am bold also.

22 Are they Hebrews? [k]so am I. Are they Israelites? so am I. Are they the seed of Abraham? so am I.

23 Are they ministers of Christ? (I speak as a fool) I am more: [l]in labours more abundant, [m]in stripes above measure, in prisons more frequent, [n]in deaths oft.

24 Of the Jews five times received I [o]forty stripes save one.

25 Thrice was I [p]beaten with rods, [q]once was I stoned, thrice I [r]suffered shipwreck, a night and a day I have been in the deep;

26 In journeyings often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, [s]in perils by mine own countrymen, [t]in perils by the heathen, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren;

27 In weariness and painfulness, [u]in watchings often, [v]in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness.

28 Beside those things that are without, that which cometh upon me daily, [w]the care of all the churches.

29 [x]Who is weak, and I am not weak? who is offended, and I burn not?

30 If I must needs glory, [y]I will glory of the things which concern mine infirmities.

31 [z]The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, [a]which is blessed for evermore, knoweth that I lie not.

32 [b]In Damascus the governor under Aretas the king kept the city of the Damascenes with a garrison, desirous to apprehend me:

33 And through a window in a basket was I let down by the wall, and escaped his hands.

CHAPTER 12.

1 For commending of his apostleship though he might glory of his wonderful revelations 9 yet he rather chooseth to glory of his infirmities 11 blameth them for forcing him to this vain boasting

IT is not expedient for me doubtless to glory. [2] I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord.

2 I knew a man [a] in Christ above fourteen years ago, (whether in the body, I cannot tell; or whether out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth,) such an one [b] caught up to the third heaven.

3 And I knew such a man, (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;)

4 How that he was caught up into [1] paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not [d] lawful for a man to utter.

5 Of such an one will I glory: [e] yet of myself I will not glory, but in mine infirmities.

6 For [f] though I would desire to glory, I shall not be a fool; for I will say the truth: but now I forbear, lest any man should think of me above that which he seeth me to be, or that he heareth of me.

7 And lest I should be exalted above measure through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me a [2] thorn in the flesh, [g] the messenger of Satan to buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure.

8 [2] For this thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me.

9 And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore [c] will I rather glory in my infirmities, [e] that the power of Christ may rest upon me.

10 Therefore [f] I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake: [f] for when I am weak, then am I strong.

11 I am become [3] a fool in glorying; ye have compelled me: for I ought to have been commended of you: for [h] in nothing am I behind the very chiefest apostles, though [i] I be nothing.

12 [k] Truly the signs of an apostle were wrought among you in all patience, in signs, and wonders, and mighty deeds.

13 [l] For what is it wherein ye were inferior to other churches, except it be that [l] I myself was not burdensome to you? forgive me [m] this wrong.

14 [n] Behold, the third time I am ready to come to you; and I will not be burdensome to you: for [c] I seek not yours, but you: [o] for the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children.

15 And [p] I will very gladly spend and be spent [c] for [4] you, though [q] the more abundantly I love you, the less I be loved.

16 But be it so, [r] I did not burden you, nevertheless, being crafty, I caught you with guile.

17 [s] Did I make a gain of you by any of them whom I sent unto you?

18 [t] I desired Titus, and with him I sent a [u] brother. Did Titus make a gain of you? walked we not in the same spirit? walked we not in the same steps?

19 [v] Again, think ye that we excuse ourselves unto you? [w] we speak before God in Christ: [x] but we do all things, dearly beloved, for your edifying.

20 For I fear, lest, when I come, I shall not find you such as I would, and that [y] I shall be found unto you such as ye would not: lest there be debates, envyings, wraths, strifes, backbitings, whisperings, swellings, tumults:

21 And lest, when I come again, my God [z] will humble me among you, and that I shall bewail many [a] which have sinned already, and have not repented of the uncleanness and [b] fornication and lasciviousness which they have committed.

CHAPTER 13.

1 He threateneth severity against obstinate sinners, 11 concludeth with general exhortation and prayer

THIS is [c] the third time I am coming to you. [d] In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established.

2 [e] I told you before, and foretell you, as if I were present, the second time; and being absent now I write to them [f] which heretofore have sinned, and to all other, that, if I come again, [g] I will not spare:

3 Since ye seek a proof of Christ [h] speaking in me, which to you-ward is not weak, but is mighty [i] in you.

4 [k] For though he was crucified through weakness, yet [l] he liveth by the power of God. For [5] we also are weak [4] in him, but we shall live with him by the power of God toward you.

5 [m] Examine yourselves, whether ye be in the faith; prove your own selves. Know ye not your own selves, [n] how that Jesus Christ is in you, except ye be [o] reprobates?

6 But I trust that ye shall know that we are not reprobates.

7 Now I pray to God that ye do no evil; not that we should appear approved, but that ye should do that

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE GALATIANS.

CHAPTER 1.

6 He wondereth that they have so soon left the truth, 8 and accurseth those that preach any other gospel

PAUL, an apostle, (not of men, neither by man, but [b]by Jesus Christ, and God the Father, [d]who raised him from the dead;)

2 And all the brethren [e]which are with me, [g]unto the churches of Galatia:

3 [h]Grace be to you and peace from God the Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ,

4 [m]Who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us [o]from this present evil world, according to the will of God and our Father:

5 To whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

6 I marvel that ye are so soon removed [q]from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel:

7 [r]Which is not another; but there be some [s]that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.

8 But though [t]we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.

9 As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you [u]than that ye have received, let him be accursed.

10 For [x]do I now [y]persuade men, or God? or [z]do I seek to please men? for if I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ.

11 [a]But I certify you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached of me is not after man.

12 For [b]I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but [c]by the revelation of Jesus Christ.

13 For ye have heard of my conversation in time past in the Jews' religion, how that [a]beyond measure I persecuted the church of God, and [c]wasted it:

14 And profited in the Jews' religion above many my [l]equals in mine own nation, [f]being more exceedingly zealous [h]of the traditions of my fathers.

15 But when it pleased God, [i]who separated me from my mother's womb, and called me by his grace,

16 [l]To reveal his Son in me, that [n]I might preach him among the heathen; immediately I conferred not with [p]flesh and blood:

17 Neither went I up to Jerusalem to them which were apostles before me; but I went into Arabia, and returned again unto Damascus.

18 Then after three years [r]I [2]went up to Jerusalem to see Peter, and abode with him fifteen days.

19 But [t]other of the apostles saw I none, save [x]James the Lord's brother.

20 Now the things which I write unto you, [z]behold, before God, I lie not.

21 [a]Afterwards I came into the regions of Syria and Cilicia;

22 And was unknown by face [b]unto the churches of Judæa which [c]were in Christ:

23 But they had heard only, That he which persecuted us in times past now preacheth the faith which once he destroyed.

24 And they glorified God in me.

CHAPTER 2.

1 He showeth when and for what purpose he went again to Jerusalem 16 Of justification by faith

THEN fourteen years after [k]I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, and took Titus with me also.

2 And I went up by revelation, [a] and communicated unto them that gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, but [1] privately to them which were of reputation, lest by any means [c] I should run, or had run, in vain.

3 But neither Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised:

4 And that because of [e] false brethren unawares brought in, who came in privily to spy out our [f] liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, [g] that they might bring us into bondage:

5 To whom we gave place by subjection, no, not for an hour; that [m] the truth of the gospel might continue with you.

6 But of these [n] who seemed to be somewhat, (whatsoever they were, it maketh no matter to me: [o] God accepteth no man's person:) for they who seemed to be somewhat [r] in conference added nothing to me:

7 But contrariwise, [t] when they saw that the gospel of the uncircumcision [u] was committed unto me, as the gospel of the circumcision was unto Peter;

8 (For he that wrought effectually in Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision, [z] the same was [a] mighty in me toward the Gentiles:)

9 And when James, Cephas, and John, who seemed to be [c] pillars, perceived [d] the grace that was given unto me, they gave to me and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship; that we should go unto the heathen, and they unto the circumcision.

10 Only they would that we should remember the poor; [k] the same which I also was forward to do.

11 [l] But when Peter was come to Antioch, I withstood him to the face, because he was to be blamed.

12 For before that certain came from James, [n] he did eat with the Gentiles: but when they were come, he withdrew and separated himself, fearing them which were of the circumcision.

13 And the other Jews dissembled likewise with him; insomuch that Barnabas also was carried away with their dissimulation.

14 But when I saw that they walked not uprightly according to [r] the truth of the gospel, I said unto Peter [t] before them all, [t] If thou, being a Jew, livest after the manner of Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, why compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews?

15 [z] We who are Jews by nature, and not [y] sinners of the Gentiles,

16 [a] Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but [c] by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for [b] by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified.

17 But if, while we seek to be justified by Christ, we ourselves also are found [d] sinners, is therefore Christ the minister of sin? God forbid.

18 For if I build again the things which I destroyed, I make myself a transgressor.

19 For I [h] through the law [i] am dead to the law, that I might [k] live unto God.

20 I am [l] crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh [o] I live by the faith of the Son of God, [p] who loved me, and gave himself for me.

21 I do not frustrate the grace of God: for [q] if righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain.

CHAPTER 3.

He asketh what moved them to leave the faith, &c

O FOOLISH Galatians, [z] who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey [y] the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you?

2 This only would I learn of you, Received ye [b] the Spirit by the works of the law, [c] or by the hearing of faith?

3 Are ye so foolish? [f] having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by [g] the flesh?

4 [h] Have ye suffered [2] so many things in vain? if it be yet in vain.

5 He therefore [i] that ministereth to you the Spirit, and worketh miracles among you, doeth he it by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

6 Even as [m] Abraham believed God, and it was [3] accounted to him for righteousness.

7 Know ye therefore that [o] they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.

8 And [p] the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Abraham, saying, [q] In thee shall all nations be blessed.

9 So then they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham.

10 For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, [u] Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them.

11 But [z] that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, [b] The just shall live by faith.

12 And [d] the Law is not of faith: but,

[a]The man that doeth them shall live in them.

13 [b]Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, [c]Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree:

14 [d]That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive [e]the promise of the Spirit through faith.

15 Brethren, I speak after the manner of men; [f]Though it be but a man's [g]covenant, yet if it be confirmed, no man disannulleth, or addeth thereto.

16 Now [h]to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is [i]Christ.

17 And this I say, that the covenant, that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the law [j]which was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot disannul, [k]that it should make the promise of none effect.

18 For if [l]the inheritance be of the law, [m]it is no more of promise: but God gave it to Abraham by promise.

19 Wherefore then serveth the law? [n]It was added because of transgressions, till the seed should come to whom the promise was made; and it was [o]ordained by angels in the hand [p]of a mediator.

20 Now a mediator is not a mediator of one, [q]but God is one.

21 Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid: for if there had been a law given which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the law.

22 But the scripture hath concluded [r]all under sin, [s]that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe.

23 But before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed.

24 Wherefore [t]the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, [u]that we might be justified by faith.

25 But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster.

26 For ye [v]are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.

27 For [w]as many of you as have been baptized into Christ [x]have put on Christ.

28 [y]There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all [z]one in Christ Jesus.

29 And [a]if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and [b]heirs according to the promise.

CHAPTER 4.

1 We were under the law till Christ came. 5 But Christ freed us from the law

NOW I say, That the heir, as long as he is a child, differeth nothing from a servant, though he be lord of all;

2 But is under tutors and governors until the time appointed of the father.

3 Even so we, when we were children, [a]were in bondage under the [b]elements of the world:

4 But [c]when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, [d]made [e]of a woman, [f]made under the law,

5 [g]To redeem them that were under the law, [h]that we might receive the adoption of sons.

6 And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth [i]the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father.

7 Wherefore thou art no more a servant, but a son; [k]and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ.

8 Howbeit then, [l]when ye knew not God, [m]ye did service unto them which by nature are no gods.

9 But now, [n]after that ye have known God, or rather are known of God, [o]how turn ye [p]again to [q]the weak and beggarly [r]elements, whereunto ye desire again to be in bondage?

10 [s]Ye observe days, and months, and times, and years.

11 I am afraid of you, [t]lest I have bestowed upon you labour in vain.

12 Brethren, I beseech you, be as I am; for I am as ye are. [u]Ye have not injured me at all.

13 Ye know how [v]through infirmity of the flesh I preached the gospel unto you at the first.

14 And my temptation which was in my flesh ye despised not, nor rejected; but received me [w]as an angel of God, [x]even as Christ Jesus.

15 [y]Where is then the blessedness ye spake of? for I bear you record, that, if it had been possible, ye would have plucked out your own eyes, and have given them to me.

16 Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?

17 They [z]zealously affect you, but not well; yea, they would exclude [a]you, that ye might affect them.

18 But it is good to be zealously affected always in a good thing, and not only when I am present with you.

19 [b]My little children, of whom I travail in birth again until Christ be formed in you, 20 I desire to be present with you now, and to change my voice; for [c]I stand in doubt of you.

21 Tell me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye not hear the law?
22 For it is written, that Abraham had two sons, [c]the one by a bondmaid, [d]the other by a freewoman.
23 But he who was of the bondwoman [e]was born after the flesh; [h]but he of the freewoman was by promise.
24 Which things are an allegory: for these are the two [i]covenants; the one from the mount [m]Sinai,[2] which gendereth to bondage, which is Agar.
25 For this Agar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and [n]answereth to Jerusalem which now is, and is in bondage with her children.
26 But [r]Jerusalem which is above is free, which is the mother of us all.
27 For it is written, [t]Rejoice, thou barren that bearest not; break forth and cry, thou that travailest not: for the desolate hath many more children than she which hath an husband.
28 Now we, brethren, as Isaac was, are [z]the children of promise.
29 But as then [a]he that was born after the flesh persecuted him that was born after the Spirit, [c]even so it is now.
30 Nevertheless what saith [b]the scripture? [d]Cast out the bondwoman and her son: for [e]the son of the bondwoman shall not be heir with the son of the freewoman.
31 So then, brethren, we are not children of the bondwoman, [g]but of the free.

CHAPTER 5.

1 He moveth them to stand in their liberty 19 The works of the flesh, 22 and fruits of the Spirit.

STAND fast therefore in [h]the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again [k]with the yoke of bondage.
2 Behold, I Paul say unto you, that [m]if ye be circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing.
3 For I testify again to every man that is circumcised, [r]that he is a debtor to do the whole law.
4 [t]Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; [z]ye are fallen from grace.
5 For we through the Spirit [y]wait for the hope of righteousness by faith.
6 For [a]in Jesus Christ neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision; but [b]faith which worketh by love.
7 Ye [c]did run well; [d]who[6] did hinder you that ye should not obey the truth?
8 This persuasion cometh not of him [h]that calleth you.
9 [i]A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump.
10 [m]I have confidence in you through the Lord, that ye will be none otherwise minded: but [n]he that troubleth you [b]shall bear his judgment, whosoever he be.
11 [c]And I, brethren, if I yet preach circumcision, [f]why do I yet suffer persecution? then is [t]the offence of the cross ceased.
12 [z]I would they were even cut off [i]which trouble you.
13 For, brethren, ye have been called unto liberty; only [u]use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but [o]by love serve one another.
14 For [p]all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this; [q]Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.
15 But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another.
16 This I say then, [r]Walk in the Spirit, and [s]ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh.
17 For [u]the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: [z]so that ye cannot do the things that ye would.
18 But [c]if ye be led of the Spirit, ye are not under the law.
19 Now [f]the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these; Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness,
20 Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies, 21 Envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that [i]they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God.
22 But [t]the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, [w]gentleness, [b]goodness, [y]faith, 23 Meekness, temperance: [g]against such there is no law.
24 And they that are Christ's [g]have crucified the flesh with the [g]affections and lusts.
25 [w]If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.
26 [z]Let us not be desirous of vain glory, provoking one another, envying one another.

CHAPTER 6.

1 He moveth them to deal mildly with a brother that hath slipped 2 to bear one another's burden, &c.

BRETHREN, [c]if[7] a man be overtaken in a fault, ye [f]which are spiritual, restore such an one [y]in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, [k]lest thou also be tempted.
2 [l]Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil [n]the law of Christ.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE EPHESIANS.

CHAPTER 1.

1 He blesseth God for spiritual blessings 4 treateth of our election, 6 and adoption by grace, &c.

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ [c]by the will of God, [d]to the saints which are at Ephesus, [f]and to the faithful in Christ Jesus:
2 [g]Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.
3 [i]Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly [2]places in Christ:
4 According as [o]he hath chosen us in him [q]before the foundation of the world, that we should [s]be holy and without blame before him in love:
5 [t]Having predestinated us unto [x]the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to himself, [y]according to the good pleasure of his will,
6 To the praise of the glory of his grace, [b]wherein he hath made us accepted in [d]the beloved.
7 [g]In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to [f]the riches of his grace;

CHAPTER 2.

What we were by nature with what we are by grace

AND [1]you hath he quickened, [m]who were dead in trespasses and sins;

2 [n]Wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to [o]the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in [z]the children of disobedience:

3 [p]Among whom also we all had our conversation in times past in [z]the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling [q]the desires of the flesh and of the mind; and [r]were by nature the children of wrath, even as others.

4 But God, [s]who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us,

5 [t]Even when we were dead in sins, hath [u]quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved;)

6 And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together [v]in heavenly places in Christ Jesus:

7 That in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches of his grace in [w]his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus.

8 [x]For by grace are ye saved [y]through faith; and that not of yourselves: [z]it is the gift of God:

9 Not of works, lest any man should boast.

10 For we are [a]his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before [7]ordained that we should walk in them.

11 Wherefore remember, that ye being in time past Gentiles in the flesh, who are called Uncircumcision by that which is called [c]the Circumcision in the flesh made by hands;

12 [d]That at that time ye were without Christ, [f]being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from [h]the covenants of promise, [f]having no hope, [k]and without God in the world:

13 [l]But now in Christ Jesus ye who sometimes were [m]far off are made nigh by the blood of Christ.

14 For [n]he is our peace, [p]who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us;

15 [s]Having abolished [t]in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances, for to make in himself of twain one [u]new man, so making peace;

16 And that he might [x]reconcile both unto God in one body by the cross, [b]having slain the enmity [3]thereby:

17 And came [c]and preached peace to you which were afar off, and to [c]them that were nigh.

18 For [e]through him we both have access [4]by one Spirit unto the Father.

19 Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but [n]fellowcitizens with the saints, and of [o]the household of God;

20 And are [g]built [r]upon the foundation of the [s]apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being [u]the chief corner stone,

21 In whom all the building fitly framed together groweth unto [a]an holy temple in the Lord:

22 [b]In whom ye also are builded together for an habitation of God through the Spirit.

CHAPTER 3.

The hidden mystery that the Gentiles should be saved, was made known to Paul by revelation &c

FOR this cause I Paul, [g]the prisoner of Jesus Christ [h]for you Gentiles,

2 If ye have heard of [k]the dispensation of the grace of God [l]which is given me to you ward:

3 [n]How that by revelation [n]he made known unto me the mystery; (as I wrote [6]afore in few words,

4 Whereby, when ye read, ye may understand my knowledge in the mystery of Christ)

5 [s]Which in other ages was not made known unto the sons of men, as it is now revealed unto his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit;

6 That the Gentiles [w]should be fellowheirs, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ by the gospel:

7 [a]Whereof I was made a minister, [b]according to the gift of the grace of God given unto me by [c]the effectual working of his power.

8 Unto me, [d]who am less than the least of all [e]saints, is this grace given, that [f]I should preach among the Gentiles [g]the unsearchable riches of Christ;

9 And to make all men see what [h]the fellowship of the mystery, [i]which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, [k]who created all things by Jesus Christ:

10 [l]To the intent that now [m]unto the principalities and powers in heavenly places [n]might be known by the church the manifold wisdom of God,

11 According to the eternal purpose which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord:

12 In whom we have boldness and access [o]with confidence by the faith of him.

13 [p]Wherefore I desire that ye faint not at my tribulations for you, [q]which is your glory.

14 For this cause I bow my knees unto the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,

15 Of whom [r]the whole family in heaven and earth is named,

16 That he would grant you, [s]according to the riches of his glory, [t]to be strengthened with might by his Spirit in [u]the inner man;

17 [v]That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith, that ye, [w]being rooted and grounded in love,

18 [x]May be able to comprehend with all saints [y]what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height;

19 And to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled [z]with all the fulness of God.

20 Now [a]unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly [b]above all that we ask or think, [c]according to the power that worketh in us, 21 [d]Unto him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end. Amen.

CHAPTER 4.

1 He exhorteth to unity 25 to cast off lying &c

I THEREFORE, [e]the prisoner [f]of the Lord, beseech you that ye [g]walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called,

2 [h]With all lowliness and meekness, with longsuffering, forbearing one another in love;

3 Endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit [i]in the bond of peace

4 [k]There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling;

6 [d]One God and Father of all, who is above all, and [e]through all, and in you all.

7 But [f]unto every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ.

8 Wherefore he saith, [g]When he ascended up on high, [h]he led [i]captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men

9 [k](Now that he ascended, what is it but that he also descended first into the lower parts of the earth?

10 He that descended is the same also [l]that ascended up far above all heavens, [m]that he might [n]fill all things.)

11 [o]And he gave some, apostles, and some, prophets; and some, [p]evangelists; and some, [q]pastors and [r]teachers;

12 [s]For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, [t]for the edifying of [u]the body of Christ

13 Till we all come [v]in the unity of the faith, [w]and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto [x]a perfect man unto the measure of the [y]stature of the fulness of Christ

14 That we henceforth be no more [z]children, [a]tossed to and fro, and carried about with every [b]wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, [c]whereby they lie in wait to deceive;

15 But [d]speaking [e]the truth in love, [f]may grow up into him in all things, [g]which is the head, even Christ:

16 [h]From whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love.

17 This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that [i]ye henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk, [k]in the vanity of their mind,

18 [l][m]Having the understanding darkened, [n]being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the [o]blindness[p] of their heart:

19 [q]Who being past feeling [r]have given themselves over unto lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness

20 But ye have not so learned Christ;

21 If so be that ye have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Jesus:

22 That ye [s]put off concerning [t]the former conversation the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts;

23 And [a] be renewed in the spirit of your mind;
24 And that ye [c] put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and [l] true holiness.
25 Wherefore putting away lying, [h] speak every man truth with his neighbour for [i] we are members one of another.
26 [j] Be ye angry, and sin not: let not the sun go down upon your wrath
27 [m] Neither give place to the devil.
28 Let him that stole steal no more but rather [p] let him labour, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have [q] to give [r] to him that needeth.
29 [s] Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but [z] that which is good [b] to the use of edifying, [b] that it may minister grace unto the hearers.
30 And [d] grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of [e] redemption.
31 [g] Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and [h] evil speaking, be put away from you, [t] with all malice:
32 And [l] be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, [u] forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you.

CHAPTER 5.

1 General exhortations to love 3 to flee fornication and all uncleanness 15 to walk warily 18 to be filled with the Spirit 22 Duties of wives in the husbands

BE [c] ye therefore followers of God, as dear children,
2 And [z] walk in love, [y] as Christ also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to God [a] for a sweetsmelling savour.
3 But [c] fornication, and all uncleanness or covetousness, [d] let it not be once named among you, as becometh saints,
4 [f] Neither filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, [h] which are not convenient but rather giving of thanks
5 For this ye know, that [k] no whoremonger nor unclean person, nor covetous man, [m] who is an idolater, [n] hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God
6 [o] Let no man deceive you with vain words for because of these things [p] cometh the wrath of God upon the children of [q] disobedience
7 Be not ye therefore partakers with them
8 [r] For ye were sometimes darkness, but now [s] are ye light in the Lord: walk as [u] children of light:
9 (For [z] the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth,)

10 [b] Proving what is acceptable unto the Lord.
11 And [c] have no fellowship with [c] the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather [f] reprove them
12 [g] For it is a shame even to speak of those things which are done of them in secret.
13 But [z] all things that are [2] reproved are made manifest by the light for whatsoever doth make manifest is light.
14 Wherefore [3] he saith, "Awake thou that sleepest, and [c] arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light.
15 [y] See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise,
16 [z] Redeeming the time, [z] because the days are evil
17 [y] Wherefore be ye not unwise, but [z] understanding [a] what the will of the Lord is.
18 And [c] be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess; but be filled with the Spirit;
19 Speaking to yourselves [f] in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord,
20 [k] Giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father [m] in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ;
21 [c] Submitting yourselves one to another in the fear of God.
22 [p] Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, [q] as unto the Lord.
23 For [r] the husband is the head of the wife, even as [s] Christ is the head of the church. and he is the saviour of [u] the body
24 Therefore as the church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands [z] in every thing.
25 [b] Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and [e] gave himself for it;
26 That he might sanctify and cleanse it [g] with the washing of water by the word,
27 [t] That he might present it to himself a glorious church, [t] not having spot, or wrinkle or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish
28 So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies He that loveth his wife loveth himself
29 For no man ever yet hated his own flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it even as the Lord the church:
30 For [y] we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones.
31 [t] For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they [y] two shall be one flesh.

32 This is a great mystery: but I speak concerning Christ and the church.

33 Nevertheless [b]let every one of you in particular so love his wife even as himself; and the wife see that she [d]reverence her husband.

CHAPTER 6

1 The duty of children, &c 10 Our life a warfare

CHILDREN, [g]obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right.

2 [i]Honour thy father and mother; which is the first commandment with promise;

3 That it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth.

4 And, [j]ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but [n]bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.

5 [q]Servants, be obedient to them that are your masters according to the flesh, [s]with fear and trembling, [t]in singleness of your heart, as unto Christ;

6 [v]Not with eyeservice, as menpleasers; but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart;

7 With good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men:

8 [c]Knowing that whatsoever good thing any man doeth, the same shall he receive of the Lord, [d]whether he be bond or free.

9 And, ye [f]masters, do the same things unto them [6]forbearing threatening: knowing that [7]your Master also is in heaven; [h]neither is there respect of persons with him.

10 Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might.

11 [k]Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.

12 For we wrestle not against [9]flesh and blood, but against [l]principalities, against powers, against [m]the rulers of the darkness of this world, against [1]spiritual wickedness in [2]high places.

13 [o]Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand [o]in the evil day, and [3]having done all, to stand.

14 Stand therefore, [p]having your loins girt about with truth, and [r]having on the breastplate of righteousness;

15 [h]And your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace;

16 Above all, taking [k]the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able [3]to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked.

17 And [m]take the helmet of salvation, and [9]the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God:

18 [u]Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and [w]watching thereunto with all perseverance and [x]supplication for all saints;

19 [z]And for me, that utterance may be given unto me, that I may open my mouth [a]boldly, to make known the mystery of the gospel,

20 For which [a]I am an ambassador [4]in bonds: that [b]therein [b]I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak.

21 But that ye also may know my affairs, and how I do, [c]Tychicus, a beloved brother and faithful minister in the Lord, shall make known to you all things:

22 [d]Whom I have sent unto you for the same purpose, that ye might know our affairs, and that he might comfort your hearts.

23 [i]Peace be to the brethren, and love with faith, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

24 Grace be with all them that love our Lord Jesus Christ [5]in sincerity. Amen.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE PHILIPPIANS.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Paul's thankfulness and prayer to God for the Philippians 21 His readiness to glorify Christ

PAUL and Timotheus, the servants of Jesus Christ, to all the saints [a]in Christ Jesus which are at Philippi, with the bishops and deacons:

2 [d]Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 [a]I thank my God upon every [1]remembrance of you,

4 Always in every prayer of mine for you all making request with joy,

5 [b]For your fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now;

6 Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun [e]a good work in you [2]will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ:

7 Even as it is meet for me to think this of you all, because [1]I have you in my heart; inasmuch as both in my bonds, and in the defence and confirmation of the gospel, ye all are [2]partakers of my grace

8 For [c]God is my record, how greatly I long after you all in the bowels of Jesus Christ

9 And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all [3]judgment,

10 That [e]ye may [4]approve things that [5]are excellent, [f]that ye may be sincere and without offence [h]till the day of Christ,

11 Being filled with the fruits of righteousness, [i]which are by Jesus Christ, [m]unto the glory and praise of God

12 But I would ye should understand, brethren, that the things which happened unto me have fallen out rather unto the furtherance of the gospel,

13 So that my bonds [o]in Christ are manifest [7]in all [7]the palace, and [8]in all other places,

14 And many of the brethren in the Lord, waxing confident by my bonds are much more bold to speak the word without fear

15 Some indeed preach Christ even of envy and [z]strife; and some also of good will

16 The one preach Christ of contention, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my bonds:

17 But the other of love, knowing that I am set for the defence of the gospel

18 What then? notwithstanding, every way whether in pretence or in truth, Christ is preached, and I therein do rejoice, yea, and will rejoice

19 For I know that this shall turn to my salvation [d]through your prayer, and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ,

20 According to my [k]earnest expectation and my hope, that [l]in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that [k]with all boldness, as always, so now also Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life, or by death

21 For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain.

22 But if I live in the flesh, this is the fruit of my labour: yet what I shall choose I wot not

23 For [p]I am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire to [q]depart, and to be with Christ, which is far better

24 Nevertheless to abide in the flesh is more needful for you.

25 And [t]having this confidence, I know that I shall abide and continue with you all for your furtherance and joy of faith, 26 That [u]your rejoicing may be more abundant in Jesus Christ for me by my coming to you again.

27 Only [b]let your conversation be as it becometh the gospel of Christ: that whether I come and see you, or else be absent, I may hear of your affairs, that ye stand fast in one spirit, [d]with one mind striving together for the faith of the gospel;

28 And in nothing terrified by your adversaries: [f]which is to them an evident token of perdition, [i]but to you of salvation, and that of God

29 For unto you [k]it is given in the behalf of Christ, [m]not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake;

30 [n]Having the same conflict [p]which ye saw in me, and now hear to be in me.

CHAPTER 2.

He exhorteth them to unity and humility, by the example of Christ

IF there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, [r]if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any [s]bowels and mercies,

2 [t]Fulfil ye my joy, [u]that ye be likeminded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind

3 [v]Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but [x]in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves.

4 [a]Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others.

5 [b]Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus:

6 Who [c]being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God

7 [d]But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form [f]of a servant, and [g]was made in the [g]likeness of men:

8 And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and [i]became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross.

9 Wherefore God also [m]hath highly exalted him, and [n]given him a name which is above every name:

10 [o]That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth;

11 And [r]that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

12 Wherefore, my beloved, [s]as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more my absence work out your own alvation with fear and trembling 13 For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure.

14 Do all things [f]without murmur-ings and disputings:
15 That ye may be blameless and [g]harmless, [h]the sons of God, without rebuke, [i]in the midst of [k]a crooked and perverse nation, among whom [l]ye [m]shine as lights in the world;
16 Holding forth the word of life;
that [n]I may rejoice in the day of Christ, that [o]I have not run in vain, neither laboured in vain.
17 Yea, and if [p]I be [q]offered upon the sacrifice [r]and service of your faith, [s]I joy, and rejoice with you all.
18 For the same cause also do ye joy, and rejoice with me.
19 [t]But I trust in the Lord Jesus to send [u]Timotheus shortly unto you, that I also may be of good comfort,
when I know your state.
20 For I have no man [v]likeminded,[5] who will naturally care for your state.
21 For all [w]seek their own, not the things which are Jesus Christ's.
22 But ye know the proof of him, [x]that, as a son with the father, he hath served with me in the gospel.
23 Him therefore I hope to send presently, so soon as I shall see how it will go with me.
24 But [y]I trust in the Lord that I also myself shall come shortly.
25 Yet I supposed it necessary to send to you [z]Epaphroditus, my brother, and companion in labour, and [a]fellow-soldier, [b]but your messenger, and he that ministered to my wants.
26 [c]For he longed after you all, and was full of heaviness, because that ye had heard that he had been sick.
27 For indeed he was sick nigh unto death: but God had mercy on him;
and not on him only, but on me also,
lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow.
28 I sent him therefore the more carefully, that, when ye see him again, ye may rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful.
29 Receive him therefore in the Lord with all gladness, and [d]hold[e] such in reputation:
30 Because for the work of Christ he was nigh unto death, not regarding his life, [f]to supply your lack of service toward me.

things to you, to me indeed is not grievous, but for you it is safe.
2 [c]Beware of dogs, beware of evil workers, [d]beware of the concision.
3 For we are [e]the circumcision,
[f]which worship God in the spirit, and [g]rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh.
4 Though [h]I might also have confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinketh that he hath whereof he might trust in the flesh, I more:
5 Circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, [i]of the tribe of Benjamin, [k]an Hebrew of the Hebrews, as touching the law, [l]a Pharisee;
6 [m]Concerning zeal, persecuting the church; [n]touching the righteousness which is in the law, [o]blameless.
7 But [p]what things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ.
8 Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss [q]for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ,
9 And be found in him, not having [r]mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but [s]that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:
10 That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and [t]the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death;
11 If by any means I might [u]attain unto the resurrection of the dead.
12 Not as though I had already [v]attained, either were already [w]perfect:
but I follow after, if that I may apprehend that for which also I am apprehended of Christ Jesus.
13 Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, [x]forgetting those things which are behind, and [y]reaching forth unto those things which are before, 14 [z]I press toward the mark for the prize of [a]the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.
15 Let us therefore, as many as be [b]perfect, [c]be thus minded: and if in any thing ye be otherwise minded,
God shall reveal even this unto you.
16 Nevertheless, whereto we have already attained, [d]let us walk [e]by the same rule, let us mind the same thing.
17 Brethren, [f]be followers together of me, and mark them which walk so as [g]ye have us for an ensample.
18 (For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are [h]the enemies of the cross of Christ:

19 [a]Whose end is destruction, [b]whose God is their belly, and [c]whose glory is in their shame, [d]who mind earthly things.)

20 For [e]our conversation is in heaven; [f]from whence also we [g]look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ:

21 [h]Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, [i]according to the working whereby he is able [k]even to subdue all things unto himself.

CHAPTER 4.

4 General exhortations. 10 He is joy at their liberality.

THEREFORE, my brethren dearly beloved and [l]longed for, [m]my joy and crown, so [n]stand fast in the Lord, my dearly beloved.

2 I beseech Euodias, and beseech Syntyche, [o]that they be of the same mind in the Lord.

3 And I intreat thee also, true yokefellow, help those women which [p]laboured with me in the gospel, with Clement also, and with other my fellowlabourers, whose names are in [q]the book of life.

4 [r]Rejoice in the Lord alway: and again I say, Rejoice.

5 Let your moderation be known unto all men. [s]The Lord is at hand.

6 [t]Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God.

7 And [u]the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

8 Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are [v]honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, [w]whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.

9 [x]Those things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do: and [y]the God of peace shall be with you.

10 But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly, that now at the last [a]your care of me [1]hath flourished again; wherein ye were also careful, but ye lacked opportunity.

11 Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, [k]therewith to be content.

12 [m]I know both how to be abased, and I know how to abound: every where and in all things I am instructed both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need.

13 I can do all things [o]through Christ which strengtheneth me.

14 Notwithstanding ye have well done, that [p]ye did communicate with my affliction.

15 Now ye Philippians know also, that in the beginning of the gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, [q]no church communicated with me as concerning giving and receiving, but ye only.

16 For even in Thessalonica ye sent once and again unto my necessity.

17 Not because I desire a gift: but I desire [r]fruit that may abound to your account.

18 But [2]I have all, and abound: I am full, having received [a]of Epaphroditus the things which were sent from you, [b]an odour of a sweet smell, [c]a sacrifice acceptable, wellpleasing to God.

19 But my God [d]shall supply all your need [e]according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus.

20 [f]Now unto God and our Father be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

21 Salute every saint in Christ Jesus. The brethren [g]which are with me greet you.

22 All the saints salute you, [h]chiefly they that are of Cæsar's household.

23 [i]The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE COLOSSIANS.

CHAPTER 1.

The apostle thanketh God for their faith, &c

PAUL, [a]an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timotheus our brother,

2 To the saints [a]and faithful brethren in Christ which are at Colosse: [b]Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 [b]We give thanks to God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you,

4 [d]Since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of [e]the love which ye have to all the saints,

5 For the hope [a] which is laid up for you in heaven, whereof ye heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel;
6 Which is come unto you, [d] as it is in all the world; and [e] bringeth forth fruit, as it doth also in you, since the day ye heard of it, and knew [h] the grace of God in truth:
7 As ye also learned of [k] Epaphras our dear fellowservant, who is for you [l] a faithful minister of Christ;
8 Who also declared unto us your [n] love in the Spirit.
9 [r] For this cause we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you, and to desire [t] that ye might be filled with [u] the knowledge of his will [x] in all wisdom and spiritual understanding;
10 [z] That ye might walk worthy of the Lord [a] unto all pleasing, [b] being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God;
11 [c] Strengthened with all might, according to his glorious power, [f] unto all patience and longsuffering [h] with joyfulness;
12 [k] Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of [m] the inheritance of the saints in light:
13 Who hath delivered us from [o] the power of darkness, [q] and hath translated us into the kingdom of [s] his dear Son:
14 [u] In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins:
15 Who is [x] the image of the invisible God, [y] the firstborn of every creature:
16 For [a] by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or [b] dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created [c] by him, and for him.

29 [r] Whereunto I also labour, [s] striving [t] according to his working, which worketh in me mightily.

CHAPTER 2.

1 He exhorteth them to be constant in Christ, 8 to beware of philosophy, and vain traditions

FOR I would that ye knew what great [z] conflict [4] I have for you, and for them at Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh;
2 [c] That their hearts might be comforted, [d] being knit together in love, and unto all riches of the full assurance of understanding, [g] to the acknowledgement of the mystery of God, and of the Father, and of Christ;
3 [i] In [5] whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.
4 And this I say, [l] lest any man should beguile you with enticing words.
5 For [n] though I be absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, joying and beholding [p] your order, and the [r] stedfastness of your faith in Christ.
6 [t] As ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in him:
7 [z] Rooted and built up in him, and stablished in the faith, as ye have been taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving.

8 Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after [b] the tradition of men, after the [c] rudiments of the world, and not after Christ

9 For [d] in him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily.

10 And [e] ye are complete in him, [f] which is the head of all [g] principality and power

11 In whom also ye are [h] circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, in [i] putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ

12 Buried with him in baptism, wherein also ye are risen with him through [k] the faith of the operation of God, [l] who hath raised him from the dead.

13 And you, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he quickened together with him, having forgiven you all trespasses;

14 [m] Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross;

15 And [n] having spoiled [1] principalities and powers, he made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them [o] in it.

16 Let no man therefore [p] judge you [q] in [4] meat, or in drink, or [5] in respect [r] of an holyday, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath days

17 [s] Which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ.

18 Let no man [6] beguile you of your reward [7] in a voluntary humility and worshipping of angels, intruding into those things which he hath not seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind,

19 And not holding [t] the Head, from which all the body by joints and bands having nourishment ministered, and knit together, increaseth with the increase of God

20 Wherefore if ye be [u] dead with Christ from the [8] rudiments of the world, [v] why, as though living in the world, are ye subject to ordinances,

21 (Touch not, taste not; handle not;

22 Which all are to perish with the using,) [w] after the commandments and doctrines of men?

23 [x] Which things have indeed a shew of wisdom in will worship, and humility, and [1] neglecting of the body, not in any honour to the satisfying of the flesh.

CHAPTER 3.

where [a] Christ sitteth on the right hand of God

2 Set your [1] affection on things above, not on things on the earth.

3 [d] For ye are dead, [e] and your life is hid with Christ in God

4 [f] When Christ, who is [h] our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him [i] in glory

5 [m] Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth; [p] fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, [r] which is idolatry

6 [s] For which things sake the wrath of God cometh on [t] the children of disobedience

7 [u] In the which ye also walked some time, when ye lived in them

8 [z] But now ye also put off all these; anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, [a] filthy communication out of your mouth

9 [b] Lie not one to another, [c] seeing that ye have put off the old man with his deeds;

10 And have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge [d] after the image of him that created him.

11 Where there is neither [k] Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, bond nor free: [m] but Christ is all, and in all.

12 Put on therefore, [o] as the elect of God, holy and beloved, [q] bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, longsuffering,

13 [z] Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a [a] quarrel against any: even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye

14 [b] And above all these things [c] put on charity, which is the [x] bond of perfectness

15 And let [z] the peace of God rule in your hearts, [a] to the which also ye are called [b] in one body; and be ye thankful

16 Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another [c] in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord

17 And [h] whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, [k] giving thanks to God and the Father by him

18 [l] Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, [m] as it is fit in the Lord.

19 [n] Husbands, love your wives, and be not [o] bitter against them.

20 [p] Children, obey your parents [q] in all things: for this is well pleasing unto the Lord.

21 [a]Fathers, provoke not your children to anger, lest they be discouraged.

22 [b]Servants, obey [c]in all things your masters [d]according to the flesh; not with eyeservice, as menpleasers; but in singleness of heart, fearing God.

23 [e]And whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men;

24 [f]Knowing that of the Lord ye shall receive the reward of the inheritance. [g]for ye serve the Lord Christ.

25 But he that doeth wrong shall receive for the wrong which he hath done: and [h]there is no respect of persons.

CHAPTER 4.

2 He exhorteth them to be fervent in prayer, 5 to walk wisely, 10 and sendeth divers salutations.

MASTERS, [i]give unto your servants that which is just and equal; knowing that ye also have a Master in heaven.

2 [k]Continue in prayer, and watch in the same [l]with thanksgiving;

3 [m]Withal praying also for us, that God would [n]open unto us a door of utterance, to speak [o]the mystery of Christ, [p]for which I am also in bonds

4 That I may make it manifest, as I ought to speak.

5 [q]Walk in wisdom toward them that are without, [r]redeeming the time

6 Let your speech be alway [s]with grace, [t]seasoned with salt, [u]that ye may know how ye ought to answer every man.

7 All my state shall Tychicus declare unto you, who is a beloved brother, and a faithful minister and fellowservant in the Lord:

8 [v]Whom I have sent unto you for the same purpose, that he might know your estate, and comfort your hearts;

9 With [w]Onesimus, a faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you. They shall make known unto you all things which are done here.

10 [x]Aristarchus my fellowprisoner saluteth you, and [y]Marcus, sister's son to Barnabas, (touching whom ye received commandments: if he come unto you, receive him;)

11 And Jesus, which is called Justus, who are of the circumcision. These only are my fellowworkers unto the kingdom of God, which have been a comfort unto me.

12 [z]Epaphras, who is one of you, a servant of Christ, saluteth you, always [a]labouring [l]ervently for you in prayers, that ye may stand [b]perfect and [c]complete in all the will of God.

13 For I bear him record, that he hath a great zeal for you, and them that are in Laodicea, and them in Hierapolis.

14 [d]Luke, the beloved physician, and [e]Demas, greet you.

15 Salute the brethren which are in Laodicea, and Nymphas, and [f]the church which is in his house

16 And when [g]this epistle is read among you, cause that it be read also in the church of the Laodiceans; and that ye likewise read the epistle from Laodicea.

17 And say to [h]Archippus, Take heed to [i]the ministry which thou hast received in the Lord, that thou fulfil it.

18 [j]The salutation by the hand of me Paul. [k]Remember my bonds. [l]Grace be with you. Amen.

¶ Written from Rome to the Colossians by Tychicus and Onesimus.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE THESSALONIANS.

CHAPTER 1.

Paul sheweth his remembrance of them at all times in thanksgiving and prayer

PAUL, and [a]Silvanus, and Timotheus, unto the church of the Thessalonians which is in God the Father and in the Lord Jesus Christ: [b]Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 [c]We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers;

3 [d]Remembering without ceasing [e]your work of faith, [f]and labour of love, and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, in the sight of God and our Father;

4 Knowing, brethren [1]beloved, [g]your election of God.

5 For [h]our gospel came not unto you in word only, but also in power, and [i]in the Holy Ghost, [j]and in much assurance; as ye know what manner of men we were among you for your sake.

8 For from you [c]sounded out the word of the Lord not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also [d]in every place your faith to God-ward is spread abroad; so that we need not to speak any thing.

CHAPTER 2.

In what manner the gospel was preached to the Thessalonians, and in what way received

FOR [l]yourselves, brethren, know our entrance in unto you, that it was not in vain:

2 But even after that we had suffered before, and were shamefully entreated, as ye know, at [b]Philippi, [m]we were bold in our God to speak unto you the gospel of God [n]with much contention.

3 [o]For our exhortation was not of deceit, nor of uncleanness, nor in guile:

4 But as [p]we were allowed of God [q]to be put in trust with the gospel, even so we speak; [r]not as pleasing men, but God, [s]which trieth our hearts.

5 For [t]neither at any time used we flattering words, as ye know, nor a cloke of covetousness; [u]God is witness:

6 [v]Nor of men sought we glory, neither of you, nor yet of others, when [w]we might have [3]been [x]burdensome, [y]as the apostles of Christ.

7 But [z]we were gentle among you, even as a nurse cherisheth her children:

8 So being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing [b]to have imparted unto you, not the gospel of God only, but also [d]our own souls, because ye were dear unto us

9 For ye remember, brethren, our labour and travail: for [g]labouring night and day, [h]because we would not be chargeable unto any of you, we preached unto you the gospel of God.

10 [k]Ye are witnesses, and God also, [m]how holily and justly and unblameably we behaved ourselves among you that believe:

11 As ye know how we exhorted and comforted and charged every one of you, as a father doth his children, 12 [c]That ye would walk worthy of God, [d]who hath called you unto his kingdom and glory.

13 For this cause also thank we God [f]without ceasing, because, when ye received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received it [h]not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe.

14 For ye, brethren, became followers [k]of the churches of God which in Judæa are in Christ Jesus: for [m]ye also have suffered like things of your own countrymen, even as they have of the Jews:

15 [r]Who both killed the Lord Jesus, and [r]their own prophets, and have [1]persecuted us; and they please not God, [t]and are contrary to all men:

16 [u]Forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they might be saved, [x]to fill up their sins alway: [z]for the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost.

17 But we, brethren, being taken from you for a short time [a]in presence, not in heart, endeavoured the more abundantly [c]to see your face with great desire.

18 Wherefore we would have come unto you, even I Paul, once and again; but [g]Satan hindered us.

19 For [h]what is our hope, or joy, or [2]crown of [2]rejoicing? Are not even ye in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ [n]at his coming?

20 For ye are our glory and joy.

CHAPTER 3.

1 Paul testifieth his great love to the Thessalonians, by sending Timothy unto them to strengthen and comfort them 10 by praying for them, &c.

WHEREFORE [e]when we could no longer forbear, [f]we thought it good to be left at Athens alone;

2 And sent [g]Timotheus, our brother, and minister of God, and our fellowlabourer in the gospel of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith:

3 That no man should be moved by these afflictions: for yourselves know that [i]we are appointed thereunto.

4 [k]For verily, when we were with you, we told you before that we should suffer tribulation; even as it came to pass, and ye know.

5 For this cause, [l]when I could no longer forbear, I sent to know your faith, [l]lest by some means the tempter have tempted you, and [n]our labour be in vain.

6 [o]But now when Timotheus came from you unto us, and brought us good tidings of your faith and charity, and that ye have good remembrance of us always, desiring greatly to see us, [b]as we also to see you:

7 Therefore, brethren, [c]we were comforted over you in all our affliction and distress by your faith.

8 For now we live, if ye [d]stand fast in the Lord.

9 [e]For what thanks can we render to God again for you, for all the joy wherewith we joy for your sakes before our God;

10 [f]Night and day [g]praying exceedingly "that we might see your face, [h]and might perfect that which is lacking in your faith?

11 Now God himself and our Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ, [i]direct[2] our way unto you.

12 And the Lord [k]make you to increase and abound in love [l]one toward another, and toward all men, even as we do toward you:

13 To the end he may [m]stablish your hearts unblameable in holiness before God, even our Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ [c]with all his saints.

CHAPTER 4.

1 He exhorteth to godliness, 6 to live holily and justly, 9 to love one another, 11 and quietly to follow their own business 13 Of the resurrection, and second coming of Christ

FURTHERMORE then we [3]beseech you, brethren, and [5]exhort you by the Lord Jesus, [n]that as ye have received of us [o]how ye ought to walk [d]and to please God, so ye would abound more and more.

2 For ye know what commandments we gave you by the Lord Jesus.

3 For this is [p]the will of God, even [q]your sanctification, [r]that ye should abstain from fornication:

4 [s]That every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honour;

5 [t]Not in the lust of concupiscence, [u]even as the Gentiles [v]which know not God:

6 [w]That no man go beyond and [6]defraud his brother [7]in any matter because that the Lord [b]is the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you and testified.

7 For God hath not called us unto uncleanness, [e]but unto holiness.

8 [y]He therefore that [8]despiseth, despiseth not man, but God, [i]who hath also given unto us his holy Spirit.

9 But as touching brotherly love [z]ye need not that I write unto you: for [a]ye yourselves are taught of God [b]to love one another.

10 [z]And indeed ye do it toward all the brethren which are in all Macedonia: but we beseech you, brethren, [1]that ye increase more and more;

11 And that ye study to be quiet, and [d]to do your own business, and [e]to work with your own hands, as we commanded you;

12 [f]That ye may walk honestly toward them that are without, and that ye may have lack [1]of nothing.

13 But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, [1]even as others [m]which have no hope.

14 For [o]if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so [g]them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.

15 For this we say unto you [h]by the word of the Lord, that [i]we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep.

16 For [y]the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with [a]the trump of God: [b]and the dead in Christ shall rise first:

17 [d]Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them [e]in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so [f]shall we ever be with the Lord.

18 [g]Wherefore [4]comfort one another with these words.

CHAPTER 5

1 Of Christ's coming to judgment 6 Divers exhortations and precepts

BUT of [i]the times and the seasons, brethren, [m]ye have no need that I write unto you.

2 For yourselves know perfectly that [g]the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night.

3 For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then [i]sudden destruction cometh upon them, [i]as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape.

4 [i]But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief.

5 Ye are all [c]the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness.

6 [d]Therefore let us not sleep, as do others; but [f]let us watch and be sober.

7 For [h]they that sleep sleep in the night; and they that be drunken [k]are drunken in the night.

8 But let us, who are of the day, be sober, [m]putting on the breastplate of faith and love; and for an helmet, the hope of salvation.

9 For [g]God hath not appointed us to

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE THESSALONIANS.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Paul certifieth them of the good opinion which he had of their faith, love, and patience 4 and comforteth them against persecution

PAUL, [c]and Silvanus, and Timotheus, unto the church of the Thessalonians [c]in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ

2 [d]Grace unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 [e]We are bound to thank God always for you, brethren, as it is meet, because that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the charity of every one of you all toward each other aboundeth;

4 So that [f]we ourselves glory in you in the churches of God [g]for your patience and faith [h]in all your persecutions and tribulations that ye endure:

5 Which is [i]a manifest token of the righteous judgment of God, that ye may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, [k]for which ye also suffer:

6 [l]Seeing it is a righteous thing with God to recompense tribulation to them that trouble you;

7 And to you who are troubled [m]rest with us, when [a]the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with [1]his mighty angels,

8 [a]In flaming fire [2]taking vengeance on them [b]that know not God, and [d]that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ:

9 [f]Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and [h]from the glory of his power;

10 [i]When he shall come to be glorified in his saints, [l]and to be admired in all them that believe (because our testimony among you was believed) in that day.

11 Wherefore also we pray always for you, that our God would [m]count [3]you worthy of this calling, and fulfil all the good pleasure of his goodness, and [n]the work of faith with power:

12 [r]That the name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you, and ye in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

CHAPTER 2.

1 He willeth them to continue stedfast in the truth, 3 sheweth that there shall be a departure from the faith, 9 and a discovery of antichrist

NOW we beseech you, brethren, [o]by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, [s]and by our gathering together unto him,

2 "That ye be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter as from us, as that the day of Christ is at hand.

3 [c]Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, [d]except there come a falling away first, and [e]that man of sin be revealed, [f]the son of perdition;

4 Who opposeth and [f]exalteth himself [m]above all that is called God, or that is worshipped, so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God.

5 Remember ye not, that, when I was yet with you, I told you these things?

6 And now ye know what [4]withholdeth that he might be revealed in his time.

7 For [r]the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way

8 And then shall that Wicked be revealed, [s]whom the Lord shall consume [t]with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy [u]with the brightness of his coming:

9 Even him, whose coming is [v]after the working of Satan with all power and [d]signs and lying wonders,

10 And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in [f]them that perish, because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.

11 And [h]for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, [k]that they should believe a lie:

12 That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but [l]had pleasure in unrighteousness.

13 But [o]we are bound to give thanks alway to God for you, brethren beloved of the Lord, because God [p]hath [r]from the beginning chosen you to salvation [t]through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth:

14 Whereunto he called you by our gospel, to [x]the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

15 Therefore, brethren, [y]stand fast, and hold [a]the traditions which ye have been taught, whether by word, or our epistle.

16 [d]Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God, even our Father, [f]which hath loved us, and hath given us everlasting consolation and [g]good hope through grace, 17 Comfort your hearts, [t]and stablish you in every good word and work.

FINALLY, brethren, [b]pray for us, that the word of the Lord [1]may have free course, and be glorified, even as it is with you:

2 And [a]that we may be delivered from [z]unreasonable and wicked men: [f]for all men have not faith.

3 But [h]the Lord is faithful, who shall stablish you, and [k]keep you from evil.

4 And [n]we have confidence in the Lord touching you, that ye both do and will do the things which we command you.

5 And [e]the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into [3]the patient waiting for Christ.

6 Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, [p]that ye withdraw yourselves [q]from every brother that walketh [s]disorderly, and not after [t]the tradition which he received of us.

7 For yourselves know [u]how ye ought to follow us: for [x]we behaved not ourselves disorderly among you;

8 Neither did we eat any man's bread for nought; but [b]wrought with labour and travail night and day, that we might not be chargeable to any of you:

9 [c]Not because we have not power, but to make [f]ourselves an ensample unto you to follow us

10 For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, [i]that if any would not work, neither should he eat.

11 For we hear that there are some [m]which walk among you disorderly, [n]working not at all, but are busybodies

12 [p]Now them that are such we command and exhort by our Lord Jesus Christ, [s]that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread.

13 But ye, brethren, [u]be[5] not weary in well doing.

14 And if any man obey not our word [6]by this epistle, note that man, and [z]have no company with him, that he may be ashamed

15 [b]Yet count him not as an enemy, [c]but admonish him as a brother

16 Now [e]the Lord of peace himself give you peace always by all means. The Lord be with you all

17 [k]The salutation of Paul with mine own hand, which is the token in every epistle: so I write 18 [k]The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO

TIMOTHY.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Of Paul's former charge to Timothy 5 The right use and end of the law 11 Saint Paul's calling to be an apostle. 20 Of Hymenæus and Alexander

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ [a] by the commandment [b] of God our Saviour, and Lord Jesus Christ, [c] which is our hope;

2 Unto [d] Timothy, [e] my own son in the faith: [f] Grace, mercy, and peace, from God our Father and Jesus Christ our Lord.

3 As I besought thee to abide still at Ephesus, [g] when I went into Macedonia, that thou mightest charge some [h] that they teach no other doctrine,

4 [i] Neither give heed to fables and endless genealogies, [k] which minister questions, rather than godly edifying which is in faith: so do.

5 Now [l] the end of the commandment is charity [m] out of a pure heart, and [n] of a good conscience, and [o] of faith unfeigned:

6 From which some [1] having swerved have turned aside unto [p] vain jangling;

7 Desiring to be teachers of the law; [q] understanding neither what they say, nor whereof they affirm.

8 But we know that [r] the law is good, if a man use it lawfully;

9 [s] Knowing this, that the law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and for sinners, for unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for manslayers,

10 For whoremongers, for them that defile themselves with mankind, for menstealers, for liars, for perjured persons, and if there be any other thing that is contrary [t] to sound doctrine;

11 According to the glorious gospel of the blessed God, [u] which was committed to my trust.

12 And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, [v] who hath enabled me, [w] for that he counted me faithful, [x] putting me into the ministry;

13 [y] Who was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious: but I obtained mercy, because [z] I did it ignorantly in unbelief.

14 [a] And the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant [b] with faith [c] and love which is in Christ Jesus.

15 [d] This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that 17 Now unto [d] the King eternal, [e] immortal, [f] invisible, [g] the only wise God, [h] be honour and glory for ever and ever. Amen.

18 This charge [p] I commit unto thee, son Timothy, [r] according to the prophecies which went before on thee, that thou by them mightest [s] war a good warfare;

19 Holding faith, and a good conscience, which some having put away concerning faith have made shipwreck:

20 Of whom is [i] Hymenæus and [k] Alexander; whom I have [l] delivered unto Satan, that they may learn not to [m] blaspheme.

CHAPTER 2.

1 He exhorteth to pray and give thanks for all men. 9 How women should be attired. 12 They are not permitted to teach

I [1] EXHORT therefore, that, first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men,

2 [a] For kings, and [k] for all that are in [2] authority; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty.

3 For this is [l] good and acceptable in the sight [m] of God our Saviour;

4 [n] Who will have all men to be saved, [o] and to come unto the knowledge of the truth.

5 [p] For there is one God, and [q] one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus;

6 [r] Who gave himself a ransom for all, [s] to be testified [3] in due time.

7 [t] Whereunto I am ordained a preacher, and an apostle, (I speak the truth in Christ, and lie not;) [u] a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and verity.

8 I will therefore that men pray [v] every where, [k] lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting.

9 In like manner also, that [k] women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with [5] broided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array;

10 [a]But (which becometh women professing godliness) with good works.
11 Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection.
12 But [b]I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence.
13 For [c]Adam was first formed, then Eve.
14 And [d]Adam was not deceived, but the woman being deceived was in the transgression.
15 Notwithstanding she shall be saved in childbearing, if they continue in faith and charity and holiness with sobriety.

CHAPTER 3.

2 Qualifications of bishops and deacons. 15 Of the church, and the blessed truth taught therein.

THIS is a true saying, If a man desire the office of a [a]bishop, he desireth a good [b]work.
2 [c]A bishop then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, [d]of good behaviour, given to hospitality, [e]apt to teach;
3 [f]Not given to wine, [g]no striker,
[h]not greedy of filthy lucre, but patient, not a brawler, not covetous,
4 One that ruleth well his own house,
[i]having his children in subjection with all gravity;
5 (For if a man know not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of God?)
6 Not [k]a novice, lest being lifted up with pride he fall into the condemnation of the devil.
7 Moreover he must have a good report [l]of them which are without, lest he fall into reproach [m]and the snare of the devil.
8 Likewise must [n]the deacons be grave, not doubletongued, [o]not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre;
9 [p]Holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience.
10 And let these also first be proved;
then let them use the office of a deacon,
being found blameless.
11 [q]Even so must their wives be grave, not slanderers, sober, faithful in all things.
12 Let the deacons be the husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well.
13 For [r]they that have [s]used the office of a deacon well purchase to themselves a good degree, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus.
14 These things write I unto thee, hoping to come unto thee shortly:
15 But if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself [t]in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and [u]ground of the truth.
16 And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: [v]God was manifest in the flesh, [w]justified in the Spirit, [x]seen of angels, [y]preached unto the Gentiles, [z]believed on in the world, [a]received up into glory.

CHAPTER 4.

1 He foretelleth a departure from the faith, and giveth divers precepts to Timothy.

NOW the Spirit [b]speaketh expresly, that [c]in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed [d]to seducing spirits, [e]and doctrines of devils,
2 [f]Speaking lies in hypocrisy; [g]having their conscience seared with a hot iron;
3 [h]Forbidding to marry, [i]and commanding to abstain from meats, which God hath created [k]to be received [l]with thanksgiving of them which believe and know the truth.
4 For [m]every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving:
5 For it is sanctified by the word of God and prayer.
6 If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Jesus Christ, [n]nourished up in the words of faith and of good doctrine, whereunto thou hast attained.
7 But [o]refuse profane and old wives' fables, and [p]exercise thyself rather unto godliness.
8 For [q]bodily exercise profiteth [r]little: [s]but godliness is profitable unto all things, [t]having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come.
9 This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptation.
10 For therefore [u]we both labour and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, [v]who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe.
11 These things command and teach.
12 Let no man despise thy youth, but [w]be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity.
13 Till I come, give attendance to reading, to exhortation to doctrine.
14 [x]Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee [y]by prophecy, [z]with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery.
15 Meditate upon these things; give thyself wholly to them; that thy profiting may appear [a]to all.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Rules to be observed in reproving 3 Of widows 17 Of elders 24 A precept for Timothy's health.

REBUKE not an elder, but intreat him as a father; and the younger men as brethren;

2 The elder women as mothers; the younger as sisters, with all purity.

3 Honour widows that are widows indeed.

4 But if any widow have children or nephews, let them learn first to shew [1]piety at home, and [m]to requite their parents: for that is good and acceptable before God.

5 [n]Now she that is a widow indeed, and desolate, trusteth in God, and [o]continueth in supplications and prayers [p]night and day.

6 [q]But she that liveth [r]in pleasure is dead while she liveth.

7 And these things give in charge, that they may be blameless.

8 But if any provide not for his own, [s]and specially for those of his own [t]house, [u]he hath denied the faith, [x]and is worse than an infidel.

9 Let not a widow be [6]taken into the number under threescore years old, having been the wife of one man,

10 Well reported of for good works; if she have brought up children, if she have [a]lodged strangers, if she have [c]washed the saints' feet, if she have relieved the afflicted, if she have diligently followed every good work.

11 But the younger widows refuse: for when they have begun to wax wanton against Christ, they will marry;

12 Having damnation, because they have cast off their first faith

13 [y]And withal they learn to be idle, wandering about from house to house; and not only idle, but tattlers also and busybodies, speaking things which they ought not.

14 [z]I will therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, [a]give none occasion to the adversary [2]to speak reproachfully.

15 For some are already turned aside after Satan.

16 If any man or woman that believeth have widows, let them relieve them, and let not the church be charged; that it may relieve [b]them that are widows indeed.

17 [c]Let the elders that rule well [d]be counted worthy of double honour, especially they who labour in the word and doctrine.

20 [f]Them that sin rebuke before all, [h]that others also may fear.

21 [g]I charge thee before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, and the elect angels, that thou observe these things [2]without preferring one before another, doing nothing by partiality.

22 [k]Lay hands suddenly on no man, [l]neither be partaker of other men's sins: keep thyself pure.

24 [n]Some men's sins are open beforehand, going before to judgment; and some men they follow after.

25 Likewise also the good works of some are manifest beforehand; and they that are otherwise cannot be hid.

CHAPTER 6.

1 Of the duty of servants 6 Godliness is great gain 11 What Timothy is to fly, and what to follow, 17 and whereof to admonish the rich.

LET as many [p]servants as are under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honour, [q]that the name of God and his doctrine be not blasphemed.

2 And they that have believing masters, let them not despise them, [b]because they are brethren; but rather do them service, because they are [7]faithful and beloved, partakers of the benefit. These things teach and exhort.

3 If any man teach otherwise, and consent [d]not to wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, [e]and to the doctrine which is according to godliness;

4 He is [8]proud, [f]knowing nothing, but [9]doting about questions and strifes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings, evil surmisings,

5 [r]Perverse[1] disputings of men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, [t]supposing that gain is godliness: [m]from such withdraw thyself.

6 But [u]godliness with contentment is great gain.

7 For [o]we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out

8 And [y]having food and raiment let us be therewith content.

9 But [z]they that will be rich fall into temptation [a]and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, [x]which drown men in destruction and perdition.

10 [a]For the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have [1]erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

11 [a]But thou, [c]O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness.

12 [k]Fight the good fight of faith, [l]lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, [m]and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses.

13 [n]I give thee charge in the sight of God, [o]who quickeneth all things, and before Christ Jesus, [p]who before Pontius Pilate witnessed a good [q]confession;

14 That thou keep this commandment without spot, unrebukeable, [r]until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ:

15 Which in his times he shall shew, who is [s]the blessed and only Potentate, the King of kings, and Lord of lords;

TIMOTHY.

CHAPTER 1

1 Paul's love to Timothy. 6 He exhorteth him to stir up the gift of God which was in him.

PAUL, [a]an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God according to [f]the promise of life which is in Christ Jesus,

2 [k]To Timothy, my dearly beloved son: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

3 [n]I thank God, [o]whom I serve from my forefathers with pure conscience, that [q]without ceasing I have remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day;

4 [r]Greatly desiring to see thee, being mindful of thy tears, that I may be filled with joy;

5 When I call to remembrance [u]the unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and [y]thy mother Eunice; and I am persuaded that in thee also.

6 Wherefore I put thee in remembrance [b]that thou stir up the gift of God, which is in thee by the putting on of my hands.

7 For [f]God hath not given us the spirit of fear, [g]but of power, and of love, and of [1]a sound mind.

9 [g]Who hath saved us, and [h]called us with an holy calling, [i]not according to our works, but [k]according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus [l]before the world began,

10 But [n]is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Jesus Christ, [o]who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel:

11 [p]Whereunto I am appointed a preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles.

12 [x]For the which cause I also suffer these things: nevertheless I am not ashamed: [1]for I know whom I have [1]believed, and am persuaded that he is able to [a]keep that which I have committed unto him against that day.

13 [c]Hold fast [d]the form of [e]sound words, which thou hast heard of me, [h]in faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.

14 That good thing which was committed unto thee keep by the Holy Ghost [a]which dwelleth in us.

15 This thou knowest, that [b]all they which are in Asia be turned away from me; of whom are Phygellus and Hermogenes.

16 The Lord [c]give mercy unto the house of Onesiphorus; [d]for he oft refreshed me, and was not ashamed of [e]my chain:

17 But, when he was in Rome, he sought me out very diligently, and found me.

18 The Lord grant unto him that he may find mercy of the Lord [f]in that day: and in how many things he [g]ministered unto me at Ephesus, thou knowest very well.

CHAPTER 2.

1 An exhortation to constancy and perseverance. 19 The foundation of the Lord is sure.

THOU therefore, [h]my son, [i]be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.

2 And the things that thou hast heard of me [k]among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also.

3 Thou therefore endure hardness, [l]as a good soldier of Jesus Christ.

4 [m]No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier.

5 And [n]if a man also strive for masteries, yet is he not crowned, except he strive lawfully.

6 [o]The husbandman that laboureth must be first partaker of the fruits.

7 Consider what I say; and the Lord give thee understanding in all things.

8 Remember that Jesus Christ [p]of the seed of David [q]was raised from the dead [r]according to my gospel:

9 [s]Wherein I suffer trouble, as an evil doer, [t]even unto bonds; [u]but the word of God is not bound.

10 Therefore [v]I endure all things for the elect's sakes, [w]that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory.

11 It is a faithful saying. For [x]if we be dead with him, we shall also live with him.

12 [y]If we suffer, we shall also reign with him: [z]if we deny him, he also will deny us:

13 [a]If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: [b]he cannot deny himself.

14 Of these things put them in remembrance, [c]charging them before the Lord that they strive not about words to no profit, but to the subverting of the hearers.

16 But [d]shun profane and vain babblings: for they will increase unto more ungodliness.

17 And their word will eat as doth a [e]canker: of whom is Hymenæus and Philetus;

18 Who concerning the truth have erred, [f]saying that the resurrection is past already; and overthrow the faith of some.

19 Nevertheless [g]the foundation of God standeth [h]sure, having this seal, The Lord [i]knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity.

20 But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; [k]and some to honour, and some to dishonour.

21 [l]If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified, and meet for the master's use, and [m]prepared unto every good work.

22 Flee also youthful lusts: but follow righteousness, faith, charity, peace, with them that [n]call on the Lord [o]out of a pure heart.

23 But [p]foolish and unlearned questions avoid, knowing that they do gender strifes.

24 And [q]the servant of the Lord must not strive; but be gentle unto all men, [r]apt to teach, [s]patient,

25 [t]In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; [u]if God peradventure will give them repentance [v]to the acknowledging of the truth;

26 And that they may [w]recover themselves [x]out of the snare of the devil, who are [y]taken captive by him at his will.

CHAPTER 3.

1 He advertiseth him of the times to come, 6 and discribeth the enemies of the truth

THIS know also, that [z]in the last days perilous times shall come.

2 For men shall be [a]lovers of their own selves, [b]covetous, [c]boasters, [d]proud, [e]blasphemers, [f]disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy,

3 [g]Without natural affection, [h]truce-breakers, [i]false accusers, [k]incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good,

5 Having a form of godliness, but [m]denying the power thereof: [n]from such turn away

6 1 or 'of this sort are they which creep into houses, and lead captive silly women laden with sins, led away with divers lusts,

7 Ever learning, and never able 'to come to the knowledge of the truth

8 [g]Now as Jannes and Jambres withstood Moses, so do these also resist the truth: [h]men of corrupt minds, 'reprobate[i] concerning the faith

9 But they shall proceed no further: for their folly shall be manifest unto all men, 'as their's also was

10 [k]But [l]thou hast fully known my doctrine, manner of life, purpose, faith, longsuffering, charity, patience,

11 Persecutions, afflictions, which came unto me [p]at Antioch, [q]at Iconium, [r]at Lystra; what persecutions I endured: but [s]out of them all the Lord delivered me

12 Yea, and [t]all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution

13 [u]But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived

14 But [v]continue thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing of whom thou hast learned them;

15 And that from a child thou hast known [w]the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus

16 [x]All scripture is given by inspiration of God, [y]and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness:

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO TITUS.

CHAPTER 1.

6 Qualifications of ministers 11 Of evil teachers

PAUL, a servant of God, and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of God's elect, and [b]the acknowledging of the truth [d]which is after godliness;

2 [e]In[2] hope of eternal life, which God, [f]that cannot lie, promised [g]before the world began;

3 [h]But hath in due times manifested his word through preaching, [k]which is committed unto me according to the commandment of God our Saviour;

4 To [l]Titus, mine own son after the common faith: [m]Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ our Saviour.

5 For this cause left I thee in Crete, that thou shouldest [n]set in order the things that are [7]wanting, and ordain elders in every city, as I had appointed thee:

6 [q]If any be blameless, the husband of one wife, [r]having faithful children not accused of riot or unruly.

7 For a bishop must be blameless, as [t]the steward of God; not selfwilled, not soon angry, [x]not given to wine, no striker, not given to filthy lucre;

8 [a]But a lover of hospitality, a lover of [9]good men, sober, just, holy, temperate;

9 Holding fast the faithful word [1]as he hath been taught, that he may be able [d]by sound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the gainsayers.

10 For [f]there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, [g]specially they of the circumcision:

11 Whose mouths must be stopped, [k]who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, [t]for filthy lucre's sake.

12 [o]One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Cretians are alway liars, evil beasts, slow bellies.

13 This witness is true. [s]Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be [t]sound in the faith;

14 [z]Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and [y]commandments of men, that turn from the truth.

15 [c]Unto the pure all things are pure: but unto them that are defiled and unbelieving is nothing pure; but even their mind and conscience is defiled.

16 They profess that they know God; but [u]in works they deny him, being abominable, and disobedient, [v]and unto every good work [1]reprobate.

CHAPTER 2.

Directions to Titus for doctrine and life

BUT speak thou the things which become [k]sound doctrine:

2 That the aged men be [t]sober, grave, temperate, sound in faith, in charity, in patience.

3 The aged women likewise, that they be in behaviour as becometh [4]holiness, not [5]false accusers, not given to much wine, teachers of good things;

4 That they may teach the young women to be [6]sober, to love their husbands, to love their children,

5 To be discreet, chaste, keepers at home, good, [o]obedient to their own husbands, [p]that the word of God be not blasphemed.

6 Young men likewise exhort to be [8]sober minded.

7 [r]In all things shewing thyself a pattern of good works: in doctrine shewing uncorruptness, gravity, [u]sincerity,

8 [y]Sound speech, that cannot be condemned; [z]that he that is of the contrary part may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say of you.

9 Exhort [b]servants to be obedient unto their own masters, and to please them well [c]in all things, not [2]answering again;

10 Not purloining, but shewing all good fidelity; [e]that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things.

11 For [k]the grace of God [3]that bringeth salvation [1]hath appeared to all men,

12 Teaching us [m]that, denying ungodliness [n]and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world;

13 [p]Looking for that blessed [q]hope, and the glorious [r]appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ;

14 [w]Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, [z]and purify unto himself [a]a peculiar people, [b]zealous of good works.

15 These things speak, and [d]exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no man despise thee.

CHAPTER 3.

1 Titus is yet further directed by Paul, both concerning the things he should teach, and not teach
10 He is willed also to reject obstinate heretics

PUT them in mind [b]to be subject to principalities and powers, to obey magistrates, [c]to be ready to every good work,

2 [d]To speak evil of no man, [e]to be no brawlers, but [h]gentle, shewing all [i]meekness unto all men.

3 For [m]we ourselves also were sometimes foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving divers lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another.

4 But after that [p]the kindness and [1]love of [q]God our Saviour toward man appeared,

5 [r]Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by [t]the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost;

6 [x]Which he shed on us [3]abundantly through Jesus Christ our Saviour:

7 [z]That being justified by his grace, [a]we should be made heirs [b]according to the hope of eternal life.

8 [c]This is a faithful saying, and these things I will that thou affirm constantly, that they which have believed in God might be careful [a]to maintain good works. These things are good and profitable unto men.

9 But [f]avoid foolish questions, and genealogies, and contentions, and strivings about the law; [g]for they are unprofitable and vain.

10 A man that is an heretick [f]after the first and second admonition [f]reject;

11 Knowing that he that is such is subverted, and sinneth, [n]being condemned of himself.

12 When I shall send Artemas unto thee, or [o]Tychicus, be diligent to come unto me to Nicopolis: for I have determined there to winter.

13 Bring Zenas the lawyer and [s]Apollos on their journey diligently, that nothing be wanting unto them.

14 And let our's also learn [u]to [2]maintain good works for necessary uses, that they be [y]not unfruitful

15 All that are with me salute thee Greet them that love us in the faith. Grace be with you all. Amen.

2 And to our beloved Apphia, and [d]Archippus [e]our fellowsoldier, and to [h]the church in thy house:

3 [k]Grace to you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 [l]I thank my God, making mention of thee always in my prayers,

5 [m]Hearing of thy love and faith, which thou hast toward the Lord Jesus, and toward all saints;

6 That the communication of thy faith may become effectual [n]by the acknowledging of every good thing which is in you in Christ Jesus.

7 For we have great joy and consolation in thy love, because the bowels of the saints [q]are refreshed by thee, brother.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE HEBREWS.

CHAPTER 1.

Christ is preferred above the angels, both in person and office

GOD, who at sundry times and [c]in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets,
2 Hath [d]in these last days [e]spoken unto us by his Son, [g]whom he hath appointed heir of all things, [k]by whom also he made the worlds;
3 [l]Who being the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person, and [k]upholding all things by the word of his power, [l]when he had by himself purged our sins, [m]sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high;
4 Being made so much better than the angels, as [p]he hath by inheritance obtained a more excellent name than they.
5 For unto which of the angels said he at any time, [r]Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee? And again, [s]I will be to him a Father, and he shall be to me a Son?
6 [t]And again, when he bringeth in [u]the firstbegotten into the world, he saith, [w]And let all the angels of God worship him.
7 And [3]of the angels he saith, [z]Who maketh his angels spirits, and his ministers a flame of fire.
8 But unto the Son he saith, [b]Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: a sceptre of [4]righteousness is the sceptre of thy kingdom.
9 Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity; therefore God, even thy God, [a]hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

10 And, [b]Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the works of thine hands:
11 [y]They shall perish; but thou remainest; and they all shall wax old as doth a garment;
12 And as a vesture shalt thou fold them up, and they shall be changed: but thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail.
13 But to which of the angels said he at any time, [w]Sit on my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool?
14 [c]Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be [d]heirs of salvation?

CHAPTER 2.

1 We ought to be obedient to Christ Jesus, 5 who took our nature upon him.

THEREFORE we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should [4]let them slip.
2 For if the word [z]spoken by angels was stedfast, and [y]every transgression and disobedience received a just recompence of reward;
3 [e]How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation; [c]which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was [d]confirmed unto us by them that heard him, 4 [c]God also bearing them witness, [f]both with signs and wonders, and with divers miracles, and [a]gifts of the Holy Ghost, [b]according to his own will?

5 For unto the angels hath he not put in subjection [c]the world to come, whereof we speak.

6 But one in a certain place testified, saying, [d]What is man, that thou art mindful of him? or the son of man, that thou visitest him?

7 Thou madest him [e]a little lower than the angels; thou crownedst him with glory and honour, and didst set him over the works of thy hands:

8 [f]Thou hast put all things in subjection under his feet. For in that he put all in subjection under him, he left nothing that is not put under him. But now [g]we see not yet all things put under him.

9 But we see Jesus, [h]who was made a little lower than the angels [i]for the suffering of death, [k]crowned with glory and honour; that he by the grace of God should taste death [l]for every man.

10 [m]For it became him, [n]for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons unto glory, to make [o]the captain of their salvation [p]perfect through sufferings.

11 For [q]both he that sanctifieth and they who are sanctified [r]are all of one: for which cause [s]he is not ashamed to call them brethren, 12 Saying, [t]I will declare thy name unto my brethren, in the midst of the church will I sing praise unto thee.

13 And again, [u]I will put my trust in him. And again, [v]Behold I and the children [w]which God hath given me.

14 Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he [x]also himself likewise took part of the same; [y]that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil;

15 And deliver them who [z]through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage.

16 For verily [a]he took not on him the nature of angels; but he took on him the seed of Abraham.

17 Wherefore in all things it behoved him [b]to be made like unto his brethren, that he might be [c]a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people.

18 [d]For in that he himself hath suffered being tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted.

CHAPTER 3.

1 Christ is more worthy than Moses, 7 therefore the more to be regarded.

WHEREFORE, holy brethren, partakers of [a]the heavenly calling, consider [b]the Apostle and High Priest of our profession, Christ Jesus;

2 Who was faithful to him that [c]appointed him, as also [d]Moses was faithful in all his house.

3 For this man was counted worthy of more glory than Moses, inasmuch as [e]he who hath builded the house hath more honour than the house.

4 For every house is builded by some man, but [f]he that built all things is God.

5 [g]And Moses verily was faithful in all his house, as [h]a servant, [i]for a testimony of those things which were to be spoken after;

6 But Christ as [k]a son over his own house; [l]whose house are we, [l]if we hold fast the confidence and the rejoicing of the hope firm unto the end.

7 Wherefore (as [m]the Holy Ghost saith, [n]To day if ye will hear his voice,

8 Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, in the day of temptation in the wilderness:

9 When your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my works forty years.

10 Wherefore I was grieved with that generation, and said, They do alway err in their heart; and they have not known my ways.

11 So I sware in my wrath, [5]They shall not enter into my rest.)

12 Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God.

13 But exhort one another daily, while it is called To day; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin.

14 For we are made partakers of Christ, [o]if we hold the beginning of our confidence stedfast unto the end;

15 While it is said, [p]To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts, as in the provocation

16 [q]For some, when they had heard, did provoke: howbeit not all that came out of Egypt by Moses.

17 But with whom was he grieved forty years? was it not with them that had sinned, [r]whose carcases fell in the wilderness?

18 And [s]to whom sware he that they should not enter into his rest, but to them that believed not?

19 So we see that they could not enter in because of unbelief.

CHAPTER 4.

1 The rest of Christians is attained by faith. 12 The power of God's word. 14 By our high priest Jesus, 16 we must go boldly to the throne of grace

LET [d] us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it.

2 For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but [1] the word preached did not profit them, [2] not being mixed with faith in them that heard it.

3 [f] For we which have believed do enter into rest, as he said, [g] As I have sworn in my wrath, if they shall enter into my rest although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.

4 For he spake in a certain place of the seventh day on this wise, [4] And God did rest the seventh day from all his works

5 And in this place again, If they shall enter into my rest.

6 Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter therein, [n] and they to whom [4] it was first preached entered not in because of unbelief:

7 Again, he limiteth a certain day, saying in David, To day, after so long a time; as it is said, [q] To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

8 For if [5] Jesus had given them rest, then would he not afterward have spoken of another day.

9 There remaineth therefore a [7] rest to the people of God

10 For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his.

11 Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of [8] unbelief.

12 For the word of God is [z] quick, and powerful, and [b] sharper than any [c] twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is [e] a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart

13 [f] Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked [h] and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do.

14 Seeing then that we have a great high priest, [k] that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, [l] let us hold fast our profession.

15 For [m] we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but [o] was in all points tempted like as we are, [p] yet without sin.

16 [c] Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.

CHAPTER 5.

1 The authority of our Saviour's priesthood 11 Negligence in the knowledge thereof is reproved

FOR every high priest taken from among men [s] is ordained for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins:

2 Who [3] can have compassion on the ignorant, and on them that are out of the way; for that he himself also is compassed with infirmity.

3 And [h] by reason hereof he ought, as for the people, so also for himself, to offer for sins.

4 [k] And no man taketh this honour unto himself, but he that is called of God, as [t] was Aaron.

5 [m] So also Christ glorified not himself to be made an high priest; but he that said unto him, [o] Thou art my Son, to day have I begotten thee.

6 As he saith also in another place, [p] Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

7 Who in the days of his flesh, when he had [r] offered up prayers and supplications [4] with strong crying and tears unto him [t] that was able to save him from death, and was heard [u] in [6] that he feared;

8 [x] Though he were a Son, yet learned he [y] obedience by the things which he suffered;

9 And being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him;

10 Called of God an high priest after the order of Melchisedec.

11 Of whom [a] we have many things to say, and hard to be uttered, seeing ye are [d] dull of hearing.

12 For when for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again which be the first principles of the oracles of God; and are become such as have need of [g] milk, and not of strong meat.

13 For every one that useth milk [9] is unskilful in the word of righteousness: for he is [t] a babe.

14 But strong meat belongeth to them that are [1] of full age, even those who by reason [2] of use have their senses exercised [m] to discern both good and evil.

CHAPTER 6.

1 An exhortation to be stedfast in the faith, 13 seeing God is most sure in his promise

THEREFORE [a]leaving [1]the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance [c]from dead works, and of faith toward God,

2 [d]Of the doctrine of baptisms, [e]and of laying on of hands, [f]and of resurrection of the dead, [g]and of eternal judgment.

3 And this will we do, [h]if God permit.

4 For [i]it is impossible for those [k]who were once enlightened, and have tasted of [l]the heavenly gift, and [m]were made partakers of the Holy Ghost,

5 And have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of [n]the world to come,

6 If they shall fall away, to [o]renew them again unto repentance; [p]seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame.

7 For the earth which drinketh in the rain that cometh oft upon it, and bringeth forth herbs meet for them [3]by whom it is dressed, [q]receiveth blessing from God:

8 [r]But that which beareth thorns and briers is rejected, and is nigh unto cursing; whose end is to be burned.

9 But, beloved, we are persuaded better things of you, and things that accompany salvation, though we thus speak.

10 [s]For [t]God is not unrighteous to forget [u]your work and labour of love, which ye have shewed toward his name, in that ye have [v]ministered to the saints, and do minister.

11 And we desire that [w]every one of you do shew the same diligence [x]to the full assurance of hope unto the end:

12 That ye be not slothful, but followers of them who through faith and patience [y]inherit the promises.

13 For when God made promise to Abraham, because he could swear by no greater, [z]he sware by himself, 14 Saying, Surely blessing I will bless thee, and multiplying I will multiply thee.

15 And so, after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise.

16 For men verily swear by the greater: and [m]an oath for confirmation is to them an end of all strife.

17 Wherein God, willing more abundantly to shew unto [n]the heirs of promise [o]the immutability of his counsel, [5]confirmed it by an oath:

18 That by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope [b]set before us:

19 Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and stedfast, [c]and which entereth into that within the veil;

20 [d]Whither the forerunner is for us entered, even Jesus, [4]made an high priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

CHAPTER 7.

1 Christ Jesus is a priest after the order of Melchisedec 11 and so, far more excellent than the priests of Aaron's order

FOR this [g]Melchisedec, king of Salem, priest of the most high God, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him;

2 To whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all; first being by interpretation King of righteousness, and after that also King of Salem, which is, King of peace;

3 Without father, without mother, [2]without descent, having neither beginning of days, nor end of life; but made like unto the Son of God; abideth a priest continually.

4 Now consider how great this man was, [r]unto whom even the patriarch Abraham gave the tenth of the spoils.

5 And verily [s]they that are of the sons of Levi, who receive the office of the priesthood, have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brethren, though they come out of the loins of Abraham:

6 But he whose [4]descent is not counted from them received tithes of Abraham, [t]and blessed [u]him that had the promises.

7 And without all contradiction the less is blessed of the better.

8 And here men that die receive tithes; but there he receiveth them, [v]of whom it is witnessed that he liveth.

9 And as I may so say, Levi also, who receiveth tithes, payed tithes in Abraham.

10 For he was yet in the loins of his father, when Melchisedec met him.

11 [w]If therefore perfection were by the Levitical priesthood, (for under it the people received the law,) what further need was there that another priest should rise after the order of Melchisedec, and not be called after the order of Aaron?

12 For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law.

13 For he of whom these things are spoken pertaineth to another tribe, of which no man gave attendance at the altar.

14 For it is evident that [b]our Lord sprang out of Juda; of which tribe Moses spake nothing concerning priesthood.

15 And it is yet far more evident: for that after the similitude of Melchisedec there ariseth another priest, 16 Who is made, not after the law of a carnal commandment, but after the power of an endless life.

17 For he testifieth, [g]Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

18 For there is verily a disannulling of the commandment going before for [i]the weakness and unprofitableness thereof.

19 For [j]the law made nothing perfect, [3]but the bringing in of [m]a better hope did; by the which [o]we draw nigh unto God.

20 And inasmuch as not without an oath he was made priest:

21 (For those priests were made [s]without an oath; but this with an oath by him that said unto him, [q]The Lord sware and will not repent, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec:)

22 By so much [4]was Jesus made a surety of a better testament.

23 And they truly were many priests, because they were not suffered to continue by reason of death:

24 But this man, because he continueth ever, hath [6]an unchangeable priesthood.

25 Wherefore he is able also to save them [7]to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth [u]to make intercession for them.

26 For such an high priest became us, [v]who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, [x]and made higher than the heavens;

27 Who needeth not daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifice, [b]first for his own sins, [c]and then for the people's: for [d]this he did once, when he offered up himself.

28 For the law maketh [f]men high priests which have infirmity; but the word of the oath, which was since the law, maketh the Son, [h]who is [1]consecrated for evermore.

CHAPTER 8.

By the eternal priesthood of Christ the Levitical priesthood of Aaron is abolished.

NOW of the things which we have spoken this is the sum: We have such an high priest, [a]who is set on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens;

2 A minister [1]of [c]the sanctuary, and of [d]the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, and not man.

3 For [e]every high priest is ordained to offer gifts and sacrifices: wherefore [f]it is of necessity that this man have somewhat also to offer.

4 For if he were on earth, he should not be a priest, seeing that [2]there are priests that offer gifts according to the law:

5 Who serve unto the example and [h]shadow of heavenly things, as Moses was admonished of God when he was about to make the tabernacle: [k]for, See, saith he, that thou make all things according to the pattern shewed to thee in the mount.

6 But now [l]hath he obtained a more excellent ministry, by how much also he is the mediator of a better [4]covenant, which was established upon better promises.

7 [p]For if that first covenant had been faultless, then should no place have been sought for the second.

8 For finding fault with them, he saith, [r]Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah:

9 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; because they continued not in my covenant, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord.

10 For [t]this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, saith the Lord; I will [8]put my laws into their mind, and write them [9]in their hearts: and [z]I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people:

11 And [a]they shall not teach every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for all shall know me, from the least to the greatest.

12 For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, [e]and their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more.

13 [y]In that he saith, A new covenant, he hath made the first old. Now that which decayeth and waxeth old is ready to vanish away.

CHAPTER 9.

1 Description of the rites and bloody sacrifices of the law 11 far inferior to the dignity and perfection of the blood and sacrifice of Christ

THEN verily the first covenant had also [1] ordinances of divine service, and [a] a worldly sanctuary.

2 [b] For there was a tabernacle made, the first, [c] wherein was [d] the candlestick, and [e] the table, and the shewbread; which is called [f] the sanctuary

3 [g] And after the second veil, the tabernacle which is called the Holiest of all;

4 Which had the golden censer, and [h] the ark of the covenant overlaid round about with gold, wherein was [i] the golden pot that had manna, and [k] Aaron's rod that budded, and [l] the tables of the covenant;

5 And [m] over it the cherubims of glory shadowing the mercyseat; of which we cannot now speak particularly.

6 Now when these things were thus ordained, [n] the priests went always into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the service of God.

7 But into the second went the high priest alone [o] once every year, not without blood, [p] which he offered for himself, and for the errors of the people:

8 [q] The Holy Ghost this signifying, that [r] the way into the holiest of all was not yet made manifest, while as the first tabernacle was yet standing.

9 Which was a figure for the time then present, in which were offered both gifts and sacrifices, [s] that could not make him that did the service perfect, as pertaining to the conscience;

10 Which stood only in [t] meats and drinks, and [u] divers washings, [v] and carnal [w] ordinances, imposed on them until the time of reformation.

11 But Christ being come [x] an high priest [y] of good things to come, [z] by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building;

12 Neither [a] by the blood of goats and calves, but [b] by his own blood he entered in [c] once into the holy place, [d] having obtained eternal redemption for us.

13 For if [e] the blood of bulls and of goats, and [f] the ashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh:

14 How much more [g] shall the blood of Christ, [h] who through the eternal Spirit [k] offered himself without [l] spot to God, [m] purge your conscience from [n] dead works [o] to serve the living God?

15 [a] And for this cause [b] he is the mediator of the new testament, [c] that by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament, [d] they which are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance.

16 For where a testament is, there must also of necessity [1] be the death of the testator.

17 For [2] a testament is of force after men are dead: otherwise it is of no strength at all while the testator liveth.

18 [3] Whereupon neither the first testament was [4] dedicated without blood.

19 For when Moses had spoken every precept to all the people according to the law, [5] he took the blood of calves and of goats, [6] with water, and [7] scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book, and all the people, 20 Saying, [8] This is the blood of the testament which God hath enjoined unto you.

21 Moreover [9] he sprinkled with blood both the tabernacle, and all the vessels of the ministry.

22 And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and [10] without shedding of blood is no remission

23 It was therefore necessary that [11] the patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.

24 For [12] Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of [13] the true; but into heaven itself, now [14] to appear in the presence of God for us:

25 Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as [15] the high priest entereth into the holy place every year with blood of others;

26 For then must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world: but now [16] once [17] in the end of the world hath he appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself

27 [18] And as it is appointed unto men once to die, [19] but after this the judgment:

28 So [20] Christ was once [21] offered to bear the sins [22] of many; and unto them that [23] look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation.

CHAPTER 10.

1 The weakness of the law sacrifices 10 The sacrifice of Christ's body once offered 14 for ever hath taken away sins 19 An exhortation to hold fast the faith, with patience and thanksgiving

FOR the law having [a] a shadow [b] of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, [a] can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers thereunto [c] perfect.

2 For then [1] would they not have ceased to be offered? because that the worshippers once purged should have had no more conscience of sins.

3 [h] But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance again made of sins every year.

4 For [m] it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins.

5 Wherefore when he cometh into the world, he saith, [o] Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not, but a body [2] hast thou prepared me:

6 In burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin thou hast had no pleasure.

7 Then said I, Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me,) to do thy will, O God.

8 Above when he said, Sacrifice and offering and burnt offerings and offering for sin thou wouldest not, neither hadst pleasure therein; which are offered by the law;

9 Then said he, Lo, I come to do thy will, O God. He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second.

10 [a] By the which will we are sanctified [b] through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

11 And every priest standeth [d] daily ministering and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, [f] which can never take away sins:

12 [h] But this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins [n] for ever, sat down on the right hand of God;

13 From henceforth expecting [t] till his enemies be made his footstool.

14 For by one offering [c] he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified.

15 Whereof the Holy Ghost also is a witness to us: for after that he had said before,

16 [r] This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, saith the Lord, I will put my laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them;

17 [4] And their sins and iniquities will I remember no more.

18 Now where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin.

19 Having therefore, brethren, [y] boldness [5] to enter [a] into the holiest by the blood of Jesus,

20 By [6] a new and living way, which he hath [6] consecrated for us, [f] through the veil, that is to say, his flesh;

21 And having [b] an high priest over [c] the house of God;

22 [d] Let us draw near with a true heart [f] in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled [g] from an evil conscience, and [h] our bodies washed with pure water.

23 [i] Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; (for [k] he is faithful that promised;)

24 And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works:

25 [n] Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is, but exhorting one another: and [p] so much the more, as ye see [q] the day approaching.

26 For [r] if we sin wilfully [s] after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins, 27 But a certain fearful looking for of judgment and [t] fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries.

28 [u] He that despised Moses' law died without mercy [x] under two or three witnesses:

29 [y] Of how much sorer punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and [z] hath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, an unholy thing, [a] and hath done despite unto the Spirit of grace?

30 For we know him that hath said, [e] Vengeance belongeth unto me, I will recompense, saith the Lord. And again, [g] The Lord shall judge his people.

31 [t] It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

32 But [k] call to remembrance the former days, in which, [m] after ye were illuminated, ye endured [n] a great fight of afflictions;

33 Partly, whilst ye were made [p] a gazingstock both by reproaches and afflictions; and partly, whilst [q] ye became companions of them that were so used.

34 For ye had compassion of me [s] in my bonds, and [t] took joyfully the spoiling of your goods, knowing [3] in yourselves that [u] ye have in heaven a better and an enduring substance.

35 Cast not away therefore your confidence, [x] which hath great recompence of reward.

36 [4] For ye have need of patience, that, after ye have done the will of God, [b] ye might receive the promise.

37 For [d] yet a little while, and [e] he that shall come will come, and will not tarry.

38 Now [t]the just shall live by faith but if any man draw back, my soul shall have no pleasure in him.
39 But we are not of them who draw back unto perdition, but of them that [u]believe to the saving of the soul.

CHAPTER 11

1 What faith is. 3 The fruits thereof in the former times.

NOW faith is the [1]substance of things hoped for, the evidence [v]of things not seen.
2 For [w]by it the elders obtained a good report.
3 Through faith we understand that [x]the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear.
4 By faith [y]Abel offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, by which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts: and by it he being dead [z]yet[2] speaketh.
5 By faith [a]Enoch was translated that he should not see death; and was not found, because God had translated him: for before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased God.
6 But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.
7 By faith [b]Noah, being warned of God of things not seen as yet, [c]moved with fear, [d]prepared an ark to the saving of his house; by the which he condemned the world, and became heir of [e]the righteousness which is by faith.
8 By faith [f]Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went.
9 By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange country, [g]dwelling in tabernacles with Isaac and Jacob, [h]the heirs with him of the same promise:
10 For he looked for [i]a city which hath foundations, [k]whose builder and maker is God.
11 Through faith also [l]Sara herself received strength to conceive seed, and [m]was delivered of a child when she was past age, because she judged him
[n]faithful who had promised.
12 Therefore sprang there even of one, and [o]him as good as dead, [p]so many as the stars of the sky in multitude, and as the sand which is by the sea shore innumerable.
13 These all died [3]in faith, [q]not having received the promises, but [r]having seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and [s]confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.

14 For they that say such things
[t]declare plainly that they seek a country.
15 And truly, if they had been mindful of that country from whence they came out, they might have had opportunity to have returned.
16 But now they desire a better coun- try, that is, an heavenly: wherefore
God is not ashamed [u]to be called their God: for [v]he hath prepared for them a city.
17 By faith [w]Abraham, when he was tried, offered up Isaac: and he that had received the promises [x]offered up his only begotten son,
18 [2]Of whom it was said, [y]That in Isaac shall thy seed be called:
19 Accounting that God [z]was able to raise him up, even from the dead; from whence also he received him in a figure.
20 By faith [a]Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau concerning things to come.
21 By faith Jacob, when he was a dying, [b]blessed both the sons of Joseph, and [c]worshipped, leaning upon the top of his staff.
22 By faith [d]Joseph, when he died,
[3]made mention of the departing of the children of Israel; and gave commandment concerning his bones.
23 By faith [e]Moses, when he was born, was hid three months of his parents, because they saw he was a proper child; and they were not afraid of the king's [4]commandment.
24 By faith [f]Moses, when he was come to years, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter;
25 [g]Choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season;
26 Esteeming [5]the reproach [6]of Christ greater riches than the treasures in Egypt: for he had respect unto [h]the recompence of the reward.
27 By faith [i]he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured, as [k]seeing him who is invisible.
28 Through faith [l]he kept the passover, and the sprinkling of blood, lest he that destroyed the firstborn should touch them.
29 By faith [m]they passed through the Red sea as by dry land: which the Egyptians assaying to do were drowned.
30 By faith [n]the walls of Jericho fell down, after they were compassed about seven days.

31 By faith [a]the harlot Rahab perished not with them [1]that believed not, when [c]she had received the spies with peace.

32 And what shall I more say? for the time would fail me to tell of [c]Gedeon, and of Barak, and of [j]Samson, and of [k]Jephthae; of [l]David also, and [k]Samuel, and of the prophets.

33 Who through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, [t]obtained promises, [m]stopped the mouths of lions, 34 [n]Quenched the violence of fire, [p]escaped the edge of the sword, [q]out of weakness were made strong, waxed valiant in fight, [r]turned to flight the armies of the aliens.

35 [s]Women received their dead raised to life again: and others were [u]tortured, not accepting deliverance; that they might obtain a better resurrection:

36 And others had trial of cruel mockings and scourgings, yea, moreover [y]of bonds and imprisonment:

37 [a]They were stoned, they were [2]sawn asunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword: [b]they wandered about [c]in sheepskins and goatskins; being destitute, afflicted, tormented;

38 (Of whom the world was not worthy:) they wandered in deserts, and in mountains, and [g]in dens and caves of the earth.

39 And these all, [f]having obtained a good report through faith, received not the promise:

40 God having [4]provided some better thing for us, that they without us should not be [u]made perfect.

CHAPTER 12

1 An exhortation to constant faith, patience, and godliness. 22 A commendation of the new testament above the old

WHEREFORE seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, [r]let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and [s]let us run [u]with patience the race that is set before us,

2 Looking unto Jesus the [7]author and finisher of our faith; [z]who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and [z]is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

3 [a]For consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, [c]lest ye be wearied and faint in your minds

4 [d]Ye have not yet resisted unto blood, striving against sin.

5 And ye have forgotten the exhortation which speaketh unto you as unto children, [b]My son, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him.

6 For [a]whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.

7 [g]If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons; for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not?

8 But if ye be without chastisement, [u]whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons.

9 Furthermore we have had fathers of our flesh which corrected us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto [t]the Father of spirits, and live?

10 For they verily for a few days chastened us [2]after their own pleasure; but he for our profit, [z]that we might be partakers of his holiness

11 Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless afterward it yieldeth [z]the peaceable fruit of righteousness unto them which are exercised thereby.

12 Wherefore [d]lift up the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees;

13 [e]And make [3]straight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way; [f]but let it rather be healed.

14 [h]Follow peace with all men, and holiness, [z]without which no man shall see the Lord:

15 Looking diligently [l]lest any man [5]fail of the grace of God, [m]lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and thereby many be defiled;

16 [o]Lest there be any fornicator, or profane person, as Esau, [p]who for one morsel of meat sold his birthright.

17 For ye know how that afterward, [q]when he would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected: for he found no [6]place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears.

18 For ye are not come unto [t]the mount that might be touched and that burned with fire, nor unto blackness, and darkness, and tempest,

19 And the sound of a trumpet, and the voice of words; which voice they that heard [y]intreated that the word should not be spoken to them any more:

20 (For they could not endure that which was commanded, [b]And if so much as a beast touch the mountain, it shall be stoned, or thrust through with a dart that Moses said, I exceedingly fear and quake)

21 [e]And so terrible was the sight.

22 But ye are come [b]unto mount Sion, [c]and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, [t]and to an innumerable company of angels,

23 To the general assembly and church of [g]the firstborn, [h]which are [i]written in heaven, and to God [k]the Judge of all, and to the spirits of just men [l]made perfect,

24 And to Jesus [m]the mediator of the new [2]covenant, and to [o]the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things [p]than that of Abel

25 See that ye refuse not him that speaketh For [q]if they escaped not who refused him that spake on earth, much more shall not we escape, if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven

26 [r]Whose voice then shook the earth but now he hath promised saying, [s]Yet once more I shake not the earth only, but also heaven

27 And this word, Yet once more, signifieth [t]the removing of those things that [4]are shaken, as of things that are made, that those things which cannot be shaken may remain

28 Wherefore we receiving a kingdom which cannot be moved [6]let us have grace, whereby we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear

29 For [y]our God is a consuming fire

¶ Written to the Hebrews from Italy by Timothy

THE GENERAL EPISTLE OF JAMES.

CHAPTER 1.

1 We are to rejoice under the cross, 5 to ask patience, 13 and in our trials not to impute our weakness, or sins, unto God, 19 but to hearken to the word, and to do thereafter.

JAMES, [a] [b]a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, [c]to the twelve tribes [d]which are scattered abroad, greeting.

2 My brethren, [e]count it all joy [m]when ye fall into divers temptations;

3 [f]Knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience.

4 But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing.

5 [g]If any of you lack wisdom, [h]let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and [n]it shall be given him.

6 [z]But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering. For he that wavereth is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed.

7 For let not that man think that he shall receive any thing of the Lord.

8 [i]A double minded man is unstable in all his ways.

9 Let the brother of low degree [1]rejoice in that he is exalted:

10 But the rich, in that he is made low: because [k]as the flower of the grass he shall pass away.

11 For the sun is no sooner risen with a burning heat, but it withereth the grass, and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: so also shall the rich man fade away in his ways.

12 [l]Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive [h]the crown of life, [i]which the Lord hath promised to them that love him.

13 Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with [3]evil, neither tempteth he any man:

14 But every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed.

15 Then [m]when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin: and sin, when it is finished, [n]bringeth forth death.

16 Do not err, my beloved brethren.

17 [o]Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, [p]with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning.

18 [q]Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth, [b]that we should be a kind of [c]firstfruits of his creatures.

19 Wherefore, my beloved brethren, [g]let every man be swift to hear, [k]slow to speak, [k]slow to wrath:

20 For the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God.

21 Wherefore [n]lay apart all filthiness and superfluity of naughtiness, and receive with meekness the engrafted word, [p]which is able to save your souls.

22 But [q]be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves

23 For [r]if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass:

24 For he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was.

25 But [y]whoso looketh into the perfect [a]law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, [b]this man shall be blessed in his [2]deed.

26 If any man among you seem to be religious, and [d]bridleth not his tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, this man's religion is vain.

27 Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, [e]To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, [f]and to keep himself unspotted from the world.

CHAPTER 2.

1 It is not agreeable to Christian profession to regard the rich, and to despise the poor but rather to be loving and merciful 14 not to boast of faith where no deeds are, 17 which is but a dead faith.

MY brethren, have not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, [k]the Lord of glory, with [l]respect of persons.

2 For if there come unto your [4]assembly a man with a gold ring, in goodly apparel, and there come in also a poor man in vile raiment;

3 And ye have respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say unto him, Sit thou here [5]in a good place; and say to the poor, Stand thou there, or sit here under my footstool:

4 Are ye not then partial in yourselves, and are become judges of evil thoughts?

5 Hearken, my beloved brethren,

[a] Hath not God chosen the poor of this world [b] rich in faith, and heirs of [1] the kingdom [c] which he hath promised to them that love him?

6 But [a] ye have despised the poor. Do not rich men oppress you, [2] and draw you before the judgment seats?

7 Do not they blaspheme that worthy name by the which ye are called?

8 If ye fulfil the royal law according to the scripture, [d] Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ye do well:

9 But [e] if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors.

10 For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, [f] he is guilty of all.

11 For [g] he that said, [h] Do not commit adultery, said also, Do not kill. Now if thou commit no adultery, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressor of the law.

12 So speak ye, and so do, as they that shall be judged by [i] the law of liberty.

13 For [k] he shall have judgment without mercy, that hath shewed no mercy; and [l] mercy [3] rejoiceth against judgment.

14 [m] What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, and have not works? can faith save him?

15 [n] If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food, 16 And [o] one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body; what doth it profit?

17 Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being [1] alone.

18 Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith [2] without thy works, [c] and I will shew thee my faith by my works.

19 Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: [f] the devils also believe, and tremble.

20 But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead?

21 Was not Abraham our father justified by works, [g] when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar?

22 [4] Seest thou [4] how faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect?

23 And the scripture was fulfilled which saith, [h] Abraham believed God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness: and he was called [i] the Friend of God.

24 Ye see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only.

25 Likewise also [k] was not Rahab the harlot justified by works, when she had received the messengers, and had sent them out another way?

26 For as the body without the [2] spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also.

CHAPTER 3.

1 We are not rashly or arrogantly to reprove others 5 but rather to bridle the tongue 13 They who be truly wise be mild, and peaceable, without envying, and strife

MY brethren, [f] be not many masters, [h] knowing that we shall receive the greater [1] condemnation.

2 For [k] in many things we offend all. [l] If any man offend not in word, [m] the same is a perfect man, and able also to bridle the whole body.

3 Behold, [n] we put bits in the horses' mouths, that they may obey us; and we turn about their whole body.

4 Behold also the ships, which though they be so great, and are driven of fierce winds, yet are they turned about with a very small helm, whithersoever the governor listeth.

5 Even so [r] the tongue is a little member, and [2] boasteth great things. Behold, how great [3] a matter a little fire kindleth!

6 And [z] the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among our members, that [4] it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the [7] course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell.

7 For every [8] kind of beasts, and of birds, and of serpents, and of things in the sea, is tamed, and hath been tamed of [9] mankind:

8 But the tongue can no man tame; it is an unruly evil, [c] full of deadly poison.

9 Therewith bless we God, even the Father; and therewith curse we men, [d] which are made after the similitude of God.

10 Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be.

11 Doth a fountain send forth at the same [3] place sweet water and bitter?

12 Can the fig tree, my brethren, bear olive berries? either a vine, figs? so can no fountain both yield salt water and fresh.

13 [h] Who is a wise man and endued with knowledge among you? let him shew out of a good conversation [k] his works [l] with meekness of wisdom.

14 But if ye have [m] bitter envying and strife in your hearts, [o] glory not, and lie not against the truth.

15 [q] This wisdom descendeth not from above, but is earthly, [5] sensual, devilish.

16 For [r] where envying and strife is, there is [6] confusion and every evil work.

17 But [a]the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easy to be intreated, full of mercy and good fruits, [1]without partiality, and without hypocrisy.

18 [c]And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace of them that make peace.

CHAPTER 4.

1 We are to strive against covetousness 4 intemperance 5 pride 11 detraction etc 13 and unlawful over of the uncertainty of this life to commit our selves and all our affairs to God's providence

FROM whence come wars and [2]fightings among you? come they not hence, even of your [d]lusts [h]that war in your members?

2 Ye lust, and have not: ye [e]kill, and desire to have, and cannot obtain: ye fight and war, yet ye have not, because ye ask not.

3 [i]Ye ask, and receive not, [2]because ye ask amiss, that ye may consume it upon your [5]lusts

4 [o]Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that [p]the friendship of the world is enmity with God? [l]whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God

5 Do ye think that the scripture saith in vain, [t]The spirit that dwelleth in us lusteth [6]to envy?

6 But he giveth more grace. Wherefore he saith, [u]God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble.

7 Submit yourselves therefore to God. [y]Resist the devil, and he will flee from you

8 [z]Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. [a]Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and [c]purify your hearts, ye [d]double minded

9 [e]Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to heaviness.

10 [h]Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up.

11 [k]Speak not evil one of another, brethren. He that speaketh evil of his brother, [m]and judgeth his brother, speaketh evil of the law, and judgeth the law: but if thou judge the law, thou art not a doer of the law, but a judge.

12 There is one lawgiver, [p]who is able to save and to destroy: [r]who art thou that judgest another?

13 [t]Go to now, ye that say, To day or to morrow we will go into such a city, and continue there a year, and buy and sell, and get gain:

14 Whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? [x]It [9]is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Wicked rich men are to fear God's vengeance 7 Of patience under affliction 13 We ought to pray in adversity 16 to acknowledge mutually our several faults and to pray one for another

GO [g]to now, ye rich men, weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you.

2 Your riches are corrupted, and [8]your garments are motheaten

3 Your gold and silver is cankered; and the rust of them shall be a witness against you, and shall eat your flesh as it were fire. [m]Ye have heaped treasure together for the last days.

4 Behold, [n]the hire of the labourers who have reaped down your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, crieth: and [r]the cries of them which have reaped are entered into the ears of the Lord of sabaoth.

5 [s]Ye have lived in pleasure on the earth, and been wanton; ye have nourished your hearts, as in a day of slaughter.

6 [x]Ye have condemned and killed the just; and he doth not resist you.

7 [7]Be patient therefore, brethren, unto the coming of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, until he receive [b]the early and latter rain.

8 Be ye also patient; stablish your hearts: [f]for the coming of the Lord draweth nigh.

9 [g]Grudge[8] not one against another, brethren, lest ye be condemned: behold, the judge [i]standeth before the door.

10 [l]Take, my brethren, the prophets, who have spoken in the name of the Lord, for an example of suffering affliction, and of patience.

11 Behold, [n]we count them happy which endure. Ye have heard of [o]the patience of Job, and have seen [t]the end of the Lord; that [t]the Lord is very pitiful, and of tender mercy.

12 But above all things, my brethren, [u]swear not, neither by heaven, neither by the earth, neither by any other oath: but let your yea be yea; and your nay, nay; lest ye fall into condemnation

13 Is any among you afflicted? let him pray. Is any merry? [y]let him sing psalms.

14 Is any sick among you? let him call for the elders of the church; and let them pray over him, [b]anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord:
15 And the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; [c]and if he have committed sins, they shall be forgiven him.

ye may be healed. [d]The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man

THE FIRST EPISTLE GENERAL OF PETER.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Peter blesseth God for his manifold spiritual graces.
10 Shewing that the salvation in Christ was prophesied of old: 13 and exhorteth them accordingly to a godly conversation.

PETER, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the strangers [b]scattered throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia,
2 [d]Elect [c]according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, [f]through sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and [i]sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ: [k]Grace unto you, and peace, be multiplied.
3 [m]Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which [n]according to his [o]abundant mercy [p]hath begotten us again unto a lively hope [r]by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,
4 To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, [u]reserved in heaven [s]for you, 5 [y]Who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.
6 [b]Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now [c]for a season, if need be, [d]ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations:
7 That [f]the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though [h]it be tried with fire, [i]might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ:
8 [n]Whom having not seen, ye love:
[o]in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory:
9 Receiving [q]the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls.

have enquired and searched dili-that should come unto you:

11 Searching what, or what manner testified beforehand [c]the sufferings of Christ, and the glory that should follow.

here in fear:
18 Forasmuch as ye know [m]that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation [p]received by tradition from your fathers;
19 But [r]with the precious blood of Christ, [s]as of a lamb without blemish and without spot:

20 [a]Who verily was foreordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifest [c]in these last times for you,

21 Who by him do believe in God, [d]that raised him up from the dead, and [f]gave him glory; that your faith and hope might be in God.

22 Seeing ye [h]have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned [i]love of the brethren, see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently:

23 [n]Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, [p]by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever.

24 [3]For [q]all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away:

25 [s]But the word of the Lord endureth for ever. [t]And this is the word which by the gospel is preached unto you.

CHAPTER 2.

1 He dissuadeth them from the breach of charity 4 shewing that Christ is the foundation whereupon they are built. 11 He beseecheth them also to abstain from fleshly lusts, 13 to be obedient to magistrates, etc 18 The duty of servants.

WHEREFORE [a]laying aside all malice, and all guile, and hypocrisies, and envies, and all evil speakings,

2 [f]As newborn babes, desire the sincere [h]milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby:

3 If so be ye have [t]tasted that the Lord is gracious.

4 To whom coming, as unto a living stone, [k]disallowed indeed of men, but chosen of God, and precious,

5 [m]Ye also, as lively stones, [7]are built up [o]a spiritual house, [o]an holy priesthood, to offer up [p]spiritual sacrifices, [q]acceptable to God by Jesus Christ.

6 Wherefore also it is contained in the scripture, [r]Behold, I lay in Sion a chief corner stone, elect, precious: and he that believeth on him shall not be confounded.

7 Unto you therefore which believe he is [1]precious: but unto them which be disobedient, [y]the stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner, 8 [z]And a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence, [c]even to them which stumble at the word, being disobedient: [e]whereunto also they were appointed.

[4] or, a purchased people

shew forth the [1]praises of him who hath called you out of [b]darkness into his marvellous light:

10 [d]Which in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God: which had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy.

11 Dearly beloved, I beseech you [g]as strangers and pilgrims, [f]abstain from fleshly lusts, [k]which war against the soul;

12 [m]Having your conversation honest among the Gentiles: that, [2]whereas they speak against you as evildoers, [o]they may by your good works, which they shall behold, glorify God in the day of visitation.

13 [r]Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake: whether it be to the king, as supreme;

14 Or unto governors, as unto them that are sent by him [u]for the punishment of evildoers, and [z]for the praise of them that do well.

15 For so is the will of God, that [y]with well doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men:

16 [f]As free, and not [4]using your liberty for a cloke of maliciousness, but as [b]the servants of God.

17 [c]Honour[5] all men. [d]Love the brotherhood. [e]Fear God. Honour the king.

18 [g]Servants, be subject to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward.

19 For this is [k]thankworthy,[6] if a man for conscience toward God endure grief, suffering wrongfully.

20 For what glory is it, if, when ye be buffeted for your faults, ye shall take it patiently? but if, when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye take it patiently, this is [8]acceptable with God.

21 For [r]even hereunto were ye called: because Christ also suffered [9]for us, [t]leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps:

22 [u]Who did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth:

23 [x]Who, when he was reviled, reviled not again; when he suffered, he threatened not; but [2]committed[2] himself to him that judgeth righteously:

24 [b]Who his own self bare our sins in his own body [3]on the tree, [d]that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: [f]by whose stripes ye were healed.

25 For [h]ye were as sheep going astray; but are now returned [i]unto the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls.

1 [a]Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be [b]partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust.

5 And beside this, [c]giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue, and to virtue [d]knowledge;

6 And to knowledge temperance; and to temperance patience; and to patience godliness;

7 And to godliness brotherly kindness; and [e]to brotherly kindness charity.

8 For if these things be in you, and abound, they make you that ye shall neither be [f]barren [g]nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 But he that lacketh these things [h]is blind, and cannot see afar off, and hath forgotten that he was [i]purged from his old sins.

10 Wherefore the rather, brethren, give diligence [k]to make your calling and election sure: for if ye do these things, ye shall never fall:

11 For so an entrance shall be ministered unto you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

12 Wherefore [l]I will not be negligent to put you always in remembrance of these things, [m]though ye know them, and be established in the present truth.

13 Yea, I think it meet, [n]as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stir you up by putting you in remembrance;

14 [o]Knowing that shortly I must put off this my tabernacle even as [p]our Lord Jesus Christ hath shewed me.

15 Moreover I will endeavour that ye may be able after my decease to have these things always in remembrance.

16 For we have not followed [q]cunningly devised fables, when we made known unto you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but [r]were eyewitnesses of his majesty.

17 For he received from God the Father honour and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, [s]This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

18 And this voice which came from heaven we heard, when we were with him in [t]the holy mount.

19 We have also a more sure word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto [u]a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and [v]the day star arise in your hearts:

20 Knowing this first, that [b]no prophecy of the scripture is of any private interpretation.

21 For [d]the prophecy came not [l]in old time by the will of man: [c]but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost.

CHAPTER 2.

1 Of false teachers shewing the punishment both of them and their followers 7 from which the godly shall be delivered, as Lot was out of Sodom.

BUT [h]there were false prophets also among the people, even as [i]there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even [i]denying the Lord [m]that bought them, [n]and bring upon themselves swift destruction.

2 And many shall follow their pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of.

3 And [i]through covetousness shall they with feigned words [i]make merchandise of you: [i]whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not.

4 For if God spared not [z]the angels [y]that sinned, but [z]cast them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved unto judgment;

5 And spared not the old world, but saved [b]Noah the eighth person, [a]a preacher of righteousness, [d]bringing in the flood upon the world of the ungodly;

6 And [f]turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrha into ashes condemned them with an overthrow, [h]making them an ensample unto those that after should live ungodly;

7 And [g]delivered just Lot, vexed with the filthy conversation of the wicked:

8 (For that righteous man dwelling among them, [m]in seeing and hearing vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds;)

9 [o]The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished:

10 But chiefly [q]them that walk after the flesh in the lust of uncleanness, and despise [q]government. [r]Presumptuous are they, selfwilled, they are not afraid to speak evil of dignities.

11 Whereas [s]angels, which are greater in power and might, bring not railing accusation [b]against them before the Lord.

12 But these, [z]as natural brute beasts, made to be taken and destroyed, speak evil of the things that they understand not; and shall utterly perish in their own corruption;

13 [a]And shall receive the reward of unrighteousness, as they that count it pleasure [c]to riot in the day time. [d]Spots they are and blemishes, sporting themselves with their own deceivings while [e]they feast with you;

14 Having eyes full of [1]adultery, and that cannot cease from sin; beguiling unstable souls: [h]an heart they have exercised with covetous practices; cursed children:

15 Which have forsaken the right way, and are gone astray, following the way of [n]Balaam the son of Bosor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness;

16 But was rebuked for his iniquity: the dumb ass speaking with man's voice forbad the madness of the prophet.

17 [p]These are wells without water, clouds that are carried with a tempest, to whom the mist of darkness is reserved for ever.

18 For when [r]they speak great swelling words of vanity, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through much wantonness, those that [u]were [1]clean escaped from them who live in error.

19 While they promise them [2]liberty, they themselves are the servants of corruption: for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage.

20 For [a]if after they [b]have escaped the pollutions of the world [f]through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein, and overcome, the latter end is worse with them than the beginning.

21 For [h]it had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after they have known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered unto them.

22 But it is happened unto them according to the true proverb, [m]The dog is turned to his own vomit again, and the sow that was washed to her wallowing in the mire.

THIS second epistle, beloved, I now write unto you, in both which [1]I stir up your pure minds by way of remembrance:

3 [b]Knowing this first, that there shall come in the last days scoffers, [d]walking after their own lusts,

4 And saying, [f]Where is the promise of his coming? for since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation.

5 For this they willingly are ignorant of, that [1]by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth [k]standing [2]out of the water and in the water:

6 [l]Whereby the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished:

7 But [n]the heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto [o]fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men.

8 But, beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and [r]a thousand years as one day.

9 [s]The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but [t]is longsuffering to us ward, [z]not willing that any should perish, but [y]that all should come to repentance.

10 But [b]the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which [c]the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up.

11 Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be [g]in all holy conversation and godliness, 12 [i]Looking for and [4]hasting unto the coming of the day of God, wherein the heavens being on fire shall [k]be dissolved, and the elements shall [l]melt with fervent heat?

13 Nevertheless we, according to his promise, look for [m]new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness.

14 Wherefore, beloved, seeing that ye look for such things, be diligent [q]that ye may be found of him in peace, without spot, and blameless.

15 And account that [p]the longsuffering of our Lord is salvation; even as our beloved brother Paul also according to the wisdom given unto him hath written unto you;

16 As also in all his epistles, [s]speaking in them of these things; in which are some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, unto their own destruction.

17 Ye therefore, beloved, [b] seeing ye know these things before, [c] beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own stedfastness

18 [d] But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. [e] To him be glory both now and for ever. Amen.

THE FIRST EPISTLE GENERAL OF JOHN.

CHAPTER 1

The apostle describeth the person of Christ, in whom we have eternal life

THAT [a] which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, [b] which we have looked upon, and [c] our hands have handled, of the Word of life;

2 (For [d] the life [e] was manifested, and we have seen it, [f] and bear witness, [g] and shew unto you that eternal life, [h] which was with the Father, and was manifested unto us;)

3 [i] That which we have seen and heard declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us: and truly [k] our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ.

4 And these things write we unto you, [l] that your joy may be full.

5 [m] This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you, that [n] God is light, and in him is no darkness at all.

6 [o] If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth:

7 But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and [p] the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin.

8 [q] If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, [r] and the truth is not in us.

9 [s] If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to [t] cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

10 If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

CHAPTER 2

1 Christ our advocate and propitiation. 3 Rightly to know God is to keep his commandments &c

MY little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, [a] we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous:

2 And [a] he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but [b] also for the sins of the whole world.

3 And hereby we do know that we know him, if we keep his commandments.

4 [c] He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, [d] is a liar, and the truth is not in him.

5 But [e] whoso keepeth his word, [f] in him verily is the love of God perfected: [g] hereby know we that we are in him.

6 [h] He that saith he abideth in him [i] ought himself also so to walk, even as he walked.

7 Brethren, [k] I write no new commandment unto you, but an old commandment [l] which ye had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word which ye have heard from the beginning.

8 Again, [m] a new commandment I write unto you, which thing is true in him and in you: [n] because the darkness is past, and [o] the true light now shineth.

9 [p] He that saith he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkness even until now.

10 [q] He that loveth his brother abideth in the light, and [r] there is none [s] occasion of stumbling in him.

11 But he that hateth his brother is in darkness, and [t] walketh in darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkness hath blinded his eyes.

12 I write unto you, little children, because [u] your sins are forgiven you for his name's sake.

13 I write unto you, fathers, because ye have known him [v] that is from the beginning. I write unto you, young men, because ye have overcome the wicked one. I write unto you, little children, because ye have known the Father.

14 I have written unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I have written unto you, young men, because [w] ye are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, and ye have overcome the wicked one.

15 [a]Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. [b]If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

16 For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, [c]and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world.

17 And [d]the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever.

18 [m]Little children, [n]it is the last time: and as ye have heard that [o]antichrist shall come, [p]even now are there many antichrists; whereby we know [r]that it is the last time.

19 [q]They went out from us, but they were not of us; for [s]if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out, [t]that they might be made manifest that they were not all of us.

20 But [u]ye have an unction [v]from the Holy One, and [w]ye know all things.

21 I have not written unto you because ye know not the truth, but because ye know it, and that no lie is of the truth.

22 [x]Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son.

23 [y]Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: [but] [z]he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also.

24 Let that therefore abide in you, [a]which ye have heard from the beginning. If that which ye have heard from the beginning shall remain in you, [b]ye also shall continue in the Son, and in the Father.

25 [c]And this is the promise that he hath promised us, even eternal life.

26 These things have I written unto you [d]concerning them that seduce you.

27 But [e]the anointing which ye have received of him abideth in you, and [f]ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing [g]teacheth you of all things, and is truth, and is no lie, and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in [2]him.

28 And now, little children, abide in him; that, [h]when he shall appear, we may have confidence, [i]and not be ashamed before him at his coming.

29 [k]If ye know that he is righteous, [3]ye know that [n]every one that doeth righteousness is born of him.

CHAPTER 3.

The singular love of God in making us his sons.

BEHOLD, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that [c]we should be called the sons of God: therefore the world knoweth us not, [d]because it knew him not.

2 Beloved, [e]now are we the sons of God, and [f]it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, [h]we shall be like him; for [k]we shall see him as he is.

3 [l]And every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as he is pure.

4 Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law: for [q]sin is the transgression of the law.

5 And ye know [s]that he was manifested [t]to take away our sins; and [1]in him is no sin.

6 Whosoever abideth in him sinneth not: [r]whosoever sinneth hath not seen him, neither known him.

7 Little children, [b]let no man deceive you: [c]he that doeth righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous.

8 [g]He that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, [h]that he might destroy the works of the devil.

9 [k]Whosoever is born of God doth not commit sin; for [l]his seed remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God.

10 In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: [o]whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, [p]neither he that loveth not his brother.

11 For [r]this is the [2]message that ye heard from the beginning, [s]that we should love one another.

12 Not as [u]Cain, who was of that wicked one, and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? Because his own works were evil, and his brother's righteous.

13 Marvel not, my brethren, if [x]the world hate you.

14 [b]We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren. [d]He that loveth not his brother abideth in death.

15 [f]Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that [g]no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him.

16 [h]Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren.

17 But [m]whoso hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, [a]how dwelleth the love of God in him?

18 My little children, [c]let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth.

19 And hereby we know [f]that we are of the truth, and shall [1]assure our hearts before him.

20 [g]For if our heart condemn us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things.

21 [i]Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, [m]then have we confidence toward God.

22 And [p]whatsoever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, [r]and do those things that are pleasing in his sight.

23 [t]And this is his commandment, That we should believe on the name of his Son Jesus Christ, [u]and love one another, [y]as he gave us commandment.

24 And [z]he that keepeth his commandments [a]dwelleth in him, and he in him. And [c]hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us.

CHAPTER 4.

He warneth them not to believe all teachers who boast of the Spirit, but to try them.

BELOVED, [f]believe not every spirit, but [g]try the spirits whether they are of God: because [h]many false prophets are gone out into the world.

2 Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: [i]Every spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God:

3 And [n]every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and [o]even now already is it in the world.

4 [q]Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them: because greater is he that is in you, than [u]he that is in the world.

5 [x]They are of the world: therefore speak they of the world, and [y]the world heareth them.

6 We are of God: [z]he that knoweth God heareth us; he that is not of God heareth not us. Hereby know we [c]the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.

7 [e]Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God.

8 He that loveth not [f]knoweth not God; for [g]God is love.

9 [i]In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent his only begotten Son into the world, [k]that we might live through him.

10 Herein is love, [b]not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son [*] to be the propitiation for our sins.

11 Beloved, [b]if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another.

12 [g]No man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and [k]his love is perfected in us.

13 [k]Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit.

14 And [m]we have seen and do testify that [o]the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world.

15 [q]Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God.

16 And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. [t]God is love; and [z]he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him.

17 Herein is [2]our love made perfect, that [b]we may have boldness in the day of judgment: [d]because as he is, so are we in this world.

18 There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth [e]is not made perfect in love.

19 We love him, because he first loved us.

20 [t]If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar: for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God [k]whom he hath not seen?

21 And [m]this commandment have we from him, That he who loveth God love his brother also.

CHAPTER 5.

1 He that loveth God loveth his children, and keepeth his commandments, 3 which are light, and not grievous 9 Jesus is the Son of God

WHOSOEVER [p]believeth that [r]Jesus is the Christ is [t]born of God: [t]and every one that loveth him that begat loveth him also that is begotten of him.

2 By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God, and keep his commandments.

3 [a]For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments: and [b]his commandments are not grievous.

4 For [d]whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith.

5 Who is he that overcometh the world, but [k]he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God?

6 This is he that came [k]by water and blood, even Jesus Christ; not by water only, but by water and blood.

[a] And it is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is truth.

7 For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, [c] the Word, and the Holy Ghost: [d] and these three are one.

8 And there are three that bear witness in earth, the spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one.

9 If we receive [e] the witness of men, the witness of God is greater: [f] for this is the witness of God which he hath testified of his Son.

10 He that believeth on the Son of God [g] hath the witness in himself: he that believeth not God [m] hath made him a liar; because he believeth not the record that God gave of his Son.

11 [p] And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and [q] this life is in his Son.

12 [r] He that hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life.

13 [s] These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; [t] that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God.

15 And if we know that he hear us, whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of him.

16 If any man see his brother sin a sin which is not unto death, he shall ask, and [f] he shall give him life for them that sin not unto death. [h] There is a sin unto death: [i] I do not say that he shall pray for it.

17 [k] All unrighteousness is sin: and there is a sin not unto death.

18 We know that [n] whosoever is born of God sinneth not; but he that is begotten of God [o] keepeth himself, and that wicked one toucheth him not.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF JOHN.

He exhorteth a certain honourable matron, with her children, to persevere in Christian love and belief

THE elder unto the elect lady and her children, [c] whom I love in the truth; and not I only, but also all they that have known [g] the truth;

2 For the truth's sake, which dwelleth in us, and shall be with us for ever.

3 [h] Grace [2] be with you, mercy, and peace, from God the Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

4 I rejoiced greatly that I found of thy children [k] walking in truth, as we have received a commandment from the Father.

5 And now I beseech thee, lady, [m] not as though I wrote a new commandment unto thee, but that which we had from the beginning, [n] that we love one another.

6 And [p] this is love, that we walk after his commandments. This is the commandment, That, [r] as ye have heard from the beginning, ye should walk in it.

THE THIRD EPISTLE OF JOHN.

1 He commendeth Gaius for his piety, 5 and hospitality 9 complaineth of ambitious Diotrephes, &c.

THE elder unto the wellbeloved Gaius, [a]whom I love [1]in the truth.

2 Beloved, I [2]wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth.

3 For I rejoiced greatly, when the brethren came and testified of the truth that is in thee, even as [b]thou walkest in the truth.

4 I have no greater joy than to hear that [c]my children walk in truth.

5 Beloved, thou doest faithfully whatsoever thou doest to the brethren, and to strangers;

6 Which have borne witness of thy charity before the church: whom if thou bring forward on their journey [3]after a godly sort, thou shalt do well.

7 Because that for his name's sake they went forth, [4]taking nothing of the Gentiles.

10 Wherefore, if I come, I will remember his deeds which he doeth, prating against us with malicious words: and not content therewith, neither doth he himself receive the brethren, and forbiddeth them that would, and casteth them out of the church.

11 Beloved, [e]follow not that which is evil, but that which is good. [e]He that doeth good is of God: but he that doeth evil hath not seen God.

12 Demetrius [f]hath good report of all men, and of the truth itself: yea, and we also bear record; [g]and ye know that our record is true.

THE GENERAL EPISTLE OF JUDE.

1 He exhorteth them to constancy in the faith, 4 for false teachers are crept in to seduce them 20 How the godly may persevere, and grow in grace

A D 66

JUDE, the servant of Jesus Christ, and [c]brother of James, to them that are sanctified by God the Father, and [c]preserved in Jesus Christ, and [b]called:

2 Mercy unto you, and [b]peace, and love, be multiplied.

3 Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you [h]of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that [i]ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints.

4 [k]For there are certain men crept in unawares, [2]who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, [l]turning [l]the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and [m]denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ.

5 I will therefore put you in remembrance, though ye once knew this, how that [n]the Lord, having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward [o]destroyed them that believed not

6 And [p]the angels which kept not their [1]first estate, but left their own habitation, [q]he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness [r]unto the judgment of the great day.

7 Even as [s]Sodom and Gomorrha, and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and going after [2]strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire.

8 [m]Likewise also these filthy dreamers defile the flesh, despise dominion, and [u]speak evil of dignities.

9 Yet [v]Michael the archangel, when contending with the devil he disputed about the body of Moses, [r]durst not bring against him a railing accusation, but said, [w]The Lord rebuke thee.

10 [x]But these speak evil of those things which they know not: but what they know naturally, as brute beasts, in those things they corrupt themselves.

16 These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their own lusts; and [o] their mouth speaketh great swelling words, [p] having men's persons in admiration because of advantage.

17 [q] But, beloved, remember ye the words which were spoken before of the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ;

18 How that they told you [r] there should be mockers in the last time, who should walk after their own ungodly lusts.

19 These be they [s] who separate themselves, [t] sensual, having not the Spirit.

20 But ye, beloved, [u] building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Ghost, 21 Keep yourselves in the love of God, [v] looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life.

22 And of some have compassion, making a difference:

23 And others [w] save with fear, [x] pulling them out of the fire; hating even [y] the garment spotted by the flesh.

THE REVELATION

OF

ST. JOHN THE DIVINE.

CHAPTER 1.

1 John writeth his revelation to the seven churches of Asia. 7 The coming of Christ 14 His glorious power and majesty

THE Revelation of Jesus Christ, [a] which God gave unto him, to shew unto his servants things which [b] must shortly come to pass; and [c] he sent and signified it by his angel unto his servant John:

2 [d] Who bare record of the word of God, and of the testimony of Jesus Christ, and of all things [e] that he saw.

3 [f] Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written therein: for [g] the time is at hand.

4 JOHN to the seven churches which are in Asia. Grace be unto you, and peace, from him [h] which is, and [i] which was, and which is to come; [k] and from the seven Spirits which are before his throne;

5 And from Jesus Christ, [l] who is the faithful witness, and [m] the [n] first begotten of the dead, and [o] the prince of the kings of the earth. Unto him [p] that loved us, [q] and washed us from our sins in his own blood;

6 And hath [r] made us kings and priests unto God and his Father; [s] to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

7 [t] Behold, he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and [u] they also which pierced him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen.

8 [v] I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, [w] which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty.

9 I John, who also am your brother, and [x] companion in tribulation, and [y] in the kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ, was in the isle that is called Patmos, [z] for the word of God, and for the testimony of Jesus Christ.

10 [a] I was in the Spirit on [b] the Lord's day, and heard behind me [c] a great voice, as of a trumpet,

11 Saying, [d] I am Alpha and Omega, [e] the first and the last: and, What thou seest, write in a book, and send it unto the seven churches which are in Asia; unto Ephesus, and unto Smyrna, and unto Pergamos, and unto Thyatira, and unto Sardis, and unto Philadelphia, and unto Laodicea.

12 And I turned to see the voice that spake with me. And being turned, [a]I saw seven golden candlesticks:

13 [c]And in the midst of the seven candlesticks [d]one like unto the Son of man, [e]clothed with a garment down to the foot, and [h]girt about the paps with a golden girdle.

14 His head and [i]his hairs were white like wool, as white as snow; and [k]his eyes were as a flame of fire;

15 [m]And his feet like unto fine brass, as if they burned in a furnace; and [o]his voice as the sound of many waters.

16 [q]And he had in his right hand seven stars: and [r]out of his mouth went a sharp twoedged sword: [s]and his countenance was as the sun shineth in his strength.

17 And [z]when I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead. And [a]he laid his right hand upon me, saying unto me, Fear not; [c]I am the first and the last:

18 [e]I am he that liveth, and was dead; and, behold, [g]I am alive for evermore, Amen; and [i]have the keys of hell and of death.

19 Write the things which thou hast seen, [k]and the things which are, [l]and the things which shall be hereafter;

20 The mystery of the seven stars which thou sawest in my right hand, and the seven golden candlesticks. The seven stars are [t]the angels of the seven churches: and [m]the seven candlesticks which thou sawest are the seven churches.

CHAPTER 2.

What is commanded to be written to the angels, that is, the ministers of the churches.

UNTO the angel of the church of Ephesus write; These things saith [o]he that holdeth the seven stars in his right hand, [q]who walketh in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks;

2 [t]I know thy works, and thy labour, and thy patience, and how thou canst not bear them which are evil: and [u]thou hast tried them [w]which say they are apostles, and are not, and hast found them liars:

3 And hast borne, and hast patience, and for my name's sake hast laboured, and hast [y]not fainted.

4 Nevertheless I have somewhat against thee, because thou hast left thy first love

5 Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works; [a]or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent.

6 But this thou hast, that thou hatest the deeds of the Nicolaitanes, which I also hate.

7 [c]He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give [e]to eat of [f]the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God.

8 And unto the angel of the church in Smyrna write; These things saith [i]the first and the last, which was dead, and is alive;

9 I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but thou art [n]rich) and I know the blasphemy of [p]them which say they are Jews, and are not, [s]but are the synagogue of Satan.

10 [u]Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye shall have tribulation ten days: [c]be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee [b]a crown of life.

11 [d]He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; He that overcometh shall not be hurt of [g]the second death.

12 And to the angel of the church in Pergamos write; These things saith [k]he which hath the sharp sword with two edges;

13 I know thy works, and where thou dwellest, even where Satan's seat is: and thou holdest fast my name, and hast not denied my faith, even in those days wherein Antipas was my faithful martyr, who was slain among you, where Satan dwelleth.

14 But I have a few things against thee, because thou hast there them that hold the doctrine of [n]Balaam, who taught Balac to cast a stumblingblock before the children of Israel, [p]to eat things sacrificed unto idols, [r]and to commit fornication.

15 So hast thou also them that hold the doctrine of the Nicolaitanes, which thing I hate.

16 Repent; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and [z]will fight against them with the sword of my mouth.

17 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden manna, and will give him a white stone, and in the stone [2]a new name written, which no man knoweth saving he that receiveth it.

18 And unto the angel of the church in Thyatira write; These things saith 20 Notwithstanding I have a few things against thee, because thou sufferest that woman [b]Jezebel, which calleth herself a prophetess, to teach and to seduce my servants [m]to commit fornication, and to eat things sacrificed unto idols.

21 And I gave her space [n]to repent of her fornication; and she repented not.

22 Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit adultery with her into great tribulation, except they repent of their deeds.

23 And I will kill her children with death; and all the churches shall know that [x]I am he which searcheth the reins and hearts: and [y]I will give unto every one of you according to your works.

24 But unto you I say, and unto the rest in Thyatira, as many as have not this doctrine, and which have not known the depths of Satan, as they speak; [b]I will put upon you none other burden.

25 But [d]that which ye have already hold fast till I come.

26 And he that overcometh, and keepeth [f]my works unto the end, [z]to him will I give power over the nations:

27 [m]And he shall rule them with a rod of iron; as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to shivers: even as I received of my Father.

28 And I will give him [p]the morning star.

CHAPTER 3.

What John was commanded to write to the churches of 1 Sardis, 7 Philadelphia, 14 Laodicea

AND unto the angel of the church in Sardis write; These things saith he [y]that hath the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars; [a]I know thy works, that thou hast a name that thou livest, [c]and art dead.

2 Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God.

3 [d]Remember therefore how thou hast received and heard, and hold fast, and [f]repent. [g]If therefore thou shalt not watch, I will come on thee as a thief, and thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee.

6 [l]He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

7 And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write; These things saith [o]he that is holy, [p]he that is true, he that hath [q]the key of David, [r]he that openeth, and no man shutteth; and [s]shutteth, and no man openeth;

8 [t]I know thy works: behold, I have set before thee [u]an open door, and no man can shut it: for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name.

9 Behold, I will make [t]them of the synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; behold, [c]I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee.

10 Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, [c]I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon [s]all the world, to try them that dwell [f]upon the earth.

11 Behold, [g]I come quickly: [h]hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take [f]thy crown.

12 Him that overcometh will I make [m]a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go no more out: and [c]I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is [u]new Jerusalem, which cometh down out of heaven from my God: [f]and I will write upon him my new name.

13 [r]He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

14 And unto the angel of the church [l]of the Laodiceans write; [u]These things saith the Amen, [z]the faithful and true witness, [z]the beginning of the creation of God;

15 [b]I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot.

16 So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth.

17 Because thou sayest, [f]I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked:

18 I counsel thee [k]to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and [b]white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear, and anoint thine eyes with eyesalve, that thou mayest see.

19 [d]As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent.

20 Behold, [e]I stand at the door, and knock: [h]if any man hear my voice, and open the door, [i]I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me.

21 To him that overcometh [k]will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne.

22 "He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

CHAPTER 4

2 John seeth the throne of God in heaven. 4 The four and twenty elders. 6 The four beasts. 10 The elders lay down their crowns before the throne.

AFTER this I looked, and, behold, a door was opened in heaven: and [o]the first voice which I heard was as it were of a trumpet talking with me; which said, [p]Come up hither, [q]and I will shew thee things which must be hereafter.

2 And immediately [r]I was in the spirit: and, behold, [s]a throne was set in heaven, and one sat on the throne.

3 And he that sat was to look upon like a jasper and a sardine stone: [u]and there was a rainbow round about the throne, in sight like unto an emerald.

4 [a]And round about the throne were four and twenty seats: and upon the seats I saw four and twenty elders sitting, [d]clothed in white raiment; and they had on their heads crowns of gold.

5 And out of the throne proceeded [f]lightnings and thunderings and voices: [g]and there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are [t]the seven Spirits of God.

6 And before the throne there was [t]a sea of glass like unto crystal: [n]and in the midst of the throne, and round about the throne, were four beasts full of eyes before and behind.

7 [y]And the first beast was like a lion, and the second beast like a calf, and the third beast had a face as a man, and the fourth beast was like a flying eagle.

8 And the four beasts had each of them [w]six wings about him; and they were full of eyes within: and [2]they rest not day and night, saying, [z]Holy, holy, holy, [y]Lord God Almighty, [z]which was, and is, and is to come.

9 And when those beasts give glory and honour and thanks to him that

CHAPTER 5.

1 The book sealed with seven seals. 9 which only the Lamb that was slain is worthy to open.

AND I saw in the right hand of him that sat on the throne [l]a book written within and on the backside, [m]sealed with seven seals.

2 And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals thereof?

3 And no man in heaven, nor in earth, neither under the earth, was able to open the book, neither to look thereon.

4 And I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open and to read the book, neither to look thereon.

5 And one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not: behold, [t]the Lion of the tribe of Juda, [t]the Root of David, hath prevailed to open the book, [z]and to loose the seven seals thereof.

6 And I beheld, and, lo, in the midst of the throne and of the four beasts, and in the midst of the elders, stood [z]a Lamb as it had been slain, having seven horns and [b]seven eyes, which are [c]the seven Spirits of God sent forth into all the earth.

7 And he came and took the book out of the right hand [a]of him that sat upon the throne.

8 And when he had taken the book, [h]the four beasts and four and twenty elders fell down before the Lamb, having every one of them [k]harps, and golden vials full of [1]odours, [m]which are the prayers of saints.

9 And [o]they sung a new song, saying, [p]Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and [r]hast redeemed us to God by thy blood [2]out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation;

10 [t]And hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth.

11 And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many angels round about the throne and the beasts and the elders: and the number of them was [a]ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands;

12 Saying with a loud voice, [a]Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing.

13 And [f]every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying, [h]Blessing, and honour, and glory, and power, be unto him [i]that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb for ever and ever

14 [l]And the four beasts said, Amen. And the four and twenty elders fell down and worshipped him [m]that liveth for ever and ever

CHAPTER 6.

The opening of the seals, and what followed thereupon, containing a prophecy to the end of the world

AND [p]I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals, and I heard, as it were the noise of thunder, [r]one of the four beasts saying, Come and see

2 And I saw, and behold [t]a white horse: [u]and he that sat on him had a bow; [z]and a crown was given unto him: and he went forth conquering, and to conquer.

3 And when he had opened the second seal, [2]I heard the second beast say, Come and see

4 [b]And there went out another horse that was red: and power was given to him that sat thereon to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another: and there was given unto him a great sword.

5 And when he had opened the third seal, [c]I heard the third beast say, Come and see. And I beheld, and lo [3]a black horse; and he that sat on him had a pair of balances in his hand.

6 And I heard a voice in the midst of the four beasts say, [4]A measure of wheat for a penny, and three measures of barley for a penny; and [5]see thou hurt not the oil and the wine.

7 And when he had opened the fourth seal, [d]I heard the voice of the fourth beast say, Come and see.

8 [f]And I looked, and behold a pale horse: and his name that sat on him was Death, and Hell followed with him. And power was given [3]unto them over the fourth part of the earth, [g]to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, [r]and with the beasts of the earth.

9 And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under [t]the altar [u]the souls of them that were slain [v]for the word of God, and for [w]the testimony which they held:

10 And they cried with a loud voice, saying, [b]How long, O Lord, [c]holy and true, [d]dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?

11 And [e]white robes were given unto every one of them: and it was said unto them, [y]that they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellowservants also and their brethren, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled.

12 And I beheld when he had opened the sixth seal, [k]and, lo, there was a great earthquake; and [m]the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood;

13 [o]And the stars of heaven fell unto the earth, even as a fig tree casteth her [1]untimely figs, when she is shaken of a mighty wind

14 [q]And the heaven departed as a scroll when it is rolled together; and [s]every mountain and island were moved out of their places.

15 And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bondman, and every free man, [y]hid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains;

16 [a]And said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb:

17 [c]For the great day of his wrath is come; [d]and who shall be able to stand?

CHAPTER 7.

3 An angel sealeth the servants of God 4 The number of them that were sealed.

AND after these things I saw four angels standing on the four corners of the earth, [g]holding the four winds of the earth, [h]that the wind should not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree

2 And I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God: and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea,

3 Saying, [m]Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have [n]sealed the servants of our God [o]in their foreheads.

4 [p]And I heard the number of them which were sealed: and there were sealed [q]an hundred and forty and four thousand of all the tribes of the children of Israel.

5 Of the tribe of Juda were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Reuben were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Gad were sealed twelve thousand.

stood before God; [o]and to them were given seven trumpets.

3 And another angel came and stood at the altar, having a golden censer; and there was given unto him much incense, that he should [1]offer it with [b]the prayers of all saints upon [c]the golden altar which was before the throne.

4 And [d]the smoke of the incense, which came with the prayers of the saints, ascended up before God out of the angel's hand.

5 And the angel took the censer, and filled it with fire of the altar, and cast it [2]into the earth: and [f]there were voices, and thunderings, and lightnings, [h]and an earthquake.

6 And the seven angels which had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound.

7 The first angel sounded, [k]and there followed hail and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast [n]upon the earth: and the third part [o]of trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up.

8 And the second angel sounded, [q]and as it were a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea: [r]and the third part of the sea [s]became blood;

9 [u]And the third part of the creatures which were in the sea, and had life, died; and the third part of the ships were destroyed.

10 And the third angel sounded, [x]and there fell a great star from heaven, burning as it were a lamp, [z]and it fell upon the third part of the rivers, and upon the fountains of waters;

11 [b]And the name of the star is called Wormwood: [d]and the third part of the waters became wormwood; and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.

12 [e]And the fourth angel sounded, and the third part of the sun was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars; so as the third part of them was darkened, and the day shone not for a third part of it, and the night likewise.

13 And I beheld, [g]and heard an angel flying through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, [l]Woe, woe, woe, to the inhabiters of the earth by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels, which are yet to sound!

CHAPTER 9.

1 The fifth angel soundeth. a star falleth from heaven. 12 The first woe past. the sixth trumpet soundeth.

AND the fifth angel sounded, [o]and I saw a star fall from heaven unto the earth: and to him was given the key of [a] the bottomless pit.

2 And he opened the bottomless pit; [b] and there arose a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of the pit.

3 And there came out of the smoke [d] locusts upon the earth: and unto them was given power, [e] as the scorpions of the earth have power.

4 And it was commanded them [f] that they should not hurt [h] the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree; but only those men which have not [i] the seal of God in their foreheads.

5 And to them it was given that they should not kill them, [l] but that they should be tormented five months: and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion, when he striketh a man.

6 And in those days [o] shall men seek death, and shall not find it; and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them.

7 And [q] the shapes of the locusts were like unto horses prepared unto battle; [r] and on their heads were as it were crowns like gold, [s] and their faces were as the faces of men.

8 And they had hair as the hair of women, and [x] their teeth were as the teeth of lions.

9 And they had breastplates, as it were breastplates of iron; and the sound of their wings was [a] as the sound of chariots of many horses running to battle.

10 And they had tails like unto scorpions, and there were stings in their tails: [c] and their power was to hurt men five months.

11 [d] And they had a king over them, which is [e] the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is Abaddon, but in the Greek tongue hath his name [1] Apollyon.

12 [g] One woe is past; and, behold, there come two woes more hereafter.

13 And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar which is before God,

14 Saying to the sixth angel which had the trumpet, Loose the four angels which are bound [k] in the great river Euphrates.

15 And the four angels were loosed, which were prepared [2] for an hour, and a day, and a month, and a year, for to slay the third part of men.

16 And [n] the number of the army [o] of the horsemen were two hundred thousand thousand: [2] and I heard the number of them.

17 And thus I saw the horses in the vision, and them that sat on them, having breastplates of fire, and of jacinth, and brimstone. [b] and the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions; and out of their mouths issued fire and smoke and brimstone.

18 By these three was the third part of men killed, by the fire, and by the smoke, and by the brimstone, which issued out of their mouths.

19 For their power is in their mouth, and in their tails: [g] for their tails were like unto serpents, and had heads, and with them they do hurt.

20 And the rest of the men which were not killed by these plagues [k] yet repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worship [m] devils, [n] and idols of gold, and silver, and brass, and stone, and of wood: which neither can see, nor hear, nor walk:

21 Neither repented they of their murders, [p] nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts.

CHAPTER 10.

1 The angel with the book. 6 He sweareth by him that liveth for ever, that time shall be no more.

AND I saw another mighty angel come down from heaven, clothed with a cloud: [t] and a rainbow was upon his head, and [u] his face was as it were the sun, and [x] his feet as pillars of fire:

2 And he had in his hand a little book open: [z] and he set his right foot upon the sea, and his left foot on the earth,

3 And cried with a loud voice, as when a lion roareth: and when he had cried, [b] seven thunders uttered their voices.

4 And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, [f] Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered, and write them not.

5 And the angel which I saw stand upon the sea and upon the earth [k] lifted up his hand to heaven,

6 And sware by him that liveth for ever and ever, [t] who created heaven, and the things that therein are, and the earth, and the things that therein are, and the sea, and the things which are therein, [l] that there should be time no longer:

7 But [m] in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he shall begin to sound, the mystery of God should be finished, as he hath declared to his servants the prophets.

8 And [q] the voice which I heard from heaven spake unto me again, and said, Go and take the little book

CHAPTER 11.

2 The two witnesses' prophesy 14 The second woe is past. 15 The seventh trumpet sounds with

AND there was given me [o]a reed like unto a rod: and the angel stood, saying, [p]Rise, and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein.

2 But [q]the court which is without the temple [2]leave out, and measure it not; [r]for it is given unto the Gentiles: and the holy city shall they [s]tread under foot [t]forty and two months.

3 And [3]I will give power unto my two [u]witnesses, [v]and they shall prophesy [w]a thousand two hundred and threescore days, clothed in sackcloth.

4 These are the [x]two olive trees, and the two candlesticks standing before the God of the earth.

5 And if any man will hurt them, [y]fire proceedeth out of their mouth, and devoureth their enemies: [z]and if any man will hurt them, he must in this manner be killed.

6 These [a]have power to shut heaven, that it rain not in the days of their prophecy: and [b]have power over waters to turn them to blood, and to smite the earth with all plagues, as often as they will.

7 And when they [4]shall have finished their testimony, [c]the beast that ascendeth [d]out of the bottomless pit [e]shall make war against them, and shall overcome them, and kill them.

8 And their dead bodies shall lie in the street of [f]the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, [g]where also our Lord was crucified.

9 [h]And they of the people and kindreds and tongues and nations shall see their dead bodies three days and an half, [i]and shall not suffer their dead bodies to be put in graves.

10 [j]And they that dwell upon the earth shall rejoice over them, and make merry, [k]and shall send gifts one to another; [l]because these two prophets tormented them that dwelt on the earth.

11 [m]And after three days and an half [n]the Spirit of life from God entered into them, and they stood upon their feet; and great fear fell upon them which saw them.

12 And they heard a great voice from heaven saying unto them, Come up hither. [o]And they ascended up to heaven [p]in a cloud; [q]and their enemies beheld them.

13 And the same hour [r]was there a great earthquake, [s]and the tenth part of the city fell, and in the earthquake were slain [5]of men seven thousand: and the remnant were affrighted, [t]and gave glory to the God of heaven.

14 [u]The second woe is past; and, behold, the third woe cometh quickly.

15 And [v]the seventh angel sounded; [w]and there were great voices in heaven, saying, [x]The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; [y]and he shall reign for ever and ever.

16 And [z]the four and twenty elders, which sat before God on their seats, fell upon their faces, and worshipped God, 17 Saying, We give thee thanks, O Lord God Almighty, [a]which art, and wast, and art to come; because thou hast taken to thee thy great power, [b]and hast reigned.

18 [c]And the nations were angry, and thy wrath is come, [d]and the time of the dead, that they should be judged, and that thou shouldest give reward unto thy servants the prophets, and to the saints, and them that fear thy name, [e]small and great; [f]and shouldest destroy them which [6]destroy the earth.

19 And [g]the temple of God was opened in heaven, and there was seen in his temple the ark of his testament: and [h]there were lightnings, and voices, and thunderings, and an earthquake, [i]and great hail.

4 And [c]his tail drew the third part [b]of the stars of heaven, [c]and did cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood [d]before the woman which was ready to be delivered, [f]for to devour her child as soon as it was born.

5 And she brought forth a man child, [h]who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron. and her child was caught up unto God, and to his throne.

6 And [k]the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that they should feed her there [m]a thousand two hundred and threescore days.

7 And there was war in heaven: [p]Michael and his angels fought [r]against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels,

8 And prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in heaven.

9 And [t]the great dragon was cast out, [u]that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, [x]which deceiveth the whole world: [y]he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

10 And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, [z]Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, [a]which accused them before our God day and night.

11 And [b]they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; [c]and they loved not their lives unto the death.

12 Therefore [d]rejoice, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them. [e]Woe to the inhabiters of the earth and of the sea! for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, [f]because he knoweth that he hath but a short time.

13 And when the dragon saw that he was cast unto the earth, he persecuted [g]the woman which brought forth the man child.

14 [h]And to the woman were given two wings of a great eagle, [i]that she might fly [k]into the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished [l]for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent.

15 And the serpent [n]cast out of his mouth water as a flood after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away of the flood.

16 And the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed up the flood which the dragon cast out of his mouth

17 And the dragon was wroth with the woman, [s]and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, [t]which keep the commandments of God, and have [u]the testimony of Jesus Christ.

CHAPTER 13.

1 A beast riseth out of the sea. 11 Another beast cometh up out of the earth.

AND I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw [p]a beast rise up out of the sea, [r]having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the [s]name of blasphemy.

2 [t]And the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard, [u]and his feet were as the feet of a bear, [x]and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and [y]the dragon gave him his power, [z]and his seat, [a]and great authority.

3 And I saw one of his heads [b]as it were [c]wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and [d]all the world wondered after the beast.

4 And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast: and they worshipped the beast, saying, [e]Who is like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him?

5 And there was given unto him [f]a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power was given unto him [g]to continue [h]forty and two months.

6 And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, [k]and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heaven.

7 And it was given unto him [l]to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: [m]and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations.

8 And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, [n]whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain [o]from the foundation of the world.

9 [p]If any man have an ear, let him hear.

10 [q]He that leadeth into captivity shall go into captivity: [r]he that killeth with the sword must be killed with the sword. [s]Here is the patience and the faith of the saints.

11 And I beheld another beast [t]coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon.

12 And he exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth and them which dwell therein to worship the first beast, [u]whose deadly wound was healed.

13 And [x]he doeth great wonders, [y]so that he maketh fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men,

14 [z]And deceiveth them that dwell on the earth [a]by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, which had the wound by a sword, [c]and did live.

15 And he had power to give [1]life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, [d]and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed.

16 And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, [e]to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads:

17 And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or [m]the name of the beast, [n]or the number of his name.

18 [o]Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count [p]the number of the beast: [q]for it is the number of a man; and his number is Six hundred threescore and six.

CHAPTER 14.

1 The Lamb standing on mount Sion. 8 The fall of Babylon. 15 The harvest of the world.

AND I looked, and, lo, [a]a Lamb stood on the mount Sion, and with him [z]an hundred forty and four thousand, [c]having his Father's name written in their foreheads.

2 And I heard a voice from heaven, [c]as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of a great thunder: and I heard the voice of [d]harpers harping with their harps:

3 And [g]they sung as it were a new song before the throne, and before the four beasts, and the elders: and no man could learn that song [t]but the hundred and forty and four thousand, which were redeemed from the earth.

4 These are they which were not defiled with women; [m]for they are virgins. These are they [u]which follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. These [v]were [5]redeemed from among men, [p]being the firstfruits unto God and to the Lamb.

5 And [g]in their mouth was found no guile: for [r]they are without fault before the throne of God.

6 And I saw another angel [f]fly in the midst of heaven, [z]having the everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, [y]and to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people,

7 Saying with a loud voice, [z]Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: [b]and worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters.

8 And there followed another angel, saying, [a]Babylon is fallen, is fallen, [b]that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.

9 And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, [d]If any man worship the beast and his image, and receive his mark in his forehead, or in his hand,

10 The same [f]shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is [g]poured out without mixture into [h]the cup of his indignation; and [i]he shall be tormented with [k]fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb.

11 And [m]the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name.

12 [s]Here is the patience of the saints: [t]here are they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus.

13 And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, [z]Blessed are the dead [y]which die in the Lord [3]from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, [b]that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them.

14 And I looked, and behold a white cloud, and upon the cloud one sat [e]like unto the Son of man, [f]having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle.

15 And another angel [h]came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to him that sat on the cloud, [k]Thrust in thy sickle, and reap: for the time is come for thee to reap; for the harvest [l]of the earth is [4]ripe.

16 And he that sat on the cloud thrust in his sickle on the earth; and the earth was reaped.

17 And another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle.

18 And another angel came out from the altar, [s]which had power over fire; and cried with a loud cry to him that had the sharp sickle, saying, [u]Thrust in thy sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth; for her grapes are fully ripe.

19 And the angel thrust in his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast it into [a]the great winepress of the wrath of God.

20 And [c]the winepress was trodden [d]without the city, and blood came out of the winepress, [e]even unto the horse bridles, by the space of a thousand and six hundred furlongs.

CHAPTER 15.

1 The seven last plagues 3 The song of the victors 7 The seven vials full of the wrath of God.

AND [c]I saw another sign in heaven, great and marvellous, [f]seven angels having the seven last plagues; [k]for in them is filled up the wrath of God.

2 And I saw as it were [l]a sea of glass [m]mingled with fire: and them that had gotten the victory over the beast, [n]and over his image, and over his mark, and over the number of his name, stand on the sea of glass, [o]having the harps of God

3 And they sing [p]the song of Moses the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, [q]Great and marvellous are thy works, Lord God Almighty; [r]just and true are thy ways, thou King of [2]saints.

4 [2]Who shall not fear thee, O Lord, and glorify thy name? for thou only art holy: for [s]all nations shall come and worship before thee; for thy judgments are made manifest.

5 And after that I looked, and, behold, [t]the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened:

6 [u]And the seven angels came out of the temple, having the seven plagues, [v]clothed in pure and white linen, and having their breasts girded with golden girdles.

7 [w]And one of the four beasts gave unto the seven angels seven golden vials full of the wrath of God, [x]who liveth for ever and ever.

8 And [y]the temple was filled with smoke [b]from the glory of God, and from his power; and no man was able to enter into the temple, till the seven plagues of the seven angels were fulfilled.

CHAPTER 16.

2 The angels pour out their vials 6 The plagues that follow 15 Christ cometh as a thief.

AND I heard a great voice out of the temple saying [z]to the seven angels, Go your ways, and pour out the vials [b]of the wrath of God upon the earth.

2 And the first went, and poured out his vial [c]upon the earth; and [m]there fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men [d]which had the mark of the beast, and upon them [e]which worshipped his image.

3 And the second angel poured out his vial [f]upon the sea; and [g]it became as the blood of a dead man. [x]and every living soul died in the sea

4 And the third angel poured out his vial [a]upon the rivers and fountains of waters; [b]and they became blood.

5 And I heard the angel of the waters say, [c]Thou art righteous, O Lord, [d]which art, and wast, and shalt be, because thou hast judged thus.

6 For [g]they have shed the blood [h]of saints and prophets, [i]and thou hast given them blood to drink; for they are worthy.

7 And I heard another out of the altar say, Even so, [n]Lord God Almighty, [o]true and righteous are thy judgments.

8 And the fourth angel poured out his vial [q]upon the sun; [r]and power was given unto him to scorch men with fire.

9 And men were [1]scorched with great heat, and [u]blasphemed the name of God, which hath power over these plagues: [y]and they repented not [z]to give him glory.

10 And the fifth angel poured out his vial [b]upon the seat of the beast; [c]and his kingdom was full of darkness; [e]and they gnawed their tongues for pain,

11 And [g]blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and [h]their sores, [i]and repented not of their deeds.

12 And the sixth angel poured out his vial [l]upon the great river Euphrates; [m]and the water thereof was dried up, [o]that the way of the kings of the east might be prepared.

13 And I saw three unclean [q]spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of [r]the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of [s]the false prophet.

14 [z]For they are the spirits of devils, [g]working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth [a]and of the whole world, to gather them to [c]the battle of that great day of God Almighty.

15 [d]Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed [s]is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, [e]lest he walk naked, and they see his shame.

16 [f]And he gathered them together into a place called in the Hebrew tongue Armageddon.

17 And the seventh angel poured out his vial into the air; and there came a great voice out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, [i]It is done.

18 And [k]there were voices, and thunders, and lightnings; [n]and there was a great earthquake, [o]such as was not since men were upon the earth, so mighty an earthquake, and so great.

19 And [r]the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell: and great Babylon [u]came in remembrance before God, [y]to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath.

CHAPTER 17.

3 4 A woman arrayed in purple and scarlet &c 14 They of the Lamb

AND there came one of the seven angels which had the seven vials, and talked with me, saying unto me, Come hither; [e]I will shew unto thee the judgment of [f]the great whore [g]that sitteth upon many waters.

2 [h]With whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication, and [i]the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication.

3 So he carried me away in the spirit [k]into the wilderness: and I saw a woman sit [l]upon a scarlet coloured beast, full of [m]names of blasphemy, [n]having seven heads and ten horns.

4 And the woman [o]was arrayed in purple and scarlet colour, [p]and [q]decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, [r]having a golden cup in her hand [s]full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication:

5 And upon her forehead was a name written, [t]MYSTERY, BABYLON [u]THE GREAT, [v]THE MOTHER OF [w]HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

6 And I saw [x]the woman drunken [y]with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of [z]the martyrs of Jesus: and when I saw her, I wondered with great admiration.

7 And the angel said unto me, Wherefore didst thou marvel? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads and ten horns.

8 The beast that thou sawest was, and is not, and [a]shall ascend out of the bottomless pit, and [b]go into perdition: and they that dwell on the earth [c]shall wonder, [d]whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.

9 And [e]here is the mind which hath wisdom. [f]The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth.

10 And there are seven kings: five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a short space.

13 These have one mind, and shall give their power and strength unto the beast.

15 And he saith unto me, [f]The waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, [g]are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues.

16 And the ten horns which thou sawest upon the beast, [h]these shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate [i]and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and [k]burn her with fire.

18 And the woman which thou sawest [n]is that great city, [o]which reigneth over the kings of the earth.

CHAPTER 18

2 Babylon is fallen 9 The kings of the earth &c lament over her 20 The saints rejoice

AND [p]after these things I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power; [q]and the earth was lightened with his glory.

2 And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, [r]Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and [s]is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and [t]a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.

3 For all nations [u]have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, [x]and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the [y]abundance of her delicacies.

4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, [z]Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues.

5 [a]For her sins have reached unto heaven, and [b]God hath remembered her iniquities.

6 [c]Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double according to her works: [d]in the cup which she hath filled [e]fill to her double.

7 [f]How much she hath glorified herself, and lived deliciously, so much torment and sorrow give her: for she saith in her heart, I sit a [a]queen, and am no widow, and shall see no sorrow.

8 Therefore shall her plagues come [b]in one day, death, and mourning, and famine; and [c]she shall be utterly burned with fire: [d]for strong is the Lord God who judgeth her.

9 And [e]the kings of the earth, who have committed fornication and lived deliciously with her, [f]shall bewail her, and lament for her, [g]when they shall see the smoke of her burning,

10 Standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, [h]Alas, alas that great city Babylon, that mighty city! [i]for in one hour is thy judgment come.

11 And [j]the merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn over her; for no man buyeth their merchandise any more:

12 [k]The merchandise of gold, and silver, and precious stones, and of pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet, and all [l]thyine wood, and all manner vessels of most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble,

13 And cinnamon, and odours, and ointments, and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour, and wheat, and beasts, and sheep, and horses, and chariots, and [2]slaves, and [m]souls of men.

14 And the fruits that thy soul lusted after are departed from thee, and all things which were dainty and goodly are departed from thee, and thou shalt find them no more at all.

15 [n]The merchants of these things, which were made rich by her, shall stand afar off for the fear of her torment, weeping and wailing,

16 And saying, Alas, alas that great city, [o]that was clothed in fine linen, and purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold, and precious stones, and pearls!

17 [p]For in one hour so great riches is come to nought. And [q]every shipmaster, and all the company in ships, and sailors, and as many as trade by sea, stood afar off, 18 [r]And cried when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, [s]What city is like unto this great city!

19 And [t]they cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and wailing, saying, Alas, alas that great city, wherein were made rich all that had ships in the sea by reason of her costliness! [u]for in one hour is she made desolate.

20 [v]Rejoice over her, thou heaven, and ye holy apostles and prophets; for [w]God hath avenged you on her.

23 [a]And the light of a candle shall shine no more at all in thee; [b]and the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee: for [c]thy merchants were the great men of the earth; [d]for by thy sorceries were all nations deceived.

24 And [e]in her was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all that [f]were slain upon the earth.

CHAPTER 19.

1 God is praised in heaven for his righteous judgments 7 The marriage of the Lamb

AND after these things [g]I heard a great voice of much people in heaven, saying, Alleluia; [h]Salvation, and glory, and honour, and power, unto the Lord our God:

2 For [i]true and righteous are his judgments: for he hath judged the great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and [k]hath avenged the blood of his servants at her hand.

3 And again they said, Alleluia. And [l]her smoke rose up for ever and ever.

4 And [m]the four and twenty elders and the four beasts fell down and worshipped God that sat on the throne, saying, [n]Amen; Alleluia.

5 And a voice came out of the throne, saying, [o]Praise our God, all ye his servants, and ye that fear him, [p]both small and great.

6 [q]And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, Alleluia: for [r]the Lord God omnipotent reigneth.

7 Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honour to him: for [s]the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready.

8 And [t]to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and [3]white: [u]for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints.

9 And he saith unto me, Write, [v]Blessed are they which are called unto the marriage supper of the Lamb.

And he saith unto me, "These are the true sayings of God.

10 And [b]I fell at his feet to worship him. And he said unto me, [c]See thou do it not: I am thy fellowservant, and of thy brethren [d]that have the testimony of Jesus: worship God: for the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.

11 [e]And I saw heaven opened, and behold [h]a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called [i]Faithful and True, and [k]in righteousness he doth judge and make war.

12 [l]His eyes were as a flame of fire, [m]and on his head were many crowns, [n]and he had a name written, that no man knew, but he himself.

13 [o]And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called [p]The Word of God.

14 [q]And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, [r]clothed in fine linen, white and clean.

15 And [s]out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and [t]he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and [u]he treadeth the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God.

16 And [v]he hath on his vesture and on his thigh a name written, [w]KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.

17 And I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying [x]to all the fowls that fly in the midst of heaven, [y]Come and gather yourselves together unto the supper of the great God;

18 [z]That ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, both small and great.

19 [a]And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him that sat on the horse, and against his army.

20 [b]And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and [c]them that worshipped his image. [d]These both were cast alive into a lake of fire [e]burning with brimstone.

21 And the remnant [f]were slain with the sword of him that sat upon the horse, which sword proceeded out of his mouth: [g]and all the fowls [h]were filled with their flesh.

CHAPTER 20.

2 Satan bound for a thousand years. 6 The first resurrection. 12 The last and general resurrection.

AND I saw an angel come down from heaven, [a]having the key of the bottomless pit and a great chain in his hand.

2 And he laid hold on [b]the dragon, that old serpent, which is the Devil, and Satan, and bound him a thousand years,

3 And cast him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and [c]set a seal upon him, [d]that he should deceive the nations no more, till the thousand years should be fulfilled: and after that he must be loosed a little season.

4 And I saw [e]thrones, and they sat upon them, and [f]judgment was given unto them: and I saw [g]the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, and [h]which had not worshipped the beast, [i]neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and [k]reigned with Christ a thousand years.

5 But the rest of the dead lived not again until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection.

6 Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such [l]the second death hath no power, but they shall be [m]priests of God and of Christ, [n]and shall reign with him a thousand years.

7 And when the thousand years are expired, [o]Satan shall be loosed out of his prison,

8 And shall go out [p]to deceive the nations which are in the four quarters of the earth, [q]Gog and Magog, [r]to gather them together to battle: the number of whom is as the sand of the sea.

9 [s]And they went up on the breadth of the earth, and compassed the camp of the saints about, and the beloved city: and fire came down from God out of heaven, and devoured them.

10 [t]And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, [u]where the beast and the false prophet are, and [v]shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever.

11 And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face [w]the earth and the heaven fled away; [x]and there was found no place for them.

12 And I saw the dead, [y]small and great, stand before God; [z]and the books were opened: and another [a]book was opened, which is the book of life:

and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, [a]according to their works.

13 And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; [b]and death and [1]hell delivered up the dead which were in them: [c]and they were judged every man according to their works.

14 And [d]death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. [e]This is the second death.

15 And whosoever was not found written in the book of life [f]was cast into the lake of fire.

CHAPTER 21.

1 A new heaven and a new earth 10 The heavenly Jerusalem, with a full description thereof

AND [g]I saw a new heaven and a new earth: [h]for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea.

2 And I John saw [i]the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared [k]as a bride adorned for her husband.

3 And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, [l]the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God.

4 [m]And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and [n]there shall be no more death, [o]neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.

5 And [p]he that sat upon the throne said, [q]Behold, I make all things new. And he said unto me, Write: for [r]these words are true and faithful.

6 And he said unto me, [s]It is done. [t]I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. [u]I will give unto him that is athirst of the fountain of the water of life freely.

7 He that overcometh shall inherit [2]all things; and [x]I will be his God, and he shall be my son.

8 [y]But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in [z]the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death.

9 And there came unto me one of [a]the seven angels which had the seven vials full of the seven last plagues, and talked with me, saying, Come hither, I will shew thee [b]the bride, the Lamb's wife.

10 And he carried me away [c]in the spirit to a great and high mountain, and shewed me [d]that great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God,

11 [h]Having the glory of God: and her light was like unto a stone most precious, even like a jasperstone, clear as crystal;

12 And had a wall great and high, and had [i]twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written thereon, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel:

13 [k]On the east three gates; on the north three gates; on the south three gates; and on the west three gates.

14 And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and [l]in them the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

15 And he that talked with me [m]had a golden reed to measure the city, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof.

16 And the city lieth foursquare, and the length is as large as the breadth: and he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs. The length and the breadth and the height of it are equal.

17 And he measured the wall thereof, an hundred and forty and four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of the angel.

18 And the building of the wall of it was of jasper: and the city was pure gold, like unto clear glass.

19 [n]And the foundations of the wall of the city were garnished with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third a chalcedony; the fourth, an emerald;

20 The fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolyte; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, a topaz; the tenth, a chrysoprasus; the eleventh, a jacinth; the twelfth, an amethyst.

21 And the twelve gates were twelve pearls; every several gate was of one pearl: [o]and the street of the city was pure gold, as it were transparent glass.

22 [p]And I saw no temple therein: for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are the temple of it.

23 [q]And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof.

24 [r]And the nations of them which are saved shall walk in the light of it: and the kings of the earth do bring their glory and honour into it.

25 [s]And the gates of it shall not be shut at all by day: for [t]there shall be no night there.

26 [u]And they shall bring the glory and honour of the nations into it.

27 And [x]there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lamb's [c] book of life.

CHAPTER 22.

1 The river of the water of life. 2 The tree of life. 6 The light of the city of God is himself. 18 Nothing may be added to the word of God, nor taken therefrom.

AND he shewed me [a] a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb.

2 [b] In the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river, was there [c] the tree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and yielded her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were [d] for the healing of the nations.

3 And [e] there shall be no more curse: [f] but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it; and his servants shall serve him.

4 And [g] they shall see his face; and [h] his name shall be in their foreheads.

5 [i] And there shall be no night there: and they need no candle, neither light of the sun; for [k] the Lord God giveth them light: [l] and they shall reign for ever and ever.

6 And he said unto me, [m] These sayings are faithful and true: and the Lord God of the holy prophets [n] sent his angel to shew unto his servants the things which must shortly be done.

7 [o] Behold, I come quickly: [p] blessed is he that keepeth the sayings of the prophecy of this book.

8 And I John saw these things, and heard them. And when I had heard and seen, [q] I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel which shewed me these things.

9 Then saith he unto me, [r] See thou do it not: for I am thy fellowservant, and of thy brethren the prophets, and of them which keep the sayings of this book: worship God.

10 [s] And he saith unto me, Seal not the sayings of the prophecy of this book: [t] for the time is at hand.

11 [u] He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still.

12 [v] And, behold, I come quickly; and [w] my reward is with me, [x] to give every man according as his work shall be.

13 [y] I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last.

14 [z] Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they may have right [aa] to the tree of life, [ab] and may enter in through the gates into the city.

15 For [ac] without are [ad] dogs, and sorcerers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loveth and maketh a lie.

16 [ae] I Jesus have sent mine angel to testify unto you these things in the churches. [af] I am the root and the offspring of David, and [ag] the bright and morning star.

17 And the Spirit and [ah] the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. [ai] And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.

18 For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, [aj] If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book:

19 And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, [ak] God shall take away his part [1] out of the book of life, and out of [al] the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book.

20 He which testifieth these things saith, [am] Surely I come quickly. [an] Amen. [ao] Even so, come, Lord Jesus.

21 [ap] The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.
